A Message to the Media

Rick George
Executive Vice President and Chief of Operations

On behalf of the players, tournaments, volunteers and our management team, welcome to the 2010 PGA TOUR season. Thank you for your continued coverage of the game of golf as a whole and, specifically, our organization, its world-class athletes and the tournaments and charities that make our mission of giving back possible.

Competitively, the 2009 PGA TOUR season was an exciting one, a season that demonstrated the depth of the PGA TOUR with five different players capturing major championships and THE PLAYERS Championship and a total of eight multiple winners. Tiger Woods returned from knee surgery and performed at the high level of play that we have grown accustomed to seeing, winning six times and capturing his second FedExCup title. Phil Mickelson won three times during the FedExCup season and then added the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions title in November.

The third edition of the FedExCup was a success. On-site attendance, television ratings and Internet traffic all showed significant increases over the first two years. The players have embraced the competition and, except for one player who was injured, 100 percent of eligible players participated in all four PGA TOUR Playoff events, making these fields the strongest ever. The FedExCup came down to the final round with four players having a shot of winning the competition, which created a lot of interest and excitement.

The eighth Presidents Cup was by all measures the best in event history as large and enthusiastic galleries flocked to San Francisco's Harding Park and witnessed excellent performances by the U.S. Team, led by Captain Fred Couples, and Greg Norman's International Team, with the Americans emerging victorious. The 2011 Presidents Cup in Melbourne, Australia, promises to be another exciting event.

On the Nationwide Tour, Australian Michael Sim stole the show as the Tour celebrated its 20th year in 2009. By August, he had won three times in just 12 starts to earn a promotion to the PGA TOUR, and when his season was over, the 25-year-old had rewritten many of the Nationwide Tour's records. Though he was dominant, Sim's peers provided plenty of competition resulting in exciting finishes at almost every Tour stop. Of the 29 Nationwide Tour events played in the U.S. and five countries abroad, 10 ended in a playoff and eight more were decided by a single stroke. On the PGA TOUR, Nationwide Tour alumni captured a record 23 titles in 2009.

The Champions Tour players again provided great theatre. There were 18 different winners in 25 events, made up of a good mix of champions ranging from World Golf Hall of Fame members such as Bernhard Langer and Nick Price to Champions Tour stalwarts Fred Funk, Loren Roberts and Jay Haas. Roberts captured his second Charles Schwab Cup by 319 points over John Cook, and it took a pair of 66s on the weekend of the final event for him to secure the title. And who could forget one of the greatest sports stories of any season with World Golf Hall of Fame member Tom Watson's incredible runner-up finish in a playoff at Turnberry in last year's British Open.

On the business side, there seemed to be just as much attention on our sport. With increased scrutiny being placed on companies sponsoring sporting events, our message was of the value that comes from sponsoring PGA TOUR events and the significant charitable and economic impact on communities across the country.

We also saw huge gains in the ongoing globalization of golf. In October, the International Olympic Committee voted to include golf in the Olympic Games beginning in 2016. This move will aid in the continued growth of the game, especially internationally. You will soon see significant investment in many countries that are interested in growing the game and developing athletes. Certainly, this will be the case in China where the excitement level over golf's inclusion in the Olympic Games is substantial.

Also, being a part of the Olympics will enhance and strengthen the image and texture of our sport globally. Golf is now placed along all the other Olympics sports as an athletic endeavor.

Our collective charitable efforts will be a main focus in 2010. The "Together, anything's possible" platform will put an increased focus on the efforts of our players, tournaments, volunteers, sponsors, fans and charities. Our charitable mission is an integral component of our value proposition and will continue to be a priority in the coming year.

Again, thank you for your coverage of the PGA TOUR. If you have questions or concerns, our communications team on site at tournament media centers or at our headquarters in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL, will be happy to assist.

Sincerely,

Timothy W. Finchem

PGA TOUR Overview

The name of our organization is the PGA TOUR, a tax-exempt membership group of professional golfers that plays approximately 100 official money tournaments on three Tours – the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour. Our headquarters are located in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL, southeast of Jacksonville.

We should be referred to as the PGA TOUR or TOUR (on second reference), but not the PGA, as we are a different organization than the PGA of America.

The PGA is the Professional Golfers' Association of America, a membership organization for the nation's club professionals. The PGA runs the PGA Championship, Senior PGA Championship and Ryder Cup Matches, among other championships. The PGA headquarters are located in Palm Beach Gardens, FL.

The PGA TOUR and PGA of America were affiliated until 1968, when the tournament players, a small subset of the total PGA membership, broke away to form the Tournament Players Division and gain more control of their finances and tournament schedule. The Tournament Players Division was renamed the PGA TOUR in 1975.

Two other American golf organizations are involved in men's professional tournament play, independent of the TOUR but with their marquee events included on the TOUR schedule as non-TOUR co-sponsored tournaments. The United States Golf Association, with headquarters in Far Hills, NJ, oversees the national championships (U.S. Open, U.S. Senior Open, U.S. Amateur, U.S. Women's Amateur, etc.) and administers the Rules of Golf, among other duties. The Augusta (GA) National Golf Club plays host to the Masters Tournament. The Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Scotland oversees the British Open and administers the world's golf rules jointly with the USGA.

The PGA TOUR is the world's foremost golf Tour, with official money events from January through November. This year is the fourth in a new era for the PGA TOUR with the continuation of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition culminating with the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup.

FedExCup

Overview

The PGA TOUR entered a new era in 2007 with the introduction of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition offering $35 million in bonus money and culminating with the PGA TOUR's first-ever Playoff system. In 2010, the four Playoff events will offer $30 million in prize money, meaning a total of $65 million is on the line over the final weeks of FedExCup competition.

Over the span of 37 weeks of competition, players vie to become the FedExCup Champion, which distinguishes the one player who not only performs well during the 33-week PGA TOUR Regular Season, but also excels through the pressure of the four-event PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup. Tiger Woods won the inaugural FedExCup in 2007 and the $10-million top prize and won for a second time in 2009. Vijay Singh won the title in 2008.

Tiger Woods won his second FedExCup, completing a season where he won six times in a comeback from major knee surgery in 2008. Woods recorded a win at the BMW Championship and two runner-up finishes in the four PGA TOUR Playoff events.

Heath Slocum barely made the Playoffs and then rose to the occasion in the first event, The Barclays, at Liberty National. He missed the cut at the Wyndham Championship in Greensboro, NC, and was on the verge of not making the top 125 in points. But he landed at 124th, two points better than Matt Jones at 126. Slocum was paired with Steve Stricker in the final round of The Barclays and they were tied for the lead at 9-under entering the par-4 finishing hole. Woods, one group ahead and one stroke behind, had just missed a short birdie putt to remain in a tie with Ernie Els and Padraig Harrington. After an errant drive and layup, Slocum played to 21 feet and canned the par putt just before Stricker missed a 10-foot par putt to tie. Slocum jumped all the way to third that week and finished the FedExCup in eighth place.

Stricker continued his good play in the Playoffs in 2009. He was a steady player in 2007 but not near the top. Then he won The Barclays to climb to first in the standings and eventually placed second in the 2007 FedExCup behind Woods. He came back in 2008 with a couple more top 10s to earn the nickname, "Mr. September." The carryover to 2009 was a runner-up finish at The Barclays and a win the next week at the Deutsche Bank Championship. Stricker trailed by one with two holes left at TPC Boston before making a 15-foot birdie putt on the 17th and an up-and-down birdie on the finishing hole to win by one and move to the top of the FedExCup standings. He would finish third after Atlanta.

Phil Mickelson searched for his usually solid short game late in the 2009 season. He had won at the Northern Trust Open and World Golf Championships-CA

During the Regular Season, TOUR members earn points based on their finish, with a strong emphasis placed on winning and high finishes. Once the Regular Season concludes, the top 125 players advance to the Playoffs, a series of four $7.5 million tournaments offering quintuple points relative to Regular Season events.

The Playoffs feature a progressive cut, beginning with The Barclays in New Jersey (125 players), continuing with the Deutsche Bank Championship in Boston (100 players) and the BMW Championship in Chicago (70 players). A reset takes place, seeding the top-30 players for the culminating TOUR Championship presented by Coca-Cola in Atlanta, where the FedExCup Champion is crowned.

The PGA TOUR schedule divides the golf season into two parts:

1. FedExCup
 - PGA TOUR Regular Season (33 weeks)
 - PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup (4 weeks)
2. PGA TOUR Fall Series

Championship earlier in the year. Then in May, his wife, Amy, was diagnosed with breast cancer, followed shortly by similar news for his mother. Except for a runner-up finish at the U.S. Open, it was seemingly a season derailed by more important family issues. In the Playoffs, Mickelson couldn't get on track, failing to finish any better than 27th in the first three events.

During the week off before THE TOUR Championship, Mickelson consulted with former PGA TOUR player Dave Stockton on putting. He rediscovered his old putting stroke just in time for the Playoffs finale at East Lake Golf Club in Atlanta. With a final-round 65, Mickelson came from four strokes behind leader Kenny Perry to three ahead of Woods. It was his second TOUR Championship title, the 37th victory of his career and pushed him from 14th to second in the FedExCup standings.

Woods entered the Playoffs first in the standings after winning five of his season-high six tournaments during the PGA TOUR Regular Season – at the Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard with another clutch birdie putt on the final green, with a rally at the Memorial Tournament, a late birdie at his own AT&T National, a farewell victory to the Buick Open and a battle with Padraig Harrington at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational.

"You have to be consistent day in and day out in order to win a lot of golf tournaments," Woods said. "You don't always have to have your best stuff to still win golf tournaments because you know how to manage your game and how to get it around. That's something Jack [Nicklaus] has always alluded to. You have to understand how to get the ball around, not necessarily win the tournament, but keep yourself in the tournament, and you never know what can happen at the end. That's something that I've done over the years and have really learned how to do it."

FedExCup

1. FedExCup PGA TOUR Regular Season

The Regular Season consists of 37 events in 33 weeks from the beginning of January at the SBS Championship in Hawaii through mid-August at the Wyndham Championship in Greensboro, NC. Points are awarded at four levels:

- Official PGA TOUR events played during the Regular Season each award 500 FedExCup points to the winner.
- The Masters Tournament, THE PLAYERS Championship, U.S. Open, British Open and the PGA Championship award 600 FedExCup points to the winner.
- World Golf Championships events award 550 FedExCup points to the winner.
- Additional events (played the same week as other tournaments) award 250 FedExCup points to the winner.

The Regular Season points standings will carry over to the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup.

PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup

The PGA TOUR Playoffs consist of four events immediately following the Regular Season – The Barclays, Deutsche Bank Championship, BMW Championship and THE TOUR Championship presented by Coca-Cola. The Regular Season points standings determine the top 125 players who qualify for the first event, The Barclays. Each playoff event offers 2,500 points (quintuple the Regular Season). The second event, the Deutsche Bank Championship in Boston, will have a 100-player field. The third tournament, the BMW Championship in Chicago, will have 70 players (with no cut). The finale, THE TOUR Championship presented by Coca-Cola in Atlanta, will be comprised of the top-30 qualifiers following the BMW Championship.

Following a points reset, those players will compete for the FedExCup with one to be crowned the FedExCup champion. Each tournament will have a $7.5 million purse in addition to the $35-million FedExCup bonus pool.

Note: In case of ties, reset points will be distributed between the tying positions using the same methods for dealing with ties during events – the total points for each of the tying positions are divided equally among all players in the tying position. In the event that a player who qualifies for a Playoff event chooses not to play in that event, there will be no alternates and the field will be shortened.

2. PGA TOUR Fall Series

Following the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup will be the Fall Series tournaments that conclude in mid-November. These events finalize eligibility for the following season as players vie for positions through No. 125 on the money list. All events will be “official” victories and award official money and Official World Golf Ranking points.

A Brief History of the PGA TOUR

It is not easy to pinpoint the exact beginning of the PGA TOUR. Certainly, professionals have competed against each other from the earliest days of the game in the United States.

In 1895, 10 professional golfers and one amateur played in the first U.S. Open in Newport, RI. Shortly thereafter, tournaments began to pop up across the country, including the Western Open in 1899. But this was not "tour" golf. The events lacked continuity.

Interest in the game, however, continued to grow. American professionals were rapidly improving. When John McDermott became the first American-born player to win the U.S. Open in 1911, interest in the game blossomed. That interest became enthusiasm in 1913 when Englishmen Harry Vardon and Ted Ray came to the United States to play an exhibition tour and compete in the U.S. Open. When 20-year-old amateur Francis Ouimet defeated the pair in a playoff for the Open at Brookline, MA, golf became front-page news and a game for everyone.

In the early 1920s, a series of tournaments was held on the West Coast, in Texas and Florida. These events were held in the winter, and the golfers played their way east and up to Pinehurst, NC, in the spring. By the middle of the decade, the tour was doing relatively well—offering $77,000 in total prize money.

The first "playing pros" organization was formed in 1932. Two years earlier, Bob Harlow had been named manager of the PGA Tournament Bureau. The tour became more structured following World War II and exploded in the late 1950s and early '60s. When Arnold Palmer, televised golf and President Dwight D. Eisenhower arrived on the scene in the late 1950s, the eyes of the world were on golf. This exposure inspired millions to try the game. Most golf historians trace the "formal" beginning of the PGA TOUR to late 1968, when the "Tournament Players Division" split from the PGA of America and hired Joe Dey as its first commissioner. That organization became the modern-day PGA TOUR. Dey served from early 1969 through February 28, 1974, and was succeeded by Deane R. Beman on March 1, 1974.

During Beman's administration, the value of tournament purses escalated at an unprecedented rate. PGA TOUR assets grew from $730,000 in 1974 to more than $200 million, and total revenues increased from $3.9 million to $229 million in 1993.

Tim Finchem, previously the TOUR's Deputy Commissioner and Chief Operating Officer, became the TOUR's third commissioner on June 1, 1994. In 1995, Finchem undertook a restructuring program designed to strengthen the PGA TOUR's core business, which is its competitions, to expand the TOUR's international scope and prepare it to enter the 21st century. In 1996, Finchem helped spearhead formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours, as golf's five world-governing bodies laid the groundwork for taking competition into the next millennium. In 1997, the Federation announced the World Golf Championships, which made their debut in 1999 with three events—today called the Accenture Match Play Championship, Bridgestone Invitational and CA Championship. The HSBC Champions in China was added in 2009. In 2007, the TOUR debuted the FedExCup.

Since 1938, PGA TOUR events have donated approximately $1.5 billion to charity, reaching the $1-billion milestone late in the 2005 season.

The competitive scope of the PGA TOUR also is much broader today. The Champions Tour, entering its 30th season, has been labeled the most successful senior sports venture in history. Fans and television viewers are able to get closer to the game on this Tour, both on site and with instructional platforms. The Charles Schwab Cup was contested for the 10th time in 2009.

The Nationwide Tour, under that sponsorship umbrella for the seventh year, has been recognized as the "official proving ground" for the PGA TOUR with its excellent level of play that has two out of three players on the 2009 PGA TOUR with Nationwide Tour roots. The Tour celebrated its 20th season in 2009. The top-25 money winners earn their PGA TOUR cards for the following season. Among the former players on this Tour who have gone on to star on the PGA TOUR are David Duval, Tom Lehman, Jeff Maggert, Stuart Appleby, 2009 British Open champion Stewart Cink, David Toms, 2003 U.S. Open winner Jim Furyk, 2007 Masters champion Zach Johnson and 2009 U.S. Open champion Lucas Glover. Through 2009, 260 PGA TOUR events have been won by former Nationwide Tour players.

