A Message to the Media

and Chief of Operations

On behalf of the players, tournaments, sponsors, volunteers and our management team, welcome to the 2013 PGA TOUR season.

We appreciate and respect the media's role in bringing our game closer to the fans. Our communications staff looks forward to delivering the best possible service to you in 2013.

The 2012 PGA TOUR season marked the sixth year of the FedExCup, the TOUR's season-long points competition that has provided a meaningful conclusion to the golf season. During the FedExCup Playoffs, Rory McIlroy took home two victories (Deutsche Bank Championship and BMW Championship), but Brandt Snedeker claimed the FedExCup, thanks to a victory at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola.

On the strength of his four victories, including the PGA Championship, McIlroy was voted 2012 PGA TOUR Player of the Year by his peers. Rory was one of 15 different players under age 30 to win on TOUR in 2012, assuring the competition inside the ropes is in good hands for years to come.

The return of a healthy Tiger Woods was another significant storyline in 2012. Winless since 2009, Tiger won three events and was among the leaders in the FedExCup standings throughout the season. Among the wins were his 73rd and 74th that tied and passed Jack Nicklaus for second all-time.

Off the course, the PGA TOUR and its tournaments returned charitable giving to pre-recession record levels, with more than $122 million generated for worthy causes. The First Tee completed its successful Campaign for 10 Million Young People that will sustain The First Tee network while allowing opportunity for enhanced and future programs.

The 2013 PGA TOUR Season features 40 tournaments to be contested over a period of 37 weeks. The season begins once again with the Hyundai Tournament of Champions and will conclude with the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, the fourth and final event in the FedExCup Playoffs. One week later, Jack Nicklaus' Muirfield Village Golf Club (Dublin, Ohio) will host the 10th playing of The Presidents Cup, with Fred Couples (U.S.) and Nick Price (International) serving as captains.

Several significant changes to the PGA TOUR landscape will take place during the 2013 calendar year.

Two weeks after the 2013 Season concludes, the TOUR will embark on its 2013-14 season, beginning with the Frys.com Open. The non-calendar year season will include, for the first time, official-money events in Malaysia and China. This year-round schedule will give the season a definitive end at the TOUR Championship by Coca Cola, allow all official-money events to receive FedExCup points for the first time and further assist in growing the game on a global basis.

For the first time in 2013, the Web.com Tour will be the direct pathway to the PGA TOUR. The 25 Web.com Tour's leading money-winners will be guaranteed cards at the end of the season. Twenty-five additional cards will go to those players who earn the most cumulative money in the four Finals events.

The debut of PGA TOUR Canada in 2013 gives the TOUR further geographic integration throughout the Americas in concert with PGA TOUR Latinoamérica. These Tours provide players in those regions a pathway to the Web.com Tour, which will in turn lead to access to the PGA TOUR.

Again, thank you for your continued coverage of the PGA TOUR. We look forward to working with you throughout the 2013 season.

Sincerely,

Timothy W. Finchem

PGA TOUR Overview

The name of our organization is the PGA TOUR, a tax-exempt membership group of professional golfers that plays approximately 100 official-money tournaments on five tours—the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour, Web.com Tour, PGA TOUR Latinoamérica and PGA TOUR Canada. Our headquarters are located in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla., southeast of Jacksonville.

We should be referred to as the PGA TOUR or TOUR (on second reference), but not the PGA, as we are a different organization than the PGA of America. The PGA is the Professional Golfers' Association of America, a membership organization for the nation's club professionals. The PGA runs the PGA Championship, Senior PGA Championship and Ryder Cup Matches, among other championships. The PGA headquarters are located in Palm Beach Gardens, Fla.

The PGA TOUR and PGA of America were affiliated until 1968, when the tournament players, a small subset of the total PGA membership, broke away to form the Tournament Players Division and gain more control of their finances and tournament schedule. The Tournament Players Division was renamed the PGA TOUR in 1975.

Two other American golf organizations are involved in men's professional tournament play, independent of the tour but with their marquee events included on the TOUR schedule as non-Tour co-sponsored tournaments. The United States Golf Association (USGA), with headquarters in Far Hills, N.J., oversees the national championships (U.S. Open, U.S. Senior Open, U.S. Amateur, U.S. Women's Amateur, etc.) and administers the Rules of Golf, among other duties. The Augusta (Ga.) National Golf Club plays host to the Masters Tournament. The Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Scotland, oversees the British Open and administers the world's golf rules jointly with the USGA.

PGA TOUR

The PGA TOUR is the world's foremost golf Tour, with 2013 official-money events from January through September. This year is the seventh season of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition culminating with the FedExCup Playoffs.
TV: CBS, NBC, Golf Channel, ESPN

CHAMPIONS TOUR

The Champions Tour continues to combine extremely competitive golf for champions of the game age 50 and older, with a fan-friendly platform that promotes "inside the ropes" game improvement for its fans. The Charles Schwab Cup, a season-long, points-based competition, enters its 11th season.
TV: CBS, NBC, Golf Channel, ESPN, ESPN2

WEB.COM TOUR

The Web.com Tour is the official proving ground of the PGA TOUR. Through 2012, former Web.com Tour players have won 345 PGA TOUR titles. Two-thirds of the PGA TOUR members in 2012 had Web.com Tour roots. Beginning in 2013, the Web.com Tour becomes the pathway to the PGA TOUR, with all 50 TOUR cards coming via the Web.com Tour.
TV: Golf Channel
Competition Awards: Jack Nicklaus Award (Player of the Year), 50 PGA TOUR cards awarded

PGA TOUR Latinoamérica

PGA TOUR Latinoamérica is a professional golf tour created in 2012 by the PGA TOUR in collaboration with the Tour de Las Americas, promoters and National Golf Federations. The inaugural 2012 season featured 11 tournaments between September and December in seven countries in the Latin American region: Mexico, Colombia, Brazil, Argentina, Peru, the Dominican Republic and Puerto Rico. The top-five money-winners from the PGA TOUR Latinoamérica order of merit earn Web.com Tour status for the following season.

PGA TOUR Canada

PGA TOUR Canada (formerly known as the Canadian Tour) is a professional golf Tour played across Canada. Since its inception as the Peter Jackson Tour, in 1971, the Canadian Tour has evolved into a high-caliber, coast-to-coast training ground for professionals. Its alumni include not only the game's Canadian legends but also many prominent, international players who have collectively won 113 PGA TOUR titles through 2012. A minimum of eight 72-hole stroke play events, with purses of at least $150,000, will take place across the country beginning in June 2013. The top-five money winners from PGA TOUR Canada order of merit earn Web.com Tour status for the following season.

FedExCup Playoffs

Television coverage subject to change.

2013 Structural Changes

VERNACULAR

- The Playoffs officially become the FedExCup Playoffs (with new logo).
- There should be no more reference to the Regular Season.
- The upcoming season is the 2013 PGA TOUR Season.
- Once the schedule begins to bridge calendar years, the season reference will include both years, as in: the 2013-2014 PGA TOUR Season.
- Reference to a specific tournament will still be by the calendar year in which it is played.
- There no longer will be a "Fall Series" on the PGA TOUR; those tournaments should be referred to as "season-opening events."
- The final four events on the Web.com Tour are the Web.com Tour Finals, ending with the Web.com Tour Championship at TPC Sawgrass.

STRUCTURAL – PGA TOUR

- The 2013 PGA TOUR Season has 36 events before the Playoffs, one less than 2012 due to the Mayakoba Golf Classic moving to its own unencumbered fall date, in the 2013-14 PGA TOUR Season.
- The three remaining additional events, played the same weeks as certain major championships and World Golf Championships, will offer a slight increase in FedExCup points (winners receive 300 points, vs. 250 in 2012).
- The off week during the FedExCup Playoffs falls between the second and third events (rather than the third and fourth).
- The 2013 PGA TOUR Season ends in late September at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola.
- The 2013-14 PGA TOUR Season officially begins three weeks later, with the season-opening events awarding full FedExCup points.
- The CIMB Classic and World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions become official events on the PGA TOUR (official victory, full FedExCup points, official money, winners qualify for Hyundai Tournament of Champions).
- Medical extensions for the 2013-14 season (injured during the 2013 season) will be based on FedExCup points as well as money. Player points and money will be combined from 2013 and 2013-14 to see if players reach the previous season's top 125. Only FedExCup points will be used for the top 150 and top 200. Their rankings within the category will be based on their average-finish position on the FedExCup points list.

STRUCTURAL – WEB.COM TOUR

- The Web.com Tour becomes the path for the PGA TOUR's 50 new membership cards.
- The top-25 players on the money list for the Web.com Tour Regular Season will earn cards but must play the Finals for positioning.
- The Web.com Tour Finals will determine an additional 25 cards, based on cumulative earnings in those events, as well as the positioning of all 50 cards.
  - The Web.com Tour Finals will coincide with the timeframe of the FedExCup Playoffs, with the last event ending the week after the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola.
  - The field makeup for the Finals will include the top-75 players from the Web.com Tour money list, PGA TOUR members who are Nos. 126-200 on the FedExCup points list following the Wyndham Championship and non-members who would have earned enough FedExCup points to place them Nos. 126-200 on the official FedExCup points list.
  - The Web.com Tour Regular Season's leading money-winner and the leading money-winner in the Web.com Tour Finals will be fully exempt for the PGA TOUR and will receive an invitation to THE PLAYERS Championship.
- Those in the top 125 from the previous season's FedExCup points list becomes a primary eligibility category for exempt status on the PGA TOUR. The 50 players who earn their membership through the Web.com Tour follow the top-125 (and other exempt categories) as is currently the case. The top-125 money category will remain for access into standard, open events only.
- The Qualifying Tournament will award cards solely to the Web.com Tour.
- The top-five players from PGA TOUR Latinoamérica and PGA TOUR Canada will be awarded playing privileges on the Web.com Tour, with the leading money-winner from each receiving fully exempt status.

ONE-TIME CHANGES FOR THE 2013 SHORTENED SEASON

- In an effort to maximize playing opportunities on the PGA TOUR for the Qualifying Tournament/Web.com Tour category in 2013, a number of changes have been made on a one-time only basis, including field-size increases at certain events, adjustments to the number of restricted sponsor exemptions and other miscellaneous changes.
- For PGA TOUR voting purposes only, players must play a minimum of 12 events (vs. 15 previously) to be able to vote for end-of-year player awards and Player Advisory Council Chairman, among other things.
- Other regulation changes have been made to appropriately match the shortened 2013 season and the 2013-14 non-calendar year season, including:
  - Qualifying Tournament/Web.com Tour money list category reshuffles:
    - After World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship
    - Monday of the Masters
    - Monday of THE PLAYERS Championship
    - Monday of the U.S. Open
    - Monday of the British Open
  - Past Champions/Team Winners/Veteran Members categories reshuffles:
    - Monday of the Masters
    - Monday of THE PLAYERS Championship
    - Monday of the U.S. Open
    - Monday of the British Open

Overview

The PGA TOUR entered a new era in 2007 with the introduction of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition offering $35 million in bonus money and culminating with the PGA TOUR's first-ever Playoff system. In 2013, the four Playoffs events will offer $32 million in prize money, meaning a total of $67 million is on the line over the four weeks of FedExCup Playoff competition.

Over the span of 37 weeks of competition, players vie to become the FedExCup champion, which distinguishes the one player who not only performs well during the 36-tournament PGA TOUR Season but also excels through the pressure of the four-event FedExCup Playoffs. Tiger Woods won the inaugural FedExCup in 2007 and the $10-million top prize and won for a second time in 2009. Others to hoist the FedExCup trophy include Vijay Singh (2008), Jim Furyk (2010), Bill Haas (2011) and most recently Brandt Snedeker (2012).

During the PGA TOUR Season, TOUR members earn points based on their performances, with a strong emphasis placed on winning and high finishes. Once the PGA TOUR Season concludes, the top-125 players advance to the Playoffs, a series of four $8-million tournaments offering quintuple points relative to PGA TOUR Season events.

The Playoffs feature a progressive cut, beginning with The Barclays in New York (125 players), continuing with the Deutsche Bank Championship near Boston (100 players) and the BMW Championship outside Chicago (70 players). A reset takes place, seeding the top-30 players for the culminating TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola in Atlanta, where the FedExCup champion is crowned.

The new 2013 PGA TOUR schedule divides the golf season into two parts:

1. PGA TOUR Season (33 weeks)
2. FedExCup Playoffs (4 weeks)

1. FedExCup
PGA TOUR Season

The 2013 PGA TOUR Season consists of 36 events in 33 weeks from the beginning of January at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions in Hawaii through mid-August at the Wyndham Championship in Greensboro, N.C. Points are awarded at four levels:

- Official PGA TOUR events played during the PGA TOUR Season each award 500 FedExCup points to the winner.
- The Masters Tournament, THE PLAYERS Championship, U.S. Open, British Open and the PGA Championship award 600 FedExCup points to the winner.
- World Golf Championships events award 550 FedExCup points to the winner.
- Additional events (played the same week as other tournaments) award 300 FedExCup points to the winner.

The PGA TOUR Season points standings will carry over to the FedExCup Playoffs for the FedExCup.

FedExCup PGA TOUR

The FedExCup Playoffs consist of four events immediately following the 2013 PGA TOUR Season—The Barclays, Deutsche Bank Championship, BMW Championship and the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola. The PGA TOUR Season points standings determine the top-125 players who qualify for the first event, The Barclays. Each playoff event offers 2,500 points (quintuple the 2013 PGA TOUR Season). The second event, the Deutsche Bank Championship near Boston, will have a 100-player field. The third tournament, the BMW Championship near Chicago, will have 70 players (with no cut). The finale, the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola in Atlanta, will be comprised of the top-30 qualifiers following the BMW Championship.

Following a points reset, those players will compete for the FedExCup with one to be crowned the FedExCup champion. Each tournament will have an $8 million purse in addition to the $35-million FedExCup bonus pool.

Note: In case of ties, reset points will be distributed between the tying positions using the same methods for dealing with ties during events—the total points for each of the tying positions are divided equally among all players in the tying position. In the event that a player who qualifies for a Playoff event chooses not to play in that event, there will be no alternates and the field will be shortened. FedExCup points subject to change.

A Brief History of the PGA TOUR

It is not easy to pinpoint the exact beginning of the PGA TOUR. Certainly, professionals have competed against each other from the earliest days of the game in the United States.

In 1895, 10 professional golfers and one amateur played in the first U.S. Open in Newport, R.I. Shortly thereafter, tournaments began to pop up across the country, including the Western Open in 1899. But this was not "tour" golf. The events lacked continuity.

Interest in the game, however, continued to grow. American professionals were rapidly improving. When John McDermott became the first American-born player to win the U.S. Open in 1911, interest in the game blossomed. That interest became enthusiasm in 1913 when Englishmen Harry Vardon and Ted Ray came to the United States to play an exhibition tour and compete in the U.S. Open. When 20-year-old amateur Francis Ouimet defeated the pair in a playoff for the Open at Brookline, Mass., golf became front-page news and a game for everyone.

In the early 1920s, a series of tournaments was held on the West Coast, in Texas and Florida. These events were held in the winter, and the golfers played their way east and up to Pinehurst, N.C., in the spring. By the middle of the decade, the tour was doing relatively well—offering $77,000 in total prize money.

The first "playing pros" organization was formed in 1932. Two years earlier, Bob Harlow had been named manager of the PGA Tournament Bureau. The tour became more structured following World War II and exploded in the late 1950s and early 1960s. When Arnold Palmer, televised golf and President Dwight D. Eisenhower arrived on the scene in the late 1950s, the eyes of the world were on golf. This exposure inspired millions to try the game.

Most golf historians trace the "formal" beginning of the PGA TOUR to late 1968, when the "Tournament Players Division" split from the PGA of America and hired Joe Dey as its first commissioner. That organization became the modern-day PGA TOUR. Dey served from early 1969 through February 28, 1974, and was succeeded by Deane R. Beman on March 1, 1974.

During Beman's administration, the value of tournament purses escalated at an unprecedented rate. PGA TOUR assets grew from $730,000 in 1974 to more than $200 million, and total revenues increased from $3.9 million to $229 million in 1993.

Tim Finchem, previously the TOUR's Deputy Commissioner and Chief Operating Officer, became the TOUR's third commissioner on June 1, 1994. In 1995, Finchem undertook a restructuring program designed to strengthen the PGA TOUR's core business, which is its competitions, to expand the TOUR's international scope and prepare it to enter the 21st century. In 1996, Finchem helped spearhead formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours, as golf's five world-governing bodies laid the groundwork for taking competition into the next millennium. In 1997, the Federation announced the World Golf Championships, which made their debut in 1999 with three events—today called the Accenture Match Play Championship, Bridgestone Invitational and Cadillac Championship. The Federation added the HSBC Champions in China in 2009. The 2007 season marked the inception of the FedExCup, a season-long points race with four Playoff events to conclude the season and crown the FedExCup champion.

Since 1938, PGA TOUR events have donated more than $1.8 billion to charity, reaching the $1-billion milestone late in the 2005 season.

The competitive scope of the PGA TOUR also is much broader today. The Champions Tour, in its 33rd season, has been labeled the most successful senior sports venture in history. Fans and television viewers are able to get closer to the game on this Tour, both on site and with instructional platforms. The Charles Schwab Cup will be contested for the 13th time in 2013.

The Web.com Tour has been recognized as the "official proving ground" for the PGA TOUR, as two out of three players on the 2012 PGA TOUR has Web.com Tour roots. Among the former players on the Web.com Tour who have gone on to star on the PGA TOUR include David Duval, Tom Lehman, Jim Furyk, Ernie Els, Bubba Watson and Keegan Bradley. Through 2012, former Web.com Tour players have won 345 PGA TOUR events.

When the PGA TOUR opened TPC Sawgrass in 1980, it introduced the era of stadium golf and record-breaking attendance. Owned and/or operated by the TOUR, the TPC Network courses are the only major-league sports venues owned by the players themselves.

The successful debut of the FedExCup in 2007 was concluded by the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup, with Tiger Woods taking the inaugural FedExCup title. In the five subsequent years, Vijay Singh (2008), Woods (2009), Jim Furyk (2010), Bill Haas (2011) and Brandt Snedeker (2012) have claimed the season-ending FedExCup crown. Snedeker, who entered the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola fifth in the FedExCup standings, took a share of the third-round lead with Justin Rose after a 6-under-par 64. He then clinched the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola and the FedExCup title with a final-round 68 to defeat runner-up Rose by three strokes.

The PGA TOUR in 2013 will see a marked change in the schedule, as the official season will conclude for the first time in the FedExCup era at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola. With the elimination of the PGA TOUR Qualifying School, the four-tournament Web.com Tour Finals will be contested simultaneously during the Playoffs, the field consisting of Web.com Tour and PGA TOUR Players vying for TOUR cards in 2013-14.

Two weeks later, the TOUR will embark on its 2013-14 FedExCup Season, with six official events in the fall, with the balance of the 2013-14 PGA TOUR Season and FedExCup Playoff events completed during the 2014 calendar year.

Charity: "Together, anything's possible"

Together, anything's possible.®

Making a positive impact on the communities where PGA TOUR tournaments are held and players live has become an even larger focus in the golf organization's charitable mission with the "Together, anything's possible" platform.

The charitable effort was celebrated in late 2005 when the PGA TOUR and its tournaments reached the "Drive to a Billion" milestone. That cumulative effect, since the first donation in 1938, has reached more than $1.8 billion entering 2013—including more than $1 billion in the last 15 years—and is the cornerstone of "Together, anything's possible." The forecast is for the second billion-dollar mark to be reached in 2014.

During THE PLAYERS Championship in May 2009, the TOUR unveiled its renewed commitment to charitable efforts aimed at further energizing and engaging all players, tournaments, sponsors, charities, volunteers and fans.

"The PGA TOUR has done a lot for charity over the years but only because of the passion for giving back shared by our players, tournaments, sponsors, charities, volunteers and fans," PGA TOUR Commissioner Tim Finchem said. "When we say, 'Together, anything's possible,' we mean that by rallying behind the common cause of charitable giving, we can create greater awareness and elevate our overall impact, which is so important in these difficult economic times."

A full-scale launch of "Together, anything's possible" began in 2010.

PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Web.com Tour events annually benefit more than 3,000 charities and countless individuals worldwide. Research shows that the majority of the funds raised each year are directly funneled back into the local market, so while there is not an "official charity of the PGA TOUR," there are many who benefit from the TOUR's one goal of "Giving Back."

STRUCTURE

Unlike any other professional sports organization, the PGA TOUR relies on more than 100,000 volunteers a year to run its events, and most of the 100-plus tournaments are structured as non-profit organizations designed to donate 100 percent of net proceeds to local charities. Beneficiaries include hospitals, youth-development organizations, growth-of-the-game programs and food banks. In addition, military support and fundraising for natural-disaster relief are apparent.

"Together, anything's possible" aims to organize the beneficiaries into a national network. The TOUR and its sanctioned tournaments will connect with each of these charities to begin communicating details of this platform.

TOURNAMENTS

With the "Together, anything's possible" platform, the TOUR will assist tournaments in maximizing their charitable impact. The TOUR will work with tournaments to benchmark specific charity initiatives where feasible and expand proven activities across all Tours.

In The Presidents Cup, there is no purse, yet revenues are divided into equal shares that participating players and captains designate for charities of their choice, totaling nearly $27 million in the nine playings of the biennial tournament through the 2011 event.

PLAYERS

Under the "Together, anything's possible" platform, the TOUR has committed resources to further promote each player's charitable activities, whether through television, advertising, PGATOUR.COM and video or new media support that will enable fans to get involved in their favorite players' charities. The TOUR offers assistance to both players, who are currently engaged in charitable activities, as well as those who are interested in getting started.

"I am very excited that the TOUR is helping us all make a bigger impact on our communities," said David Toms. "Two days after Hurricane Katrina hit, I sent an email to about 200 people and asked if they would be interested in supporting the cause. I thought we would be able to raise a little money and help a few more families. The response to that simple email was overwhelming. We had to get volunteers to help answer the phones, and within hours of an interview I did during a PGA TOUR broadcast, over 1,000 online donations crashed our system. It wasn't long before we had raised more than $1.5 million. That is an example of how we, as players, can help our communities and charities in times of need. This charity platform is an asset to all players who want to pitch in and make a difference."

The success stories over the last three years are numerous.

In June 2010, Jim McGlothlin, a member of the PGA TOUR Golf Course Properties Board, organized "The Big 3 for the Mountain Mission Kids," a one-day tournament featuring Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Gary Player. This event, which benefited the Mountain Mission School, raised an astounding $15.2 million in a single day.

In 2011, country music star Darius Rucker wrote a song "Together, Anything is Possible," in which proceeds from downloads were distributed to PGA TOUR Charities, The First Tee and Birdies for the Brave.

Phil Mickelson and his wife, Amy, began a Birdies for the Brave program in 2004 as a way to support charities that build homes for disabled troops, provide educational opportunities for the spouses and children of servicemen and women killed in action and other avenues of support. In December 2012, the Mickelsons, along with Jim and Cathy Justice, owners of The Greenbrier Resort, hosted the Birdies for the Brave Pro-Am and Gala at TPC Sawgrass in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla., to benefit nine military homefront groups. The Pro-Am participants included President William J. Clinton, celebrities, artists, military dignitaries and PGA TOUR, LPGA and Champions Tour players, including Mickelson, Jack Nicklaus, Vijay Singh, Peter Jacobsen and Larry Nelson. The weekend's festivities also included a charity concert featuring Rucker and Vince Gill.

Ernie Els was one of the players featured in 2012 as he and his wife, Liezl, continued to work to promote autism awareness and fund research. The Els Center of Excellence is now moving from concept to reality with groundbreaking of the facility expected to take place in 2013. The Els Center for Excellence will be dedicated to educating autistic children and funding research into the causes of autism and developing new treatments for it.

In 2013, the PGA TOUR Wives Association will celebrate its 25th anniversary through a variety of events and activities, including the creation of a book commemorating the 25-year history, as told through the personal stories of TOUR families. Since its incorporation, the Association has supported children's charities across the country by raising money and performing a myriad of services, ranging from Habitat for Humanity builds to cooking in soup kitchens to fitting children for glasses in communities where tournaments are held.

FANS

The TOUR has developed a call-to-action plan that allows fans to rally behind charities supported by players and tournaments, allowing them to enhance lives by giving of their time or making contributions.

While many tournaments already have an effective outreach to their fans, the TOUR has developed an overarching communications plan that adds support on a national level. The TOUR launched PGATOUR.COM/together in 2010 so fans can learn more about the charitable involvement of their favorite players, tournaments or charities. This site enables fans to donate money and identify volunteer opportunities that directly benefit local charities. The TOUR has invested substantial internal resources, including an ad campaign, to promote the call to action.

The first three years of "Together, anything's possible" has displayed the breadth and depth of the TOUR's collective charitable efforts, with the charity website featuring hundreds of stories and videos about the wonderful work being done in communities around the globe.

THE PLAYERS Championship and TPC Sawgrass

OVERVIEW

When the strongest field in golf takes on the game's greatest stadium, fans flock to the Florida sun to experience one of golf's most prestigious tournaments—THE PLAYERS Championship.

Each May, THE PLAYERS showcases excitement and intensity, not to mention the beauty of one of the most recognized courses in the world—THE PLAYERS Stadium Course at TPC Sawgrass. THE PLAYERS brings the world's top competitors to this superior, demanding golf course and offers a fan experience unlike any other, creating one of the most dynamic, compelling events in all of golf.

HISTORY

Since 1974, when THE PLAYERS was first contested at Atlanta Country Club, the era's best players have battled to take home the trophy. It's fitting that the event's inaugural winner was none other than Jack Nicklaus, the World Golf Hall of Famer who captured a tournament-record three PLAYERS titles in the first five years (1974, 1976 and 1978).

THE PLAYERS moved to Ponte Vedra Beach in 1977 and five years later, the PGA TOUR's flagship event found a new home at TPC Sawgrass, Pete Dye's masterpiece and golf's original stadium. Jerry Pate won that first year and celebrated his 1982 triumph by diving into the lake next to the 18th hole, taking Dye and then-PGA TOUR Commissioner Deane Beman with him.

That memorable moment has been followed by many others, including Hal Sutton's "Be the right club today" shot from the fairway on the final hole to defeat Tiger Woods in 2000 and win his second PLAYERS title, and Woods' "better than most" putt from 60-plus feet during the third round of his 2001 victory.

THE PLAYERS has evolved into one of the most prestigious events in golf. Local winners Calvin Peete, Mark McCumber, David Duval and Fred Funk have hoisted THE PLAYERS trophy, as have some of the game's most-recognizable names, including Davis Love III, Greg Norman, Fred Couples, Phil Mickelson and Sergio Garcia. In 2013, THE PLAYERS celebrates its 40th anniversary.

GOLF COURSE

Home to the PGA TOUR and THE PLAYERS Championship, THE PLAYERS Stadium Course at TPC Sawgrass has established itself as one of the premier tournament venues in all of golf. A player must display a well-rounded, complete game and triumph over one of the sport's most daunting finishes in order to become THE PLAYERS champion. All of that drama, combined with a setting unequalled in golf, creates an electrifying atmosphere that makes THE PLAYERS a must-see, must-attend event.

The famed PLAYERS Stadium Course was designed by renowned golf-course architect Pete Dye. The course's final three holes have evolved into the greatest risk-reward finish in golf, highlighted by the iconic 17th island green, one of the most recognized and photographed holes in the game. In 2006, TPC Sawgrass completed a multi-million dollar renovation designed to elevate THE PLAYERS Stadium Course to the highest professional level for the best players in the world during THE PLAYERS Championship, as well as provide resort golfers with PGA TOUR-quality playing conditions year-round.

CLUBHOUSE

Following the 2006 PLAYERS Championship, heavy equipment replaced golf carts on the greens as crews started the demolition process of the 25-year-old clubhouse. The changes, completed in May 2007, have elevated the reputation of the TPC Sawgrass as a world-class resort.

Now standing as one of most iconic spots on the course, aside from the famous 17th hole, the TPC Sawgrass clubhouse is an expansive 77,000 square-foot Mediterranean Revival Style building, reminiscent of the history and architectural heritage of Northeast Florida. The clubhouse blends elegant old-world charm with modern-day comforts and state-of-the-art technology, providing a one-of-a-kind setting for meetings and events of all sizes.

Fronted by a terraced event lawn offering panoramic views of the ninth and 18th holes, the clubhouse is preceded by a magnificent Walk of Fame entryway, featuring displays depicting the history and legends of the PGA TOUR and THE PLAYERS Championship.

CHARITY

Regardless of the name on the trophy at the end of THE PLAYERS each year, the true winner will always be charities in the local community. Thanks to the support of the Northeast Florida community and the tournament's Proud Partner—PwC—THE PLAYERS has generated more than $52.8 million to First Coast charities over the years, including a record $6.5 million in 2012.

In 2011, THE PLAYERS announced a committed goal of generating $50 million for youth-related charities over the next 10 years. The focus of this goal is to improve the opportunities for the community's youth through education, character development and health and fitness. THE PLAYERS has already made strides towards this goal through scholarship endowments at both the University of North Florida and Florida State College at Jacksonville for first-generation students and establishment of THE PLAYERS Center for Child Health in partnership with the local children's hospital in Jacksonville, Wolfson Children's Hospital.

Making this positive impact on the community, however, would not be possible without the leadership of the tournament's Red Coats and the hard work and dedication of the tremendous volunteer force. Nearly 2,000 volunteers give of their time and talents each year to help stage this first-class event. From parking cars, shuttling players and staffing the hospitality venues to keeping scores and statistics, volunteers at THE PLAYERS touch every aspect of the tournament.

Tournament volunteers not only help ensure a world-class event, but each year they also create new hope and opportunity in their local communities. This effort continues to prove that giving back is at the heart of the PGA TOUR.

REACH

Even if they aren't at TPC Sawgrass in May, golf fans from around the world enjoy THE PLAYERS Championship on air, on radio and on line. Whether it is the 22 hours of high-definition, limited-interruption telecasts on Golf Channel and NBC Sports, four-round coverage of LIVE@ THE PLAYERS streaming on PGATOUR.COM, or wall-to-wall radio coverage on SIRIUSXM PGA TOUR Radio, fans soak in THE PLAYERS action and excitement, from Thursday's opening round to the final putt Sunday.

And with the support of the tournament's Proud Partner—PwC—viewers of nearly 600 million households throughout 224 countries and territories enjoy THE PLAYERS telecast with limited-commercial interruptions, making this a special, global championship.

RESEARCH

An independent, four-year, longitudinal research study confirmed The First Tee's ability to successfully teach life skills and The First Tee's Nine Core Values to youth participating in the Life Skills Experience, the educational curriculum delivered at all chapters. The study confirms young people learn and exhibit these life skills on the golf course, as well as in school, at home and other settings.

Highlights of the research study include:

- Youth credited The First Tee for their ability to transfer many of the life skills they learned in golf to school and other areas of their lives, such as managing emotions, setting goals and resolving conflicts.
- Fifty-seven percent of youth surveyed across three years credited The First Tee for their meeting-and-greetings skills, and 52 percent credited the program for their ability to appreciate diversity.
- During personal interviews, 78 percent of interviewees described their ability to transfer life skills through specific examples and stories.
- In all four years, school was unanimously identified as a setting in which participants transferred life skills. Job/college, friends and out-of-school activities also showed an increase in life-skills transfer.
- After three consecutive years of participation in The First Tee, 73 percent reported high confidence in their abilities to do well academically, and 82 percent felt confident in their social skills with peers.
- As it relates to golf, The First Tee youth surveyed reported above-average confidence (2.9 on a four-point scale) in their golf skills after participating in the program for three years. Approximately half of all participants surveyed reported high confidence in their golf abilities.

About the Commissioner

Tim Finchem
PGA TOUR Commissioner

Tim Finchem began his 19th year as commissioner of the PGA TOUR in June 2012. From the time Finchem joined the TOUR management team, he has played a key role in strengthening the PGA TOUR's position as one of the most successful, well-respected sports organizations in the world, and his leadership has helped foster the growth of the game, both domestically and internationally.

During his tenure, Finchem has greatly expanded the earnings opportunities for PGA TOUR players. The TOUR, through its tournaments and sponsors, has dramatically escalated tournament purses and grown total revenues at an unprecedented rate. Since Finchem became commissioner in 1994, the PGA TOUR and its tournaments have raised more than $1.5 billion for charitable organizations.

Under Finchem's leadership, The Presidents Cup was created in 1994, bringing together the world's best non-European players in team match-play competition against their American counterparts. After nine stagings, The Presidents Cup has grown to be one of the most highly anticipated events on golf's calendar. The 2013 event will be played at Muirfield Village Golf Club in Dublin, Ohio, while The Presidents Cup 2015 will be contested in South Korea.

Finchem has also been instrumental in the formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours and the World Golf Foundation. He has shown personal dedication to the success of The First Tee initiative, as he serves as chairman of The First Tee Board of Directors and in 2011 served as the co-chair of The First Tee Campaign for 10 Million Young People. It was announced on October 8, 2012 that individuals, corporations and foundations have provided more than $106.2 million in gifts and pledges in support of The First Tee Campaign for 10 Million Young People. From 1997 through 2011, The First Tee reached more than 6.5 million young people through its network, including 194 chapters offering programs at more than 700 golf facilities, 4,800 elementary schools and 120 U.S. military installations. Through 2017, The First Tee's goal is to reach 10 million additional young people and grow the network to 1,200 programming locations at golf facilities, 10,000 elementary schools and 350 other youth-serving locations.

An additional accomplishment during Finchem's tenure has been the development and introduction of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition that culminates with the FedExCup Playoffs. Since 2007, the FedExCup has brought an unparalleled level of late-season focus to and interest in the TOUR, as indicated by significant increases in television and online audiences, tournament attendance, sponsor activation and media coverage.

Born in Ottawa, Ill., on April 19, 1947, Finchem graduated from Princess Anne High School in Virginia Beach, Va. He attended the University of Richmond on a debate scholarship, receiving his bachelor of arts degree in 1969. He graduated from the University of Virginia law school in 1973. After practicing law in Virginia Beach for three years, Finchem served in the White House as deputy advisor to the President in the Office of Economic Affairs in 1978 and 1979. In the early 1980s, Finchem co-founded the National Strategies and Marketing Group in Washington, D.C.

Finchem is the recipient of the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America's Old Tom Morris Award for 2001, the PGA of America's Distinguished Service Award for 2002, the Dick Schaap Lifetime Achievement in Sports Award in 2005 and the 2010 Donald Ross Award from the American Society of Golf Course Architects.

Finchem and his wife, the former Holly Bachand, have four children and live in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla.

2012 SEASON:

Entered the FedExCup Playoffs ranked No. 112 in the standings but missed the cut at The Barclays to fail to advance to the Deutsche Bank Championship. It marked the first year in the six-year history of the Playoffs that he didn't advance to at least the BMW Championship (the third of four events)…Played a superb final round at the Mayakoba Golf Classic in late February and walked to the 72nd hole with a two-stroke lead. The duo alternately played seven extra holes at El Camaleon GC (Nos. 18 and 10), trading pars along the way, until he lost his approach on the par-3 10th to the right, chipped out and missed his par putt, giving Huh his first PGA TOUR title. Earlier in the day, he began his round by making five straight birdies on holes 2 through 6 and added three more against no bogeys

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISH:

T12—Mayakoba Golf Classic.

2012 SEASON:

Chang's China Bistro…Did a similar promotion in 2010, hitting shots from the roof of the 40-story Waterside Plaza in New York to a floating target in the East River. Participated in the event with World Golf Hall of Fame member Annika Sorenstam and Don Vickery, the first and only double-amputee Class A member of the PGA of America…Father, Butch, won twice while playing the PGA TOUR and was a two-time Champions Tour winner.

2012 SEASON:

Split time between the PGA TOUR and European Tour, making the cut in four of 10 starts on TOUR. Failed to crack the top 10 in any event, with T12 at the Mayakoba Golf Classic and T19 at the HP Byron Nelson Championship his best finishes.

PERSONAL:

Won a Nissan Altima Coupe with a hole-in-one at the 2007 Nissan Open on the par-3 14th hole during the third round. Immediately after the ace with a 7-iron from 176 yards, dove onto the car on display next to the tee box and eventually found his way onto a Nissan television commercial with the antic. Beem had watched Peter Jacobsen dive into a car after his ace in the Nissan Open 13 years ago. "I wish I could take full credit for making a fool of myself, but I stole that (from Peter Jacobsen). Jake had a convertible and hopped into it. I will never forget that. Today, I just saw the car and thought, might as well. I'll tell you the top of that hood was pretty warm, and the back is a little scratched up from my shoes."…Quit the game temporarily in 1995 and sold cellular phones and car stereo systems in Seattle. Watched fellow El Paso, Texas, resident J.P. Hayes win 1998 Buick Classic and gained renewed interest…Worked in pro shop at El Paso CC prior to joining TOUR…Father, Larry, retired as golf coach at New Mexico State in 2004.

2012 Children's Miracle Network Hospitals Classic.

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—Children's Miracle Network Hospitals Classic; T3—The Greenbrier Classic; T10—The McGladrey Classic.

2012 SEASON:

Made the cut in six of 18 Regular Season events. At No. 160 on the points list, failed to advance to the FedExCup Playoffs. Carded a career-best 62 in the second round of The Greenbrier Classic then added rounds of 67-67 to finish a then-career-best T3 at The Greenbrier Classic—his first top-25 on TOUR. At the end of the week, had seven of his last nine rounds on TOUR in the 60s. Previous-best round was a final-round, 4-under 66 at the Travelers Championship, leading to a then career-best T29…Closed with a 5-under 65 to finish T10 at The McGladrey Classic, his second top-10 finish of the season…Caught the attention of the sports world in November when he managed to fight his way through the second round of the Children's Miracle Network Hospitals Classic despite severe shortness of breath, heart palpitations and an elevated heart rate. Was forced to either sit or lie down in the grass in between shots on the inward nine at Disney World Friday. Managed to post an 8-under 64, good for a three-shot, 36-hole lead as he headed straight to the hospital by ambulance. The situation was determined to have been caused by extremely high levels of anxiety and stress. Though nothing was physically wrong, doctors still advised him not to continue playing. He did return to competition Saturday and Sunday without incident to post rounds of 71-69, good enough for a two-stroke win over Robert Garrigus and Matt Every. On Friday afternoon, described the scene as "certain I was going to die." On Sunday afternoon, he said "This is a dream come true." Television replayed many of the surreal images of him lying down in the rough during Friday's round, about which he was asked after the win. "Thank goodness they didn't have the Golf Channel in the hospital," he said. "I don't think I could have handled seeing myself like that."

PERSONAL:

Biggest thrill in golf was winning the 2002 U.S. Junior Amateur…Favorite college teams are Alabama and New Mexico. Favorite pro teams are the Arizona Cardinals and the Arizona Diamondbacks. Favorite TV show is "Hell's Kitchen." Favorite movies are any featuring Denzel Washington. Favorite entertainers are Snoop Dog and B.I.G. Favorite athlete to watch is Tiger Woods. Favorite cities to visit are San Diego and San Clemente, Calif. Favorite vacation spot is anywhere with a beach. Favorite gadget is his iPad…Would round out his dream foursome with Woods, Jennifer Aniston and Kobe Bryant…Bucket list includes being strapped to the wing of a bi-plane. He owns two motorcycles, a Harley-Davidson Ultra Classic Electric Glide and a Suzuki GSXR 750. Has reached 170 mph racing the Having qualified to play in the tournament, he walked up to Woods in Bethpage's dining room and told Woods how honored he was to have his name engraved on the same U.S. Junior Amateur trophy Woods had won. Says he's accomplished half of his goal, meeting Woods. Now he wants to play with him on the weekend…If there were a TV show made about him, he says it would be on the Speed Channel or "producers would have to create a death-wish channel for me."…His paternal grandparents were from Croatia… Supports The First Tee…Played one year of high school golf at Red Mountain High School in Mesa, Ariz., with current Web.com Tour player Aaron Watkins, a friend since childhood.

2012 SEASON:

It was his first top-10 since winning the 2010 Zurich Classic of New Orleans…At the True South Classic in July, led the field in Putting, needing just 96 putts to finish two strokes behind Scott Stallings for solo second at 22-under 266. His 96 putts were the fewest of the season up to that point on TOUR…In his first start in the fall, at the Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children Open, birdied half of his holes in the third round, good for a 7-under 64, en route to a T8. In four starts at TPC Summerlin, has never posted a round worse than par.

OTHER VICTORIES (1):
2003 Georgia Open.

2012 SEASON:
Capped off his year with a come-from-behind win at the Web.com Tour Championship and earned his PGA TOUR card for the 2013 season, doing so for the fourth time via the Web.com Tour. Shot a 6-under 65 in the final round at TPC Craig Ranch in McKinney, Texas, to erase a two-stroke deficit and win by two over James Hahn. Entered the week No. 44 on the money list and needed a win or solo second to join the top-25 money winners on the final list. Shot an opening 65 to join five others in a first-place tie. Rounds of 71-67 left him two shots back of 54-hole leader Justin Hicks. Got out of the gate in the final round quickly, with six birdies in his first 12 holes to take the lead from Hicks, who would stumble with a triple bogey at No. 14 to fall out of contention. Was unshakeable on the final day and hit 16 of 18 greens in regulation. First-place check for $180,000 vaulted him to No. 9 on the season-ending list as he joined 24 others headed to the TOUR in 2013. Finished the season No. 2 in Putting Average…First top-10 of the year came when he finished sixth in the Panama Claro Championship after opening with a bogey-free 65 in the first round…Added a second top-10, a T7, at the Stadion Classic at UGA…Became the first player in Web.com Tour history to record two double eagles in competition. Made his second albatross, at the Preferred Health Systems Wichita Open, eight years after his first—at the Albertsons Boise Open…Was T3 at the Cox Classic after a final-round 64 moved him up the leaderboard. Was in a group that featured a double eagle by Matt Hendrix on Friday, a hole-in-one by Jeff Cuzzort on Saturday and a hole-in-one by Jim Herman on Sunday. Joked after the round that he should go to the casino that night, saying, "I might not win, but the guy next to me will!"

PERSONAL:
Parents started him in golf. His father also played professional soccer...Says winning the 2012 Web.com Tour Championship and having his wife and son meet him on the 18th green following the victory is his biggest thrill in golf.

OTHER VICTORIES (1):

2011 Franklin Templeton Shootout [with Brendan Steele].

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational; T2—Northern Trust Open; T3—PGA Championship; T4—Shell Houston Open; T8—World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship.

2012 SEASON:

Made a clutch birdie putt on the 72nd hole to get into a three-man playoff at the Northern Trust Open, with Bill Haas and Phil Mickelson, an extra session he lost on the second playoff hole to Haas. Dropped to 2-1 in playoffs on TOUR. Led the field in Strokes Gained - Putting, gaining 9.513 strokes on the field. Joined Haas and Cameron Tringale atop the Total Putts category, with 103 on the week. Also led the field in Putts (Greens in Regulation), at 1.550. Did not record a three-putt all week, a year after three-putting the final hole to miss the cut at the 2011 Northern Trust Open…Playing in just his second official World Golf Championships event, entered the final round of the Cadillac Championship three strokes behind Bubba Watson. A hot start (including an eagle on No. 1), coupled with Watson's struggles, moved him into the lead at one point, but he stumbled with his finish, going bogey-par-bogey-double bogey on the final four holes to finish T8, with a 3-over 75…In his second start at the Shell Houston Open, posted four sub-par rounds to claim a share of fourth place. Made five of his 22 birdies on his front nine in the first round en route to a 5-under 67…Played in his first European Tour event not cosponsored by the PGA TOUR when he entered the Irish Open in late June. Missed the cut at Royal Portrush GC…Earned his third PGA TOUR victory, with a final-round, 6-under 64 at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational, erasing a tournament-record, four-stroke deficit to Jim Furyk (who double-bogeyed the 72nd hole) at the beginning of the final round to edge Furyk and Steve Stricker by one stroke. It marked the 11th come-from-behind win by at least four strokes on TOUR this season and was the 23rd comeback victory in the first 33 events. Added his name to the list of players under age 30 with three or more PGA TOUR victories (Dustin Johnson, six, Anthony Kim, three, Rory McIlroy, three and Webb Simpson, three) and became the third player (four times) to win the Bridgestone Invitational with four rounds in the 60s (Tiger Woods in 2000-01 and Vijay Singh in 2008). The victory made him the 10th player to capture both a World Golf Championships event and a major championship, joining Stewart Cink, Ernie Els, Martin Kaymer, Geoff Ogilvy, Singh, David Toms, Mike Weir and Woods. Led the field in Strokes Gained - Putting, with his 12.003 mark for the week nearly five strokes ahead of his nearest competitor in the category. The win came one year after he entered the final round of the Bridgestone Invitational in contention at the turn before a back-nine 41 left him with a T15 finish…Finished T3 in defense of his title at the PGA Championship on the strength of opening and closing rounds of 68. Was looking to become first player to win the PGA Championship in his first two starts…Missed the cut at The Barclays and was unable to make a charge in the Playoffs, finishing the season No. 21 in the FedExCup, one spot lower than his finish during his rookie season in 2011…Making his first start in the Ryder Cup, turned into one of the team's emotional leaders en route to an overall 3-1-0 record. Teamed with Mickelson to win their first three matches, highlighted by a Ryder Cup record 7-and-6 win over Luke Donald and Lee Westwood in Saturday's foursomes match… Just one year after carding four rounds in the 70s and finishing nearly last (17th out of 18) at the World Challenge, came backwith four rounds in the 60s for a runner-up finish in early December, just two strokes behind champion Graeme McDowell.