When the PGA TOUR opened TPC Sawgrass in 1980, it introduced the era of stadium golf and record-breaking attendance. Owned and/or operated by the TOUR, the TPC Network courses are the only major-league sports venues owned by the players themselves. The reworked PLAYERS Stadium Course at TPC Sawgrass, with refurbished fairways and rebuilt greens and a new, enlarged clubhouse, debuted in May 2007 for THE PLAYERS Championship. The successful debut of the FedExCup in 2007 was concluded by the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup, with Tiger Woods taking the title. Vijay Singh won in 2008. Tiger Woods won his second title in 2009.

About the Commissioner

Tim Finchem
PGA TOUR Commissioner

Tim Finchem began his 16th year as commissioner of the PGA TOUR in June 2009. From the time Finchem joined the TOUR management team, he has played a key role in strengthening the PGA TOUR's position as one of the most successful, well-respected sports organizations in the world, and his leadership has helped foster the growth of the game, both domestically and internationally.

During his tenure, Finchem has greatly expanded the earnings opportunities for PGA TOUR players. The TOUR, through its tournaments and sponsors, has dramatically escalated tournament purses and grown total revenues at an unprecedented rate. Since Finchem became commissioner in 1994, the PGA TOUR and its tournaments have raised more than $1 billion for charitable organizations.

Under Finchem's leadership, The Presidents Cup was created in 1994, bringing together the world's best non-European players in team match-play competition against their American counterparts. After eight stagings, The Presidents Cup has grown to be one of the most highly anticipated events on golf's calendar, and the 2011 event is scheduled for Royal Melbourne in Australia.

Finchem has also been instrumental in the formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours and the World Golf Foundation. His personal dedication to the success of the World Golf Foundation's The First Tee initiative has meant that, in just more than 10 years, The First Tee has grown to include more than 200 chapters that reach more than 2.2 million young people.

An additional accomplishment during Finchem's tenure has been the development and introduction of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition that culminates with the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup. From 2007-2009, the FedExCup brought an unparalleled level of late-season focus to and interest in the TOUR, as indicated by significant increases in television and online audiences, tournament attendance, sponsor activation and media coverage.

Born in Ottawa, IL, on April 19, 1947, Finchem graduated from Princess Anne High School in Virginia Beach, VA. He attended the University of Richmond on a debate scholarship, receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1969. He graduated from the University of Virginia Law School in 1973. After practicing law in Virginia Beach for three years, Finchem served in the White House as Deputy Advisor to the President in the Office of Economic Affairs in 1978 and 1979. In the early 1980s, Finchem co-founded the National Strategies and Marketing Group in Washington, D.C.

Finchem is the recipient of the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America's Old Tom Morris Award for 2001 and the PGA of America's Distinguished Service Award for 2002. He was awarded the Dick Schaap Lifetime Achievement in Sports Award in 2005.

Finchem is the third commissioner of the PGA TOUR, succeeding Deane Beman. Beman served for 20 years, replacing the late Joe Dey, who had been the TOUR's commissioner in its first five years, 1969-74.

Prior to becoming commissioner on June 1, 1994, Finchem was deputy commissioner and chief operating officer of the TOUR. He joined the TOUR as vice president of business affairs in 1987.

Finchem and his wife, the former Holly Bachand, have four children and live in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL.

2007 PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament. 2006: In 13th trip to the Qualifying Tournament finals, earned 2007 card for a record ninth time. Finished 153rd on money list with three top-25s in 25 starts. 2005: After finishing 130th on the money list, earned higher status for 2006 via the Qualifying Tournament with a T7 finish. Made cut in half of his 30 starts during the year, while posting two top-10s (a T10 at the MCI Heritage and a T6 at the B.C. Open). 2004: Finished in the top 125 on the money list for just the second time in his career and first since finishing 73rd in 1993. His $882,872 were more than he had earned in his first 187 events on TOUR ($740,360)... Posted a hole-in-one on the 193-yard par-3 fourth hole with a 6-iron in the third round at the FedEx St. Jude Classic... Posted career-best finish with a solo second at the Chrysler Classic of Greensboro. Birdie putt on 72nd hole put him in solo second, worth $92,000 and payday of $496,800 jumped position on money list from No. 153 to No. 84. 2003: Successfully qualified at Qualifying Tournament for the seventh time in his career (1989-92, 1994, 2001, 2003) with a third-place finish. Marked the 11th time he had been to Q-School finals... Played primarily on the Nationwide Tour, where he was also a member from 1997-2001, with two top-10s in 24 events. Finished T2 at the Monterey Peninsula Classic. 1998: Using a long putter, earned his first career Nationwide Tour victory at the Greater Austin Open, shooting a final-round 76 as winds in excess of 40 mph dropped the wind chill into the low 20s. His 4-over-par 76 was the highest finish by a winner on the Nationwide Tour that season. 1995: Posted third career TOUR top-10 with a T5 at the weather-shortened Quad Cities Open. 1993: Then-career-best PGA TOUR finishes came back-to-back in his first two events of the season, a T3 in Northern Telecom and Phoenix Opens. 1992: Made his TOUR card for fourth straight season via Q-School finals. 1989: Won Bell's Scottish Open on European Tour. Fired a 9-under-par 63 in the final round to defeat Ian Woosnam and Jose Maria Olazabal by two strokes at Gleneagles. Had only 22 putts during the final round, which saw him hole two chips and a bunker shot en route to a 30 on the back nine. Later in the year, finished second in the Scandinavian Open. Finished 15th on European Tour Order of Merit.

PERSONAL:

Was planning to be a stockbroker before turning to golf as a profession... Won the 2003 Southern Arizona Open with daughter Christy caddying.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2008: Posted a career-high seven top-10 finishes en route to a 17th-place finish in the FedExCup standings. Surpassed $2 million in earnings for the fifth time in his career and finished among the top 55 on the money list for the 12th consecutive season. Just two missed cuts in 23 starts...Opened the season with five consecutive top-10s beginning with a T8 at the Buick Invitational...Best finish came in August when he finished T2 (the 12th runner-up finish of his career) at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational.

It was his 29th career World Golf Championships start, having competed in every World Golf Championships event since the inception of the series in 1999 (the only player to do so). 2007: Several near-misses marked the season and he made the International Team at The Presidents Cup for the fifth time...In attempt to win a fourth consecutive Mercedes-Benz Championship, finished T13...In defense of Shell Houston Open title, held a share of the 18- and 36-hole leads before finishing T2 behind countryman Adam Scott. One shot behind Scott on the 72nd hole, posted a double-bogey six after approach shot found a water hazard...Held the 54-hole lead at the Masters Tournament before a final-round 75 dropped him to T7, his fourth career top-10 in a major championship...Earned 10th and final automatic spot for The Presidents Cup International Team with T12 finish at the PGA Championship. 2006: Won twice and finished in the top 10 (No. 8) on the money list, both firsts in his 11-year TOUR career...Joined Gene Littler (1955-57) as the only players to win three consecutive Mercedes Championships. Trailed Olin Browne by two strokes after first round, then held second- and third-round leads prior to defeating Vijay Singh with a birdie on the first playoff hole. One of two players in 28-man field to post four sub-par rounds as he finished the event at 8-under 284, the highest 72-hole winning total since the tournament moved to Kapalua in 1999 and the highest in tournament history since Gary Player won with a 4-under 284 in 1969 at La Costa CC...Three months later, became a two-time winner by taking the Shell Houston Open in wire-to-wire fashion, the first player in the 59-year history of the tournament to lead outright in all four rounds. Finished six strokes ahead of Bob Estes, matching the largest victory margin at the tournament (Vijay Singh in 2002 and Jack Burke, Jr. in 1952). In previous seven TOUR wins, won by a total of five strokes. 2005: Won for the third consecutive season and was the first player during the year to successfully defend a title with his victory at the Mercedes Championships. Became the first back-to-back winner in 22 years at the TOUR's season-opening event. Came from four strokes back on final day to pass 54-hole leader Vijay Singh. Almost did not return to defend title due to a nerve problem in his left hip and upper thigh causing severe pain and expectant due date of pregnant wife Ashley...Made fourth International Presidents Cup Team. 2004: Finished in the top 20 (No. 13) on the money list for the third time in his career and second consecutive season. Earned fifth career victory at the Mercedes Championships, topping Vijay Singh by one stroke. Held first- and third-round leads...Held four-stroke lead through 54 holes at the Bay Hill Invitational but a final-round 76 left him six strokes behind winner Chad Campbell. 2003: Season punctuated by fourth career victory at the Las Vegas Invitational, his first win since 1999. Finished 12th on the money list and represented the International team at The Presidents Cup in South Africa...Surpassed the $10-million mark in career TOUR earnings with Vegas victory. Defeated Scott McCarron in playoff after the two set a tournament record with scores of 31-under 328, including career-low 62 in first round...Prior to win, had finished T2 three times earlier in the year, Shell Houston Open, 84 LUMBER Classic of Pennsylvania and the American Express Championship. 2002: Moved back into top 50 in earnings, highlighted by near miss at British Open. Best career finish in a major, T2, at the 131st British Open at Muirfield. After posting final-round 65 to join Ernie Els, Thomas Levet and Steve Elkington in playoff, bogeyed the fourth and final hole of the aggregate playoff to be eliminated...Second runner-up finish came at the Invensys Classic at Las Vegas, one stroke shy of Phil Tataurangi, who posted a final-round

Stood two strokes back after 36 holes and three back through 54 holes. Closing 71, the highest final round by a winner in 15 years at TPC Woodlands, was good for one-stroke victory over John Cook and Hal Sutton. Credited his late wife Renay with giving him the strength to win his first title since her death in the previous year. 1998: Earned his second TOUR victory at Kemper Open. Trailed by one through 54 holes and survived windswept Sunday with closing 72, one stroke better than Scott Hoch. 1997:

Had never played in a PGA TOUR event prior to his rookie season in 2009. 2008: Made a meteoric rise on the money list in the final weeks of the Nationwide Tour season, with four top-five finishes in his final six starts. Victories at the Oregon Classic and the Nationwide Tour Championship at TPC Craig Ranch propelled him over a six-tournament stretch from No. 77 on the money list into the top spot, earning full status on the PGA TOUR in 2009... Just two top-10 finishes in first 23 starts of the season, including T10 at the Nationwide Tour Players Cup and T8 the following week at the Price Cutter Charity Championship... A solo-fifth-place finish at the Albertsons Boise Open began a furious six-event finish to the season. Followed that a week later at the Oregon Classic with his first career title. Shared the first-round lead and then held a three-stroke edge after 54 holes. A back-and-forth battle with runner-up Bubba Dickerson saw the lead increase to five on the back nine before a three-shot swing at the par-5 15th cut the margin to one. Three solid pars down the stretch resulted in a two-shot win. First-place check vaulted him from No. 53 to No. 19 on the money list. Had made the cut in just 32 of 72 Nationwide Tour starts prior to the win... Shared the lead with D.A. Points into the final round of the Miccosukee Championship. Watched Points hole out for eagle from the fairway on the 72nd hole, but then holed his 12-foot birdie putt to force the playoff, which Points won with a birdie on the first extra hole. Runner-up finish was good for a 10-spot jump to No. 12 on the money list... Capped the season with his second win at the Nationwide Tour Championship, making birdie on the final hole to finish 17-under and one stroke ahead of Jeff Klauk. Career-best $180,000 propelled him into the top spot on the money list, earning an invitation into the 2009 PLAYERS Championship and the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial. His $447,863 for the season bettered only by Troy Matterson ($495,009 in 2005) and Zach Johnson ($494,882 in 2003) in Tour history. Even starting in the tournament was not guaranteed mid-week, as a kidney stone forced a hospital visit just before midnight on Wednesday. Was hooked up to an IV and passed the stone four hours later. 2007: Finished No. 15 and No. 37 on the Canadian Tour and Tarheel Tour money lists, respectively. Best finish on the Tarheel Tour was a runner-up effort at the Walnut Creek Classic. Made the cut in all 11 Canadian Tour appearances. 2006: Two made cuts in three appearances on the Nationwide Tour, finishing T20 at the Livermore Valley Wine Country Championship and T30 at the Price Cutter Charity Championship. Made six starts on the Canadian Tour, finishing No. 43 on that Tour's Order of Merit. Had eight starts on the Tarheel Tour, finishing T71 on the money list. 2005: Made the cut in seven of 16 starts on the Nationwide Tour, with two top-25 finishes and a then-career-best T3 at the Scholarship America Showdown, which at the time he called his biggest thrill in golf. 2004: Made the cut in seven of 26 appearances during his rookie season on the Nationwide Tour. Opened the season with T12 at the inaugural BellSouth Panama Championship, one of four top-25 finishes. Had a T6 at the Permian Basin

Charity Golf Classic for his only top-10 showing. Finished the season ranked No. 95 in earnings. 2003: Managed two top-25 finishes in three starts on the Nationwide Tour, including T16 at the Alberta Calgary Classic and a T24 the following week at the Envirocare Utah Classic. Made the cut in seven of nine events on the Canadian Tour, with two top-10 performances. A season-best T9 at the Bay Mills Open Players Championship helped him jump into the 25th spot on the final money list. Amateur: Named the Northern California Golf Association Player of the Year in 2001 and 2002. Won the NCGA Amateur Championship in 2000. Advanced to the round of 32 at the 2001 and 2002 U.S. Amateur. Never played golf collegiately.

Biggest thrill in golf was winning the 2008 Nationwide Tour Championship... Lists Michael Jordan, Payne Stewart and his dad as his heroes. Got his start in golf from his father. Has a twin sister, Michelle.

at the TPC Boston...Shared 36-hole lead before finishing T5 at Canadian Open, four shots behind champion Jim Furyk. Final-round 70 included a two-stroke penalty for violation of Rule 14-3a (testing the conditions in a hazard) when he dug his golf shoes in an area away from his ball in a green-side bunker. With the violation in doubt, Byrd assessed a penalty that cost him a share of third place and $120,500 in prize money. 2005: Posted his lone top-10 of the season, a T5, at the 84 LUMBER Classic, where he finished T3 the previous year. 2004: Struggled early in the year due to a hip injury, but bounced back with a strong finish after undergoing surgery on Feb. 15 in Pittsburgh because of two tears in the labrum front and back. The surgery tightened up the looseness and instability. Returned for THE PLAYERS Championship at the end of March...Entered the final round of the B.C. Open with a one-stroke lead, but had to withstand a six-hour rain delay before capturing his second TOUR victory. The win was his first top-10 of the season and came one year, 8 months, 21 days after his first victory at the 2002 Buick Challenge, a span of 45 events...Second top-10 was a third at the 84 LUMBER Classic. Lewis for lead through 18 holes. 2002: Became first rookie to win on TOUR since Jose Caceres in early 2001 with his victory at the Buick Challenge. Began season 404th in the Official World Golf Ranking and by the end of the season had improved to 72nd. Defeated David Toms by one stroke at the Buick Challenge. Had five-stroke lead through 15 holes on Sunday thanks to eagle-birdie-birdie-birdie-eagle (tied for season's best) stretch. Bogey on next hole and eagle by Toms cut that to two but Byrd hung on for the win in his 32nd start on TOUR. 2001: Earned first TOUR card by finishing eighth on the Nationwide Tour money list...Lone victory came at the BMW Charity Pro-Am at The Cliffs in Traveler's Rest, SC, not far from his hometown of Elgin, SC. 2000: T36 at the Michelob Championship at Kingsmill after turning pro in September after graduating from Clemson. Amateur: Member of 1999 Walker Cup Team...Winner of Northeast Amateur and Carolinas Amateur...Was an All-America selection in three of his four years at Clemson, including first team in 1999...First-team Academic All-America in 1999.