PERSONAL:

Is the nephew of LPGA great and World Golf Hall of Fame member Pat Bradley…Hosted a tournament to benefit the Vermont Disaster Flood Relief Fund in August 2012, staged at The Woodstock Inn and Resort, the course where he first played as a child…Turning professional is his biggest thrill in golf. Favorite professional teams are the Boston Celtics, Boston Red Sox and New England Patriots…Superstitions include always marking his ball with the coin head's up. PERSONAL:
Got his start in golf from his dad at age 3. Biggest thrill in golf is overcoming mental obstacles. Lists Gary Player, Tom Watson, Nick Faldo and his parents as his heroes. Was on the TV show "The Weakest Link" in 2001. Non-golf-related jobs held include knife salesman and membership director at a country club. He and his brother were named after Player and Lee Trevino. His two sons are named after Faldo and Sandy Lyle, whose given first name is Alexander. Favorite golf course is the Links of North Dakota. Would most like to play Bandon Dunes. Never travels without photos of his family…Favorite college team is the Auburn Tigers. Favorite professional team is Liverpool Football Club of the Premier League. Lucky charm is a five-pence coin to mark his ball. Wears light blue in the final round to match his eyes for photos. Favorite food is fresh, farm-grown fruit. Favorite athlete is Steven Gerrard, and his favorite cities are Sydney, Australia; London, England; Toronto, Ontario, Canada; San Francisco, Calif.; and Boise, Idaho. Would round out his dream foursome with Harry Vardon, Jack Nicklaus and Tiger Woods. Not many people know that he would rather score the winning goal for England in soccer's World Cup than win the British Open. Bucket list includes doing the Ashes Cricket Tour to Australia with the Barmy Army…Claims mid-life crisis resulted in the purchase of "very tight, white trousers."

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

2—Waste Management Phoenix Open; T8—Humana Challenge in partnership with the Clinton Foundation; T9—Hyundai Tournament of Champions; T10—Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial.

2012 SEASON:

Opened his season with a T9 at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions…Finished T8 at the Humana Challenge, with rounds of 65-63-70-71. Was tied for second entering the final round, three strokes behind winner Mark Wilson. Held the second-round co-lead with Mark Wilson and David Toms…Two weeks later, at the Waste Management Phoenix Open, claimed his third top-10 of the season in just his fourth start. Final-round, 5-under 66 earned him solo second-place honors. On Saturday, electrified the gallery at the famed, par-3 16th hole at TPC Scottsdale with an impromptu rap-singing session on the tee box with fellow Golf Boys music group member Bubba Watson…Closed with matching 2-under 68s to record his fourth top-10 finish in eight starts at the Crowne Plaza Invitational (T10). The others came in 2006 (T4), 2008 (fifth) and 2010 (T3)…Feeling as if he wouldn't make the field off of the alternate list, chose not to fly to the British Open. Turned out that he would have joined the field on opening day when Russ Cochran withdrew…Withdrew during the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational with a back injury, which would later cause him to withdraw prior to the start of the PGA Championship…Missed the cut in the first two Playoffs events, followed by a T41 at the BMW Championship, to finish the season No. 66 in the FedExCup standings.

PERSONAL:

Was age 5 when his grandfather taught him how to play golf…Doesn't like to know who he will be paired with, saying, "I looked up to a lot of these guys who I'm now playing with. So, I didn't want to have to go to sleep thinking about it. And so that's kind of been my routine. I never want to know who I'm playing with. Just tell me the time. In 2002, at the (HP) Byron Nelson (Championship) I played with Ernie Els in the final round, and it worked well because I watched Ernie play a lot of golf on TV. So we just kind of kept that routine going. I just never look and find out on the first tee."…Took part in the 2008 BMW Northwest Charity Skins Game with host Ryan Moore, Aaron Baddeley and Bubba Watson to help raise funds for local charities in Washington…Takes a leading role with his wife, Heather, in support of Love146, an international group dedicated to eradicating the sexual exploitation of children in Thailand, Cambodia and the Philippines…Hosts "Day With the Pros" every year with Discovery Land Co., an endeavor which has raised more than $4 million for charity…He is the mastermind behind the "Golf Boys" video that he stars in along with Rickie Fowler, Hunter Mahan and Watson.

PGA TOUR VICTORIES (4):

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—Valero Texas Open; T2—THE PLAYERS Championship; T5—Wells Fargo Championship.

2012 SEASON:

Partially exempt on the PGA TOUR and fully exempt on the European Tour, he began his season in the Middle East, making three European Tour starts, at the Abu Dhabi HSBC Golf Championship, the Commercialbank Qatar Masters and the Omega Dubai Desert Classic. Made the cut in all three events, with his T13 in Dubai his best showing…In his first start at the Valero Texas Open in San Antonio, opened with bogey-free, 5-under 67s in the first and second rounds on his way to a two-stroke victory over John Huh and Matt Every, his first win since the 2006 84 LUMBER Classic. Made a convincing 15-foot birdie putt on the daunting 72nd hole to stretch the win to a margin of two strokes. On the hole prior, hit a thin approach shot from a divot over the green. A delicate chip left him with 24 feet to save par, which he made. His first question to media officials following the win was "Does this get me into THE PLAYERS Championship?"…Finished T5 at the Wells Fargo Championship, with a closing-round 67. It marked the first time in his career he had put together three consecutive top-15 finishes…Continuted his torrid month-long stretch one week later with a T2 at THE PLAYERS Championship, carding rounds of 68-71-70-68 to finish 11-under, two strokes behind winner Matt Kuchar. Was one of only four players to post four sub-par scores at THE PLAYERS. Posted his first top-10 in his ninth career TPC Sawgrass start. Had only carded two sub-70 scores in 24 rounds at TPC Sawgrass prior to this year, with his best finish a T22 in 2009…Finished T11 at the PGA Championship, his best finish in a major championship since T2 at the 2008 PGA Championship…After missing the cut at The Barclays and Deutsche Bank Championship, finished T24 at the BMW Championship, ending the season No. 41 in the FedExCup standings, the second-best showing of his career (No. 9 in 2008).

PERSONAL:

Grew up only 50 yards from the practice putting green of Mill Creek GC in Ostrander, Ohio, where grandfather built the course and where his father is superintendent…Started playing golf at age 3, but says he didn't get serious about it until high school. Won the Division II state title his junior and senior years of high school…The week after British Open victory, was a guest on the "Late Show with David Letterman," hitting wedge shots rooftop to rooftop during the telecast. Also visited President George W. Bush in the White House…Caddie for most of 2003 was former Kent State University teammate Danny Sahl. Andy Sutton, a long-time caddie on the European Tour, worked for him at the British Open…Is friends with fellow Kent State alum Lou Holtz, also a member at Lake Nona G&CC in Orlando, Fla…Was among six athletes to be inducted into the Mid-American Conference Hall of Fame in 2012.

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISH:

T5—Reno-Tahoe Open.

2012 SEASON:

Made a late-season push, but at No. 140 on the points list failed to make it to the FedExCup Playoffs. Competing on a sponsor's exemption, collected his first top-10 of the season, a T5 at the Reno-Tahoe Open, an event that used the Modified Stableford scoring format. He finished with 33 points. The T5 was his first top-10 on TOUR since a T9 at the 2011 RBC Canadian Open and his best finish on TOUR since he finished runner-up to Tiger Woods in a playoff at the 2005 World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship. Briefly held the lead (with 29 points) after an eagle at the par-5 13th in the third round, but he followed with three consecutive bogeys and never regained a share of the lead… In mid-December, finished T15 at the rain-shortened Iskandar Johor Open in Malaysia. After an opening-round, 2-over 74 at Horizon Hills, posted rounds of 69-65 to finish at 8-under, 10 strokes off Sergio Garcia's winning total.

PERSONAL:

Enjoys writing lyrics and playing guitar. Recorded a largely autobiographical album entitled "My Life," featuring guest performances by Darius Rucker, Willie Nelson, Johnny Lee and Daron Norwood. Recorded a second CD, available on iTunes, called "I Only Know One Way."…Instead of flying to tournament sites, purchased large RV and drives to numerous events…Involved in many charitable causes, most notably Make-a-Wish Foundation and Boys & Girls Clubs of America. Set up a college scholarship fund for the two daughters of the late Thomas Weaver of Fishers, Ind., who was struck by lightning during a first-round storm delay at the 1991 PGA Championship…Donated $25,000 to Web.com Tour's Mark Christopher Charity Classic in 2002 and 2003…Renowned for his colorful attire when he plays…Website is johndaly.com and Twitter account is @PGA_JohnDaly.

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

T4—Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard, Shell Houston Open, Travelers Championship; T9—Wells Fargo Championship.

2012 SEASON:

Finished T4 at the Arnold Palmer Invitational, with rounds of 70-73-70-70. It was his first top-10 at Bay Hill in seven career starts…A week later, came close to capturing his first career PGA TOUR win, again at the Shell Houston Open. Bettered a 4-under 68 in round one with a 7-under 65 in round two to begin the third round at 11-under, just one shot shy of Jeff Maggert's 12-under lead. Weekend rounds of 69-74 was good for a T4 finish, the first time he had posted top-five finishes in successive starts since T5s at the 2009 PLAYERS Championship and the Valero Texas Open…Was T9 at the Wells Fargo Championship for his first top-10 in eight career starts at Quail Hollow Club…Finished T4 at the Travelers Championship after holding a share of the third-round lead. A final-round 70 left him two shots off Marc Leishman's winning pace…Including The Barclays and Deutsche Bank Championship, missed the cut in six of his last seven starts through the FedExCup Playoffs (only exception a T15 at the RBC Canadian Open), failing to advance as far as the BMW Championship for just the second time in six seasons of the FedExCup (2007).

PERSONAL:

Has had two skin cancers and is affiliated with The Skin Cancer Foundation with the hopes he can educate people about the dangers of the sun and what role prevention can have in helping people maintain their health…Charity efforts also go toward the Arnold Palmer Hospital in Orlando, Fla., which treated his son Henry, who was born with kidney issues, and his daughter, Madeline, after she suffered two collapsed lungs right after birth.

2007 Legend Financial Group Classic.

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

4—Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children Open; T8—AT&T National; T9—Wells Fargo Championship, HP Byron Nelson Championship.

2012 SEASON:

Finished T9 at the Wells Fargo Championship for his first top-10 of the season and first in two starts at Quail Hollow Club…After missing the cut at THE PLAYERS Championship, posted his second top-10 finish of the year, with a T9 at the HP Byron Nelson Championship. It was his third top-10 finish in as many starts at the event (won in 2010 and fifth in 2011)…Finished T8 at the AT&T National at Congressional CC…Chose not to play in the British Open so he could stay home and spend time with his newborn son…Entered the Playoffs No. 108 in the FedExCup standings. Hopes of advancing out of The Barclays seemed dim following a third-round, 6-over 77. But improved 11 strokes in the final round, with a 5-under 66 leading to a T24 finish, helping him jump to No. 88 in the standings to advance to the 100-player Deutsche Bank Championship field. Could only manage a T51 at TPC Boston, despite a T2 in 2010 and T3 in 2011, finishing the season No. 87 in the FedExCup standings and failing to advance to the BMW Championship for the first time since 2008…In his next start, at the Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children Open in October, put on a display of near perfection on the front-nine Sunday at TPC Summerlin. Made birdies on seven of his outward nine holes, for a front-nine record, 7-under 28. One-putted all but No. 3 (two-putt) for a total of 10 strokes on the outward nine. Only other nine-hole scores of 28 at this event came from John Daly and Phil Mickelson, who both posted the score on the back nine in the second round of 2007. Struggled at the 72nd hole with a double bogey-6 to finish alone in fourth place.

PERSONAL:

Got his start in golf from his dad, who died when Jason was 12…Was encouraged to attend a golf academy in Australia by his coach, Col Swatton, where he borrowed a Tiger Woods book from his roommate and gained inspiration from reading it.

2012 SEASON:

Making his third start of the season, and one week after losing the top spot to Rory McIlroy in the Official World Golf Ranking, finished T6 at the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship for his first top-10 of the season (after leading the TOUR in 2011, with 14)…Carded a final-round 66 to overcome a three-shot, 54-hole deficit and win the Transitions Championship in a four-man, one-hole playoff to claim his fifth PGA TOUR title. Improved his PGA TOUR playoff record to 1-2 when he converted a 6-foot, 7-inch birdie putt on No. 18, the first hole of sudden-death, to defeat Jim Furyk, Sang-Moon Bae and Robert Garrigus. Closing 66 was a career-best at the Copperhead Course, and he became the first player from England to win the Transitions Championship. With the victory, he moved ahead of McIlroy as the No. 1 player in the Official World Golf Ranking just two weeks after losing the top spot…Collected his third top 10 of the season with a solo third at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans. Bounced back from an opening-round 73, with scores of 65-66-67 over the final 54 holes. Recorded an eagle on the par-4 No. 1 in the second round when he holed a 7-iron from 150 yards. Moved back to No. 1 in the Official World Golf Ranking with the New Orleans finish. Owns top-10s in both of his appearances at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans (T8 in 2011 and third in 2012)…Posted his fourth top-10 of the season with a solo sixth at THE PLAYERS, finishing 9-under. Played the final 57 holes in 11-under. Carded a final-round 66 that featured a 6-under 30 on the back nine at TPC Sawgrass, equaling the tournament record back-nine score. During opening round 72, made eagles at the par-5 No. 2 and par-5 No. 16, becoming the 17th player to record two eagles in one round at THE PLAYERS since 1982. Notched third top 10 in 10th career start at THE PLAYERS. Narrowly missed moving back to No. 1 in the Official World Golf Ranking with solo-sixth finish. Needed a finish of solo fourth or better to overtake McIlroy after McIlroy missed the 36-hole cut…Regained the No. 1 position in the OWGR in late May when he successfully defended his BMW PGA Championship at Wentworth Club on the European Tour. Was tied with Justin Rose with 14 holes to play in the final round and then took control of the tournament, beating Rose and Paul Lawrie by four strokes. In the process, became on the third player in the event's history to win back to back, joining Nick Faldo and Colin Montgomerie…Finished T5 in his 12th British Open appearance, handing on to the top spot in the Official World Golf Ranking in the process. After missing the cut in his first five starts (1999, 2000 and 2002-04), he has since reeled off six of seven made cuts at the Open, with best finishes in 2012 (T5), 2009 (T5) and 2010 (T11)…Making his 26th start in a World Golf Championships event, recorded his 13th top 10 finish, a T8 at the Bridgestone Invitational. Both McIlroy and Tiger Woods entered the week with a chance to surpass him in the Official World Golf Ranking, but he hung on to T5—Transitions Championship; T7—AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am, Zurich Classic of New Orleans, HP Byron Nelson Championship, FedEx St. Jude Classic, The Greenbrier Classic.

2012 SEASON:

Paired with 54-hole leader Charlie Wi in the final group on Sunday at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am, unable to mount a charge with a 2-over 74, finishing T7, seven strokes behind Phil Mickelson. Opened the week in impressive fashion with a back-nine record, 8-under-par 28 en route to an 8-under-par 64 at Pebble Beach GL. The previous lows were 30s by Dan Pohl (final round, 1980) and Chris Wilson (second round, 2010)…Fired four rounds in the 60s at the Transitions Championship to finish T5 (12-under), one stroke out of a four-man playoff. It was his second top-10 of the campaign and best finish on TOUR since a T4 at the 2008 Buick Open…Shared the first-round lead at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans (7-under 65) and went on to record his third top-10 of the season, with a T7…Earned his fourth top-10 of the year, with a T7 at the HP Byron Nelson Championship. It was his second top-10 showing at the event, also finishing T7 in 2007…Claimed his fifth top-10 finish of the season, tying a season-best (2007-08), with T7 at the FedEx St. Jude Classic. In his fourth start at TPC Southwind, closed with eight birdies en route to a 5-under 65, one stroke shy of the low round of the day, posted by John Daly…Was as close as one stroke out of the lead heading down the stretch of The Greenbrier Classic before back-to-back double bogeys on Nos. 15 and 16 left him T7. It was his career-best sixth top-10 finish of the season, tying him at the time for the most on TOUR…Missed the cut at the first two Playoffs events, culminating with a No. 76 finish in the FedExCup standings.

PERSONAL:

As a seventh-grader, was diagnosed with scoliosis. The Arkansas Children's Hospital in Little Rock, Ark., determined he had a 26-percent curvature of the spine and advised him to wear a back brace 23 hours a day. Two years later, with the curvature reaching 51 percent, he underwent surgery. Without the procedure, the pressure on his lungs and heart might have become life-threatening. Surgeons attached a 16-inch metal road to his spine to faciliate straightening. Remarkably, just months later he returned to his high school golf team—and playing in a back brace—won medalist honors at a district tournament. In 2009, the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences established The Ken Duke Endowed Chair in Scoliosis. Funds from the chair treat spinal deformities, tumors and fractures…He credits his dad for giving him his start in golf but says legendary instructor Bob Toski changed his swing and his life. His biggest golf thrill was playing a round at Augusta National in 2009 with Toski, who was 82 at the time…An avid fisherman and country music fan…Lists Larry Bird as his hero.

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—British Open; 2—Zurich Classic of New Orleans; T4—Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard; T5—Transitions Championship; 9—U.S. Open.

2012 SEASON:

At the Volvo Golf Champions on the European Tour, he forced a playoff with Branden Grace and Retief Goosen by firing a final-round 67—including a birdie on the 72nd hole—at The Links at Fancourt in his native South Africa. Lost the extra session on the first extra hole (the 18th) when Grace birdied the par-5 to his and Goosen's pars…Faced a short par putt to become part of the four-man playoff at the Transitions Championship in mid-March but missed, dropping to a T5, his first top-10 of the campaign and first top-five since the 2011 Frys.com Open (T4)…Came back a week later with another top-five performance, a T4 at the Arnold Palmer Invitational, his fourth top-10 in the tournament to go with his two Bay Hill wins (won in 1998 and 2010; T9 in 2002). Needed a second- or solo third-place finish to move into the top 50 in the Official World Golf Ranking for a invitation to the Masters Tournament…Finished runner-up to Jason Dufner in a playoff at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans when he failed to convert a birdie putt from 18 feet, seven inches on the second playoff hole (No. 18). Fell to 4-4 in playoffs on the PGA TOUR in his first appearance in a playoff since the 2004 British Open when he fell to Todd Hamilton. Posted the 17th runner-up finish of his career and best finish on TOUR since winning the 2010 Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard. Carded four rounds in the 60s for the first time this season. Produced his second top-three finish at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans (third in 2001)…Opened with a 68 at Wentworth Club in late May at the BMW PGA Championship, a score that helped him to a T7 at the event played on a course he redesigned… Despite opening with a 5-over 75, fought back to finish solo ninth in his 20th U.S. Open start, with wins in 1994 and 1997 among his nine top-10 finishes. Was seeking to become the seventh player with three or more U.S. Open wins…Third-round leader Adam Scott bogeyed his final four holes at the British Open, opening the door for him to win his fourth major championship (19th overall PGA TOUR victory)—and first since the 2002 British Open. Began the day six strokes behind Scott, but posted a 4-under 32 on the closing nine, including a birdie on the par-4 18th hole (just the second Open champion to birdie the 72nd hole in the last 20 years; Stewart Cink did it in 2009), to card a final-round, 2-under 68 for a one-stroke victory over Scott (75). The win came 10 years after he won his first Claret Jug, the second-longest gap in Open history. The victory made him the 16th different winner in the last 16 major championships and snapped a string of three straight American winners in majors. Royal Lytham & St. Annes has been kind, serving as the site of three of his seven top-threes in the British Open (won in, T2 in 1996 and T3 in 2001). Enshrined into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 2011, he became the first male Hall of Fame member to win a major after being inducted since Lee Trevino was inducted in 1981 and later won the 1984 PGA Championship. The only other players to win a major after induction are Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player. Had three rounds in the 60s during the week, giving him the most rounds in the 60s (39) in British Open history (37 by Nick Faldo and 33 by Jack Nicklaus). Also moved up the charts for most under-par rounds (48) at the British Open since 1963: 59 (Nicklaus), 53 (Faldo) and 45 (Tom Watson). Spurred on by his win at Royal Lytham, was voted the July PGA TOUR Player of the Month…Best finish during the four PGA TOUR Playoffs was a T26 at the Deutsche Bank Championship, closing with a 27th-place finish at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola to finish No. 26 in the FedExCup…Birdied seven of his first nine holes in the second round en route to a bogey-free, 9-under 63 at Mission Hills GC in China before claiming a T2 at the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions. In his fourth consecutive start in the event, posted four sub-par rounds (70-63-69-67), giving him 14 of 16 rounds in the event at par or better.

2012 SEASON:

After a 4-under 66 to start the Sony Open in Hawaii, carded back-to-back rounds of 64 and 68 to take the second- and third-round lead (shared 54-hole lead with Jeff Maggert). Struggled out of the gate during the final round and was 4-over through six holes but rallied with birdies on Nos. 9, 10 and 18 to finish T6…At the Mayakoba Golf Classic, he opened with a 4-under 67, stumbled to an even-par 71 then was 7-under on the weekend (including a 5-under 66 Sunday) to finish a career-high T3, two strokes out of the John Huh-Robert Allenby playoff…A closing 4-under 67 (low round of the day) led to his third top-10 finish of the season, a T8 at the RBC Heritage…A week later, tied his career-low round of 63 in the first round of the Valero Texas Open, a TPC San Antonio course record. His 9-under was followed by rounds of 74-73-71, earning him T2 honors with rookie John Huh. Had a birdie putt on the 72nd hole to potentially force sudden-death but had to settle for par. Poised to deliver the couple's first child in May, his wife, Danielle, followed her husband all 72 holes and was the first to greet him after completion of play…Posted fifth top-10 of the season, with a T6 in his first appearance at the Memorial Tournament. Enjoyed rounds of 69-75-71-69…Began his FedExCup Playoffs season by withdrawing from The Barclays during the second round with a neck injury. Later added a T35 at the Deutsche Bank Championship and T51 at the BMW Championship to end the season No. 67 in the FedExCup standings…Ended the season in style with a T2 at the Children's Miracle Network Hospitals Classic. After opening with a 5-under 67 in his second start at the Disney event, closed with a 4-under 68 to take a share of second place with 2010 champion Robert Garrigus.

PERSONAL:

Favorite band is Oasis. Says his dream foursome would include Oasis band members Liam Gallagher and Noel Gallagher and "some sort of counselor so we could get the best band in the world back together." Lists earning back his PGA TOUR playing privileges as his biggest achievement.

PGA TOUR VICTORIES (1):
2012 Wells Fargo Championship.

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES (1):
2011 Kolon Korea Open [OneAsia].

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISHES:
1—Wells Fargo Championship; T2—THE PLAYERS Championship; T5—Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial; T7—The Honda Classic; T10—Zurich Classic of New Orleans.