BEST 2009 PGA TOUR FINISH:

T48—Verizon Heritage.

2009 SEASON:

Played on a Major Medical Extension and had 12 events to earn $612,359, which coupled with earnings of $240,393 in 2008, would've equaled No. 125 from the 2008 money list and earned Major Medical Extension status for the remainder of the 2009 season. Made just one cut in six starts in 2009 (T48 Verizon Heritage) and earned $14,036. Still hampered by a left wrist injury. Will play out of the Major Medical Extension category again in 2010, with six events remaining to earn $598,323.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2008: A left wrist injury cut season short, with T36 at the AT&T National in early July his final outing. Finished the season with just six made cuts in 13 appearances. 2007: Lost to Fred Funk on the second hole of a sudden-death playoff at the Mayakoba Golf Classic. Runner-up finish was his best since a victory at the 2001 National Car Rental Golf Classic...One week later, finished T2 at The Honda Classic after losing in a four-man playoff. Lost on the third hole of a sudden-death playoff to Mark Wilson, who made a 10-foot birdie putt on the par-3 17th hole just before Caceres missed one just a bit shorter. Back-to-back top-10s were a career first and he was the first TOUR player since David Duval (1997) to compete in playoffs in back-to-back weeks...Finished fifth at THE PLAYERS, his best career finish at TPC Sawgrass...Led TOUR in Driving Accuracy percentage (75.47). 2006: Had three top-10 finishes, his most since joining the TOUR in 2001. Best finish was a T5 in August at the Reno-Tahoe Open. 2005: Finished out of the top 150 (No. 182) for the third time in last four years, while posting three top 25s. 2004: Finished among the top 125 for the first time since earning two wins in 2001...In fourth start of season, finished T6 at the Shell Houston Open. One off the lead of Vijay Singh and John Huston through 54 holes, but slipped with final-round 73... Solo third at John Deere Classic was best finish since winning the 2001 National Car Rental Golf Classic. First-round, 9-under-par 62 was one off the TPC Deere Run course record. In final round, a double bogey on the eighth hole dropped him from the lead. 2003: Inconsistent season, continuing to battle back from broken arm suffered prior to 2002 season...Lone top-10 came in October when he finished T7 at the Southern Farm Bureau Classic. 2002: Limited to 16 events due to a broken bone in right arm suffered in pickup soccer game in native Argentina. Did not play first tournament until early April at BellSouth Classic...After missing three of his first four cuts, made three consecutive cuts, finishing T18 at the Buick Classic, his best finish since breaking his arm...Recorded lone top-10 of the season at the PGA Championship in August, a T10, his best career finish in a major championship. 2001: Became the first Argentine to win on TOUR since Roberto De Vicenzo at the 1968 Houston Champions Invitational. One of nine players to claim multiple victories en route to finishing 34th in earnings in only 19 starts...Became one of nine first-time winners with a par on the fifth playoff hole to defeat Billy Mayfair at the WORLD COM CLASSIC. Stood two strokes off the lead after 54 holes and closed with 71 to tie Mayfair at 11-under 273. Two playoff holes were contested Sunday before darkness forced a postponement until Monday. Saved par from greenside bunker on fourth playoff hole, No 17, before a dramatic recovery for par from the marsh alongside the closing lighthouse hole at Harbour Town Golf Links. Speaks little English and held a hand-made pillowcase that said, "For my family and my friends and for all the Argentineans, a million thanks..."...Became first international player to win the National Car Rental Golf Classic at Disney World Resort. Led by three after 54 holes and closed with a 68 to defeat Davis Love III by one. Win came on Mother's Day in Argentina so he used a pillowcase for a sign that read, "Happy Mother's Day for all the mothers." 2000: Won the Dubai Classic. 1999: Passed six figures for fifth time in seven years on European Tour to become member of Millionaires Club. Had five top-10 finishes that season, ending with an eighth-place finish at Sarazen World Open and T10 in Volvo Masters...Closed his year by tying for second in Argentine Open. 1995: Won Tournament of Champions, his fourth career victory in Argentina. 1994: Won the Heineken Open Catalonia in Europe. 1992: Won $50,000 for hole-in-one at Dubai Desert Classic.

2009 SEASON:

The 2008 Comeback Player of the Year suffered through another injury-riddled season, with a T54 in late May at the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial his last start. Ended the season with seven made cuts in 13 starts, with a T28 at the Mayakoba Golf Classic his best showing...Had back surgery in early summer after a magnetic resonance imaging test revealed his L5-S1 disk in his lower back was bone on bone, in the same area where he suffered a herniated disk nine years earlier. Surgery fused the L5 and S1 disks together and removed problematic bone spurs, leading doctors to believe the successful procedure would lead to a minimum of 15 additional years of competitive golf...Will play on a Major Medical Extension in 2010. Coupled with $158,399 earned in 2009, must total $504,284 in 13 starts to earn a Major Medical Extension for the rest of the season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

up finish to Camilo Villegas at the BMW Championship. Finished No. 12 in the FedExCup point standings...First top-10 of the season came at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am, where opening rounds of 69-70-68 left him tied for first with Vijay Singh at 9-under. An even-par 72 on Sunday left him in a tie for third place and one stroke shy of the playoff with Singh and eventual champion Steve Lowery...Next top-10 came at the EDS Byron Nelson Championship, finishing T7...Finished T5 the next week at the Wachovia Championship, his third top-10 of the season, which matched his personal best since recording five top-10s in 2001...Held a share of the 18-hole lead at the Buick Open before finishing T9. Bogeyed three of his last four holes on Sunday to finish four behind Kenny Perry...After missing the cut at the Deutsche Bank Championship, posted four rounds in the 60s to finish runner-up at the BMW Championship, his best finish since a runner-up at the 2004 EDS Byron Nelson Championship. He made the biggest jump up the FedExCup standings from 67th to 14th, earning a spot in the TOUR Championship for the first time in his career. During the week he recorded three of the 19 total bogey-free rounds at Bellerive Country Club...Ended the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup with a T10 at THE TOUR Championship to finish 12th in the FedExCup points standings. 2007: Veteran limited to 12 starts due to illness of wife, Suzanne, who was diagnosed with a tumor in her lungs (non-smoking related) in May and subsequently had two-thirds of one of her lungs removed. Did not play after the Wachovia Championship, taking care of Suzanne and triplets, then age 6. Granted Major Medical Extension (family crisis) for 2008 and had 15 events to earn $485,931 (combined with 2007 earnings of $299,249), would equal 2007's

No. 125 earnings of $785,180) and receive Major Medical Extension status for the remainder of the 2008 campaign...Lone top-10 was T8 at the Bob Hope Chrysler Classic, four shots out of a Charley Hoffman-John Rollins playoff. 2006: Despite back problems that forced the withdrawal from four events, notched three top-10s to finish in the top 125 on the money list. 2005: Made 18 cuts in 29 starts and collected over $1 million for the fifth time in his 15-year career...Best finish was a solo fifth at the Buick Open, aided by a final-round 6-under-par 66 that included seven birdies in eight holes...Collected his second top-10 in a major championship with a T10 at the PGA Championship at Baltusrol. PGA TOUR VICTORIES (2):

2008 Turning Stone Resort Championship. 2009 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am.

BEST 2009 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am; T4—HP Byron Nelson Championship, Deutsche Bank Championship; T10—Northern Trust Open, PGA Championship.

2009 SEASON:

Won for the second time in his career and finished 14th in the FedExCup standings a year after placing 134th...Picked up his second career victory at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am. Joined six other Americans under age 30 at the time with multiple PGA TOUR victories (J.B. Holmes, D.J. Trahan, Sean O'Hair, Anthony Kim, Nick Watney, Charles Howell III). Some 40 hours after hitting his last shot, won at Pebble Beach on Monday when rain created a small river through one fairway and flooded greens, forcing officials to cancel the final round. Built a four-shot lead Saturday with a 67 at Poppy Hills, holing a 7-foot birdie putt on the 18th hole that figured to give him a cushion going into the final round. But the final round was never played. Rain and wind strong enough to topple a 40-foot tree suspended the final round Sunday, and nearly 1.4 inches of rain and a forecast for more gloom along the Monterey Peninsula left the PGA TOUR no choice but to declare Johnson the winner after 54 holes. At age 24 years, 7 months, the youngest player to win the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am since Tiger Woods (24 years, 1 month) in 2000...The next week, opened with a 5-under 66 at the Northern Trust Open and went on to finish T10...Four rounds in the 60s earned him a T4 at HP Byron Nelson Championship. Also secured a spot in the British Open, moving from 48rd to 43rd on the Official World Golf Ranking that week...Shot a final-round 70 at the PGA Championship to finish T10, his first career top-10 in a major...Shot a final-round, course-record 7-under 64 at Liberty National to improve from T51 after 54 holes to T15 at The Barclays. Much of Johnson's score was attributed to the two birdies and an eagle he made on the short par-4 16th hole. On Thursday, he made birdie, on Friday he chipped in for eagle and on Sunday he chipped in again for eagle from the back of the green...Finished T4, two shots behind winner Steve Stricker, the following week at Deutsche Bank Championship, jumping to No. 10 on the FedExCup standings. Ranked No. 1 in both Putts Per Round (25.2) and Driving Distance (317-yard average) for the week...Ranked No. 11 in the FedExCup standings after the BMW Championship to earn his first trip to THE TOUR Championship presented by Coca-Cola...Finished 27th in his first appearance at THE TOUR Championship, after opening with a first-round 69.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2008: Rookie made the cut in 17 of 30 starts, finishing No. 42 on the money list, and won for the first time...Posted two of his three top-10 finishes in his first four starts of the season. In just his second start on the PGA TOUR, fired three rounds in the 60s to claim a T10 at the Sony Open in Hawaii, the best finish among the 11 rookies in the field that week...Fired a career-low 63 in the fourth round of the Bob Hope Chrysler Classic on the way to a T12 finish. Six of first eight rounds on TOUR were in the 60s...Made his fourth cut in four starts with a then career-best T7 at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am...Birdied the last two holes to capture his first PGA TOUR victory at the Turning Stone Resort Championship. Made an 8-foot birdie putt on the par-5 18th hole to beat Australian Robert Allenby by one stroke. His second shot on the hole cleared the green but he got up and down for the win. Allenby, seeking his fifth victory and first since 2001, had a chance to tie at 18, but his 12-foot putt for birdie stopped inches short of the hole. Second-youngest winner on TOUR in 2008, at age 24, behind Anthony Kim. 2007: Finished T14 at the PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament. Went through all three stages of Q-School, winning the first stage by eight strokes at Auburn University Club...After playing in his first Walker Cup in September, turned professional on September 28 and made his PGA TOUR debut at the 2007 Valero Texas Open. Missed the cut in San Antonio. Amateur: Made the cut at the Nationwide Tour's Nationwide Children's Hospital Invitational, finishing T50 as an amateur...Was a member of the winning 2007 U.S. Walker Cup and the U.S. Palmer Cup teams...A first-team All-American at Coastal Carolina University (Conway, SC) for two seasons (2006 and 2007) where he won seven times during his career...Three-time Big South Conference Player of the Year...All-time scoring leader at Coastal Carolina (72.26) and holds the lowest season scoring average in school history (70.40)...Won the 2007 Northeast Amateur and the 2007 Monroe Invitational.

Grandfather Art Whisnant played basketball at South Carolina and was a three-time all-Atlantic Coast Conference selection in the early 1960s...Dustin's younger brother Austin is a guard on the Charleston Southern University basketball team...Dustin can dunk a basketball and could palm a basketball as a seventh grader...Coached by his college coach, Allen Terrell, at Coastal Carolina.

2009 SEASON:

Will use a one-time Top 50 on the PGA TOUR Career Money List exemption in 2011... Playing on a Minor Medical Exemption because of tendinitis in his left elbow, he had six events to earn $176,101 which would combine with his 2008 earnings to equal last year's No. 125 earnings, to upgrade his status to Major Medical Exemption for the remainder of the 2009 season... Before the Transitions Championship, where he held a one-stroke lead after 54 holes, he had made just $8,658 in five starts, in four of which he missed the cut. A final-round 75 earned a T8 finish in Tampa and a check for $151,200, approximately $17,000 short of his target... Had a successful debut on the Champions Tour in April after turning 50 on March 7. Teamed with Bernhard Langer to win the title at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in a two-hole playoff with Jeff Sluman and Craig Stadler. After Langer and Stadler traded 45-foot birdie putts on the first extra hole, Lehman made a par on the second hole to claim the title for his team. The victory made him the 13th player to win his Champions Tour debut. The win also made him just one of three players (Ron Streck and Keith Fergus) to have won on all three Tours... Made his first cut in a U.S. Open since the 2002 event on Long Island and eventually finished T47 at Bethpage State Park. It was his 12th made cut in 17 U.S. Open appearances... Played in the British Open at Turnberry in July, making his third consecutive cut in the event and finishing T60... Recorded four top-25 finishes during the season including a T13 at Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial where he posted four rounds in the 60s.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2008: Recorded two top-10s and placed 142nd on the PGA TOUR money list, his lowest finish since 1991. Also made just 17 starts, the least since 1991, and didn't play after The Barclays. Used a one-time exemption of Top 25 on the PGA TOUR career money list with a secondary exemption of a Minor Medical Extension for 2009... Best finish was a T6 at THE PLAYERS Championship, his sixth top-10 in his 17th appearance at TPC Sawgrass. Continued success on the par-3 17th where he is 11-under par in 62 career rounds, including hitting land 61 times. 2007: Finished in the top 125 on the money list for the 16th consecutive season on the strength of three top-10s... Posted 155s at the Arnold Palmer Invitational, five strokes behind champion Vijay Singh, and the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial. 2006: Posted best finish on money list since 2001, dividing time between competition and Ryder Cup Captain duties for the United States squad, which lost at Oakland Hills... Credited much of on-course success to fitness regimen where he lost approximately 25 pounds between August 2005 and February

2006... Finished fourth at the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship, falling to Zach Johnson in the consolation match, 1-up... Recorded the 19th runner-up finish of his career, losing to Dean Wilson in a playoff at The INTERNATIONAL. The two ended regulation with 34 points in the Modified Stableford format, but Wilson's birdie on the second extra hole dropped Lehman's career playoff record to 0-3... Withdrawn from World Golf

Lone top-10 came at Air Canada Championship where high finish was sparked by Northview G&CC course-record 10-under-par 61 in the final round. Began the day tied for 47th and, starting on the back nine, played his first nine holes in 5-under-par 30. He then birdied five consecutive holes on the front-nine for a 5-under-par 31. PERSONAL:

After college, gave up golf for four years to work with his father in the family clothing business. During that period, athletic focus was on flag football, softball, tennis and racquetball. Return to golf was sparked by 1991 visit to Raley's Senior Gold Rush, the Champions Tour event at Rancho Murieta, CA. After watching event, went home and built long putter in garage. Nearly won U.S. Mid-Amateur with homemade model later that year. Used more sophisticated version to win his three TOUR titles...In August 1999, made hole-in-one during first round of CVS Charity Classic immediately following ace by Lee Janzen on 17th hole at Rhode Island CC.