2012 SEASON:
Despite a double bogey on the par-4 sixth hole in the final round of The Honda Classic, managed six birdies for a 4-under 66 en route to a T7 with Dicky Pride. Joined Pride and other TOUR players earlier in the week in Palm Beach Gardens for a Birdies for the Brave charity fundraiser, where they raced remote-control cars…Second top-10 of the season came at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans (T10)…A week later, made birdie-3 on the first extra hole (No. 18) to defeat Rory McIlroy and D.A. Points at the Wells Fargo Championship for his first TOUR win. Improved to 1-1 in playoffs (lost to Troy Matteson, 2009 Frys.com Open). The playoff was the fifth at the Wells Fargo Championship. At the age of 23 years, 4 months, 23 days, became the third player to make the Wells Fargo Championship his first PGA TOUR win (Anthony Kim in 2008 and McIlroy in 2010). Became the third-youngest winner of the event, behind McIlroy (20 years, 11 months, 28 days) and Kim (22/10/15). His win came in his 72nd start on TOUR and was his 16th top-10 finish. Opening-round 66 is the lowest start by a winner of the Wells Fargo Championship. Won in his third start at the Wells Fargo Championship (T6 in 2010 and T16 in 2011)…A week after collecting his first PGA TOUR victory, nearly became the first player since David Duval (1997) to post first two TOUR victories in back-to-back weeks, finishing T2 at THE PLAYERS, two strokes behind winner Matt Kuchar. Holed a birdie attempt from 21 feet, 7 inches on the par 3 17th in the final round to move to 11-under but couldn't convert a 7-foot, 7-inch birdie on No. 18 that would have given him the clubhouse lead at 12-under. Recorded his fifth career runner-up finish on TOUR in his 73rd start. His T2 performance came in his third start at THE PLAYERS and first in which he made the 36-hole cut. Moved into contention with a 66 in the third round, a career low at TPC Sawgrass. Entered the final round three shots off the 54-hole pace…Earned his fourth-consecutive top-10, a T5 at the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial. For his efforts, which included three top-five finishes in as many starts in May, was named the PGA TOUR Player of the Month…A missed cut at the PGA Championship represented his only missed cut in his next nine events following Colonial, but best finish was a T23 at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, finishing the season a career-best No. 28 in the FedExCup standings.

PERSONAL:
His father, Rod, owns a trucking company. Father enjoyed riding dirt bikes and won the 1986 Baja 1000 while racing for a Yamaha team. Rickie gave up serious dirt-bike riding after an accident prior to his freshman year in high school resulted in a couple of broken bones in his foot…His middle name comes from his grandfather, Taka Tanaka. His younger sister, Taylor, attends Cal State-Fullerton, where she is on the golf team…Started playing golf at age 3…Member of the Golf Boys video with Ben Crane, Bubba Watson and Hunter Mahan…Biggest thrill in golf was playing in the Walker Cup…Biggest thrill outside of golf is being in the air on his bike.

five at the U.S. Open six times (won in 2003, T2 in 2006, T2 in 2007, T4 in 2012, T5 in 1996 and T5 in 1997). His T4 finish marked the first time in his last 18 events entering the final round with at least a share of the lead that he has finished worse than second (10 wins, seven runner-up finishes, one T4)…Seeking the first wire-to-wire victory of his career, carded a double bogey on the 72nd hold to come up one stroke shy of Keegan Bradley at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational. The runner-up finish was his eighth top-10 showing at the event, second only to Tiger Woods' 11. It was the 24th runner-up finish of his career. Marked the 23rd time in the first 33 events this season that the 54-hole leader/co-leader failed to win. In his last 19 events entering the final round with at least a share of the lead, has finished worse than second just once (T4 at the 2012 U.S. Open), with 10 wins and eight runner-up finishes…Finished ninth at the BMW Championship with rounds of 69-70-67-68 at Crooked Stick GC…Jumped out to a one-stroke lead over Justin Rose following the second round of the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, with opening scores of 69-64, marking the 21st second-round lead of his career (and third of the season). His second round included seven consecutive 3s to start the round (Nos. 1-7), the longest streak in the history of the TOUR Championship. It is the longest such streak on the PGA TOUR since Charl Schwartzel had nine in a row at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational (final round, Nos. 7-15). Entered the 17th hole of the third round with a share of the lead, but a triple bogey derailed his title hopes. Closed with matching rounds of 72 to finish solo seventh in the tournament and No. 15 in the FedExCup…Recorded his third consecutive top-10, with a solo-third place finish at The McGladrey Classic. Entered the final round tied with tournament host Davis Love III at 13-under, but a 1-under 69 Sunday left him two strokes behind champion Tommy Gainey, who carded a final-round, 10-under 60.

2010 Melwood Prince George's County Open, Chiquita Classic.

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—The McGladrey Classic; 3—Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial.

2012 SEASON:

Career-low, final-round 60 at The McGladrey Classic in the fall earned him his first career PGA TOUR win…Posted his first top-10 finish of the season in his 17th start, finishing solo third in his second Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial start (missed cut in 2011). It was his fifth third-place finish in two years (had four in 2011)…Finished T38 at The Barclays and T66 at the Deutsche Bank Championship, ending the season No. 94 in the FedExCup standings…Began the final round of The McGladrey Classic seven strokes behind Jim Furyk and Davis Love III. Carded a course-record and career-low 10-under 60 (previous low was 63) to edge David Toms by one stroke for his first PGA TOUR victory in his 105th start. The South Carolina native was the clubhouse leader for more than two hours before he sealed the victory, with Furyk needing a birdie on the final hole to force a playoff (finished with bogey). His bogey-free round (the only one of the day) included eight birdies and an eagle-3 at the par-5 15th. His 19-foot birdie attempt at the 72nd hole for a 59 slid by on the right, with the par-4 snapping a string of seven consecutive 3s on Nos. 11-17. The seven-stroke comeback trailed only Kyle Stanley's eight-shot come-from-behind win at the Waste Management Phoenix Open for the largest of the season. The final-round 60 was just the third recorded in a PGA TOUR final round and the first that led to victory. Previous-best finish came in 2008, with runner-up honors at the Children's Miracle Network Hospitals Classic, losing by a stroke to Love.

PERSONAL:

Goes by the nickname "Two Gloves" for wearing two golf gloves when he plays…Developed that habit after playing baseball as a kid…Attended Central Carolina Technical College after high school…Worked as an assembly line worker in rural South Carolina before deciding to give professional golf a shot…Lists his brother Allen as his only instructor…Was a participant on Golf Channel's "Big Break V" and later won "Big Break VII." Lists his heroes as Fred Couples and rock band Hootie and the Blowfish.

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—Wyndham Championship; T3—The Barclays; T4—Northern Trust Open.

2012 SEASON:

Opened with an even-par 72 at the Commercialbank Qatar Masters then fired consecutive 68s in the weather-shortened event to T5…Had a hole-in-one at the Abu Dhabi HSBC Golf Championship, holing his 7-iron from 186 yards on the 12th hole in the first round. It was his first competitive ace since he made a hole-in-one at the 2008 BMW Championship during the FedExCup Playoffs…Finished T4 at the Northern Trust Open on the strength of a closing-round 64. Started round on No. 10 (back nine), but a furious rally brought him into contention. Finished two shots out of the playoff due to bogeys on his 13th (No. 4) and 16th (No. 7) holes of the day. Had a pair of eagles on his first six holes to start the final round. His first eagle was on the par-5 11th, and the second came with a 4-iron from 207 yards on the par-4 15th hole. Final-round 64 is his best round on TOUR since a 64 at the 2009 Wyndham Championship…Had a T5 performance at the Volvo World Match Play Championship in his native Spain in May. Lost in the quarterfinals at Finca Cortesin to Graeme McDowell in 19 holes…Contended at the Nordea Masters in Stockholm, Sweden, in June, eventually finishing T3, six shots back of Lee Westwood…Took a one shot lead into the final round and won by two shots over Tim Clark with a final round 4-under 66 at the Wyndham Championship. First win on TOUR since the 2008 PLAYERS Championship. Also his first win since turning 30. Earned eighth career victory at age 32 years, 7 months, 10 days in his 240th career TOUR start. Has converted three of eight third-round leads/co-leads on TOUR into victory. Was a co-leader through 54 holes at the 2009 Wyndham Championship but fell one-stroke shy of the three-man playoff and finished fourth. Win in Greensboro came in just his third start at the Wyndham Championship and first since that fourth-place finish three years earlier. Ended a streak of four consecutive first-time winners in Greensboro

Sergio Garcia (Continued)

(Ryan Moore, Arjun Atwal and Webb Simpson). As an amateur, Garcia finished T3 in the Web.com Tour's 1998 Greensboro Open, also played at Sedgefield CC…Carried a two-stroke lead into the final round of The Barclays but a final-round 4-over 75 left him four strokes behind champion Nick Watney and T3. Was seeking his third win at The Barclays and was attempting to become the first player to win back-to-back PGA TOUR events since Tiger Woods in 2009 (Buick Open, World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational). With the T3 finish, jumped from No. 33 to No. 10 in the FedExCup standings, after having fallen as far as No. 108 during the season and finding himself at No. 102 entering the Wyndham Championship…Chose not to play the following week, at the Deutsche Bank Championship, dropping to No. 15 in the standings heading into the BMW Championship…Closed out the Playoffs with a T24 finish at the BMW Championship and T15 at the TOUR Championship, finishing No. 17 in the FedExCup standings, his best showing since a third-place finish in 2008…Motivated by missing the Ryder Cup as a playing participant in 2010, tallied a 2-2-0 record in his sixth start at the event to lead the European team to a one-point win at Medinah CC. Week was highlighted with birdies on the final two holes to a 1-up win over Jim Furyk in their Sunday's single's match…Qualified for the European Tour's season-ending DP World Tour Championship and finished T9 in Dubai…In mid-December, finished fourth at the Thailand Golf Championship on the Asian Tour, shooting a 12-under 276…A week later, in Malaysia, won the rain-shortened Iskandar Johor Open by three strokes, thanks to an 11-under 61 in the final round. His 18-under 198 at Horizon Hills was good for his second win of the season and 15th international title. His 11-under was the lowest final-round score by a winner in Asian Tour history.

PGA TOUR VICTORIES (1):

2010 Children's Miracle Network Classic.

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

T2—Humana Challenge in partnership with the Clinton Foundation, Transitions Championship, RBC Canadian Open, Children's Miracle Network Hospitals Classic; T4—AT&T National, BMW Championship; T9—HP Byron Nelson Championship; T10—TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola.

2012 SEASON:

Finished T2 at the Humana Challenge on the strength of a third-round 61. Had a long eagle putt on No. 18 that would have tied eventual winner Mark Wilson. The 61 was a personal-best and matched the Nicklaus Private course tournament record, originally set by Charlie Wi in 2009 and matched in the second round by Ryan Moore. Was 6-over par after his first 17 holes of the tournament, but from that point on, he played his final 55 holes in 28-under-par, including a third-round, 11-under-par 61. He made 27 birdies over those final 55 holes. Was tied for 126th after the opening round. He jumped 77 spots following a second-round 64 and then moved up 47 places, thanks to that 61. Led all players in the field with 30 birdies during the tournament, two more than John Senden. His 72-hole total of 22-under-par 266 was a career low for him in a 72-hole event…Carded a final round 64 at the Transitions Championship and lost in a four-man, sudden-death playoff with Luke Donald, Jim Furyk and Sang-Moon Bae when Donald made birdie on the first hole, No.18. Began the final round five shots off the 54-hole lead, but made birdie on Nos. 17 and 18 during regulation to post 13-under and then waited two hours to see if he would make a playoff. Closing 64 equaled his career-low final round on the PGA TOUR. Record fell to 0-3 in PGA TOUR playoffs…Began a solid four-tournament stretch with a T13 at the RBC Heritage, T15 at the Wells Fargo Championship and T9 at the HP Byron Nelson Championship (missed cut at THE PLAYERS sandwiched in between)…Finished T4 at the AT&T National at Congressional CC…Held the a one-stroke lead going into the final round of the RBC Canadian Open. Had a birdie putt on the 72nd hole that would have forced a playoff with Scott Piercy, but he missed it, settling for a T2 with William McGirt, a stroke back. Opened his final round with 13 consecutive pars before making birdie on No. 14. Dropped a stroke with a bogey on No. 16 and finished with an even-par 70, his only non-sub-70 round of the tournament (64-66-64). The runner-up finish accounted for his career-high fifth top-10 finish of the season…Finished T4 at the BMW Championship and was one of two players in the field to move from outside the cut line and qualify for the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola. Started the week No. 31 in the FedExCup standings and moved to No. 20 entering the TOUR Championship. Making his first start at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, finished T10 (a career-best seventh top-10 of the season) to secure a career-high 23rd-place finish in the FedExCup standings. Posted three rounds in the 60s to start his week at East Lake GC, but closed with a 73…The 36- and 54-hole leader of the CIMB Classic in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, he birdied his 71st and 72nd holes to claim a share of second place with defending champion Bo Van Pelt, his seventh top-10 of the season. Opened the week with back-to-back, 7-under 64s at the Mines Resort and GC in his first start in the three year-old event. In the first round, posted seven birdies and an eagle to offset a pair of bogeys. The next day, managed eight birdies in an 11-hole stretch (Nos. 7-17)…Two weeks later in Florida, the 2010 Children's Miracle Network Hospitals Classic champion returned to Disney World and nearly re-created the magic from two years prior. Posted 4-under 68s in the first, second and final rounds to claim a share of second place, with Matt Every, two strokes off Charlie Beljan's winning score. The T2 gave him his eighth top-10 and fourth runner-up finish of the season.

PERSONAL:

Father, Tom, won a silver medal in trap shooting at the 1968 Summer Olympics in Mexico City. He also coached the U.S. Olympic shooting team and carried the torch at one of the Olympic ceremonies…Noted for using a short putter (28 inches)…Lists making a hole-in-one at THE PLAYERS Championship (2008, No. 13) as his biggest thrill in golf…Biggest thrill outside of golf is catching a 10-pound bass…Lists the Links at Continental Ranch GC (Tucson, Ariz.) as his favorite course…Would most like to play St. Andrews' Old Course. Favorite college team is the Oregon Ducks…Favorite professional team is the Chicago Bears…Favorite athlete to watch is LeBron James…Favorite city to visit is Carmel, Calif.

T46—the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide Insurance.

2012 SEASON:

A left-knee injury while body surfing in January in Hawaii sidelined him until late March. In his first start back, missed the cut at the Transitions Championship…Made 15 additional starts, with his best finish a T46 at the Memorial Tournament…Was forced to withdraw following the second round of the Wyndham Championship in August because of nagging left-knee discomfort.

PERSONAL:

Avid Clemson Tiger sports fan…An avid reader, particularly mysteries and thrillers. Read four books during the week of his rainy 2009 U.S. Open victory…Credits his grandfather, Dick Hendley, for giving him his start in golf. Grandfather gave him a cut-down club when Lucas was 3 and first took him to the Masters at age 6. Hendley was a standout in football and baseball at Clemson, where he is a Hall of Fame member and played one season (1951) with the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers. Lucas was inducted into the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame in the fall 2007…Grew a beard in the Fall of 2010, which took on a life of its own. Showcased the thick growth on TOUR in 2011, receiving such light-hearted comments as "Mountain Man," "Grizzly Adams," and "woolly mammoth." CBS analyst David Feherty referred to the look as something that belongs on "America's Deadliest Catch." Jokingly talked about the facial hair, claiming he did it to have something to clean his clubs with.

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISH:
T25—the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide Insurance.

2012 SEASON:
After earning his playing privileges on the European Tour through the Qualifying Tournament, he made the most of his opportunity playing in his native South Africa in co-sanctioned European Tour-Sunshine Tour tournaments in mid-January. Took a three-stroke lead into the final round of the Joburg Open, shot a Sunday 71 and held off Jamie Elson to win by a stroke…A week later, at the Volvo Golf Champions at The Links at Fancourt, he moved to a four-stroke lead through 36 holes. In the third round, he struggled to a 2-over 75 to fall into a tie for the lead with Nicolas Colsaerts. On Sunday, he carved out a 2-under 71 that was good enough to get him into a playoff with Ernie Els and Retief Goosen. On the first extra hole, the par-5 18th, he made a two-putt birdie to Els' and Goosen's pars to win for the second time and move into the top 100 in the Official World Golf Ranking (No. 92)…In winning the Volvo China Open in April, his third victory of the campaign, he became just the second player to emerge from the European Tour's qualifying tournament and then go on to win three times that season (Johan Edfors in 2006). The 23-year-old also became the third-youngest player in Tour history to win a trio of tournaments in a season (Seve Ballesteros, three times between 1977 and 1980; Sandy Lyle, 1979). Took control of the tournament with a third-round, 8-under 64 to take a three-shot lead into the final round. Never led by less than two strokes over the final 18 holes and won by three over Colsaerts. Was one of three players in the field to fire four rounds in the 60s at Binhai GC in Tianjin (67-67-64-69)…Finished solo fifth at the BMW PGA Championship in May, eight strokes behind winner Luke Donald in England…Won his fourth title of the campaign when he shot a 10-under 209 in the 54-hole Vodacom Origins Final on the Sunshine Tour in South Africa. He defeated Allan Versfield by three strokes at the Links at Fancourt…A week later, on the European Tour, at the Alfred Dunhill Links Championship, he won in his second consecutive start, his fifth title of the season. Edged Thorbjorn Olesen at the three-course tournament held at St. Andrews' Old Course, Carnoustie and Kingsbarns GL. Opened with a career-low 60 at Kingsbarns. Shot a 7-under 29 on the front nine then added three birdies and an eagle on the back nine. Needed a birdie on the 18th hole to shoot a 59 but settled for a par. Entered the final round with a healthy four-shot lead over Olesen, shot a Sunday 70 at St. Andrews and won by two strokes…Made six official PGA TOUR appearances, including playing in three of the four major championships and in two official World Golf Championships events plus the HSBC Champions. Top major performance was a T51 at the U.S. Open. Added a T35 at the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship. Top TOUR finish of the campaign was a T25 at the Memorial Tournament… Finished the season in strong fashion, at the European Tour's DP World Tour Championship. Put himself in contention with a second-round 65 at Jumeirah Golf Estates. Settled for a sixth-place showing in Dubai and a sixth-place finish in the final Race to Dubai rankings.

PERSONAL:
A graduate of the Ernie Els and Fancourt Foundation, which recognizes and helps nurture the careers of young golfers.

WEB.COM TOUR VICTORIES (2):
2012 Albertsons Boise Open, WNB Golf Classic.

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISH:
T5—John Deere Classic.

2012 SEASON:
Finished the season No. 2 on the Web.com Tour money list despite making only 10 starts. Closed the year with a T9 at the Web.com Tour Championship, his seventh top-10 effort of the campaign. Total earnings of $410,593 is the 13th best single-season haul in Tour history. His average earnings per event of $41,059 is the second-highest in Tour history, trailing only Michael Sim's average of $46,010 in 2009. Ended the season No. 1 in Putting Average and Putts Per Round…Earned his first career title with a four-stroke win at the Albertsons Boise Open. Shot a 6-under 65 on the final day at Hillcrest CC and set a tournament record with his 22-under 262 total. Was paired with 54-hole leader Michael Putnam, as well as Steve Wheatcroft in the final threesome Sunday and started par-birdie-eagle for the second straight day, which quickly moved him into the lead. Hit 15 greens on the last day and slowly pulled away from the field, adding late birdies at Nos. 15 and 16 to give him his winning margin. First-place check of $130,500 jumped him to No. 4 on the money list, with $283,463, assuring him a spot on the PGA TOUR for the 2013 season…Continued his stellar summer by following up the next week with another come-from-behind win, at the WNB Golf Classic, in Midland, Texas. Posted a 6-under 66 on the last day to erase a five-stroke deficit and finish at 17-under 271, one better than defending champion Danny Lee and Cameron Percy. Trailed much of the final round, and finally moved into the lead with a 20-foot birdie putt at No. 17. Made a clutch 12-foot putt to save par on the final hole and waited 20 minutes to see if Lee or Percy would birdie the last hole to force a playoff. Victory was worth $99,000 and vaulted him to No. 1 on the money list after only seven starts. Became the eighth player in Tour history, and the second this season, to win in back-to-back weeks. Tied for first in Putting at Midland CC…Turned professional shortly after the NCAA Championships and received an exemption into the PGA TOUR's FedEx St. Jude Classic, where he finished T19…Finished T5 at the John Deere Classic a month later after receiving another exemption…His top-10 effort earned him a berth in the True South Classic, where he was T18, bringing his three-tournament earnings total to $284,672…Was the last player in the field at the Nationwide Children's Hospital Invitational, getting in when the University of Texas' Dylan Fritelli withdrew. Missed the cut in the same event a year earlier in his first Web.com Tour start. Fired a bogey-free, 5-under 66 in Sunday's final round to finish at 12-under for his four trips around the Scarlet Course at Ohio State University. Rolled in a 20-foot birdie putt on the final hole to assume the clubhouse lead by one stroke. Was forced into a playoff when Ben Kohles made a short birdie at the final hole and then lost the playoff when Kohles made a 22-foot birdie putt that was nearly on the identical line that Guthrie had for his earlier birdie. Solo second-place finish was worth $86,400 and was enough to earn Special Temporary Membership on Tour and vaulted him to No. 33 on the season money list…Shared the first-round lead a week later at the Cox Classic in Omaha, when he fired a 9-under-par 62 at Champions Run despite a bogey and a double bogey. His 12 birdies tied the Tour mark for most birdies in a round. Overcame another double bogey and added an 8-under 63 in the second round to take a three-stroke lead at the halfway mark. His 17-under par score set a tournament record, and his 22 birdies over the first 36 holes set a Tour record. His 125 total tied the second-lowest, opening-36-hole score in Tour history, one off the mark set by Kevin Chappell at the 2010 Ford Wayne Gretzky Classic. Failed to gather any momentum in Saturday's third round and shot an even-par 71. Still shared the 54-hole lead. His bid to win stalled in Sunday's finale, when he fired a 3-under 68 that left him

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISHES:
T3—Masters Tournament; T4—World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship; T5—World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship; T7—PGA Championship.

2012 SEASON:
At the weather-shortened Commercialbank Qatar Masters, shot three rounds in the 60s to T2, four strokes behind winner Paul Lawrie…Finished T5 at the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship after losing 4 and 3 to Mark Wilson in the quarterfinals. It marked his best finish in a PGA TOUR-sanctioned event in 35 starts. His previous-best was a T7 at the 2011 U.S. Open…Was T4 at the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship, three strokes behind winner Justin Rose. It was his best finish in 15 World Golf Championships starts…Accepted Special Temporary membership onto the PGA TOUR on March 27, making him eligible to receive unlimited sponsor exemptions for the remainder of the season…Finished T3 at the Masters Tournament after holding the third-round lead by one shot over three-time Masters champion Phil Mickelson. The only previous top-10 finish by a Swedish player at the Masters is T8 by Robert Karlsson in 2008. Sweden has never produced a major championship winner. The best finish ever in a major by a Swede is Jesper Parnevik (second at the 1994 British Open and T2 and the 1997 British Open) and Niclas Fasth (second in the 2001 British Open). Had never held a lead after any round on the PGA TOUR in 38 previous starts before the Masters. Missed the cut in his only other start at the Masters, in 2011…At the Nordea Masters in Stockholm in his native Sweden, finished T3, six shots behind winner Lee Westwood at Bro Hof Slott GC…Finished T7 at the PGA Championship after weekend rounds of 70-71. It was his first top-10 in seven PGA Championship starts and was his second top-10 in a major for the season (T3 at the Masters)…Won on the European Tour for the first time since 2010 when he won the KLM Open in early Setpember in the Netherlands. Took the lead into the final round at Hilversumsche GC, eagled the 72nd hole and defeated Richie Ramsay and Pablo Larrazabal by two shots. His eagle-3 made him the first player to eagle the last hole of a European Tour and win since Alvaro Quiros at the 2011 Dubai World Championship. The European Tour win was the first by a Swede this season, extending to 24 the number of consecutive years a Sweden native has won on that Tour…Won for a second time on the European Tour, capturing a victory in late October in Shanghai, at the BMW Masters by a stroke over Rory McIlroy. Took a one-shot lead into the final round and delivered a Sunday 67 at the par-71 Lake Malaren GC to match McIlroy and hang on for the title. Was bogey-free in the final round until the 18th hole of the day but was able to hang on when McIlroy could only make par on the same hole, unable to force a playoff… After opening with a 72 on the Gary Player CC at the Nedbank Golf Challenge, finished with three consecutive 73s to finish solo ninth at the Sun City, South Africa, tournament in early December.