2009 SEASON:

Won three times, including a comeback win at THE TOUR Championship presented by Coca-Cola, and increased career win total to 37 (12th on the PGA TOUR career wins list). Took time off during the season after breast cancer diagnosis for his wife and mother...Defended his 2008 victory at the Northern Trust Open, posted an 8-under 63 to take a one-stroke lead after the first round. Topped that with a 9-under 62 on Saturday on his way to a four-stroke cushion entering the final 18 holes. After opening with an eagle on the first hole on Sunday, reeled off five bogeys in his next 15 holes to lose the lead. Birdies on the 16th and 17th holes regained the lead and he two-putted from the fringe on the finishing hole to beat Steve Stricker by one. The win was the 35th of his career. Became the first player since Ben Hogan (1946-48) to follow up a runner-up finish (2007) with consecutive victories at the Northern Trust Open (2008-09). He became the seventh player to win in back-to-back seasons at the event, and in the process successfully defended a title for the fifth time in his career...Finished T9 when he lost, 1-down, to Stewart Cink in the third round of the WGC-Accenture Match Play Championship...Weakened and dehydrated by a stomach virus that sent him to the hospital on the eve of the final round, closed with seven straight pars for a 3-under 69 to win the World Golf Championships-CA Championship by one stroke over Nick Watney, whose 30-foot birdie try on the final green barely missed. His second victory in his last three starts moved him to No. 2 in the FedExCup standings and to No. 2 in the world. The victory was also the 36th of his career, tied with Lloyd Mangrum for 12th all time...Tied the tournament record with a 30 on the front nine in the final round to jump into contention at the Masters Tournament. However, was derailed by a double bogey on the par-3 12th and a bogey on the 18th to finish fifth after a final-round 67...Wife, Amy, was diagnosed with breast cancer on May 20 and he put his schedule on hold...Returned to action at the St. Jude Classic presented by FedEx in early June, where he finished T59. Also played in the following week's U.S. Open at Bethpage Black, where he tied for second, two strokes behind Lucas Glover. Was tied for the lead at 4-under par after an eagle on No. 13 in the final round, but bogeys on 15 and 17 pushed him back to second. Fifth runner-up finish at the U.S. Open was a record...Missed next six weeks to be with wife and mother, who also had breast-cancer surgery. Missed the British Open, the first time he didn't play in a major championship since 1994. Returned to action in early August at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational where he T58, the first of a five-tournament stretch where he failed to record a top-25 finish...Capped a tumultuous summer at home with a spectacular rally at East Lake, closing with 66-65. The 5-under 65 moved him from four strokes behind to a three-shot victory at THE TOUR Championship presented by Coca-Cola, his first since his wife and mother were diagnosed with breast cancer in the spring. Beat Tiger Woods, the FedExCup champion, who finished second alone. Finished at 9-under 271 and placed second in the FedExCup. It was his third victory of the year, the 37th of his career, and it pushed him back to No. 2 in the Official World Golf Ranking. Credited much of his success putting to two days of instruction with Dave Stockton in San Diego the week before THE TOUR Championship. Led the field in Putting and made nine putts of 15 feet or more. Won despite making a quadruple-bogey 8 on the 13th hole in the first round...Only American player to participate in every Presidents Cup (8 events)...Won the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions in China in early November. Made an 18-footer to save par on the 16th after whiffing on a flop shot, then holed a 10-foot birdie putt on the 17th to close with a 3-under 69 and overcome a late charge by Ernie Els, who was in the lead until hitting into the water and making bogey on the final hole. Finished at 17-under 271 and earned $1.2 million in winning his second World Golf Championship of the year. The win was his fourth of the year, tying a career best, even though the HSBC was an unofficial PGA TOUR victory. Els was 10-under for his round and had a one-shot lead playing the 538-yard 18th. From the middle of the fairway, he went at the green with a fairway metal and landed in the middle of the lake to give Mickelson an opening.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2008: Moved his career-win total to 34 with victories at the Northern Trust Open and the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial, helping him finish seventh in the FedExCup standings. Ended the season with eight top-10 finishes...Rallied from four strokes behind J.B. Holmes entering the final round of the FBR Open to force a playoff with Holmes. Lost on first extra hole to a Holmes birdie. The runner-up finish was the 21st of his career. Earlier in the final round, gave two tickets to the Super Bowl, which was being played that night in the Phoenix area, to a random father and his young son in the gallery...Made up for a 2007 playoff loss at Riviera CC by defeating Jeff Quinney by two strokes at the Northern Trust Open. Took lead for good on the short par-4 10th when, trailing by one, he drove over the green and got up and down for birdie while Quinney made bogey. First played the event as an amateur 20 years earlier, missing the cut...Hit a wedge from the left trees to within 9 feet and sank the birdie putt on the final hole to win the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial. Tied with Rod Pampling and Tim Clark at 13-under par, Mickelson drove left into the trees on the 433-yard, par-4 finishing hole and faced a difficult second shot from 140 yards with one tree to navigate under and a second to go over. His approach cleared the left-front bunker and settled just right of the hole where he sealed his second victory of the season and the 34th of his PGA TOUR career, 13th on the all-time winners list. Mickelson birdied the finishing hole in every round...Capped off the year as a member of the victorious U.S. Ryder Cup team, followed by a T3 finish at THE TOUR Championship presented by Coca-Cola. 2007: Competed in three of the four PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup events and finished third in season-long points. Earned a career-best $1,620,000...Forced to withdraw after 11 holes of his first round at the Memorial Tournament due to a left wrist injury sustained while practicing out of rough at Oakmont CC, site of the U.S. Open. Second career withdrawal, the first coming at the 2004 Las Vegas Invitational where he withdrew prior to the third round due to food poisoning. Also forced to withdraw the following week before playing in the Stanford St. Jude Championship...Earned his third victory of the season at the Deutsche Bank Championship in a showdown with Tiger Woods. 2009 SEASON:

Won the third tournament of his career in 2009 en route to a career-best nine top-10 finishes and a fifth-place finish in the FedExCup...A final-round, 8-under 65, the best round of the day, led to a fourth-place finish at the season-opening Mercedes-Benz Championship...Lost 4 and 3 to eventual finalist Paul Casey in the quarterfinals of the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship, finishing T5...Recorded a par on the final hole at the Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard to finish second to Tiger Woods, who made birdie on the last hole soon after O'Hair's par. Led by five entering the final round...Had three rounds in the 60s on the way to a T10 finish at the Masters Tournament, his first top-10 in a major championship...Five weeks after losing a lead to Woods at the Arnold Palmer Invitational, surged down the stretch in winning the Quail Hollow Championship by one stroke over Lucas Glover and Bubba Watson. Closed with a 3-under 69—the only player from the last nine groups to break 70 at Charlotte's Quail Hollow Club—and made enough key birdies that finishing with consecutive bogeys on the two toughest holes at Quail Hollow didn't cost him. Took the outright lead with a two-putt birdie from 70 feet on the 15th, then seized control with an 8-iron to 8 feet for birdie on the 16th hole. Glover, who bogeyed the par-3 17th, had a chance to force a playoff on 18 until his approach bounced over the firm green and his birdie chip turned away to the left. Became the only current American player in his 20s with three PGA TOUR victories. International players Sergio Garcia and Adam Scott are the only others in the under-30 set to achieve that feat. The win vaulted him to third in the FedExCup standings...Entered the final round of the Deutsche Bank Championship tied for the lead with Steve Stricker and Retief Goosen, but an even-par 71 dropped him to a T8 finish, his seventh top-10 of the season. Was 8-under in an eight-hole stretch in the second round (Nos. 15-22) when he shot 64...One week later, posted rounds of 70-66 on the weekend to finish fourth at the BMW Championship. Climbed from 16th to seventh in the FedExCup standings entering THE TOUR Championship...Jumped out to the opening-round lead at East Lake with a 4-under 66 and eventually finished third. One of just two players (Tiger Woods) without an over-par round during the week. Finished fifth in the FedExCup...Was a rookie on the 2009 U.S. Presidents Cup Team...Runner-up in playoff to Anthony Kim at Kiwi Challenge.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2008: Notched second career TOUR victory to go with three top-10s...After missing the cut in his two previous starts, came back with a two-stroke win at the PODS Championship. Finished the event at 4-under 284, the highest winning score in tournament history and the highest on TOUR since Angel Cabrera won the 2007 U.S. Open. Collected a career-best $954,000. At 25 years, 6 months and 28 days, became the youngest player to win the PODS Championship and one of just seven players younger than 30 with two or more wins on the PGA TOUR. 2007: Tallied a then-career high in top-10s (5) and nearly $2 million in earnings...The 54-hole leader by two strokes over Phil Mickelson at THE PLAYERS Championship. Playing with Mickelson in the last group on Sunday, saw victory hopes evaporate with a quadruple-bogey on the par-3 17th hole (two balls in the water). Finished 11th after a final-round 76. On his 71st hole, O'Hair said: "I went dead after the pin, and it was right on line with the pin, maybe a yard right of the pin, and went in the water. You've got to make something happen. I didn't bust it for four days to get second place. So obviously I paid for it." 2006: Followed his sensational rookie season with a strong second year. Entered 30 events, made 20 cuts and finished in the top-25 seven times...Played well in the major championships, making the cut in three of the four. Finished T14 at the British Open and T12 at the PGA Championship. 2005: Stellar first season on TOUR, which included his first victory and a runner-up finish...First TOUR win came at John Deere Classic just one day shy of his 23rd birthday in his 18th career TOUR start. Posted four rounds in the 60s, including a final-round 6-under-par 65 that overcame a five-stroke J.L. Lewis lead. Finished the tournament with one bogey over his last 60 holes. Earned a career-high $720,000 and a spot in the British Open field the following week, jumping to 16th on the TOUR money list.

Moved to World No. 53 from No. 93 and from No. 1155 at the end of 2004. The Wednesday evening prior to the first round after struggling with his swing. "I was so desperate, I went to a Borders (bookstore) down the road from my hotel to get a couple Jack Nicklaus books. Thursday morning I woke up and was trying it in the hotel room. I tried it on the range before I went and played on Thursday and just hit the ball probably the best I've ever hit it..." Obtained a last-minute passport for British Open trip to St. Andrews. After arriving on Wednesday, finished T15, his first career start in a major championship...In just his 12th start of his rookie campaign finished solo second at the EDS Byron Nelson Championship.

2004: Earned his initial TOUR card for 2005 after making it through all three stages of the Qualifying Tournament, including the final stage in his first attempt. Had been to Q-School every year since 1999. 2004: Turned in then-best finish in 18 career starts on the Nationwide Tour, a T28 at The First Tee Arkansas Classic. 2001: Made just one cut in seven starts in his only season as a member of the Nationwide Tour...Spent time on the Cleveland Pro Tour and the Gateway Tour...Turned professional after his junior year of high school.

2009 SEASON:

After arthroscopic shoulder surgery in the off-season, he had four top-25s and one top-10 finish...Entered final round of the Legends Reno-Tahoe Open in second place and four strokes back of leader and eventual winner John Rollins, who is his neighbor in Colleyville, TX. Shot a 1-over 73 to finish T5. During third-round 66 he said he "kind of got smart for a change" and used the rules of golf to his advantage when he borrowed his caddie's sneakers to play a shot while standing on a cart path at hole No. 15 instead of standing in his own spiked golf shoes...Shot second-round 63 at the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial for a season-low score that was one shy of his career best...Finished season No. 150 on the money list.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2008: Claimed second career PGA TOUR win at the Ginn sur Mer Classic in the PGA TOUR Fall Series. Posted two additional top-10 finishes en route to 68th place on money list...Sank a 10-foot birdie on the 18th hole to break out of a six-way tie for the lead and win the Ginn sur Mer Classic. Ranked No. 143 on the money list with two tournaments remaining. Had to call a penalty on himself and made bogey on the 10th hole, then took double bogey on the next hole with a tee shot into the water. But he rebounded with a birdie on the final hole at Ginn Ocean Hammock Resort for his second career victory. Michael Letzig, the 54-hole leader, needed a birdie on the par-5 18th to force a playoff. But his wedge spun 35 feet down the slope, and he had to settle for par and a 73 to finish one shot behind along with George McNeill, Nicholas Thompson, Ken Duke and Vaughn Taylor. 2007: In 21st start of the season, finished T3 at the Canadian Open aided by a final-round 5-under-par 66. It was his first top-10 since a solo fifth at the Chrysler Classic of Greensboro. Jumped inside the top 144 on the

Holmes. Shared lead with Holmes through 10 holes on Sunday at 17-under. Fell one behind Holmes after a bogey on the par-4 11th hole, then dropped six back after triple bogeying the par-5 15th hole while Holmes eagled it...Finished T10 at the FedEx St. Jude Classic. Three off the 54-hole lead, posted a final-round 73 to fall from contention...Finished fifth at the Chrysler Classic of Greensboro, four back of Davis Love III. His $200,000 payday lifted him over the $1-million mark for the third time in his three-year TOUR career. 2005: Made his first start in the Masters and only his second start in a major championship. Finished T39 in Augusta...First top-10 of the season was a T2 at the B.C. Open, thanks to a pair of 67s on the weekend. It was his best finish since winning the 2004 FUNAI Classic at Walt Disney World Resort...Made his first start in a World Golf Championships event at the NEC Invitational in Akron and finished T3, thanks to weekend rounds of 67-69...Defending champion at the FUNAI Classic at Walt Disney World Resort and finished T3 aided by a closing 8-under 64. 2004: The rookie posted his first tournament title in his 34th career start on the PGA TOUR at the FUNAI Classic at the Walt Disney World Resort. Was five strokes back through 54 holes but closed with a career-best 10-under 62 to win by three...Shared first-round lead with Tiger Woods at Deutsche Bank Championship after a 65. Eventually finished T17...Ended the season on a high note, beginning with a runner-up finish at the Southern Farm Bureau Classic. Three weeks later won his first tournament title in Orlando. 2003: Made the cut in 18 of 24 appearances on the Nationwide Tour and enjoyed six top-10s and 10 top-25 finishes. 2009 SEASON:

Posted multiple victories (2) for the fourth time in his career en route to a ninth-place finish in the FedExCup standings...Opened the season with a T6 finish at the Mercedes-Benz Championship...Made a 22-foot birdie putt on the third playoff hole to beat Charley Hoffman and win the FBR Open. After he bogeyed the final hole of regulation to set up the playoff, the two bogeyed and parred the first two extra holes before the winning putt on the 332-yard, par-4 17th. Closed with a 2-under 69 to match Hoffman (67) at 14-under 270 at TPC Scottsdale. It was his 13th PGA TOUR victory and, at age 48, became the oldest player to win the event, surpassing Julius Boros who was 46 when he won in 1967...Finished T8 at the Arnold Palmer Invitational on the strength of a final-round, 3-under 67...Lost to Angel Cabrera on the second playoff hole at the Masters Tournament. Held a two-stroke lead with two holes remaining in regulation, but bogeyed the 17th and 18th holes to force a playoff with Cabrera and Chad Campbell. Has won five times in just over a year, the most of any player on TOUR at the time. The 258 total tied the fourth-best 72-hole score in TOUR history and beat the old tournament record of 259 set by Tim Norris in 1982. It was also his 14th career victory...Capped a memorable week in Atlanta at THE TOUR Championship presented by Coca-Cola with a T4 finish. Middle rounds of 66-64 propelled him to a two-stroke lead over Tiger Woods heading into the final round, before a 4-over 74 dropped him to T4, his eighth top-10 finish of the season. Earlier in the week, was named the 2009 Payne Stewart Award winner. Celebrating its 10-year anniversary in 2009, the Payne Stewart Award is presented annually to a player sharing Stewart's respect for the traditions of the game, his commitment to uphold the game's heritage of charitable support and his professional and meticulous presentation of himself and the sport through his dress and conduct...Member of the U.S. Presidents Cup Team for the fourth time in his career.