Coached by Jan Larsson, the professional at Bokskogen, where he was first introduced to the game by neighbors.

WEB.COM TOUR VICTORIES (3):

2011 Stadion Classic at UGA. 2012 Chiquita Classic, Winn-Dixie Jacksonville Open.

2012 SEASON:

Ended the year No. 3 on the Web.com Tour money list and was one of five two-time winners on the year. Joined Casey Wittenberg and Luke Guthrie as the only players to top the $400,000 mark in earnings…Fired a front-nine 30 en route to a final-round 65 at the Winn-Dixie Jacksonville Open to get into a playoff with B.J. Staten. Went on to win with a par on the first extra hole for his second victory of the year. Jumped to third on the money list…Won his first professional title, at the Chiquita Classic. Held a share of the lead after each of the first three rounds and eventually survived a wild finish for the win. Went to the last hole of regulation with a one-stroke lead over hard-charging former collegiate All-Americans Patrick Cantlay and Morgan Hoffmann but dumped his second shot into the water and was forced to hole a clutch 20-foot bogey putt to get into a three-way playoff. Won the extra session on the first hole with a par, two-putting from 20 feet. Hoffmann had hit his second shot in the water moments before Henley's approach shot and made bogey. Cantlay hit his drive in a fairway bunker, was short of the green in two, hit a poor pitch and then missed the 15-foot par effort. Victory vaulted him from 35th into the 12th position on the money list and assured him of his 2013 PGA TOUR exemption…Two weeks later finished third at the Miccosukee Championship on the strength of a pair of 2-under-par 69s on the weekend…Recorded his first top-10 finish of the campaign, at Willow Creek CC to T9 at the Utah Championship…Followed up a couple weeks later with a T7 at the Cox Classic. First- and third-round 64s gave him a share of the 54-hole lead, at 17-under par with Luke Guthrie. Was bogey-free in the final round at Champions Run but managed only two birdies on the day and wound up five back of winner Ben Kohles…Continued his solid summer play with a T2 finish two weeks later at the Midwest Classic in Kansas City. Was one shot off the clubhouse lead after 16 holes Sunday but stumbled with a bogey at No. 17 and wound up two back of winner Shawn Stefani. It was his fifth consecutive made cut and third top-10 in that stretch, which saw him move up from No. 102 to No. 31 on the money list. Led the field in Greens in Regulation for the week…Closed his season with a T6 finish at the Web.com Tour Championship outside Dallas.

Broke out of a tie for the lead at 8-under when he converted an 8-foot, 8-inch birdie putt on the 71st hole, becoming the first FedEx St. Jude Classic champion to birdie No. 17 in the final round since Woody Austin in 2007. Won in his first start at the FedEx St. Jude Classic and won for the fifth consecutive PGA TOUR season. Became the first player since Tiger Woods (1996-2000) to go directly from college and win in each of his first five seasons on the PGA TOUR. Became the first player in his 20s to win the FedEx St. Jude Classic since Notah Begay III in 2000 and the 13th American to win in Memphis in the last 14 years. Moved to No. 10 in the U.S. Ryder Cup standings with the victory…Recorded middle-36 scores of 68-68 for the second consecutive season at the British Open, with a T9 effort at Royal Lytham & St Annes that followed his 2011 runner-up finish…Making his title defense, finished T3 and four strokes behind Nick Watney at The Barclays to begin his 2012 Playoffs season. Came back the following week with a T4 finish at the Deutsche Bank Championship (six strokes behind Rory McIlroy) to move to No. 6 in the FedExCup standings…Closed out the Playoffs with a T6 at the BMW Championship (four shots off the winning score) and a T10 at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola. Was the only player to record a top-10 finish in all four FedExCup Playoffs events. Finished the season No. 8 in the FedExCup standings, his third consecutive top-10 showing in the season-long race…In his second consecutive Ryder Cup appearance, went 3-0-0 at Medinah CC in the U.S. loss in the biennial competition. Made five birdies in a five-hole stretch on the inward nine in his singles match against Nicolas Colsaerts to win 3 and 2.

PERSONAL:

Grandfather Art Whisnant played basketball at South Carolina and was a three-time all-Atlantic Coast Conference selection in the early 1960s…Younger brother Austin played guard for the Charleston Southern University basketball team…Can dunk a basketball and could palm a basketball as a seventh grader…In June of 2012, threw out the first pitch at the San Francisco Giants-Houston Astros game after hitting drives at AT&T Park into McCovey Cove in front of spectators. He hit a number of drives over 330 yards from home plate, including a 335-yard bomb that ended up being his longest of the day.

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial, John Deere Classic; 2—RBC Heritage, THE PLAYERS Championship; T8—Humana Challenge in partnership with the Clinton Foundation; T9—British Open.

2012 SEASON:

Finished T8 at the Humana Challenge, with rounds of 68-65-65-71. Was tied for second entering the final round, three strokes behind winner Mark Wilson…Finished solo second, five strokes behind Carl Pettersson at the RBC Heritage in his eighth start at the Hilton Head Island event. It marked the sixth runner-up finish of his career and first since the 2009 John Deere Classic. Previous-best finish at the RBC Heritage was sixth in 2007. The made cut at the RBC Heritage was his 10th in as many tries to begin his year…Holed a 27-foot par putt on the 72nd hole at THE PLAYERS to post 11-under and finish T2, two strokes behind winner Matt Kuchar. Recorded his second runner-up finish of the season and third top 10 after carding rounds of 70-66-73-68 and posted his best finish in eight starts at TPC Sawgrass. Shared the 36-hole lead at 8-under and played in the final group Saturday with Kevin Na. It was his 12th consecutive made cut to begin the season…Entered the final round of the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial trailing Jason Dufner by one stroke, but a 2-over 72 (Dufner shot 74) was enough for a one-stroke victory—making him the 12th multiple winner at Colonial (also won in 2010). The tournament basically came down to a two-man competition over the final 36 holes, with a triple bogey on the par-4 15th Sunday by Dufner helping secure his second win at Colonial. Things got interesting on the final hole, however, as he violated Rule 20-7 as he played his ball on the green from the wrong place, leading to a two-stroke penalty. The victory (the eighth of his career) was the fourth in the state of Texas, compared to three in Georgia and one in Hawaii. It also gave him multiple wins in three tournaments (2004 and 2007 AT&T Classic and 2008 and 2009 Valero Texas Open are the others). Final-round, 2-over 72 snapped a string of 15 consecutive rounds in the 60s at Colonial, dating to the first round in 2009. Has yet to miss a cut or finish outside of the top 30 in seven starts at Colonial CC, including four consecutive top-10 finishes. Moved to No. 3 in the FedExCup standings following the event…In an event he has played more than any other on the PGA TOUR, claimed his ninth TOUR win, at the John Deere Classic in July. It was his 11th start in the Quad Cities event. In a playoff against Troy Matteson, on the first extra hole he made a 5-foot putt for double bogey at No. 18 to extend the playoff. From the fairway bunker, also at 18 on the second extra hole, hit his approach shot to within six inches and tapped in for the win when Matteson missed his bid for birdie. With the victory, he stopped three-time defending champion Steve Stricker from winning a fourth straight title. Stricker finished T5. The win also moved Johnson to No. 2 in FedExCup standings…Finished T9 at the British Open in his attempt to become the 11th player since 1934 to win on the PGA TOUR the week before winning a major, with Lee Trevino the only player performing the feat at the British Open. After missing the cut in his first three starts at the British Open, has reeled off six consecutive made cuts, with this year marking his first top-10 finish…In his third Ryder Cup appearance, went 3-1-0 at the Medinah CC as the American team fell to Europe. Posted four birdies in his first seven holes in his singles match against Graeme McDowell en route to a 2-and-1 victory.

PERSONAL:

Began playing golf at age 10…Lists his father and mother among his heroes. Father is a chiropractor…Huge Drake University and University of Iowa sports fan…The gallery at BellSouth Classic at first TOUR victory included a group of about 10 men from Iowa who gave him financial support early in his career, buying a stake in Zach for $500 a share. Some were seeing him play as a pro for the first time. "It started out as a business, but it ended up as a business family," Johnson said of his relationship with them. "It's unbelievable having them here. They would buy a couple stock shares in me and just allow me to go out and not have to worry about the necessities of traveling week to week."…When heavy rains caused flooding in the Midwest in the summer of 2008, stepped up to help. Served as the spokesman on a public service announcement and held a one-day golf event in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, that raised $350,000. Was instrumental, along with Jerry Kelly, in starting the PGA TOUR Flood Relief effort, which donated approximately $125,000 to the cause…In July of 2010, announced formation of the Zach Johnson Foundation that will benefit children in need in the Greater Cedar Rapids area. The Foundation's premier event will be the Zach Johnson Foundation Classic, a tournament that will feature at least four PGA TOUR players as well as some of the game's future superstars. Inaugural event took place at Elmcrest CC in Cedar Rapids on Aug. 1, 2011…Website is zachjohnsongolf.com.

Claimed T29 honors at the U.S. Open and Travelers Championship a week later. With two events remaining in the Regular Season to move from No. 154 in the FedExCup standings to inside the top 125 and earn a berth into the FedExCup Playoffs, missed the cut at the PGA Championship and Wyndham Championship and settled in at No. 158 on the money list…In an effort to make the top 125, played in all four events in the fall, with a T28 at the Children's Miracle Network Hospitals Classic his best finish.

PERSONAL:

In 2003 he decided to make a fresh start after years of feeling frustrated with both his game and life situation. Since then has worked hard with his attitude, as he has become more relaxed and content both on and off the course. His work with his Swedish coach, Annchristine Lundstrom, has helped enormously and he credits her for the hints she has given him to fully start taking personal leadership…At 6-5, one of the tallest players in golf…Son of a superintendent.

His only two bogeys of the week came on back-to-back holes midway through the second round. Pocketed a check for $117,000, which moved him to No. 2 on the money list and locked up a berth on the PGA TOUR in 2013 after only two starts. PERSONAL:
Lists playing in the 1999 Masters and winning the 1998 U.S. Amateur, with older brother Trip as his caddie, as his biggest thrills in golf…Credits his father for giving him his start in golf…Lists Fred Couples as his hero…Sister, Kelli, was a two-time U.S. Women's Amateur champion and currently plays on the LPGA. Brother, Trip, a former All-American at Oklahoma State, won the 2007 U.S. Mid-Amateur and was in the 2008 Masters field. Trip was the 1994 U.S. Amateur runner-up to Tiger Woods…Following years of back pain and going "unsuccessfully through 13 doctors," decided he was likely "done with golf for good." In one last effort, flew to Germany in March 2011, where he underwent treatment with success enough to allow him to return to competitive golf pain-free. The procedure involved taking 16 tubes of blood and treating it in a procedure similar to platelet therapy. First hole-in-one was at Dallas CC on No. 15 with a 7-iron at age 16.

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISH:
T17—World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship.

2012 SEASON:
Had an up-and-down week at the Abu Dhabi HSBC Golf Championship. Opened with a 1-over 73 but came back with a second-round 65. Followed that with a 4-under, 71-69 finish on the weekend to T6…Playing in Spain, finished solo second at the Open de Andalucia, two strokes behind winner Julien Quesne. Opened with an 8-under 64 and shot rounds of 68-68 on the weekend, but it wasn't enough to overcome Quesne's 67-64 Saturday-Sunday showing at Aloha GC…After a third-round, 5-under 67 gave him a share of the lead heading into Sunday at the Trophee Hassan II in Morocco, he stumbled to an even-par 72 to drop to a T6…In defense of his Maybank Malaysian Open title, he finished T7 in Kuala Lumpur in mid-April…Had another T7 three weeks later, at the Open de Espana in Seville, Spain…Had a strong showing at the BMW Italian Open in September in Turin. Enjoyed four rounds in the 60s, including a pair of 65s over his final 36 holes to T3, four shots short of winner Gonzalo Fernandez-Castano…Won for the first time in more than a year when he captured the Barclays Singapore Open in mid-November. Finished regulation tied with Louis Oosthuizen at Sentosa GC. Survived a birdie-putt miss by Oosthuizen on the second extra hole and then took full advantage of his good fortune, making a 10-foot eagle putt on the par-5 third playoff hole to take the victory. Because of the extra session and weather delays for much of the week, he had to play 32 holes Sunday…A week after winning, he played well again, this time at the UBS Hong Kong Open. Put himself in contention with a third-round 64 at Hong Kong GC. Fired a final-round, 2-under 68 to T4, four shots behind winner Miguel Angel Jimenez.

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

2—John Deere Classic; T10—RBC Canadian Open, Wyndham Championship.

2012 SEASON:

Finished a career-best No. 45 in the FedExCup standings…Opened with a career-low-tying, 10-under 61 in the first round of the John Deere Classic, where he led after the first three rounds. Lost in a playoff to Zach Johnson on the second extra hole at TPC Deere Run. Trailing Johnson by two holes with two to play, sank an unlikely eagle putt from 52 feet at the par-5 17th to finish tied with Johnson at 20-under. On the first playoff hole (par-4 18th), both hit their approach shots into the water hazard and made double bogey. Back at 18 for the third time of the day, he couldn't match Johnson's birdie and finished second. Being the highest finisher of the top-five players not already exempt into the following week's British Open, the performance netted him his first invitation to the Open…Finished T10 at the Wyndham Championship, opening with a 64 followed by three rounds of 68.

PERSONAL:

Started playing golf when he was 7…Got married shortly after graduating from college…Lists Superman as his hero. Says his real-life heroes are his parents, Steve Matteson and Lucy and John Steele, for introducing him to golf, hunting and fishing at an early age.

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

2—Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard, U.S. Open; T5—British Open; T9—The Honda Classic.

2012 SEASON:

Finished a career-best 42nd in the FedExCup standings…Began the final round four strokes behind third-round leaders Robert Rock and Tiger Woods at the Abu Dhabi HSBC Golf Championship. Shot his second consecutive 68 at Abu Dhabi GC, including a hole-in-one on the par-3 12th hole and a birdie on his closing hole, to finish T3 in his season debut…A week after a T33 at the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship, bettered an opening-round, 3-over 73 by nine strokes with a 6-under 64 in the second round of The Honda Classic en route to a T9 in his first stroke-play event of the TOUR season. The top-10 came a year after a T6 at PGA National…At the Arnold Palmer Invitational, a second-round, 9-under 63 helped earn him a spot in Sunday's final pairing with eventual winner Tiger Woods. Made a 51-foot eagle putt on the par-5, sixth hole to temporarily get within one stroke of Woods, but after Woods made birdie on the same hole, he never again got within reach of the eventual champion, who won by five shots. His runner-up finish was the second of his PGA TOUR career, with the first also coming at the Arnold Palmer Invitational, in 2005…Came close to winning again, this time on the European Tour in May. Made it to the finals of the Volvo World Match Play Championship before Nicolas Colsaerts won the tournament, 1-up, in extremely gusty conditions at Finca Cortesin in Spain. Won preliminary matches against Robert Karlsson, Richard Finch and Sergio Garcia, and then made his way into the finals when he defeated Rafael Cabrera-Bello, 2-up…Entered the final round of the U.S. Open tied with Jim Furyk at 1-under, but a 3-over 73 left him T2 and just one stroke behind Webb Simpson in his attempt to give Northern Ireland three consecutive U.S. Open titles. Had a chance to force an 18-hole playoff but his 25-foot birdie putt slid off to the left. Fell to 0 for 2 when carrying at least a share of the lead into the final round on the PGA TOUR (led the 2011 PLAYERS Championship before a final-round, 7-over 79 led to a T33 finish). Has never missed a cut in seven starts at the U.S. Open, with top-20 finishes in his last four starts (T18 in 2009, won in 2010 and T14 in 2011)…Playing in the final group with Adam Scott, struggled to a 5-over 75 to finish T5 at the British Open. Was attempting to become the first player since Angel Cabrera (2007 U.S. Open and 2009 Masters) to claim major championships as his first two PGA TOUR wins. Earned 10th top-20 finish in his last 17 major championship starts (11 of 17 top-25s) and has finished no worse than 12th in this year's majors: Masters (T12), U.S. Open (T2) and British Open (T5). His T5 finish, which came in his ninth British Open start, topped his previous-best finish of T11 at the 2005 British Open…Finished 1-3 in his third career start for the winning European Ryder Cup team. Dropped his singles match to Zach Johnson, 2 and 1…Late in the campaign, at the Talisker Masters in Melbourne, Australia, in mid-November, couldn't recover from a 5-over 77 in the second round. Rallied for a top-10, though, with a 67-71 weekend to T8 at Kingston Heath GC… Stepped into the winner's circle for the first time since 2010 with a three-stroke win over Keegan Bradley at the World Challenge, which also served as the site of his most recent victory. In three starts at the Woods-hosted event, has won twice (2010 and 2012) and finished runner-up once (2009). Moved into the lead for good following a second-round, 6-under 66, holding a three-stroke lead after 36 holes and two-shot cushion over Bradley through 54 holes. Led the field by hitting 63 of 72 greens in regulation, eight more than his nearest competitor (Jim Furyk, 55 of 72). Owns 12 sub-par rounds in as many attempts at Sherwood CC, including 10 in the 60s.

PERSONAL:

Picked up the sport at age 7 with his brothers at the urging of his dad…Says standing on the 18th green at Pebble Beach after winning the U.S. Open is his biggest thrill in golf…Played numerous sports as a youngster, but, as he says, "golf always won."…Earned an honorary doctorate degree from the University of Ulster, along with, among others, Liverpool Football Club manager Kenny Dalglish, broadcaster Miriam O'Callaghan and actress Susan Lynch.

Runner-up finish marked his best result in the event in four starts, bettering a T5 in 2009. Fell 3-down in his semifinal match to Westwood through four holes but reeled off six birdies from Nos. 6-13 to build a 3-up lead…A week later, at The Honda Classic, was one of just two players to post four-consecutive rounds in the 60s as he overtook the world's No. 1 ranking from Luke Donald with a convincing two-stroke win over Tiger Woods and Tom Gillis. The win also made him the fifth consecutive international winner of The Honda Classic. His margin of victory is the largest in PGA Championship history, breaking Jack Nicklaus' seven-stroke win in 1980. He joins Woods as the only two active players under age 40 with multiple major wins. Woods won his second major in his 18th major championship start (12 as a pro and six as an amateur). Is the only player to finish inside the top 15 in the FedExCup standings in the first six seasons…Carded a final-round, bogey-free 8-under 64 at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am to storm back from a six-stroke deficit (matching the largest comeback of his career) to Charlie Wi at the beginning of the day to win his 40th PGA TOUR event by two strokes. His fourth victory at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am (second only to Mark O'Meara's five wins) moved into ninth all-time in PGA TOUR wins, surpassing Cary Middlecoff and Tom Watson and moving within five wins of tying Walter Hagen. The win, the 13th of his career in the state of California, also padded his lead among active players with PGA TOUR victories at multiple-course events, with 13, followed by Tiger Woods (11). Paired with Woods in the final round for the 30th time in a PGA TOUR-sanctioned event…Lost on second playoff hole when Bill Haas made birdie-3 on the 10th hole at the Northern Trust Open (Keegan Bradley was also in the playoff). Drained a 26-foot, 9-inch putt on No. 18 during regulation to force a playoff. His only three-putts of the week came in the final round, on the par-3 14th hole and on the par-4 15th…The Shell Houston Open's defending champion returned to Redstone GC, where he came close to successfully a title since winning the 2008-2009 Northern Trust Opens. Needed just 22 putts in the first round en route to a 7-under 65, 10 fewer than he needed in the second round (2-under 70). Finished T4 in Houston…Finished T3 at the Masters, with rounds of 74-68-66-72. Was one shot off the lead after 54 holes and played in the final pairing Sunday with Louis Oosthuizen. Joined Matt Kuchar as the first players since 1999 to birdie the 18th hole at Augusta National GC in the first three rounds (Shigeki Maruyama and Justin Leonard). They both made par on the closing hole in the final round…Highlight of the season came in May when he was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in a ceremony the week of THE PLAYERS Championship…Finished T7 in his 14th start at the HP Byron Nelson Championship, his first appearance outside Dallas since finishing T3 in 2007. His win at the HP Byron Nelson Championship in 1996 was one of five top-10 finishes he's enjoyed at the event. He also T6 in 1998 and T2 in 2000…Next top-10 didn't come until eight starts later, when he finished T4 at the Deutsche Bank Championship. Week was highlighted by four rounds in the 60s, marking the first time since the 2011 Farmers Insurance Open that he had performed the feat. It was also the first time he'd strung together four sub-70 rounds in six starts at the Deutsche Bank Championship…Held a share of the final-round lead with Vijay Singh at the BMW Championship but shot a Sunday 70 at Crooked Stick GC to finish T2. Moved from No. 9 to No. 4 in the FedExCup standings entering the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola…Turned in a 3-1 record at the Ryder Cup in a losing effort for the United States team. Paired with Keegan Bradley to win first three matches