hold the 36-hole lead at THE PLAYERS Championship and was in Sunday's final pairing with Paul Goydos before a final-round 81 dropped him to T15...The following week, was one stroke back going into the final round of the AT&T Classic and fired a 3-under 69 to get into a playoff with Ryuji Imada. On the first playoff hole, the par-5 18th, his second shot wound up in the water after it struck a pine tree behind the green about 10 feet up the trunk and ricocheted back across the green into the water. He made bogey and Imada two-putted for par and the win...Two weeks later, collected his 10th TOUR title and third at the Memorial Tournament with a two-stroke victory over four players at Muirfield Village GC. He became the oldest winner of the Memorial Tournament and on TOUR at the time in 2008 at 47 years, 3 months and 29 days. Joined Tiger Woods as the only players to collect three titles at Muirfield Village. The winner's check of $1,080,000 also made Perry the all-time earnings leader for the Memorial Tournament with $3,092,542, moving him past Woods...Cited his past success at the Buick Open as one reason for not playing in the 2008 U.S. Open and took full advantage by capturing his 11th PGA TOUR title and second at Warwick Hills G&CC. Won by one stroke over Woody Austin and Bubba Watson. Listened for the crowd's reaction from the driving range as Austin three-putted the 72nd hole and Watson missed a 15-foot birdie attempt to tie. 2009 SEASON:

Enjoyed a banner year, with career-best numbers in wins (3), runner-up finishes (2), top-10s (11) and top-25 finishes (16)...Carried a three-stroke lead into the final round of the 50th Bob Hope Classic hosted by Arnold Palmer, but a closing 77 led to a third-place finish...Finished runner-up to Phil Mickelson by one stroke at the Northern Trust Open, the ninth second-place finish of his career. One of four players to record all four rounds in the 60s (68-66-69-67) during the week...Rallied from four strokes back to tie for the lead during the final round of the Transitions Championship but bogeyed the final two holes to finish T4, his third top-10 of the year. Recorded 19 birdies for the week, the most in the field...In April, claimed his fifth top-10 of the year with a T7 at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans. Jumped from T21 to the T7 finish after shooting his season-low final round (in relation to par) of 5-under 67...Chipped in for birdie on the par-4 17th hole in regulation play and then made a 3-foot birdie putt on the 17th—the second playoff hole—to win the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial. Birdied the hole four of the five times he played it during the week and beat third-round leader Tim Clark and Steve Marino (all at 17-under) in the playoff for his fifth career PGA TOUR title. Moved to second in the FedExCup standings. Clark had a two-stroke lead with five holes left, but made a bogey on the final hole of regulation and missed a 7-foot birdie putt on the 18th—the first playoff hole—that would have won the tournament. His approach on the second playoff hole hit the pin and caromed 20 feet away...After breaking his career-low round with a 9-under 61 in the second round, holed a 98-yard pitch shot for an eagle-2 in the final round of the John Deere Classic in July to claim a three-stroke win over Zach Johnson, Brett Quigley and Brandt Snedeker. On a final day where the entire field had to play 36 holes, the victory became just the second time he has posted two wins in a single season (1996). With the win, he moved into second place in the FedExCup standings behind Tiger Woods...Finished T52 at the British Open, but moved to first in the FedExCup standings after previous leader Tiger Woods missed the cut at Turnberry, Scotland...Bookend 67s led to a T6 finish at the Bridgestone Invitational, six strokes behind champion Tiger Woods...Finished T2 (with Woods, Padraig Harrington and Ernie Els) at The Barclays, one stroke behind winner Heath Slocum with whom he was paired in the final round. Entering the final hole tied for the lead at 9-under, watched as Slocum holed a 21-foot par putt. Stricker failed to force a playoff, missing a 10-foot par putt. Only player to post all four rounds under par...Finished with two consecutive birdies for a 4-under 67 and a one-shot victory at the Deutsche Bank Championship. His third victory of the season moved him into first in the FedExCup standings after two weeks of the PGA TOUR Playoffs. After Jason Dufner and Scott Verplank both birdied the par-5 18th hole, Stricker made a 15-foot birdie putt on the 17th and got up down from just behind the 18th green for a tap-in birdie to win. With the win, built a 909-point lead over Tiger Woods in the FedExCup race with two tournaments remaining and assured him of being no worse than the No. 2 seed in THE TOUR Championship presented by Coca-Cola. Also moved to second in the Official World Golf Ranking...Capped off the Playoffs with a sixth-place finish at THE TOUR Championship, securing the No. 3 spot on the FedExCup points list. It was his seventh top-10 finish in a Playoff event, tied with Camilo Villegas for most on TOUR. Closed with rounds of 66-69 at East Lake, giving him a TOUR-leading 31 rounds (out of 48) in the 60s in PGA TOUR Playoff events...Member of the U.S. Presidents Cup Team for the third time in his career, and had a 4-1-0 record, including 4-0 with Tiger Woods.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2008: Posted 13 top-25 finishes in 22 starts, finishing No. 14 in FedExCup points and No. 23 in earnings...Continued his strong play in 2008 with six top-10s, including losing in a playoff in the season-opening Mercedes-Benz Championship...Was a Captain's Pick for the victorious United State Ryder Cup team...Lost to Daniel Chopra on the fourth playoff hole at the Mercedes-Benz Championship. Chopra birdied the par-5 ninth as Stricker made par...Held a three-stroke lead after 36 holes at The Barclays, but weekend rounds of 77-71 dropped him to T19 in defense of his 2007 title. At one point early in the third round was 12-under, but a triple bogey on the 12th hole pushed him

PERSONAL:

Uses a pink shaft in his driver...Father started him in golf... Attended the same high school (Milton, FL HS) a few years after current PGA TOUR players Heath Slocum and Boo Weekley...Self-taught player who learned the game by hitting wiffle balls around his house. "The house was probably an acre and a half yard with big trees, downtown Bagdad (FL). The house is sitting here, and I drew in the dirt driveway. I'd draw a big circle, and that would be my hole, a 5-foot circle. I'd go around it to the left and then I'd go around it to the right. So I learned to cut it. If you know about wiffle balls or plastic balls, it's hard to cut. Then I learned to hook it the other way, hit it high over limbs, hit it low under limbs. I'd say non-stop every day from 6 to 12 years old. Instead of playing with trucks out in the yard, I'd play with a ball and a club."...Is using the same putter he has had since he first took up the game...Wife Angie is 6-foot-4 and a former University of Georgia, WNBA and European professional basketball player...Sponsors the Bubba Watson Invitational at the University of West Florida, a women's NCAA Division II golf tournament at Stonebrook Village GC, Watson's home course in Pace, FL...Affiliated with The First Tee of NW Florida and the Ronald McDonald House of Pensacola, FL...Without letting family and friends know, completed requirements toward a degree at the University of Georgia in the summer of 2008, thereby validating his push for kids to stay in school.

After missing the cut at the Masters, at age 59 he was a par away from becoming the oldest winner in major championship history. Aiming for a sixth British Open crown, shot 65-70-71-72—280 to tie Stewart Cink in regulation after making bogey on the 72nd hole, missing a 9-foot putt for the win. Lost the four-hole playoff by six shots but earned his first top-10 on TOUR since 2002 (7th—MasterCard Colonial) and moved from No. 1,374 to No. 105 in the Official World Golf Ranking...Finished 114th on the money list...Best Champions Tour finish was a second at the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship.

Victory was his 11th on the Champions Tour and 50th overall in a Tour-sanctioned event. Victory gave him eight official wins in the British Isles (five British Open titles and three Senior British Open titles), including seven in Scotland and 13 major championships overall. BEST PGA TOUR CAREER FINISH:

T2—2008 Valero Texas Open.

BEST 2009 PGA TOUR FINISH:

T6—Verizon Heritage.

2009 SEASON:

Made 14 starts on the PGA TOUR with one top-10 finish, but season was shortened in June when he required surgery for a torn ligament in his right thumb. Will play on a Major Medical Extension in 2010, with 12 events to earn $365,675 (coupled with $297,829 earnings in 2009). Returned to action in late November at the JBWere Australian Masters, where he finished T17...Played his way into the final pairing at the Verizon Heritage in April with a third-round, 6-under 65, but struggled on Sunday with a 2-over 73. Still managed a T6 finish, the best by a left-hander at the tournament since Phil Mickelson finished third in 2002. Led the field with just 97 putts for the week.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2008: One of 14 rookies to come out of the 2007 PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament...Had 17 made cuts in 29 starts, including three top-10 finishes...Collected the first top-10 of his PGA TOUR career with a T6 finish at the inaugural Puerto Rico Open...Finished third at the Zurich Classic after falling two strokes shy of winner Andres Romero. Was 5-under through 10 holes in his final round before recording pars on the last eight holes...Four rounds in the 60s led to a career-best runner-up finish to Zach Johnson at the Valero Texas Open, worth a career-best $336,000. 2007: Tied for 14th at the PGA TOUR Qualifying

Tournament, where a final-round 68 helped him move up from T25 position entering the last day and earn his card for 2008...Enjoyed a consistent year on the Nationwide Tour, making 23 cuts in 26 starts. Finished No. 49 on the money list, with $133,222. Ended the season with 12 top-25s, but managed to crack the top-10 on just two occasions. Began the year with a season-best T7 at the Movistar Panama Championship. Finished T9 at the Knoxville Open. 2006: Made the cut in 13 of 25 starts on the Nationwide Tour, with five top-25s. Concluded the season No. 73 on the money list, with $75,676. Went on to finish T19...Opened with a 7-under 64 to take sole possession of the first-round lead at the Preferred Health Systems Wichita Open before finishing T57. Shared the 54-hole lead with Ricky Barnes at the Oregon Classic, before finishing in third place—his only top-10 of the season—and just one shot out of the Barnes-Cliff Kresge playoff. 2005: Made the cut in 12 of 25 starts during his rookie season on the Nationwide Tour, with four top-10s. Wrapped up the season No. 49 on the money list, with $109,275. Also cracked the top 10 at the Envirocare Utah Classic (T7) and the weather-shortened Oregon Classic, with a season-best T2 outing. Would have entered the last round in Oregon three shots behind leader Jeff Gove before rain forced the shortening of the tournament. 2004: Made six starts during the 2004 season, making the cut in two of those, a T5 at the

Miccosukee Championship and T7 at the Knoxville Open. Made one start on the 2004 PGA TOUR, picking up $29,820 with a T27 at the Buick Championship. BEST 2009 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—The Honda Classic, PGA Championship; 5—Buick Open; T8—RBC Canadian Open.

2009 SEASON:

Enjoyed a career-defining year with two wins, including The Honda Classic and PGA Championship. First Asian-born player to claim a major championship title with his win at Hazeltine in the PGA Championship, beating third-round leader Tiger Woods. Also earned a spot on his first International Team in The Presidents Cup... Shot a final-round, 2-under-par 68 to win The Honda Classic by one stroke over John Rollins for his first PGA TOUR victory. Took command with three straight birdies on the front nine. Came to the par-5 finishing hole with a one-stroke lead after a bogey on the 17th. He two-putted for par from 50 feet to seal the win at 9-under 271. The victory qualified him for the following week's World Golf Championships-CA Championship at Doral and the 2009 Masters... Bogey-free 67 in final round of the Buick Open earned a fifth-place finish, his best since the Honda victory... Rallied past Tiger Woods to win the PGA Championship with a series of spectacular shots on the back nine. Woods was 14-0 when he was atop the leaderboard going into the final round of a major. "It's not like you're in an octagon where you're fighting against Tiger and he's going to bite you, or swing at you with his 9-iron," Yang said through an interpreter. "The worst that I could do was just lose to Tiger. So I really had nothing much at stake." Trailed Woods by two entering the final round, then chipped in from 60 feet for eagle on the short par-4 14th to take the lead by one. Clinging to a one-shot lead on the final hole, with a tree slightly blocking his view of the flag and Woods in the fairway, hit the shot of his life. His 3-iron hybrid cleared a bunker and settled 12 feet away where he made birdie to seal the win. He closed with a 2-under 70 for a three-stroke victory over Woods, who shot a final-round 75, his worst score ever in the final round of the major when he was in the last group. Finished at 8-under 280 and won $1.35 million, along with a five-year exemption on the PGA TOUR and the majors. He became the first player since John Daly in 1991 to win the PGA Championship after going to Q-School the previous year. Received a congratulatory phone call from South Korea President Lee Myung-bak and met former U.S. President George W. Bush the following week near his Dallas home... Ranked No. 21 in the FedExCup standings following the BMW Championship to earn first career trip to THE TOUR Championship presented by Coca-Cola. Finished 23rd in the FedExCup... Joined Charlie Wi in representing Korea at the OMEGA Mission Hills World Cup.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2008: Made 17 cuts in 23 starts on the PGA TOUR, his second year on TOUR. His best finish was a T9 at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am... Earned full exemption for 2009 via the 2008 PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament where he successfully made it through the final two stages to earn his card. At PGA West in La Quinta, CA, posted five of six rounds in the 60s to finish T18. He was one of 14 rookies to come out of the 2007 PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament. 2007: Tied for sixth in the PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament. Had three top-25 finishes on the European Tour, all T21s. 2006: Posted Asian Tour victories in at the Korea Open in a field which included Retief Goosen and the HSBC Champions Tournament (co-sanctioned event with the European Tour). The latter victory was worth a career-best $833,000 and came by two strokes over Tiger Woods. Win was worth full status on the European Tour and moved him into the top 40 at the time in the Official World Golf Ranking. Victory made him just the second Korean player to win on the European Tour, joining K.J. Choi. Four-time winner on the Japan Golf Tour, with his most recent victory coming at the 2006 Suntory Open in September, thanks to a final-round 63.

2005: Won the Coca-Cola Tokai Classic on the Japan Golf Tour. 2004: Won the Sun Chlorella Classic and the Asahi-Ryokuden Yomiuri Memorial. First-round 66 had him one stroke off the lead in the Shinhan Korea Golf Championship, a PGA TOUR-affiliated event. Third-round 80 dropped him out of contention. PERSONAL:

Fourth of eight children and the son of vegetable farmers... Once aspired to be a bodybuilder and own his own gym. A knee injury in his late teens ended that dream... Started going to a small, local driving range in Korea at age 19 on a friend's advice and learned the swing by watching instructional videos. Worked picking up practice balls and would work on his game before the facility opened and late at night after visitors went home. The range had facilities where you could sleep and eat... As required, spent almost two years in the South Korean military, stationed at his home at Jeju Island, south of South Korea, beginning at age 21. Guarded naval port... Traveled to New Zealand after his military duty to pursue a golf career. Practiced and played intensely there over a three-month period.