2012 SEASON:

Finished a career-best No. 11 in the FedExCup standings. Previous-best showing was No. 21 in 2010…In the fist event following the Playoffs, he took advantage of a home-field advantage at the Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children Open at TPC Summerlin in Las Vegas. In the first round, he holed out for an eagle-two at the par-4 15th en route to a course-record-tying, 10-under 61 to take a one-stroke lead over Brendon de Jonge. A 5-under 66 in the final round was good for a one-stroke victory over de Jonge, making him the first player to take a first-round lead at the event all the way to the winner's circle since the event was shortened to 72 holes in 2004. His second PGA TOUR win came less than a month before his wife, Nichole, was due to give birth to the couple's first child…Finished T4 at the Arnold Palmer Invitational, with rounds of 71-71-71-70. Was one of two players (winner Tiger Woods was the other) with four under-par rounds. Recorded his third career hole-in-one on TOUR in the first round with a 5-iron from 201 yards on the seventh hole…Four weeks later, was one of just 11 players to break 70 in the final round of the Valero Texas Open. Claimed a T8, with Cameron Tringale and Hunter Haas. The top-10 finish marked just his second start in the event (T53 in 2005)…Finished T5 at the Wells Fargo Championship after holding a share of the first-round lead…Four rounds in the 60s was good for a T8 at the John Deere Classic in his fourth appearance at TPC Deere Run. Eagled the par-5 second hole in the first and third rounds on his way to a 14-under total, six strokes shy of Zach Johnson's winning score…Opened with a 7-under 64 and went on to finish T10 at the Deutsche Bank Championship for the second year in a row…Finished T10 at the BMW Championship and was one of two players to start the week outside the cut line for the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola and advance to Atlanta. Started the week No. 35 and moved up to No. 28…After beginning the FedExCup Playoffs at No. 64 in the standings and climbing into the TOUR Championship field, finished T3 (his career-best seventh top-10 finish of the season) at East Lake to secure a career-best 11th-place finish in the FedExCup. Managed top-25 finishes in all four Playoffs events, including top 10s in the last three. Recorded the first double eagle on No. 2 at Augusta National in Masters history. Did it in the final round (4-iron from 253 yards). It was the fourth double eagle in tournament history (Bruce Devlin on No. 8, 1967; Jeff Maggert on No. 13, 1994; Gene Sarazen on No. 15, 1935. Sarazen made the double eagle on April 7, 1935 and then won the next day in a 36-hole playoff.). Made his double eagle on April 8. Sarazen is the only player since 1900 to record a double eagle on his way to winning a major championship. His double eagle is the 11th in a major since 1970…Shook off his Masters disappointment a week later by traveling to Kuala Lumpur for the Maybank Malaysian Open. Opened with a 66 at Kuala Lumpur G&CCC and followed with rounds of 68-69-68 to defeat Stephen Gallacher by three strokes at the Asian Tour-European Tour co-sanctioned event…One of three players to record all four rounds at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational, finishing solo fourth. Was bidding to become the first South African to win the Bridgestone Invitational and the first to win a PGA TOUR event at Firestone CC since David Frost in 1989. Previous-best finish at a World Golf Championships event came at the 2011 HSBC Champions (T7). The 2010 British Open champion was also seeking to become just the second player in history to record his first two PGA TOUR wins at a major championship and a World Golf Championships event (Martin Kaymer, 2010 PGA Championship and 2011 World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions)…Finished T5 at The Barclays in his first start in the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup…Came back the following week and carried a three-stroke lead over Rory McIlroy into the final round of the Deutsche Bank Championship. A Monday 71 on the Labor Day finish, compared to his fellow competitor's 67, left him one stroke back and in solo second place. It was his third top-five finish in his last four TOUR starts, dating to a fourth-place performance at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational. Moved from No. 21 to No. 5 in the FedExCup standings with the strong showing…Fired four sub-70 rounds at the BMW Masters to T6 in late-October in Shanghai…Still in China a week later, outside Shenzhen, he opened with three consecutive, 4-under 68s at Mission Hills GC before a final-round 65 resulted in T6 honors at the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions. His 65 Sunday marked his ninth straight round at par or better in his third consecutive start in the event…Made a strong bid for his third title of the campaign but came up short in a playoff with Matteo Manassero at the Barclays Singapore Open in mid-November. Shot a final-round 67 at Sentosa GC to force the extra session, then had a birdie putt for the win on the second playoff hole. Couldn't make his putt and then watched as Manassero wrapped up the title when he drained a 10-foot eagle putt on the next hole…Shot four sub-70 rounds at the European Tour's season finale, the DP World Tour Championship, in late-November to finish fifth. Completed the European Tour season third in the Race to Dubai rankings…Finished fourth at the Nedbank Golf Challenge in his home country of South Africa. Was one of only five players who finished the tournament under par.

2012 SEASON:

Closed his season with a T19 at the Web.com Tour Championship near Dallas to wind up No. 13 on the money list and earn 2013 PGA TOUR playing privileges. Ended the year No. 3 on Tour in Greens in Regulation…Rounds of 66-67 on the weekend led to a T2 finish at the Panama Claro Championship, equaling his best on the Tour since a T2 at the 2009 Stonebrae Classic…Lost in a playoff to countryman Nick Flanagan at the BMW Charity Pro-Am. Fired a 5-under 66 in the final round at Thornblade Club and finished at 15-under 271. Held the outright lead at 16-under but bogeyed his final hole of regulation. Watched as Flanagan, playing in the group behind him, rolled in a 12-foot birdie putt to force the first playoff of the season. Lost the playoff on the third extra hole when his tee shot found the trees to the left, forcing him to chip back onto the fairway. Eventually made a double bogey-6 to Flanagan's par-4. Second-place check of $64,800 moved him from No. 19 to No. 6 on the money list at the one-third mark of the season…Added his third runner-up finish in late September at the WNB Golf Classic where he was T2, one stroke behind winner Luke Guthrie. Started the final round at Midland CC two shots back of leader, and defending champion, Danny Lee and moved into the lead early with an eagle at the par-5 fourth hole. Held or shared the lead during most of the day but stumbled with bogeys at Nos. 16 and 17 and failed to birdie the closing hole. Earned enough money to jump from No. 16 to No. 8 on the money list and lock up a spot on the PGA TOUR for the 2013 season…Was on the leaderboard through the first two rounds at the Miccosukee Championship before a pair of over-par rounds on the weekend eventually dropped him to a T9 finish…Finished third in the Emirates Australian Open in December, just two shot off Peter Senior's winning score at the Lakes GC in Sydney.

PERSONAL:

Lists qualifying for the 2003 British Open with wife, Katie, on the bag as his biggest thrill in golf. Biggest thrill outside of golf was the birth of his kids…Lists Peter Daicos (Australian football legend) as his hero…Got his start in golf by using an old set of his grandmother's clubs…Non-golf related jobs include working as a sports reporter and a bartender…Favorite golf course played is St. Andrews. Would most like to play Augusta National…Never travels without his laptop…Favorite professional team is the Collingwood Football Club. Favorite TV show is "Seinfeld." Favorite movie is "The Hangover." Favorite entertainer is the late Michael Jackson. Favorite book is Confessions of an Economic Hitman. Favorite food is steak. Favorite city to visit is Las Vegas. Would round out his dream foursome with Greg Norman, Bill Clinton and Miss USA…Bucket List includes taking his wife on a second honeymoon.

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—RBC Heritage; 2—Shell Houston Open, Sony Open in Hawaii; T3—PGA Championship; T4—Wyndham Championship; T10—THE PLAYERS Championship.

2012 SEASON:

Turned in his second best finish in the FedExCup standings at No. 24. Best career finish in standings is No. 21 in 2008…Notched the third runner-up finish of his career, with a T2 effort at the Sony Open in Hawaii, two strokes behind champion Johnson Wagner…Second runner-up finish of the season came at the Shell Houston Open in his final bid for a Masters invite. Needing to win outside Houston to get into the Masters field the following week, his opening-round, 7-under 65 got him headed in the right direction, but his bid ultimately fell a stroke short of Hunter Mahan's winning score of 17-under…After entering the day with a one-stroke lead over Colt Knost, birdied three of his first five holes en route to a 2-under 69 and a five-stroke victory over Zach Johnson at the RBC Heritage. His first victory since winning the 2010 RBC Canadian Open tied him with Jesper Parnevik for most wins (five) on the PGA TOUR by a Swedish player. He also moved to No. 4 in the FedExCup standings. Became just the sixth player to win the RBC Heritage without having competed in the Masters the week before (since the RBC Heritage moved into its slot after the Masters in 1983), joining Brian Gay (2009), Boo Weekley (2007), Aaron Baddeley (2006), Bob Tway (1995) and Davis Love III (1987). The win (his third top-10 finish in 10 starts at the event) was the ninth by an international player in the 44-year history of the RBC Heritage and first since Baddeley in 2006. Roomed with Tim Clark (his college roommate at North Carolina State University) in a condo at the RBC Heritage during tournament week…Picked up his fourth top-10 of the season, with a T10 effort at THE PLAYERS Championship. It was his second top-10 in eight starts at TPC Sawgrass…Finished T3 at the PGA Championship after holding the first-round lead and a share of the lead through 36 holes. It was his first top-10 in eight career starts in the event. Previous-best finish was T24 in 2010. His only two previous top-10s in a major were T6 at the 2008 U.S. Open and T8 at the 2006 British Open. Also shared the first-round lead at the 2002 British Open but finished T43. The only other player from Sweden to lead a major after the first round is Robert Karlsson, at the 2008 PGA Championship (finished T20). The last Swedish player to lead a major coming into this week was Peter Hanson, after the third round at this year's Masters (finished T3). Other notable leads by Swedish players include Henrik Stenson leading the 2006 PGA Championship after the second round (finished T14), while Jesper Parnevik led the 1997 British Open after the third round (finished T2). No player from Sweden has won a major…Finished T4 at the Wyndham Championship after holding the first-round lead

WEB.COM TOUR VICTORIES (2):
2011 South Georgia Classic, Soboba Golf Classic.

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISH:
1—The Greenbrier Classic.

2012 SEASON:
Advanced to the second FedExCup Playoffs event in rookie season, finishing No. 93 in the FedExCup standings…Nominated for PGA TOUR Rookie of the Year…Entered the final round of The Greenbrier Classic trailing Webb Simpson by four strokes before a 6-under 64 (including an eagle-birdie finish) left him tied with Troy Kelly at 16-under 264. A birdie on the third playoff hole (the par-3 18th) gave him his first-career win. It was the third come-from-behind win in as many years at The Greenbrier Classic. By virtue of the victory, earned a spot in the British Open based on finishing among the top-two players on a cumulative money list that began at THE PLAYERS Championship and ran through The Greenbrier Classic. The win, which came in the second playoff in Greenbrier Classic history and eighth of the season, was the sixth this year by a first-time winner and the second by a rookie. Victory came despite entering the week coming off five consecutive missed cuts. Victory came at age 28 years, 7 months, 29 days, making him the 10th player in his 20s to win this year, with his title the 11th by that group. Previous-best finish on TOUR was a T13 at his season-opening Sony Open in Hawaii.

PERSONAL:
Father got him started in the game at age 2…Has had four aces in competitive rounds…Lists hunting and fishing among his hobbies…Would like to play Augusta National one day…First car was a Ford Ranger pickup and now drives a Nissan Titan…Enjoys watching Golf Channel…Favorite movie is "Caddyshack," and he lists Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Gary Player as those to fill out his dream foursome…Did not grow up with formal lessons. Developed his game by playing with his father, Ted, who was a golf-course maintenance worker. Is a natural right-hander, but would flip the clubs over and swing lefthanded to mirror his father…Turned pro right out of high school and worked in the cart barn at Lake Diamond G&CC in Ocala, Fla., to save money for the Florida-based Moonlight Tour.

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

T4—World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship; T5—The Honda Classic.

2012 SEASON:

Finished No. 61 in the FedExCup standings…Opened with a 2-over 75 at the Volvo Golf Champions in South Africa but recovered nicely to finish solo fifth at The Links of Fancourt…A week after a T17 at the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship, competed in his second Honda Classic, where he finished T5 with Justin Rose. It was his first stroke-play start of the season on TOUR. With 56 of 72 greens hit in regulation hit (77.8 percent), he led the field in that category for the week…Equaled his second-best finish in 15 starts in a World Golf Championships event with a T4 at the Cadillac Championship, second only to a runner-up finish at the 2010 Cadillac Championship. Four under-par rounds led to a 13-under finish, three strokes behind champion Justin Rose…A second-round, 3-over 75 was his undoing at the Maybank Malaysian Open in April. Opened with an 8-under 64 at Kuala Lumpur G&CC and finished with a 68 to T6 at the co-sanctioned Asian Tour-European Tour event… Suffered a torn abdomen in June but still played in the U.S. Open, finishing T38 at The Olympic Club. Sat out a month after the U.S. Open to allow the injury to heal. Returned to action at the British Open…Was T5 at the South African Open in mid-November. Couldn't recover from a 2-over 74 in the third round, finishing six shots shy of winner Henrik Stenson…Had four rounds in the 60s at the European Tour's finale, the DP World Tour Championship, to T3. Opened and closed with 4-under 68s at the Jumeirah Golf Estates and added a pair of 67s in the second and third rounds to finish five shots behind winner Rory McIlroy… Picked up his first win on any Tour since the 2011 Masters with a dominating, 11-shot victory in the Thailand Golf Championship on the Asian Tour. Opened 65-65 at Amata Spring GC in Bangkok to take a four-shot lead into the weekend. Shot a third-round 68 to open a five-shot advantage over Daniel Chopra. In the final round, fired a third 65 on the par-72 layout, with seven birdies and no bogeys, to cruise to the convincing win a year after finishing second in the same event… Continued his dominance a week later in Maelane, South Africa, as he was again the runaway winner, taking a 12-shot victory at the Alfred Dunhill Championship, his second victory in the event (2004). He entered the final 18 holes with a 10-stroke lead and shot a 69 at Leopard Creek CC to rout the field.

PERSONAL:

Favorites include filet steak and vacations to Mossel Bay in the western Cape province of South Africa. Favorite course to play is Leopard Creek CC in Mpumalanga, on the southern border of the Kruger National Park in South Africa. Says his idol is Angus Buchan, a farmer "who gave his life to God."

2012 SEASON:

Finished No. 25 in the FedExCup standings, his third straight year inside the top 25. Won a tournament for the 12th consecutive season when he captured the Talisker Masters in November. Trailed Ian Poulter by one shot through 54 at Kingston Heath GC in Melbourne. Shot a final-round, 5-under 67 to eventually cruise to a four-stroke win…First top-10 of the season came in April, when was T8 at the Masters Tournament for his second consecutive top-10 at Augusta National GC. Shot rounds of 75-70-73-66. Final round was highlighted by a hole-in-one on No. 16…Finished third at the AT&T National just three shots off the winning score. Opened with a 75 after waking up 30 minutes before his tee time and arriving at the course as his group was teeing off. Responded with rounds of 67-70-67 to climb the leaderboard…Entered the final round of the British Open with a four-stroke lead over Graeme McDowell and Brandt Snedeker but carded bogeys on his final four holes en route to a 5-over 75 to lose by one stroke to Ernie Els. Fell to six of nine when carrying the lead or co-lead into the final round on TOUR. Turned 32 Monday of tournament week and then began the Open with a 6-under 64, equaling the best round at Royal Lytham & St Annes. The runner-up finish, the ninth of his career, equaled his best finish in 46 major championship starts (T2 at the 2011 Masters). Finished inside the top 15 in the season's first three majors: (T8 at the Masters and T15 at the U.S. Open)…Posted four rounds in the 60s, including a final-round 5-under 66 (equaling the low round of the day), to finish T7 at the Deutsche Bank Championship, marking the fifth top-10 in eight starts at the event (won in 2003, T2 in 2004, T5 in 2010 and T8 in 2011)…Finished T6 at the BMW Championship, four shots off the winning score. Entered the final round two shots off the lead…In his third consecutive start at the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions, posted four sub-par rounds to claim eighth-place-honors. In the first round at Mission Hills GC's Olazabal Course, hit driver and a 2-iron to 10 feet at the par-5 ninth—his last hole of the day—for an eagle to open the week with a 7-under 65, his low round of the tournament…A week later, at the Barclays Singapore Open, rode a second-round 66 at Sentosa GC to a T5 finish, five strokes out of the Matteo Manassero-Louis Oosthuizen playoff.

PERSONAL:

Golf hero is countryman Greg Norman, who along with former coach Butch Harmon, urged him to play several seasons on the European Tour.

PGA TOUR VICTORIES (3):

2011 Wyndham Championship, Deutsche Bank Championship. 2012 U.S. Open.

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—U.S. Open; T3—Hyundai Tournament of Champions; 4—Wells Fargo Championship; T5—TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola; T7—The Greenbrier Classic; T8—Waste Management Phoenix Open; T10—Transitions Championship.

2012 SEASON:

Finished No. 16 in the FedExCup standings…Opened his season in a similar way the previous year. The No. 2 man in the 2011 FedExCup shot a final-round, 5-under 68 for a T3 finish at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions…A month later, opened with a 6-under 65 at the Waste Management Phoenix Open as the highest-ranked player in the field at the time (No. 6). Went on to T8…Posted his third top-10 of the season with a T10 at the Transitions Championship despite having to withdraw from the pro-am with food poisoning. Carded four rounds in the 60s at the Copperhead Course for the second-consecutive year and has posted 10 sub-70 scores in 14-career rounds…Finished fourth at the Wells Fargo Championship after holding a share of the first-round lead and sole possession of the third-round lead. Just missed a long putt on No. 18 for birdie to join the playoff. Made his fourth start at the Wells Fargo Championship (missed cut in 2009, missed cut in 2010 and T21 in 2011). Had gone 220 consecutive holes on TOUR without recording a three-putt until he did so at the par-4 11th hole at Quail Hollow Club in the final round…Entered the final round of the U.S. Open trailing Jim Furyk and Graeme McDowell by four strokes but carded a 2-under 68 to finish 1-over 281, good enough for a one-stroke win over McDowell and Michael Thompson. It was his first major championship title. Joined Jack Fleck, Billy Casper, Scott Simpson and Lee Janzen as come-from-behind winners of the five U.S. Opens held at The Olympic Club. After two early bogeys, tallied three consecutive birdies on Nos. 6-8 and another on No. 10 before closing with eight pars to win for the third time on the PGA TOUR. Added his name to the list of Dustin Johnson (six), Sean O'Hair (four), Anthony Kim (three) and Rory McIlroy (three) as players in their 20s with three or more TOUR wins. His win is the sixth in the last eight majors by a player under age 30. Became just the third American winner of the U.S. Open since 2004, joining 2008 champion Tiger Woods and 2009 winner Lucas Glover. Also became the first player to win the U.S. Open in his second start (T14 in 2011) since Jerry Pate in 1976. The win, his first top-10 in his fifth major championship appearance, gives him a 10-year exemption into the U.S. Open, five-year exemptions to the Masters, PGA Championship, British Open and PLAYERS, as well as a five-year exemption on the PGA TOUR…Held the second- and third-round leads at The Greenbrier Classic and entered the final nine holes with a one-stroke lead for a second consecutive year. Again struggled on the closing nine, carding a 4-over 40 to finish T7. Played his first 65 holes with just one bogey but had four in his final seven holes. Recorded his 13th top-10 since last year's Greenbrier Classic, the most on TOUR…Did not play in the British Open due to the pending birth of his daughter Willow. Also missed the RBC Canadian Open and World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational after daughter was born…Jumped out to a share of the first-round lead at the BMW Championship with a 64, but finished T51 after three over-par closing rounds…A 4-under 66 equaled the best final round at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, giving him a career-best T5 finish at the event and a 16th-place showing in the FedExCup…Finished 2-2 in his first Ryder Cup appearance for the U.S. team. Lost, 2 and 1, to Ian Poulter in his singles match as the European team won the biennial competition.

PERSONAL:

Attended the same high school (Raleigh Broughton) and college (Wake Forest) as current Champions Tour player Scott Hoch…Grew up playing against Brendon Todd, another PGA TOUR rookie in 2009, during their youth in the Raleigh, N.C., area…One of six children.

1—Farmers Insurance Open, TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola; 2—The Barclays; T3—British Open; 6—Deutsche Bank Championship; T8—Humana Challenge in partnership with the Clinton Foundation; T9—World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship.

2012 SEASON:

Controlled his destiny entering the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola and came away with a three-shot win to claim the FedExCup title…Eventual FedExCup champion recorded his first top-10 finish with a T8 at the Humana Challenge, with rounds of 64-68-66-71. Was tied for second entering the final round, three strokes behind winner Mark Wilson…Defeated Kyle Stanley with a par-3 on the second playoff hole (No. 16) to win the Farmers Insurance Open. Stanley had a five-shot lead entering the final round, and he was seven shots behind Stanley when Sunday play began. The last time there was a seven-shot comeback on TOUR was Stuart Appleby's win at the 2010 Greenbrier Classic, where he shot a final-round 59. The last time there was a bigger comeback in the final round was when Stewart Cink came from nine back to win the 2004 RBC Heritage. The biggest come-from-behind win at the Farmers Insurance Open is eight shots, by Scott Simpson in 1998. The record for the largest lead on TOUR with 18 holes to play only to lose is six strokes by five players. The last two with that dubious distinction were Greg Norman at the 1996 Masters and Sergio Garcia at the 2005 Wells Fargo Championship. Recorded his third straight top -10 at the Farmers Insurance Open and fourth overall in six career starts (third in 2007, T2 in 2010 and T9 in 2011). Is no stranger to coming from behind to win. In 2011, he came from six strokes behind Luke Donald on the final day to capture the RBC Heritage. He forced a playoff and then went on to defeat Donald on the third extra hole (No. 18), with a par-4. Improved to 2-0 in playoffs on TOUR. Win came in just second start since having right-hip surgery on his labrum in Vail, Colo., in November. The surgery happened 11 months after he had left-hip surgery. Had five straight birdies in the second round (Nos. 17-3). One week earlier, at the Humana Challenge, he had six straight birdies in the third round at the La Quinta CC…Seeking to join Payne Stewart (1989-90), Davis Love III (1991-92) and Boo Weekley (2007-08) as repeat winners of the RBC Heritage, finished T17 in his title defense at Harbour Town. Kept a 19-year streak alive, as no defending champion has missed the cut at the RBC Heritage since Love in 1993…Had an interesting week as the lone American entered in the European Tour's Volvo World Match Play Championship in May. At the event at Finca Cortesin in Spain, his clubs didn't arrive on his flight, so he put together a set that included John Senden's backup driver and a putter from the clubhouse for his first match. The makeshift grouping of clubs didn't seem to bother him, though, as he defeated Thomas Bjorn, 5 and 4, in an early round match. Eventually T5, with his own clubs, losing to eventual champion Nicolas Colsaerts in the quarterfinals, 4 and 3…Finished T3 in his fourth British Open, having missed the cut in his first three (2008-09, 2011). Began the week by playing his first 40 holes without a bogey, the longest bogey-free streak to start a major championship in the last 20 years. Held a one-stroke lead over Adam Scott heading into the weekend, but rounds of 73-74 led to a T3 finish. The T3 came in his 20th major championship and was his fourth top-10 finish (T3 in the 2008 Masters, T8 in the 2010 U.S. Open and T9 in the 2008 U.S. Open)…Finished second at The Barclays for the third runner-up performance of his career, which moved him from No. 19 to No. 2 in the FedExCup standings entering the Deutsche Bank Championship. It marked the fourth top-five finish in his last seven Playoffs events: 2011 Deutsche Bank Championship (T3), 2011 Barclays (T3) and the 2010 Deutsche Bank Championship (T5)…Came back the following week with a solo sixth-place finish at the Deutsche Bank Championship. Has yet to miss a cut in six starts at TPC Boston, with top-six finishes in his last three starts (T5 in 2010 and T3 in 2011). The following day, was a captain's pick by Davis Love III to represent the United States in the Ryder Cup in September…Finished T37 at the BMW Championship, but managed to hang on to the fifth spot in the FedExCup standings, meaning a win at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola would guarantee the FedExCup…Did just that, surging into a share of the 54-hole lead with Justin Rose at East Lake GC, following a sensational, 6-under 64 (equaling the round of the week) and then holding off all challengers with a final-round 68 to secure the fourth win of his PGA TOUR career and the FedExCup. Added his name to the list of previous winners, Tiger Woods, Vijay Singh, Jim Furyk and Bill Haas. Final round was close for most of the way, but birdies on three of his last six holes (including a chip-in for birdie from the front of the 17th green) helped him hold off final-round charges for a three-stroke win over Justin Rose and four-shot margin over Donald and Ryan Moore. For his efforts, earned $1,440,000 for winning the tournament and $10 million for the FedExCup title…Went 1-2 for the U.S. team in his first career appearance in the Ryder Cup. Lost singles match, 5 and 3, to Paul Lawrie as the European team claimed its second consecutive victory.

PERSONAL:

In 2010, was joined by fellow PGA TOUR player Lucas Glover for the fourth annual Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl Charity Cup to raise money for flood-related problems in his hometown of Nashville, Tenn. In the Ryder/Presidents Cup style event, those associated with the SEC (captained by Snedeker) teamed up against a Glover-led ACC team. He is a Vanderbilt grad, with Glover having graduated from Clemson. After four years, the charitable event has raised nearly $200,000. Older brother Haymes, who was an All-SEC golfer at Mississippi, caddied for Brandt in the 2004 Masters and won "Big Break X" on Golf Channel in 2008. Haymes was granted a sponsor invite to the 2009 Children's Miracle Network Classic and the brothers were paired together. Haymes missed the cut while Brandt finished T60…Both were introduced to golf by their maternal grandmother, who managed a golf course in West Plains, Mo…Big fan of Vanderbilt sports teams.

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—True South Classic; T5—Children's Miracle Network Hospitals Classic; T7—RBC Canadian Open.

2012 SEASON:

Finished No. 75 in the FedExCup standings, missing a return trip to the BMW Championship…Set the tournament scoring record at Annandale GC with a 24-under 264 to claim his second career PGA TOUR title, at the True South Classic in Madison, Miss., by two strokes over Jason Bohn. It was his first start in the event. The win moved him from No. 163 to No. 95 in FedExCup standings, putting him in prime position to make the Playoffs. En route to the win, posted back-to-back, 8-under 64s in the second and third rounds. Following the win, announced to television crews and the crowd the pregnancy of his wife with their first child. Stallings told his wife, Jennifer, that if he won, he was going to announce the news a week before originally planned…A week later in Canada, posted his PGA TOUR career-low round of 7-under 63 in the third round to claim a T7 at the RBC Canadian Open. On his way to the 63, holed a gap wedge from 103 yards for an eagle-2 on the 10th hole…Ended the season on a high note by posting four sub-par rounds at the Children's Miracle Network Hospitals Classic, good for a T5. PGA TOUR VICTORIES (1):

2012 Waste Management Phoenix Open.

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—Waste Management Phoenix Open; 2—Farmers Insurance Open.

2012 SEASON:

Finished a career-best No. 31 in the FedExCup standings, missing qualifying for the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola by one shot at the BMW Championship…Lost to Brandt Snedeker on the second playoff hole (No. 16) with a bogey-4 at the Farmers Insurance Open. Had a five-shot lead entering the final round and a three-shot lead on the 72nd hole but spun a wedge shot off the green and into the water hazard fronting the green. Subsequently triple-bogeyed the hole to fall into a tie with Snedeker. The record for the largest lead on TOUR with 18 holes to play only to lose is six strokes by five players. Three-round total of 198 tied the tournament's 54-hole record orginally set by Tiger Woods (2008) and Woody Blackburn (1985). Led the field in Putts (Greens in Regulation), at 1.632, and was second in Driving Distance, at 314.4 yards. Playoff loss came in his second start at the Farmers Insurance Open (T53 in 2011). It was his first playoff on the PGA TOUR. Held a share of the lead after the first round and sole possession of the lead after the second and third rounds…One week and, as he puts it, "6,000 new Facebook friends" later, rallied from eight strokes back in the final round of the Waste Management Phoenix Open with a 6-under 65 to claim his first PGA TOUR win by a stroke over Ben Crane. The come-from-behind win matched the third-largest in TOUR history and was the largest in tournament history. Was cheered on by a gallery all week who affectionately dubbed him "The Comeback Kid." Choking back tears at the trophy presentation, credited and dedicated the win to his parents…Was one of two players who dropped out of qualifying for the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola after finishing T34 at the BMW Championship. Was No. 30 in the FedExCup standings entering the BMW Championship and finished No. 31.

PERSONAL:

Favorite course he's played is Augusta National and would like to play Pine Valley in New Jersey…Favorite college teams are the Clemson Tigers and Gonzaga University basketball team…Favorite professional team is the Seattle Seahawks…Superstitions include wearing the color blue. Favorite TV show is ESPN's "SportsCenter."…Favorite athletes to watch are Kobe Bryant and LeBron James. Dream foursome includes his father, Ben Hogan and Jack Nicklaus…Bucket list includes winning all four major championships. Has one sister.

2012 SEASON:
Ended the year at No. 6 on the Web.com Tour money list, one of five two-time winners. Earned a spot on the 2013 PGA TOUR, where he will be a rookie…Earned his first career win in come-from-behind style at the Midwest Classic in mid-August. Won by two over Russell Henley and Luke List. Started the final round in Kansas City four strokes off the pace and an hour in front of the leaders. Missed only one green on the last day and fired a bogey-free, 7-under 64 to take the clubhouse lead at 17-under par. Closed out a 5-under 30 on the back nine with a short birdie putt after his second shot on the par-4 18th flew the green and rebounded off the skybox mesh fencing, stopping within 3 feet of the cup. "That ball at 18 could have kicked several ways, but it broke right for me. Today it went my way," he said. Tapped in for birdie and then waited to see if anyone would catch him. Henley was only one off the lead but bogeyed No. 17 to drop two back and tie with List, who birdied the final hole. Victory was worth $99,000 and vaulted him from No. 54 to No. 12 on the money list…Became the Tour's fourth multiple winner at the time when he blew away the field at the Miccosukee Championship. Posted an impressive, career-low, 9-under-par 62 in difficult, windy conditions in the third round, tying the tournament course record and opening a six-stroke advantage after 54 holes, the largest in tournament annals. Closed with a 3-under-par 68 Sunday and held off an early charge from Alistair Presnell to win by five strokes. Jumped to fourth on the money list and secured his PGA TOUR card for 2013…Opened his rookie season with a T9 at the Panama Claro Championship, his second event.

They are from 1959, 1961 and 1962. In fact, he used the 1962 quarter to mark his ball when he shot his career-best 62 at the Miccosukee Championship.

Also moved from the Web.com Tour to the PGA TOUR in 2002, 2004 and 2008…Finished T5 at the Chitimacha Louisiana Open. Second- and third-round 65s put him at 14-under and tied for the runner-up spot heading into the final round at Le Triomphe CC. Was four shots back and paired with 54-hole leader Casey Wittenberg on the last day. Bogeys at Nos. 2 and 3 stalled his efforts out of the gate and kept him from putting any pressure on Wittenberg, the eventual winner…Was T3 at the BMW Charity Pro-Am, where he was the first-round leader. Moved back into contention early Sunday at the Thornblade Club and was the tournament leader at 15-under through 11 holes. Failed to register any birdies down the stretch. Played the last seven holes 1-over par, thanks to a bogey on his final hole of regulation. Finished at 14-under and missed getting into the playoff by one stroke…In June, qualified for his fourth U.S. Open. Finished T59 at The Olympic Club in San Francisco…Won the News Sentinel Open in Knoxville for the second time, with rounds of 67-66-66-67 (18-under). A chip-in for eagle on the par-5 10th proved the difference in his one-shot victory and moved him to 8th on the money list. The win came after a stretch of six tournaments where his best finish was T35 and he missed three cuts.

2012 SEASON:

Is one of three players (Hunter Mahan, Phil Mickelson) to advance to the TOUR Championship in each of the first six years of the FedExCup Playoffs. Also has most career rounds in the 60s in the FedExCup Playoffs events (53)…Following an offseason clouded by the possibility of a neck injury, he carded a final-round, 4-under 69 to capture his 12th PGA TOUR victory in the first event of the season with a three-stroke victory over Martin Laird at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions. His Saturday 63 was the lowest second-round score in tournament history, falling just one shy of the low 18 at The Plantation Course. His win gave him at least one victory in each of the last four years (2009-12). Continued his perfect streak (7 of 7) of never having lost when entering the final round of a 72-hole event alone with a lead. The only time he failed to carry the outright lead to victory was at the 90-hole Humana Challenge (T3 in 2009). In his post-win press conference, he told a story from six years ago of his now 13-year-old daughter winning a junior tournament. "At Cherokee, our home course, she won the three-hole tournament, and she's like, "Mom, do we get to go to Hawaii now?'"…After a T38 at the Sony Open in Hawaii, notched top-10 finishes in his next two starts on the mainland—both in World Golf Championships events. Finished T9 at the Accenture Match Play Championship (defeating Kevin Na and Louis Oosthuizen, before falling to eventual champion Hunter Mahan) and T8 at the Cadillac Championship…Produced fourth top-10 of the season, a solo sixth at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans…With media buzzing all week about the possibility of the Madison, Wis., native becoming just the fifth player to claim a tournament title four consecutive years, the 2009-2011 John Deere Classic champion was forced to settle for a T5 at TPC Deere Run. In his 11th start in the event, Stricker began the final round three strokes off Troy Matteson's 18-under lead. Bogeys on three of his last five holes dashed any remaining hopes of securing a fourth consecutive title…Birdied his final three holes en route to a 6-under 64 to finish T2 and just one stroke behind Keegan Bradley at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational—the 11th runner-up finish of his career. It was his fourth-consecutive top-10 at the Bridgestone Invitational. Joined Rory McIlroy and Matt Kuchar as the only players with top-10 finishes in the first three World Golf Championships events. Was seeking to become just the seventh player with multiple World Golf Championships victories…Finished T7 at the PGA Championship, with closing rounds of 67-71. It was his first top-10 in a major championship since the 2009 Masters (T6)…Went 0-4 as the United States lost to the European team in the Ryder Cup at Medinah CC in Chicago. Lost singles match to Martin Kaymer of Germany.

PERSONAL:

Wife, Nicki, who had been his caddie throughout his professional career, gave up the bag in 1998 to deliver daughter Bobbi Maria. Returned to caddie in 1999 at Milwaukee…Father-in-law Dennis Tiziani is the retired golf coach at University of Wisconsin who played off and on on the PGA TOUR in the 1970s…Brother-in-law Mario Tiziani played on TOUR in 2005…After missing earning TOUR card in 2005 by two strokes at PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament, rediscovered his game hitting balls out of a trailer in the December snow on the practice range at Cherokee CC in Madison, Wis…Inducted into the Wisconsin State Golf Association Hall of Fame in December 2007…Had a bobblehead figure of his likeness distributed to fans at the 2012 John Deere Classic as he went for a fourth consecutive title there. Became the 15th recipient of the Payne Stewart Award when he won the honor in 2012. The Payne Stewart Award is presented annually to a player sharing Stewart's respect for the traditions of the game, his commitment to uphold the game's heritage of charitable support and his professional and meticulous presentation of himself and the sport through his dress and conduct.

Choi in a playoff, finished T10 at THE PLAYERS after equaling the low round of the week with a 7-under 65 Sunday. A year after winning in Malaysia, captured the European Tour's ISPS Handa Perth International in Australia. Held a one-shot, 54-hole lead over fellow American Jason Dufner, then went out and shot a Sunday, 4-under 68 at Lake Karrinyup CC to hold on to defeat Dufner by two strokes…A week later, nearly successfully defended his title at the CIMB Classic in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. Needed a birdie at the 72nd hole to force sudden-death with Nick Watney but settled for par and a share of second place, with Robert Garrigus. Posted 11 birdies over the course of the first 17 holes in the third round, but a double bogey-6 at the 18th dashed his chances for a 59, resulting instead in a 9-under 62. The 11 birdies supplanted his previous 18-hole record of nine.

1—Masters Tournament; 2—World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship, Travelers Championship; T4—Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard; T5—Waste Management Phoenix Open, TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola; T10—The Barclays.

2012 SEASON:

Finished a career-best No. 13 in the FedExCup standings, highlighted by a playoff victory at the Masters Tournament…Previous best finish was No. 22 in 2010…Was T5 at the Waste Management Phoenix Open. Also kicked off a campaign that week to raise money for Arizona charities, with his sponsor, Ping, donating $300 for each drive that travels more than 300 yards…Entered the final round of the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship with a three-stroke cushion, but carded a 2-over 74 (which included three consecutive bogeys early in the round) to finish one stroke behind Justin Rose. The sixth runner-up finish of his career came in second start at the Cadillac Championship (72nd in 2009) and sixth career World Golf Championships start (previous-best finish was fourth at the 2011 Accenture Match Play Championship). Record dropped to 1-5 when carrying the lead into the final round on the PGA TOUR, with a playoff victory over Webb Simpson at the 2011 Zurich Classic at New Orleans his only victory. Through the Cadillac Championship, had yet to finish outside the top 20 in six starts this season…Finished T4 at the Arnold Palmer Invitational, eight shots behind winner Tiger Woods. Had rounds of 69-70-72-72. Was one of four players to shot par or better in all four rounds at Bay Hill…Defeated Louis Oosthuizen with a par-4 on the second playoff hole (No. 10) to win the 76th Masters Tournament. Became the fourth American to win since 2000 (Tiger Woods, Phil Mickelson and Zach Johnson). It was the 15th playoff in Masters history. Notched the third consecutive come-from-behind win at the Masters (Mickelson in 2010 and Charl Schwartzel in 2011). The last back-to-back-to-back, come-from-behind wins at the Masters were by Bernhard Langer (1985), Jack Nicklaus (1986) and Larry Mize (1987). Joined the list of lefthanders who have won five of the last 10 Masters (Mike Weir and Phil Mickelson, with three titles). Has made all four of his cuts at the Masters (T20 in 2008, 42nd in 2009 and T38 in 2011). Other players to win their first green jacket in their fourth start include Weir (2003), Ian Woosnam (1991), Mize (1987), Seve Ballesteros (1980), Tom Watson (1977), Art Wall (1959) and Arnold Palmer (1958). Only has three rounds in the 60s in 16 rounds at the Masters. Earned his fourth TOUR title in his last 39 starts after not winning in his first 121 TOUR starts to begin his career. Improved his career playoff record to 3-1. The eventual Masters champion has come out of the final Sunday pairing 19 out of the last 22 years. He joined Johnson (2007) and Schwartzel (2011) as the exceptions…Finished T2 at the Travelers Championship, closing with rounds of 65-65. Finished one shot behind the winner Marc Leishman. The T2 finish was his first top-10 since winning the Masters Tournament (four starts)…Missed the cut at the Deutsche Bank Championship, but managed top-12 finishes in the other three Playoffs events (T10 at The Barclays, T12 at the BMW Championship and T5 at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola) to end the season a career-best 13th in the FedExCup. His T5 at East Lake GC was his best finish in four TOUR Championship starts…Finished 2-2 for the U.S. team in his second Ryder Cup appearance. Lost his singles match, 2 and 1, to Luke Donald…Finished T2 in the Thailand Golf Championship in December on the Asian Tour. Shot a final-round 65 to match Charl Schwartzel's Sunday score only to finish 11 strokes off Schwartzel's winning score.

PERSONAL:

Watson and his wife, Angie, adopted their son (Caleb) on March 26, 2012…Following his 2010 win at the Travelers Championship, dedicated the win to his wife and father, Gerry, who was battling lung cancer and later passed away in October of 2010…In August 2010, provided a clinic in partnership with the PGA TOUR's "Birdies for the Brave" program with the U.S. Armed Forces. Father Gerry, who was a lieutenant in the Green Berets' Special Forces during the Vietnam War, was honored prior to the clinic for his military service with a plaque presented to him by Gen. Steven Duff, commander of U.S. Army Special Forces Command (Airborne) at Fort Bragg, N.C. "It's special. With my dad's situation, it's brought to my heart that the military is much more important than what we do for a living. So I needed to do something for the Green Berets and bring light to the Pensacola area."…Uses a pink shaft in his driver and added a pink driver head in 2012…Attended the same high school—Milton (Fla.) High School a few years after current PGA TOUR players Heath Slocum and Boo Weekley…Self-taught player who learned the game by hitting wiffle balls around his house. "The house was probably an acre and a half yard with big trees, downtown Bagdad (Fla). The house is sitting here, and I drew in the dirt driveway. I'd draw a big circle, and that would be my hole, a 5-foot circle. I'd go around it to the left and then I'd go around it to the right. So I learned to cut it. If you know about wiffle balls or plastic balls, it's hard to cut. Then I learned to hook it the other way, hit it high over limbs, hit it low under limbs.

BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

T2—BMW Championship; T3—Masters Tournament; 4—World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship, The Honda Classic; T5—Wells Fargo Championship, The Barclays; T10—U.S. Open.

2012 SEASON:

Finished No. 10 in the FedExCup standings in his first appearance in the FedExCup Playoffs…Needed an eagle to win and a birdie to force a playoff with Rafael Cabrera-Bello at the Dubai Desert Classic in February. Made it to the green in two at the par-5 finishing hole at Emirates GC, but his chip shot left him with a 15-foot birdie putt that he couldn't convert. He T2 along with Stephen Gallacher. Posted a solo fourth in his first PGA TOUR start of the year, at the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship, defeating Nicolas Colsaerts, Robert Karlsson, Nick Watney and Martin Laird before falling to Rory McIlroy in the semifinals, 3 and 1, and to Mark Wilson in the consolation match, 1-down. Held a 3-up lead through four holes vs. McIlroy before seeing the advantage evaporate into a 1-down deficit through nine holes. Collected his ninth top-10 in 38 career World Golf Championships starts. Had to play three holes at La Quinta CC on Sunday morning to complete his third round before returning to the Palmer Private Course for his final round Sunday afternoon. Best finish in three previous starts in the desert was a T33 in 2007. All five of his wins have come in the first quarter of the year. Going back to the start of the 2011 season, along with fellow Wisconsin native Steve Stricker, the duo has three victories, the most wins on the PGA TOUR…Earned second top-five finish of the season with a third-place showing at the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship. Advanced to the semifinals with 3-and-2 victories over Bo Van Pelt and Robert Rock and 4-and-3 wins over Dustin Johnson and Peter Hanson before falling to eventual winner Hunter Mahan, 2 and 1. Fell out of contention during the front nine in the final round but rallied with a back-nine 31 to get within one of Lingmerth, who finished 45 minutes in front of him. Missed long birdie putts on the final two holes to come up short. Second-place check for $64,800 vaulted him back ahead of Luke Guthrie and into the No. 1 spot on the money list for the third different time this season. BEST 2012 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard, the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide Insurance, AT&T National; T2—The Honda Classic; 3—Deutsche Bank Championship, British Open; T4—BMW Championship; T8—World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational, TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola.

2012 SEASON:

Finished the season No. 3 in the FedExCup standings…Searching for his first PGA TOUR win since the 2009 BMW Championship, carded a final-round 3-over 75 and was unable to match playing partner Phil Mickelson's stellar, 8-under 64 that led to victory at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am. Paired with Phil Mickelson for the 30th time in a PGA TOUR-sanctioned event. The T15 finish came in his seventh start at the event and first since finishing T12 in 2002…Was forced to WD from the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship after 11 holes in the final round due to soreness in his left Achilles tendon. It was the sixth WD of his career…At the Arnold Palmer Invitational, earned his 72nd career PGA TOUR win, and his seventh Bay Hill tournament title, with a five-shot win over Graeme McDowell. After a second-round 65, he was tied with Charlie Wi for the 36-hole lead. Added a 1-under 71 Saturday to take a one-stroke lead over McDowell into the final round. After a bogey at the second hole Sunday, he reeled off birdies on Nos. 3, 4, 6 and 8 to take control. Had eight pars and a bogey on the back nine…Moved into a tie with Jack Nicklaus for second on the all-time PGA TOUR victories list, with 73, after his two-shot victory at the Memorial Tournament. Trails only Sam Snead's 82 wins after a two-shot victory over Andres Romero and Rory Sabbatini at Muirfield Village GC. Posted his 73rd career victory at age 36 years, 5 months, 4 days, nearly 10 years younger than Nicklaus when he won his 73rd tournament (46 years, 2 months, 23 days) and almost seven years younger than Snead when he posted his 73rd victory (43 years, 9 days). Collected his fifth career victory at the Memorial Tournament and won in come-from-behind fashion for the 21st time in his career after entering the final round four shots off the 54-hole pace. Trailed Sabbatini by two shots standing on the 15th tee but played his final four holes in 3-under, making birdie on Nos. 15, 16 and 18. Holed a flop shot from 49 feet, 10 inches from behind the green at the par-3 16th to tie Sabbatini for the lead at 8-under. Won the Arnold Palmer Invitational and the Memorial Tournament in the same year for the fourth time (2000-01, 2009 and 2012). Posted the 12th victory of his career in Ohio and won multiple tournaments in a season for the 13th time in his career…Finished T21 for his second-worst finish in 15 professional starts at the U.S. Open (missed cut in 2006). Held a share of the 36-hole lead, marking just the ninth time in 43 tries that he has failed to carry the 36-hole lead on to victory…Two weeks later, surpassed Nicklaus on all-time PGA TOUR victories list, with his 74th, at the AT&T National, his second win at Congressional CC. Trails only Sam Snead's 82 PGA TOUR victories. Overcame a one-stroke deficit of 54-hole leader Brendon de Jonge, posting a final-round 69 to edge runner-up Bo Van Pelt by two strokes. Two-time FedExCup champion moved to No. 1 in the FedExCup standings for the first time in 100 weeks with his third victory of the campaign, the 12th time in his TOUR career he has compiled at least three wins in a season…Jumped to No. 2 in the Official World Golf Ranking, with a T3 finish at the British Open, his best performance in a major championship since finishing runner-up at the 2009 PGA Championship. Final-round 73 included a triple bogey on the par-4 sixth hole, his first triple in a major championship since the first hole at the 2003 British Open (Royal St. George's)…Finished T8 at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational, which, coupled with his T3 at the British Open, gave him back-to-back top 10s in a season for first time since winning the 2009 BMW Championship and finishing runner-up at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola. It also snapped a career-long streak of three starts in World Golf Championships events without a top-10. His 11 top-10s at the Bridgestone Invitational, seven of which are wins, is a tournament-high…Held a share of the second-round lead at the PGA Championship, but weekend rounds of 74-72 dropped him to a T11 finish. At all four major championships, failed to break par in a weekend round…Finished T38 in his seventh start at The Barclays, with a 76 in the final round of The Barclays tying his second-highest score when entering the final round T10 or better (he was T10 after 54 holes this week). In 2007 at the Arnold Palmer Invitational, was T10 after 54 holes and shot 76 to finish T22. At the 1998 Arnold Palmer Invitational, was T2 after 54 holes and shot 77 to finish T13…Came back the following week with four rounds in the 60s to finish solo third at the Deutsche Bank Championship, maintaining his third-place spot in the FedExCup standings. His $544,000 paycheck gave him enough money to make him the first player to earn $100 million in career earnings in PGA TOUR history…Finished T4 at the BMW Championship at Crooked Stick GC to enter the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola No. 2 in the FedExCup standings…Making his 13th career start at the TOUR Championship, jumped out to a share of the first-round lead with a 4-under 66 en route to an eventual T8 finish—his eighth top-10 at the event. Closed with a 2-over 72, just his third over-par final round at the tournament…Finished 0-3-1 for the United States team at the Ryder Cup, halving his singles match against Francesco Molinari…In his first start at the CIMB Classic in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, closed with a bogey-free, 8-under 63 at

Humana Challenge

NOTES

The 2012 Humana Challenge champion Mark Wilson posted his career-low round on the PGA TOUR, a 10-under-par 62 in the second round on the Palmer Private Course at PGA West. His round included eight birdies and an eagle. Prior to winning the 2012 Humana Challenge, Wilson's best finish in three previous starts at the Humana Challenge was a tie for 33rd in 2007.