Made the cut in just seven of 30 starts on the 2009 PGA TOUR, and failed to record a top-25 finish. In 2008, enjoyed his best season on TOUR since his rookie year of 2006 with three top-10 finishes, including T4s at the John Deere Classic and Legends Reno-Tahoe Open. Finished T9 at the U.S. Open after closing with a 2-under 69. Had never made a cut in a major championship in four previous starts. It was his first top-10 of the season and first top-10 since finishing T3 at the 2006 Chrysler Classic of Greensboro. Second top-10 of the year was a T4 finish at the John Deere Classic. Held the 54-hole lead with Brad Adamonis, but closed with an even-par 71 to miss the three-man playoff. After no top-10s in 2007, claimed his third top-10 in six weeks with a T4 at the Legends Reno-Tahoe Open, thanks to a birdie-birdie finish Sunday. Struggled during the 2007 season with 18 cuts made in 36 starts. Best finish of the year came at the PODS Championship, a T19. Made a hole-in-one at the Ginn sur Mer Classic during the opening round and won a 2008 Chrysler Sebring convertible. In 2006, fresh off the Nationwide Tour, rookie earned first PGA TOUR victory and surpassed $1 million in earnings on the season. Jumped from No. 183 to No. 73 over the course of the final month and made the cut in nine of final 10 starts. After minimal success in his first 26 starts, became the eighth left-hander to win in TOUR history at the Valero Texas Open. After playing his first 14 holes 1-over par, played his final 58 holes 16-under and went a stretch of 53 holes without making a bogey (No. 6/first round to No. 13/round). Collected a first-place check for $720,000. Led by four entering the final round and carded a 1-over 71 to win by three over three players. The 71 marked the first time since 1960 that a Valero Texas Open champion carded an over-par final round. Arnold Palmer overcame sub-freezing temperatures to win in 1960 despite a final-round 75. Added a T3 at the Chrysler Classic of Greensboro. In 2005, one of three lefties to advance to the PGA TOUR from the Nationwide Tour, joining Greg Chalmers and Bubba Watson. In second start of season and sixth career start on the Nationwide Tour, the Monday qualifier captured his initial victory at the Rex Hospital Open in Raleigh, NC. Only player in field to post four rounds in the 60s. Became the Tour's third left-handed winner (Vic Wilk and Steve Flesch). Closed season with a runner-up finish at The Nationwide Tour Championship, which jumped him from No. 27 on money list to No. 16. In 2003, won the Capitol City Open on NGA/Hooters Tour. In 2002, took home the first of two career NGA/Hooters Tour victories when he made an eagle on the first playoff hole to claim the Northwest Arkansas Classic. BATEMAN, Brian

FULL NAME: Brian Bateman BIRTHDATE: February 25, 1973 BIRTHPLACE: Monroe, LA RESIDENCE: Monroe, LA; plays out of Bayou de Siard CC HEIGHT: 5-10 WEIGHT: 185 FAMILY: Wife, Dawn; Oliver Edwards EDUCATION: Louisiana State University (1996, Marketing) SPECIAL INTERESTS: Duck hunting, fishing, cooking, wine, Deuce (dog) TURNED PROFESSIONAL: 1996 Q SCHOOL: 2001, 2002, 2003, 2005, 2006 OTHER INFORMATION: In 2009, made the cut in just four of 25 starts and failed to record a top-25 finish for the first time since joining the TOUR in 2002. Also struggled during 2008 season, finishing No. 185 in FedExCup standings and No. 195 on the official money list (his worst showing since joining the TOUR in 2002). Did not crack the top-10 in 18 starts, with a T20 at the Masters Tournament his best outing. In 2007, collected his first PGA TOUR win at the Buick Open and surpassed the $1-million mark in earnings for the first time in his career. Competed in the first three events in the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup, finishing 67th. Became the first player to capture his first PGA TOUR win at the Buick Open since Tom Pernice, Jr. in 1999. First-round 7-under 65 set the pace for the win, culminating with a 12-foot birdie putt on the 72nd hole to avoid a four-man playoff. Got up and down for pars on 16 and 17 before the birdie. Prior to the win, referred to himself as a "Q-School veteran" having been there nearly 10 times. In fifth full season on TOUR in 2006, finished just outside the top 125 (No. 128). Improved 2007 status with T29 finish at PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament, his fifth consecutive successful trip to Q-School finals. Collected his only top-10 of the 2006 season with a then-career-best third-place finish at the Deutsche Bank Championship. Closed with a 5-under 66 to move into the top-10. Made 18 cuts in 32 PGA TOUR starts in 2005 and

Was 117th on the money list. 2000 was a year riddled with injuries and ailments. Made only 17 appearances. Injured wrist in first round of Greater Greensboro Chrysler Classic, where he missed cut, then withdrew from the next week's Shell Houston Open. Withdrawal was second in a row in his adopted hometown. Sinus history forced withdrawals from THE PLAYERS and U.S. Open. Underwent surgery on Aug. 11, three days before PGA, to repair torn hip and ball socket. A Captain's Pick by Peter Thomson for the International Presidents Cup team. Won for third straight year in 1999 with victory at the Doral-Ryder Open, which included a closing 64 that featured six consecutive birdies. Second-round 65 featured two eagles, including his first hole-in-one at any level. Second top-10 finish came with a T7 at the Chitimacha Louisiana Open. A third-round 8-under 63 at The Rex Hospital Open moved him into a share of the lead with Fran Quinn, before a 3-over 74 on the final day left him T4 and four strokes behind champion Scott Gutschewski. T5 at the Ford Wayne Gretzky Classic. Previously played in five Tour events, making two cuts and posting a career-best T30 at the 2007 Chitimacha Louisiana Open. His grandfather was a Rollins College classmate of noted course architect Pete Dye. His grandfather's friendship with Dye earned him a sponsor's exemption into the 2007 National Mining Association Pete Dye Classic on the Nationwide Tour. Says Heisman Trophy winner Danny Wuerffel and Mark Calcavecchia are his favorite Florida Gators. A fan of the TV show "Lost." During a casual round in 2008 with Jeff Klauk, Bubba Dickerson and Josh McCumber, he bet the others he could throw his golf ball from the 17th tee at TPC Sawgrass PLAYERS Stadium Course onto the green. The ball landed on the front of the green. "When I hit my shot, I did put my ball inside the one I threw."

Forced to play third and final rounds on Sunday because of inclement weather earlier in the week. In addition to victories at the Masters and Heritage Classic, also claimed the Australian Masters, the Casio World Open in Japan, the Sun City Million Dollar Challenge in South Africa and a pair of titles in Europe. Last of 42 victories on the European Tour came at the 2002 Volvo Masters Andalucia when he was declared a co-champion with Colin Montgomerie at Valderrama after a playoff was halted by darkness. Led the European Tour Order of Merit twice (1981, 1984) and was among the top 30 money-winners every year but one (39th in 1996) from 1980-2002. Became the first German inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in Fall 2002 after being elected via International Ballot. Played on 10 European Ryder Cup teams and every team from 1981-97. Also captained the European Ryder Cup team to a record victory over the Americans in the 35th Ryder Cup matches held at Oakland Hills CC in Bloomfield, MI. 145th on the money list in 2009 with one top-10 of 2009, a T9 at the Legends Reno-Tahoe Open where he used a putter borrowed from Matt Bettencourt. In 2008, posted two top-10 finishes. Surpassed $1 million in earnings for the sixth time in his career. In a bid to become the oldest U.S. Open champion at age 45, lost in a playoff to Tiger Woods at Torrey Pines GC in La Jolla, CA. Finished regulation at 1-under-par 283 and held the clubhouse lead as Woods and Lee Westwood, both one stroke back, played the par-5 18th hole. Woods made birdie to force an 18-hole playoff. In the Monday playoff, made three consecutive back-nine birdies to take a one-stroke lead to the last hole. Woods made birdie to tie and force sudden death as both players shot even-par 71s. Woods parred the par-4 seventh hole, the first sudden-death hole, as Mediate made bogey after driving into a fairway bunker and missing a 20-foot par putt. In 2007, had best season since 2003, with a runner-up finish, three top-10s and more than $1 million in earnings while playing on a Minor Medical Extension. Spent early part of season as a walking commentator for GOLF CHANNEL. Led by three strokes through 36 holes of the Arnold Palmer Invitational after opening 66-65. Rebounded from third-round 76 with a 67 to finish solo second, his best finish since he was runner-up at the 2003 Deutsche Bank Championship—a span of 74 events. In 2006, was limited to 18 events as he battled long-time back injury. In contention at the Masters Tournament, as he sat T4 through 54 holes. Back problem flared up in final round, when he posted an 8-over-par 80 to finish T36. Not able to play for one month. Playing on one-time exemption as top-50 all-time money winner in 2005, rebounded from subpar 2004 season to finish in the top 125. Rallied down the stretch, with 12 made cuts in final 14 starts. Recorded lone top-10 of the season at the U.S. Open (T6). In 2004, finished outside the 125 on the TOUR money list for the fourth time in his 19-year career and for the first time since he finished No. 155 in 1995. In 2003, finished 31st on money list and was bounced from the field for season-ending TOUR Championship after missing cut in final full-field event, the Chrysler Championship. Began season with two top-fives in first three events, highlighted by a T2 at Mercedes Championships and a sole second at the inaugural Deutsche Bank Championship. In 2002, earned more than $2 million for the first time in his career and had best finish on the money list (22) since finishing 16th in 1993. Picked up first victory since the 2000 Buick Open with win at the Greater Greensboro Chrysler Classic. Had two-stroke lead over Mark Calcavecchia through 54 holes. Final-round 71 gained a three-stroke win over Calcavecchia and earned a career-high $684,000 paycheck. In 2000, earned his fourth career victory the way he won his first TOUR title—with a birdie on the final hole at the Buick Open. It was the first time he had led the Buick Open all week. Birdied two of final three holes for one-stroke victory over 54-hole leader Chris Perry. Victory lifted him over $1-million mark in a single season for first time in his career. In 1999, made clear comeback from 1994 back surgery with victory at the Phoenix Open in only his second start of the season. Held season-best 54-hole lead of six strokes. Final-round 71 earned him two-stroke victory over Justin Leonard. In 1997, made eight consecutive cuts near end of the year to retain full exempt status. Returned to TOUR in 1996 under special medical extension and tied for sixth at Phoenix Open to earn full playing privileges. Missed most of 1994 season with ruptured disk, for which he underwent surgery in July. In 1993, second TOUR win came in playoff at Kmart GGO, where he birdied fourth playoff hole to defeat Steve Elkington. Earned first TOUR title in 1991 in sixth season at Doral-Ryder Open. Sank 10-foot birdie putts on 71st and 72nd holes, forcing playoff with Curtis Strange. In Monday playoff, birdied first extra hole from 5 feet. Gained interest in golf in high school after years of playing baseball. With help from Champions Tour member Jim Ferree during college, began to construct his swing. At Florida Southern, coach Charlie Matlock became large influence on his game. Started using long putter to save his back and became the first player to win on TOUR using a long putter when he won the 1991 Doral-Ryder Open. Finished 600th out of 5,619 players in his first appearance at the 2005 World Series of Poker's Main Event. Began playing poker in 2004.

Flew in on a redeye to South Florida from the West Coast and drove straight to Bear Lakes Country Club to begin the 2009 PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament. Went on to T19 to earn his card for 2010 despite a final-round 76. Made the cut in 16 of 22 starts on the PGA TOUR in 2009. Of those 16 cuts, seven were top-25s. Missed the cut in his only start on the Nationwide Tour at the Athens Regional Foundation Classic. Tied for the 54-hole lead at the Wyndham Championship, but a final-round 74 dropped him to T13. Lone PGA TOUR top-10 came in 14th start, a T7 at the U.S. Bank Championship. Equalled TOUR record for low nine-hole score relative to par with a 9-under 27 on the front nine in the second round of the Legends Reno-Tahoe Open. Posted five birdies and two eagles before a pair of bogeys at 10 and 11 halted his run. "I thought I could shoot 55 today," Riley said. "I was feeling that good. Then it's weird how your mind just turns on you." Completed the round in 8-under 64, eventually finishing T17. Regained fully exempt status with a T18 at the 2008 PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament. Finished 166th on the 2008 money list with one top-10, a T3 at the U.S. Bank Championship for his first top-10 since the 2006 Valero Texas Open. T5 at the Valero Texas Open, his first top-10 finish on the PGA TOUR since a T4 at the 2004 PGA Championship. Finished out of the top 125 on the 2005 TOUR money list and posted no top-10s for the first time in his seven years on TOUR. Finished T2 at the 2004 Buick Invitational after being involved in three-man playoff with John Daly and Luke Donald, his third runner-up finish in last seven months (2001 Greater Hartford Open, John Deere Classic). He and Donald were eliminated on first extra hole after Daly made birdie and Riley lipped out a putt from 5 feet. Picked up second top-10 in 12 career major appearances, with a T4 at the PGA Championship; the other was a third at the 2002 PGA. A three-putt bogey on the 72nd hole left him one stroke out of the three-man playoff between winner Vijay Singh, Chris DiMarco and Justin Leonard. Finish enabled him to jump from 18th to 10th on the final Ryder Cup team points list and qualify for his first Ryder Cup squad. Collected a career-high six top-10s in 2003, including three top-3s – T3 at the MCI Heritage, solo second at the Greater Hartford Open and T2 at the John Deere Classic. OTHER INFORMATION: One season after the best year of his career, was hampered by a left eye injury that forced him to miss four months. Had fluid behind the retina of his left eye that affected his vision and forced him out from late May until returning in early October. Best 2009 PGA TOUR finish was a T14 at the Shell Houston Open. Had a T4 at the Dubai Desert Classic on the European Tour and teamed with Henrik Stenson in defense of Omega Mission Hills World Cup title. In 2008, became the first Swedish player to win the European Tour Order of Merit. Won the Mercedes-Benz Championship and the Alfred Dunhill Links Championship in Europe as well as 10 other top-10s, including the Masters, U.S. Open and British Open. Only player to record top-10s in the first three majors (T8 at the Masters, T4 at the U.S. Open and T7 at the British Open). Finished T20 at the PGA Championship after sharing the first-round lead. The week before making his second Ryder Cup appearance, won the Mercedes-Benz Championship in Germany on the European Tour for his first victory in two years. Followed that at the Ryder Cup with a 1-1-2 record, including a Singles victory over Justin Leonard. Won the Alfred Dunhill Links title in early October. A T32 at Valderrama in the Volvo Masters was good enough to maintain his top position against main challengers Padraig Harrington and Lee Westwood. Two titles in 2006 made Karlsson Sweden's most prolific champion, surpassing the record of Anders Forsbrand. Karlsson took his victory tally to seven with a win in the Deutsche Bank Players' Championship of Europe. That followed an earlier win in the Celtic Manor Wales Open. Joined the European Tour in 1991 and won his first five titles between 1995 and 2002. In 2003 he decided to make a fresh start after years of feeling frustrated with both his game and life situation. Since then has worked hard with his attitude, as he has become more relaxed and content both on and off the course. His work with his Swedish coach, Annchristine Lundstrom, has helped enormously and he credits her for the hints she has given him to fully start taking personal leadership. At 6-5, one of the tallest players in golf. Son of a superintendent.

NOTES

PGA TOUR Commissioner Tim Finchem and Sang Chun, President, SBS International, a division of Seoul Broadcasting System (SBS), announced in May 2009 a 10-year agreement whereby SBS becomes title sponsor of the TOUR's season-opening tournament in Kapalua, HI, from 2010 through 2019. The tournament will be renamed the SBS Championship.

Despite bogeys on his first two holes in the final round, Geoff Ogilvy rallied to record a 5-under 68 and a six-stroke victory over Anthony Kim and Davis Love III at the 2009 Mercedes-Benz Championship. The victory, the fifth of Ogilvy's career on the PGA TOUR, came just over a month after he won the Australian PGA Championship.