Robert Garrigus battled back from a poor start at the Humana Challenge to tie for second. Garrigus was 6-over par after his first 17 holes in the first round, but from that point on, he played his final 55 holes in 28-under par, including a third-round, 11-under-par 61. He made 27 birdies over those final 55 holes. Garrigus was tied for 126th after the opening round. He jumped 77 spots after a second-round 64 and then moved up 47 places following a third-round 61.*

Humana Challenge

NOTES

Robert Garrigus (tied for second) led all players in the Humana Challenge field, with 30 birdies during the tournament, two more than John Senden*. Garrigus' 72-hole total of 22-under-par 266 was a career low for him in a 72-hole event.*

John Mallinger (tied for second) matched his career-best finish on the PGA TOUR. He was second at the 2009 U.S. Bank Championship in Milwaukee. The Long Beach State product played near-flawless golf over his final 58 holes, making just one bogey, at No. 18, in his second round.

JEFF MAGGERT

One week after winning the Sony Open in Hawaii, Johnson Wagner continued his stellar play at the Humana Challenge, tying for second. Wagner had three top 10s in three starts in 2012. Entering this year, Wagner had seven top-10 finishes (two wins) in 139 professional starts.

There were four holes-in-one during the 2012 Humana Challenge: John Rollins (first round), Miguel Angel Carballo (second round), Sam Saunders (third round) and Danny Lee (final round).

At the 2012 Humana Challenge, Greg Norman (withdrew) made his first start on the PGA TOUR since missing the cut at the 2009 British Open, and he played with former President Bill Clinton in the third round. Norman's only other start at the Humana Challenge was in 1986 when he tied for 53rd.

JOHN HUH

The 2012 Farmers Insurance Open rewarded school spirit during the third round. For the second year, all fans and TOUR players were encouraged to wear their university colors in support of Farmers' "University of Farmers" advertising campaign. For "extra credit," Farmers made donations to college golf programs from players posting the best third-round, 18-hole scores. The player with the low third-round score, Florida State University graduate Jonas Blixt (65), received $20,000 for his alma mater's golf team, while Cameron Tringale (66) received $10,000 for Georgia Tech for posting the second-lowest score. Any player who wore his school colors Saturday had $500 donated in his name to his college's golf program.

World Golf Championships–Cadillac Championship

NOTES

Justin Rose carded a final-round, 2-under-par 70 to come from three strokes back to win the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship, finishing 16-under 272 and one stroke ahead of 54-hole leader Bubba Watson (74). Rose won in his sixth career start at the Cadillac Championship, his previous best being a tie for 15th in 2008.

Justin Rose*'s three-stroke, come-from-behind win in 2012 was the largest in Cadillac Championship history, topping the two-stroke comebacks by* Tiger Woods in 2005 and Nick Watney in 2011.

The runner-up finish in 2012 came in Bubba Watson*'s second start at the Cadillac Championship (72nd in 2009) and the sixth career World Golf Championship start (previous best finish was fourth at the 2011 Accenture Match Play Championship).*

Following a third-round 65 at the 2012 Cadillac Championship, World No. 1 Rory McIlroy *made another charge Sunday. He stood at 6-under on the day through 12 holes, but bogeys on Nos. 14 and 18 left him with a 5-under 67 and solo-third. As a result, he moved into the top spot in the FedExCup point standings. He became the third World No. 1 (Luke Donald/2010 and* Tiger Woods*/2007, 2008 and 2009) to also lead the FedExCup standings.*

NOTES

Ninety players made the 36-hole cut at the 2012 Shell Houston Open. Since 1970, only once has there been more than 90 players make the 36-hole cut in a non-major championship (91 at the 1981 Travelers Championship). With more than 78 players making the cut, the field was cut to 70 after 54 holes.

Hunter Mahan carded a final-round, 1-under 71 to wipe out the two-stroke lead held by 54-hole leader Louis Oosthuizen and capture the 2012 Shell Houston Open by one stroke over Carl Pettersson (71). Pettersson's runner-up finish was the fourth of his career and his second of 2012 (Sony Open in Hawaii, Shell Houston Open).*

With his victory, Hunter Mahan took over the top spot in the FedExCup standings, 258 points ahead of Johnson Wagner.

Hunter Mahan tied for first in Greens in Regulation (86.1 percent) en route to winning the 2012 Shell Houston Open.*

Louis Oosthuizen, who entered the final round two strokes ahead of Hunter Mahan, struggled early Sunday (5-over 41 on the front nine) but fought back to finish at 3-over 75, good for solo third. It was his third start at the Shell Houston Open (tied for 16th in 2011 and missed the cut in 2008).*

HP Byron Nelson Championship

HP BYRON NELSON CHAMPIONSHIP

NOTES

Had he won the HP Byron Nelson Championship, runner-up Dicky Pride would have set the PGA TOUR record for longest time between victories, a span of 17 years, 9 months, 19 days. The current record is held by Robert Gamez, with a time span of 15 years, 6 months.

J.J. Henry (tied for third) picked up his second hole-in-one of the season, at the 2012 HP Byron Nelson Championship. Earlier in the year, he had an ace at the Puerto Rico Open. Henry's two holes-in-one in 2012 mark the second time in his career he's had multiple aces in a season. While playing on the Web.com Tour in 2000, he had aces at the Greater Richmond Open and at the Tri-Cities Open. Since holes-in-one became an official PGA TOUR stat, in 1971, three players have had at least two aces in two different PGA TOUR seasons: Glen Day (1994 and 1996), Kenny Perry (1991 and 1994) and Loren Roberts (1989 and 1993) .*

J.J. HENRY

Joe Durant, who was the last player in the 2012 HP Byron Nelson Championship field after Joe Ogilvie withdrew Thursday with a shoulder injury, closed with rounds of 65-65—130 to tie for third and secure his best finish on TOUR since a runner-up effort at the 2010 Mayakoba Golf Classic.*

Jason Day, the 2010 HP Byron Nelson Championship winner, has top-10 finishes in all three starts at the event (won in 2010, was fifth in 2011 and tied for ninth in 2012).*

Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial

NOTES

Jason Dufner entered the final round of the 2012 Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial holding a one-stroke lead over 2010 Colonial champion Zach Johnson*, but Johnson's 2-over 72 was enough for a one-stroke victory over Dufner (74). Dufner's triple bogey on the par-4 15th in the final round helped secure Johnson's second win at Colonial but not before he violated Rule 20-7 as he played his ball on the green from the wrong place, leading to a two-stroke penalty and reducing what would have been a three-stroke win to just a single stroke.*

The runner-up finish at the 2012 Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial was the fourth of Jason Dufner*'s career: 2009 Deutsche Bank Championship, 2011 Waste Management Phoenix Open, 2011 PGA Championship and 2012 Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial.*

Zach Johnson notched his eighth PGA TOUR victory in his 226th start (2004 BellSouth Classic, 2007 Masters Tournament, 2007 AT&T Classic, 2008 Valero Texas Open, 2009 Sony Open in Hawaii, 2009 Valero Texas Open, 2010 Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial, 2012 Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial).

John Deere Classic

NOTES

After overcoming a four-shot deficit with a final-round 65 to force a playoff with 54-hole leader Troy Matteson, Zach Johnson defeated Matteson on the second sudden-death playoff hole to win the 2012 John Deere Classic. After both players double-bogeyed the first playoff hole, Johnson hit a 195-yard 6-iron from a fairway bunker to 1 foot for a tap-in birdie to give him his ninth PGA TOUR victory. Johnson improved to 3-0 in playoffs (2007 AT&T Classic and 2009 Valero Texas Open).

TROY MATTESON

Zach Johnson's win came at age 36 years, 4 month, 22 days in his 230th career start on TOUR.*

The 2012 John Deere Classic runner-up, Troy Matteson, earned a trip to the following week's British Open as a result of being the leading player not otherwise exempt, among the top-five finishers and ties that week.

Prior to the Zach Johnson-Troy Matteson play-off, the last overtime session at the John Deere Classic was in 2008 when Kenny Perry won over Jay Williamson and Brad Adamonis. There have been eight playoffs in John Deere Classic tournament history.

Beginning with the 2009 tournament, Zach Johnson has posted 16 consecutive rounds in the 60s at the John Deere Classic. In his career, Johnson has played 38 rounds at the John Deere Classic, with only five of them over par.

NOTES

Third-round leader Adam Scott bogeyed his final four holes of the 2012 British Open, opening the door for Ernie Els to win his fourth major championship—and first since the 2002 British Open. Els, who began the day six strokes behind Scott, posted a 4-under 32 on the closing nine, including a birdie on the par-4 18th hole, to card a final-round, 2-under 68 for the one-stroke victory over Scott (75). Els was the only player to post all four rounds at par-or-better (67-70-68-68).

ADAM SCOTT

Ernie Els, at age 42 years, 9 months, 5 days, won for the 19th time on the PGA TOUR in his 335th start. Els' victory came in his 22nd start at the British Open, which was also his 79th major championship appearance.*

Ernie Els led the field in Greens in Regulation, at 79.3 percent (57 of 72). Els also had three rounds in the 60s, giving him the most rounds in the 60s in British Open history, with 39.*

Three of Ernie Els' seven top-threes at the British Open Open have come at Royal Lytham & St. Annes. He also tied for second in 1996 and tied for third in 2001.

PGA Championship

NOTES

At the 2012 PGA Championship, Rory McIlroy turned a three-shot lead after 54 holes into an eight-shot rout, with a bogey-free 66 in the final round. McIlroy's eight-shot win was the largest in PGA Championship history, breaking Jack Nicklaus' seven-shot win in 1980. With the victory, McIlroy joined Tiger Woods as the only two active players under age 40 with multiple major wins.

Rory McIlroy, at age 23 years, 3 months, 8 days, captured his fourth career PGA TOUR title. Since 1960, only four players under age 24 have earned four or more TOUR victories. They are Tiger Woods (15), Jack Nicklaus (eight) and Phil Mickelson (four).*

Rory McIlroy (23 years, 3 months, 8 days) became the youngest to win the PGA Championship since Tiger Woods (23 years 7 months, 15 days) in 1999. Gene Sarazen is the youngest winner of the PGA Championship (1922), at 20 years, 5 months, 22 days.*

Prior to Rory McIlroy's bogey-free, final-round 66 at the 2012 PGA Championship, Phil Mickelson was the last winner without a bogey in the final round of a major (2010 Masters).

PHIL MICKELSON

With his win at the 2012 PGA Championship, Rory McIlroy reclaimed the No. 1 spot in the Official World Golf Ranking. He ascended to No. 1 in the OWGR for the first time in his career on March 5, 2012 and held the top spot for a total of eight weeks (not consecutive) in March, April and May.

NOTES

The 109th playing of the BMW Championship marked the third time the event has been played in Indiana. Walter Hagen won in 1926 at Highland Golf and Country Club in Indianapolis, and Johnny Revolta won in 1935 at South Bend Country Club in South Bend, Ind.

Crooked Stick Golf Club played host to Indiana's first PGA TOUR event since John Daly won the 1991 PGA Championship, also at Crooked Stick. The Pete Dye-designed course was one of five Dye designs on the PGA TOUR schedule in 2012 (TPC Sawgrass, Harbor Town Golf Links, TPC Louisiana and Kiawah Island Resort).

Due to wet conditions at the 2012 BMW Championship, preferred lies in closely mown areas were in effect for all four rounds.

With his win at the 2012 BMW Championship, Rory McIlroy became the fifth different player to win four or more times in a season in the last 10 years, joining Tiger Woods (2003 and 2005-09), Vijay Singh (2003-05), Davis Love III (2003) and Phil Mickelson (2005).

Rory McIlroy (2012) and Justin Rose (2011) are the first back-to-back international winners of the BMW Championship since Zimbabwe's Nick Price won the event in 1993 and 1994.

Shriners Hospitals for Children Open

NOTES

With his win at the 2012 Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children Open, former UNLV All-American Ryan Moore earned his second career PGA TOUR victory, at age 29 years, 10 months, 2 days in his 188th career TOUR start. Moore became the 13th different player under age 30 to win in 2012.

Since becoming a 72-hole event in 2004, Ryan Moore is the first player to carry the first-round lead to victory at the Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children Open.

Brendon de Jonge's final-round, 4-under 67 was good for solo second, his career-best finish on the PGA TOUR and third top-10 of the season.*

BRENDON DE JONGE

Jason Day birdied seven of his first nine holes for a front-nine 28 en route to a 6-under 65 in the final round. Day's 28 is the front-nine record at TPC Summerlin. The Presidents Cup

The 10th Presidents Cup will be contested at Muirfield Village Golf Club in Dublin, Ohio. The venue becomes the first to host The Presidents Cup, Ryder Cup and Solheim Cup. Fred Couples will reprise his role as U.S. captain for the third time after winning efforts in 2009 and 2011. Nick Price, a five-time Presidents Cup participant (1994, 1996, 1998, 2000 and 2003), will serve as captain of the International Team for the first time in 2013.

HISTORY

The Presidents Cup was developed to give the world's best non-European players an opportunity to compete in international team match-play competition.

The first Presidents Cup was played September 16-18, 1994, at Robert Trent Jones Golf Club in Virginia. The U.S. Team, captained by Hale Irwin, defeated the International Team, captained by David Graham, 20-12.

The United States also won the second Presidents Cup, held September 13-15, 1996, played again at Robert Trent Jones Golf Club. Arnold Palmer, no stranger to high-level international competition, had the reins as the United States edged Peter Thomson's International Team, 16½-15½.

The Presidents Cup 1998 was played December 11-13 at Royal Melbourne Golf Club in Melbourne, Victoria, Australia. The International Team made the most of home-field advantage, winning 20½-11½. Jack Nicklaus served as captain of the U.S. Team, while Thomson repeated his role as captain for the International Team.

In 2000, The Presidents Cup returned to Robert Trent Jones, with the United States avenging its 1998 loss with a decisive 21½-10½ victory over the International Team. Thomson captained the International Team for a third time, while Ken Venturi was victorious in his debut as U.S. Team captain.

The Presidents Cup 2003 was held at The Links at Fancourt Hotel and Country Club Estate in George, South Africa. The competition ended in a tie after both teams completed regulation with 17 points. Ernie Els of the International Team and Tiger Woods of the U.S. Team were designated to represent their teams in a sudden-death playoff. After three playoff holes, and as darkness was descending, Captains Gary Player and Nicklaus, in the spirit of the competition, decided that the two teams would share the Cup.

In 2005, Nicklaus and Player returned as captains, and the matches were held once again at the Robert Trent Jones Golf Club. The tie from 2003 was broken with an 18½-15½ United States victory.

The U.S. Team wrapped up its fifth Presidents Cup victory in seven tries at Royal Montreal Golf Club in 2007 with a 19½-14½ victory, the U.S. Team's first at an international venue in the competition's 13-year history, led once again by Nicklaus. David Toms earned the most points for the U.S. Team, while Woody Austin earned a new nickname—Aquaman—after falling into the lake on hole 14 while attempting a shot. And while his team did not win, Canadian golf hero Mike Weir thrilled the crowds with a 1-up victory over No. 1-ranked Tiger Woods in Sunday's singles competition. Player captained the International Team for a third and final time.

In 2009, The Presidents Cup was held at Harding Park Golf Course in San Francisco, Calif., one of the top public golf properties in the United States. Two of the most-dominant players on the PGA TOUR during the 1980s and 1990s, Couples and Greg Norman, led the U.S. and International Teams, respectively. The Presidents Cup 2009 marked the first time in event history that both captains were former participants. Couples has appeared four times (1994, 1996, 1998 and 2005) for the United States and Norman three (1996, 1998 and 2000) for the Internationals, and both factored prominently in victories secured by their respective teams.

As first-time captains at The Presidents Cup 2009, Couples and Norman each led strong teams with the U.S. Team retaining the Cup, winning for the sixth time by a score of 19½-14½.

The ninth playing of the event occurred November 15-20, 2011, at Royal Melbourne Golf Club in Melbourne, Victoria, Australia, which was the first international venue to host this prestigious competition more than once.

The U.S. Team captured The Presidents Cup for the seventh time, led once again by Couples and a 5-0-0 performance by veteran Jim Furyk. Woods, one of Couples' two captain's picks, clinched the Cup for the United States with a 4-and-3 win over Australia's Aaron Baddeley in Sunday singles. For Woods, it was the second consecutive time he had scored the winning point at The Presidents Cup, becoming only the second player to accomplish that feat (Couples, 1994 and 1996) and the first captain's pick to do so. Norman's International Team played well, but was undone by the foursomes competition. The Internationals were outscored 8-3 in foursomes and eventually lost the Cup by four points (19-15).

Former U.S. President Gerald Ford presided over the first Presidents Cup as Honorary Chairman. Former President George H.W. Bush, like Ford an avid golfer, served as Honorary Chairman for The Presidents Cup 1996 and has attended every staging of the event since. Australian Prime Minister John Howard was Honorary Chairman for the 1998 event. In 2000, President Bill Clinton made history when he became the first sitting president to serve as Honorary Chairman. In 2003, Thabo Mbeki, President of the Republic of South Africa, was Honorary Chairman. President George W. Bush served as the Honorary Chairman of The Presidents Cup 2005, and Canadian Prime Minister Stephen Harper was the 2007 Honorary Chairman. U.S. President Barack Obama presided over The Presidents Cup 2009 as Honorary Chairman. In the last playing of The Presidents Cup in 2011, Australian Prime Minister Julia Gillard was Honorary Chairperson.

CHARITY

The Presidents Cup follows the PGA TOUR creed of giving back. There is no purse for the players. Net revenues are divided into equal shares that the players and captains designate for charities or golf-related projects of their choice. The first nine Presidents Cups generated more than $27 million for charities worldwide, including a record $4.5 million donation from the 2011 event.

ELIGIBILITY

U.S. Team: The top-10 U.S. players who earned the most official PGA TOUR money beginning with the 2011 TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola through the 2013 Deutsche Bank Championships (ending Sept. 2, 2013), weighted as follows:
2011-12 $1 = 1 point
2013 $1 = 2 points
Plus two Captain's selections made on Sept. 4, 2013.

International Team: The top-10 international players (excluding those eligible for the European Ryder Cup team) from the Official World Golf Ranking as of Sept. 2, 2013 (post-Deutsche Bank Championship), and two Captain's selections made on Sept. 4, 2013.

STRUCTURE AND SCORING

The Presidents Cup competition consists of 34 matches—11 Foursomes (alternate shot) and 11 Four-ball (better ball) matches. There are 12 Singles matches involving all players on the final Sunday. All matches are worth one point each, for a total of 34 points. There are no playoffs for Foursomes or Four-ball, with each side receiving a half point if the match is tied after 18 holes. Singles matches tied after 18 holes will go to extra holes until a team winner is determined. In a change inspired by the events of the 2003 Presidents Cup, if the match is deadlocked at the end of Singles play, the competition will be deemed a tie and the teams will share The Presidents Cup.

The Byron Nelson Award is based on each player's adjusted scoring average. The adjusted score is computed from the average score of the field at each tournament. As a result, a player's score may be higher or lower than his actual score. Actual scoring average was used to determine the scoring leader prior to 1988.

In order to qualify for the Byron Nelson Award, a player must compete in a minimum of 50 official rounds on the PGA TOUR.

PGA Player of the Year

The PGA Player of the Year Award is given by the PGA of America to the top PGA TOUR player based on a mathematical formula that weighs tournament wins, official money standing and scoring average.

The point system for selecting the Player of the Year was amended in 1982, as follows: 30 points for winning the PGA Championship, U.S. Open, British Open or Masters Tournament; 20 points for winning THE PLAYERS Championship; 10 points for winning all other designated PGA TOUR events. In addition, there is a 50-point bonus for winning two majors, 75-point bonus for winning three, 100-point bonus for winning four.

For top-10 finishes on the PGA TOUR's official money list and scoring average list, the point value is: first, 20 points, then 18, 16, 14, 12, 10, 8, 6, 4, 2. Any incomplete rounds in the scoring average list will result in a .10 penalty per incomplete round.

Vardon Trophy

The Vardon Trophy, named in honor of famed British golfer Harry Vardon, is awarded annually by the PGA of America.

From 1947 to 1987, the Vardon Trophy was awarded to the professional golfer with the lowest-scoring average. In 1988, the criteria were adjusted to award the Vardon Trophy to the touring professional with the lowest adjusted scoring average based on a minimum of 60 official rounds in events cosponsored or approved by the PGA TOUR.

Any player with an incomplete round is ineligible to win the Vardon Trophy.

It is presented annually at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola to a player sharing Stewart's respect for the traditions of the game, his commitment to uphold the game's heritage of charitable support and the professional and meticulous presentation of himself and the sport through his dress and conduct.

In addition to a sculpture presented to the recipient, the Payne Stewart Award is accompanied by an annual Payne Stewart Award Grant presented by Southern Company. The $300,000 grant will support several initiatives in Stewart's name to be distributed as follows: $100,000 to Payne and Tracey Stewart's primary charity, The Stewart Family Foundation; $100,000 in Stewart's honor to The First Tee facility in Missouri, located at Camp Kanakuk, which is affiliated with the "Kids Across America" program; and $100,000 to a charity designated by the recipient.

David Chu Award

The Award was created in 2009 to recognize Dr. David Chu's outstanding contributions to the growth of golf in China. Dr. Chu died Aug. 12, 2011 in Hong Kong.

Dr. Chu was considered by many as the father of golf in China. Dr. Chu founded Mission Hills Golf Club in 1992, confident in his belief that China's thriving economy would give rise to a domestic golf and leisure industry. A little more than 15 years after breaking ground, Mission Hills has grown into the world's largest golf club and is leading the golf boom gripping China.

The award is an 8-centimer-by-8-millimeter bronze medal bearing Dr. Chu's likeness and featuring text in English and Chinese on either side.
It is anticipated that in future years the award will be given in Dr. Chu's name to other worthy recipients who have been instrumental in developing golf in China.