Geoff Ogilvy's win in 2009 was the first wire-to-wire victory at the Mercedes-Benz Championship since the tournament moved to Kapalua in 1999.

TOURNAMENT HISTORIES

Bob Hope Classic

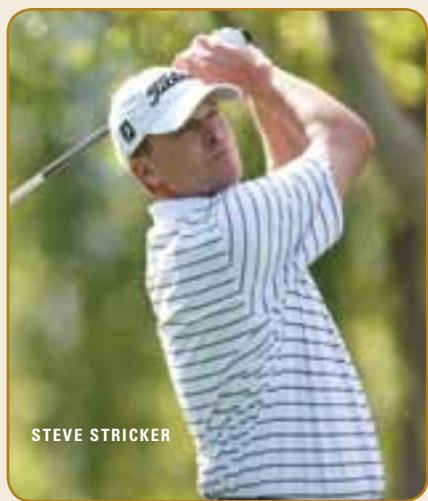

NOTES

Pat Perez became the first player in PGA TOUR history to reach 20-under for any 36-hole stretch at the Bob Hope Classic. Perez' rounds of 61-63 put him at 20-under par. Several players have posted 19-under totals over the years but Perez is the first to reach 20-under. That was topped by Steve Stricker the next day (61-62) at 21-under.

Steve Stricker's 255 total for 72 holes at the Bob Hope Classic was one shot off the TOUR's all-time record score for 72 holes. Tommy Armour III holds the TOUR mark at 254 (2003 Valero Texas Open).

Pat Perez became the fifth player in the 50 years of the Bob Hope Classic to earn his first PGA TOUR win in this event. He followed Bill Rogers (1978), Craig Stadler (1980), Donnie Hammond (1986) and Charley Hoffman (2007).

Pat Perez stuffed a 6-iron to within 3 feet, 1 inch from 199 yards on the final hole at the 2009 Bob Hope Classic to wrap up his first PGA TOUR win. Perez, playing in the final threesome, rolled in the eagle putt at the closing par 5 to wind up at 33-under par, three better than runner-up John Merrick, who earned his career-best finish.

STEVE STRICKER

Steve Stricker's 5-over-par 77 in 2009 tied the second-highest final-round score by a 72-hole leader in tournament history. The highest final-round score by a leader/co-leader was an 80 turned in by Lucas Glover, who held a share of the lead in 2007 before posting an 8-over 80 at the Classic Club. Co-leader Billy Casper also posted a 77 in 1962.

Waste Management Phoenix Open

NOTES

Kenny Perry's victory last year came in his third start of the season, the earliest in the year he has won in any season. His previous earliest win came in 1995 when he captured the Bob Hope Classic in his fifth start of the year. Ten of Perry's 13 career wins have come as a front-runner, including the 2009 FBR Open, where he led by one stroke after 54 holes.

Australian rookie James Nitties finished T4 at the 2009 FBR Open in his third career start on the PGA TOUR. Nitties missed the cut in his two prior starts last year at the Sony Open in Hawaii and the Bob Hope Classic.

There must be something about the Arizona desert that suits South Korean-born Kevin Na, who finished third at last year's FBR Open. Na's record in this event:

2005 — T2

2007 — T67

2008 — T4

2009 — 3rd

In addition to his fine play at TPC Scottsdale, Na also finished T2 at the 2005 Chrysler Classic of Tucson.

NOTES

Nick Watney posted a 4-under 68 in the final round – including birdies on three of his last six holes – to capture the 2009 Buick Invitational by one stroke over 54-hole leader John Rollins (74). The victory was the second of Watney's career (2007 Zurich Classic of New Orleans) and came in his 125th start on the PGA TOUR.

JOHN ROLLINS

Nick Watney, a 27-year-old native of Sacramento, CA, became the first player in his 20s to win on the PGA TOUR in 2009.

The Buick Invitational has not produced a first-time winner since Jay Don Blake captured the title in 1991.

In the 54 years that this tournament has gone the full 72 holes, the third-round leader/co-leader has gone on to win 26 times, including most recently Tiger Woods in 2008.

Three-time Buick Invitational winner Phil Mickelson finished T42 last year in his 20th start at the tournament. His 2-over-par 290 total represented the first time he has finished above par in 16 made cuts at Torrey Pines

AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am

NOTES

The Monterey Peninsula Foundation announced in June 2009 that the Monterey Peninsula Country Club's Shore Course will return to the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am rotation for the 2010 tournament. MPCC's involvement in the Pro-Am dates back to the origins of the tournament when Bing Crosby first brought the event to the Monterey Peninsula. The event was played there for the first 20 years (18 on the Dunes Course) and last played on the Shore Course in 1977. MPCC will take the place of Poppy Hills Golf Course in the three-course rotation which also includes Spyglass Hill and Pebble Beach Golf Links, the tournament's host course. In 2003, the Shore Course underwent reconstruction by course architect Mike Strantz.

The previous 54-hole event was the 2005 BellSouth Classic won by Phil Mickelson. The previous event where an entire round was canceled was the 2008 BMW Championship (first round). The previous 54-hole event at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am was 1999, won by Payne Stewart. 2009 marked the sixth time the event was shortened to 54 holes due to weather since 1958 when the event became a 72-hole event. The event was also canceled in 1996 due to weather.

This year, Pebble Beach will play host to two PGA TOUR events – the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am in February and the U.S. Open in June. Pebble Beach also hosted dual events in 1972 (Jack Nicklaus won them both), 1977 (Tom Watson won the AT&T Pebble and Lanny Wadkins the PGA Championship), 1982 (Jim Simons won the AT&T Pebble and Tom Watson the U.S. Open), 1992 (Mark O'Meara won the AT&T Pebble and Tom Kite the U.S. Open) and 2000 (Tiger Woods won them both).

Tournament Record:

268, Mark O'Meara, 1997; Phil Mickelson, 2007

Tournament Course Record:

62, Tom Kite, 1983; David Duval, 1997 (Pebble Beach GL)

62, Matt Gogel, 2001 (Poppy Hills GC)

62, Phil Mickelson, 2005; Luke Donald, 2006

Open

NOTES

The PGA TOUR and Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce (LAJCC) announced in 2009 that the TOUR's Championship Management division and the LAJCC will partner to accelerate the growth of the Northern Trust Open. As part of this partnership, Los Angeles sports icon and former Los Angeles Lakers guard, head coach and executive Jerry West has been named executive director of the Northern Trust Open and will work to raise the profile and charitable impact of one of the most storied events on the PGA TOUR schedule.

Only two left-handers have won the Northern Trust Open since the event began in 1926, and both did so in consecutive seasons: Mike Weir (2003, 2004) and Phil Mickelson (2008, 2009).

Northern Trust Open

Northern Trust

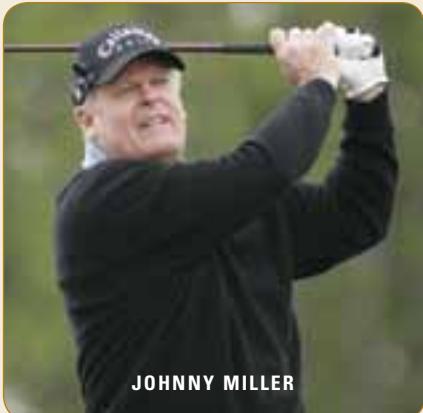

Open

NOTES

Weir and Mickelson are two of seven players to successfully defend a title at the Northern Trust Open. The others include Macdonald Smith (1928-29), Ben Hogan (1947-48), Paul Harney (1964-65), Arnold Palmer (1966-67) and Corey Pavin (1994-95).

With his win in 2009, Phil Mickelson became the first player since Ben Hogan (1946-48) to follow up a runner-up finish (2007) with consecutive victories at the Northern Trust Open (2008, 2009).

Phil Mickelson, winner of the 2008 and 2009 Northern Trust Open, is one of just three players to win all four of the current California TOUR events. Mickelson, a San Diego native, along with Billy Casper and Johnny Miller, also California natives from San Diego and San Francisco, respectively, are the only players to win the Buick Invitational, Bob Hope Classic, AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am and Northern Trust Open in their careers.

JOHNNY MILLER

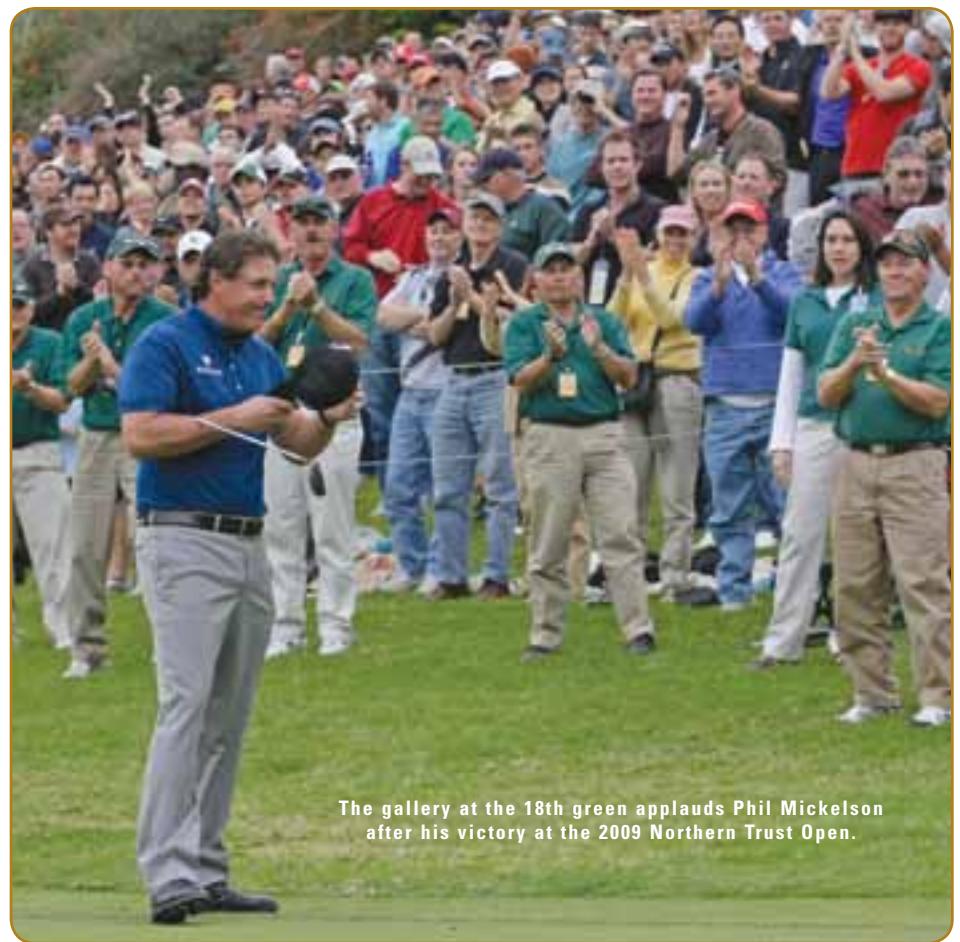

Phil Mickelson has 12 PGA TOUR victories in the state of California: Buick Invitational (3: 1993, 2000, 2001); AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am (3: 1998, 2005, 2007); Mercedes-Benz Championship (2: 1994, 1998); Bob Hope Classic (2: 2002, 2004) and Northern Trust Open (2: 2008, 2009).

Phil Mickelson's win in 2009 marked the 83rd playing of the Northern Trust Open. Outside the major championships, the tournament is the fourth-oldest event on the PGA TOUR (BMW Championship, Canadian Open and Valero Texas Open are older).

The Honda Classic

NOTES

The 2009 Honda Classic was the first victory of Y.E. Yang's career on the PGA TOUR and came in his 47th start. His previous best finish was a T9 at the 2008 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am.

Y.E. Yang became just the second South Korean-born player to capture a PGA TOUR event, joining seven-time winner K.J. Choi. Yang, Choi and Charlie Wi are also the only South Korean players to win on the European Tour.

Robert Allenby wore a pink shirt on Sunday last year in memory of his mother, Sylvia, who passed away a month earlier. With a T5, it became his third consecutive top-5 finish at The Honda Classic (T5-2007, T4-2008). He also finished T4 at the 2004 The Honda Classic.

ROBERT ALLENBY

Eleven players have now captured their first TOUR victory at The Honda Classic: Leonard Thompson (1974), Larry Nelson (1979), Kenny Knox (1986), John Huston (1990), Tim Herron (1996), Stuart Appleby (1997), Matt Kuchar (2002), Todd Hamilton (2004), Padraig Harrington (2005), Mark Wilson (2007) and Y.E. Yang (2009).

NOTES

With a one-stroke win over Nick Watney in 2009, Phil Mickelson earned his first career World Golf Championships victory and his 36th career PGA TOUR win to move into a tie with Lloyd Mangrum for 12th on the PGA TOUR career wins list.

Phil Mickelson finished with 99 putts on the week last year, matching his best putting performance ever (99 putts at the 1998 MCI Classic). The record for least putts over nine holes is six by Stan Utley on the front nine in the second round of the 2002 Air Canada Championship.

Tiger Woods finished the 2009 CA Championship with a final-round, 4-under 68, matching his score from the third round. The weekend push moved Woods into the top 10 at T9.

Arnold Palmer Invitational

presented by MasterCard

NOTES

In 2009, Tiger Woods birdied the 72nd hole to beat Sean O'Hair by one stroke and claim his sixth Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard. Woods' 15-foot birdie putt on the final green duplicated his last-putt heroics from two previous years at Bay Hill – 2001: 15-foot birdie putt to beat Phil Mickelson; and 2008: 24-foot birdie putt to beat Bart Bryant.

PHIL MICKELSON

Tiger Woods matched his largest comeback after 54 holes (five strokes) with his victory at the 2009 Arnold Palmer Invitational. Woods also came back from five strokes behind after 54 holes to win the 2000 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am (Mark Brooks and Matt Gogel).

Tiger Woods is the first player to win six Arnold Palmer Invitational titles. The only other players with multiple victories at the event are Tom Kite (1982 and 1989) and Loren Roberts (1994-95).

The Bay Hill course will return to a par 72 in 2010, with the fourth and 16th holes being played as their usual par 5's. The course last played at par 72 in 2006.

Tournament Record:

264, Payne Stewart, 1987

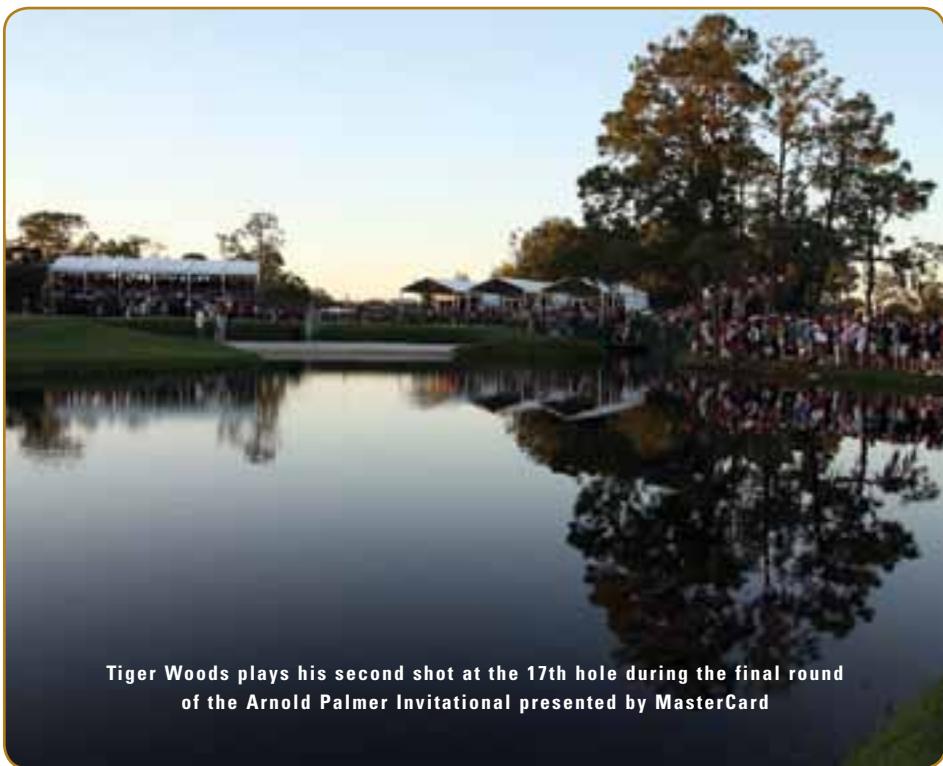

Current Course Record:

62, Andy Bean, 1981; Greg Norman, 1984

Shell Houston Open

NOTES

Paul Casey won the 2009 Shell Houston Open on the first playoff hole with a bogey. J.B. Holmes drove in the hazard and made double bogey on the par-4 18th hole, the first playoff hole.

J.B. HOLMES

The six-way tie for the 54-hole lead was the most since the TOUR started keeping this statistic dating to 1970. Of those players tied for the lead through 54 holes, only eventual winner Paul Casey (72) shot par or better in the final round. The others included Fred Couples (74), Geoff Ogilvy (75), Ryan Moore (76), Bo Van Pelt (78) and Colt Knost (81).

Fred Couples, who was one of those tied for the third-round lead, recorded his sixth top-10 finish at the Shell Houston Open with a T3. Couples finished T4 in 2008.

Paul Casey's victory at the 2009 Shell Houston Open came in his first appearance in Houston. Casey is the first player since Mike Heinen in 1994 to win this tournament in his first appearance. He is the first player from England and the first European player to win the Shell Houston Open in the tournament's 63-year history.

NOTES

With his victory at the 2009 Masters Tournament, Angel Cabrera earned his second PGA TOUR victory in his 114th career event on the PGA TOUR at age 39 years, seven months. He jumped from No. 69 to No. 18 in the Official World Golf Ranking.

Angel Cabrera won the 14th playoff in Masters Tournament history and the first since Tiger Woods defeated Chris DiMarco in 2005. The playoff was the eighth since the playoff format became sudden death and the third that included three players (1979, 1987).

TIGER WOODS

With his 2009 Masters win, Angel Cabrera became the first player to claim major championships as his first two PGA TOUR victories since Peter Thomson, who won the British Open in 1954-55 and played what is now considered the PGA TOUR schedule (17 events in 1954, 18 events in 1955).

With his 2009 victory in Augusta, Angel Cabrera became the 15th player in history to have won both the U.S. Open and Masters in a career.

With a front-nine 6-under-par 30 in the final round, Phil Mickelson tied three players for low front nine in Masters history:

30, Johnny Miller, third round, 1975

30, Greg Norman, final round, 1988

30, K.J. Choi, second round, 2004

30, Phil Mickelson, final round, 2009

Tournament Record:

270, Tiger Woods, 1997

Current Course Record:

63, Nick Price, 1986; Greg Norman, 1996

Verizon Heritage

NOTES

Brian Gay's 20-under 264 winning score in 2009 broke the previous scoring record at the Verizon Heritage, which was set by Loren Roberts in 1996 (19-under 265). The 10-stroke winning margin was also a tournament record, besting Davis Love III's seven-stroke win in 1998.

Brian Gay posted just two bogeys in winning last year at Harbour Town – the fewest at the Verizon Heritage since 1983. The previous low during that time was three, set by Loren Roberts in 1996.

LOREN ROBERTS

Brian Gay's 10-stroke victory was the largest on the PGA TOUR since Phil Mickelson won the 2006 BellSouth Classic by 13 strokes. Gay's win was the ninth since a double-digit winning margin. The list includes:

2000 U.S. Open	15 strokes	Tiger Woods

THE PLAYERS Championship

NOTES

Making his 44th career PGA TOUR start, Henrik Stenson posted the only bogey-free final round with a 6-under 66 to capture the 2009 PLAYERS Championship by four strokes over Ian Poulter (70). The win was Stenson's second on the PGA TOUR (2007 World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship).

IAN POULTER

International players have won five of the last eight titles at THE PLAYERS, including Sweden's Henrik Stenson (2009), Spain's Sergio Garcia (2008), Canada's Stephen Ames (2006), Australia's Adam Scott (2004) and New Zealand's Craig Perks (2002). Stenson is the ninth international winner (10 overall victories), but the first from Sweden.

Alex Cejka's five-stroke lead entering the final round in 2009 marked the largest 54-hole lead in tournament history, bettering a four-stroke advantage by Greg Norman in 1994 and Larry Mize in 1986. Cejka posted a 7-over 79 and a season-best T9 finish. In the last 11 PLAYERS Championships, only Stephen Ames (2006), Adam Scott (2004), Hal Sutton (2000) and David Duval (1999) have managed to turn a 54-hole lead into victory.

Valero Texas Open

NOTES

In 2010, the tournament moves to the AT&T Oaks Course at TPC San Antonio. World Golf Hall of Famer Greg Norman designed the course with assistance from consultant Sergio Garcia. The new course can stretch to 7,500 yards and includes three par 5s measuring 600 yards. The project also includes the Pete Dye-designed AT&T Canyons Course, the future home of the city's Champions Tour event, and the J.W. Marriott San Antonio Hill Country Resort & Spa.

Zach Johnson's 60 in the third-round of the 2009 Valero Texas Open made him the only player in PGA TOUR history to record two career rounds of 60 or better. Johnson also posted a 60 in the third-round of the 2007 TOUR Championship.

Zach Johnson won the 2009 Valero Texas Open only seven months after winning the 2008 Valero Texas Open when the event was contested in the Fall Series.

Had he won the playoff, James Driscoll's eight-stroke comeback in the final round would have been the largest comeback on TOUR since Stewart Cink's 9-stroke comeback to win. Since 1970, there have been five eight-stroke comebacks, one nine-stroke comeback and a 10-stroke comeback.

Valero Texas Open

NOTES

James Driscoll, who had played 295 career rounds on the PGA TOUR, turned in four straight rounds in the 60s for the first time in one event (67-69-67-62). It was Driscoll's first appearance in the Valero Texas Open.

In the previous 50 years of the Valero Texas Open, 42 of the 49 champions have turned in at least one round at 65 or lower, including the last 11 consecutive years. Hal Sutton in 1998 was the last Valero Texas Open winner to not post a 65 or better.

ERIC AXLEY

Since 1978, only seven players shot one of their rounds in the 70s at the Valero Texas Open. Eric Axley in 2006 was the only champion in the previous 10 years to post a round in the 70s, when he shot a final-round 71.

HP BYRON NELSON CHAMPIONSHIP

NOTES

Rory Sabbatini's win in 2009 made him the 14th player to win both the HP Byron Nelson Championship and the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial during their career. Others who have completed the "DFW Double" are Ben Crenshaw, Roberto De Vicenzo, Ben Hogan, Sam Snead, Bruce Devlin, Jack Nicklaus, Lanny Wadkins, Tom Watson, Bruce Lietzke, Nick Price, Phil Mickelson, Sergio Garcia and Julius Boros.

Rory Sabbatini's 6-under 64 in 2009 was the lowest final-round score by a winner at the HP Byron Nelson Championship since Peter Thomson's 63 in 1956. His final-round score helped post a tournament-record 19-under 261, topping the 262 total of Loren Roberts and Steve Pate in 1999.

The last player to successfully defend a title at the HP Byron Nelson Championship was Tom Watson, when he won three in a row from 1978-80.

TOURNAMENT HISTORIES

NOTES

Steve Stricker's come-from-behind win in 2009 marked the first time since 2001 (Sergio Garcia) that the 54-hole leader has not won the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial. In the 62-year history of the Crowne Plaza Invitational, the 54-hole leader/co-leader has won 34 times.

The playoff in 2009 between Steve Stricker, Tim Clark and Steve Marino marked just the second three-man playoff in tournament history, and the 10th overall.

The playoff at the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial was the third in four Texas Swing events in 2009. Paul Casey claimed the Shell Houston Open over J.B. Holmes with a bogey-5 on the first playoff hole, Zach Johnson won the Valero Texas Open over James Driscoll with a birdie on the first extra hole and Stricker topped Clark and Marino with a birdie on the second playoff hole.

The Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial dates back to 1946 and holds the distinction of being the longest-running event on the PGA TOUR to be contested on the same layout and the 10th oldest overall.

NOTES

Tiger Woods was 14 for 14 in fairways hit en route to 2009's final-round 65, the first time since the second round of the 2003 Arnold Palmer Invitational that he hit every fairway. Woods was 49-for-56 (87.5 percent) in fairways hit during the week in 2009, equaling the best mark of his career as a professional (1998 Masters/finished T8).

Tiger Woods has made the cut in all 11 starts at the Memorial Tournament, with seven top-4 finishes. He is the first four-time winner of the event (1999-2001, 2009), breaking out of a tie with three-time winner Kenny Perry.

KENNY PERRY

The Memorial Tournament has the longest active playoff drought on the PGA TOUR. The tournament has not had a playoff since 1992 when David Edwards defeated Rick Fehr with a par on the second playoff hole.

The only player in the Memorial Tournament's history to lead after the first round and go on to win the event was Ernie Els in 2004 (68-70-66-66—270). The tournament has never had a wire-to-wire winner (sole leader after every round).

Dating to 1991, the 2009 73.425 cumulative average is the second highest at the Memorial Tournament, trailing only 2008's 74.397.

268, Tom Lehman, 1994

U.S. Open

NOTES

Making his 167th career PGA TOUR start, Lucas Glover recorded a final-round, 3-over 73 to win the 109th U.S. Open. At 4-under 276, Glover finished two strokes ahead of Phil Mickelson (70), David Duval (71) and Ricky Barnes (76). It was the second victory of Glover's career (2005 FUNAI CLASSIC at Walt Disney World Resort).

PHIL MICKELSON

This year, Pebble Beach will play host to two PGA TOUR events – the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am in February and the U.S. Open in June.

Pebble Beach also hosted dual events in 1972 (Jack Nicklaus won both the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am and the U.S. Open, 1977 (Tom won the AT&T Pebble Beach and Tom Kite the U.S. Open) and 2000 (Tiger Woods won both the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am and the U.S. Open). Only Pebble Beach, Rivera Country Club in Los Angeles, Harbour Town Golf Links in Hilton Head, SC, and Torrey Pines' South Course in La Jolla, CA have played host to two events in one year.

Prior to the Monday finish in 2009, the last time the U.S. Open finished in regulation on a Monday was in 1983 at Oakmont when Sunday afternoon thunderstorms forced play into an extra day.

CHAMPIONSHIP

NOTES

Kenny Perry needed only nine putts on the front nine in the first round last year en route to a bogey-free 9-under 61 and a two-stroke lead. The 61 tied the TPC River Highlands course record with Kirk Triplett (2000), Phil Mickelson (2001), Scott Verplank (2001) and Brad Faxon (2005). The tournament record (60) belongs to Tommy Bolt set in 1954 at Wethersfield Country Club.

Kenny Perry's 61 matched his career-best round recorded while winning the 2003 Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial.

Kenny Perry shot a final-round 63 in 2009 on his way to a 22-under par 258 for the tournament to pick up his 14th career PGA TOUR victory. Perry's 258 total beat the old tournament record of 259 set by Tim Norris in 1982. The 258 tied for the fourth-best 72-hole score in PGA TOUR history. Only five players have recorded better 72-hole scores than Perry's 258.

Lucas Glover became the first player to tee it up the week after winning the U.S. Open since 2003 when Jim Furyk won the U.S. Open and then finished T22 at the Buick Classic. Before that, Lee Janzen finished T3 at the Western Open the week after winning the 1998 U.S. Open.

John Deere Classic

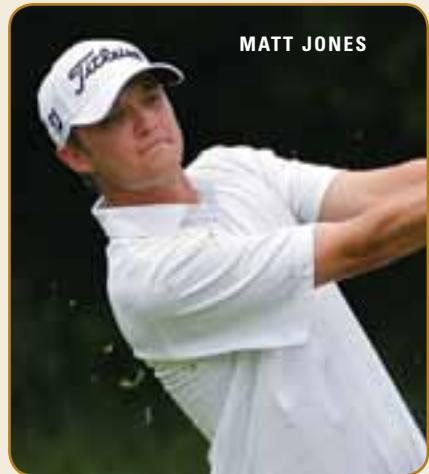

NOTES

Steve Stricker earned his sixth career victory in his 352nd start on the PGA TOUR at the 2009 John Deere Classic. It marked his 68th career top-10 finish on TOUR.

Steve Stricker won the John Deere Classic in his eighth attempt in the Quad Cities. His previous best finishes were T4 in 2004 and T7 in 1997.

Steve Stricker eagled the par-4 sixth hole in the final round of the 2009 John Deere Classic after holing his approach shot from 98 yards.

Matt Jones tied his PGA TOUR career-low round with an 8-under 63 in the third round of the 2009 John Deere Classic to take a share of the 54-hole lead at 14-under with Darron Stiles and Tim Petrovic. Because of inclement weather, Jones had just over 20 minutes between the third and final rounds. He finished T5.

MATT JONES

With his T2 finish at the 2009 John Deere Classic, Brett Quigley earned a spot in the British Open the following week, but declined to accept, as he didn't have his passport with him and had already committed to the following week's U.S. Bank Championship in Milwaukee.

British Open

NOTES

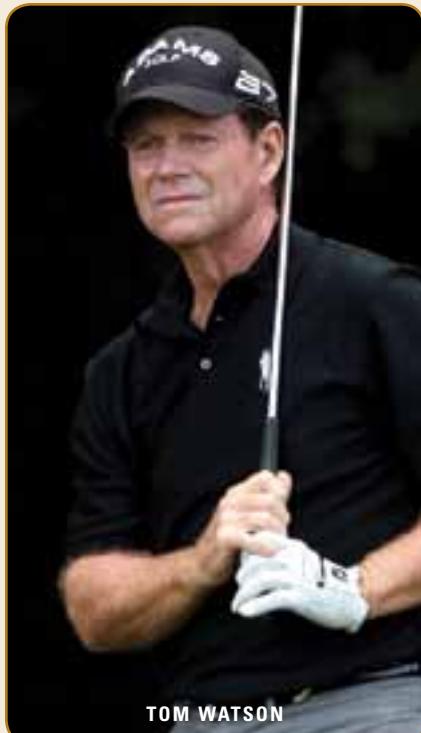

The year 2010 will mark the 28th time that St. Andrews has been the site of the British Open (Prestwick, 24). The first playing at St. Andrews occurred in 1873 (won by Scotland's Tom Kidd).

Tiger Woods has won the last two events staged here in 2000 and 2005, with victories by eight and five strokes, respectively. During the 2000 British Open, Woods' 19-under total surpassed the St. Andrews mark of 18-under set by Nick Faldo 10 years previously.

The 17th hole of the Old Course, the "Road Hole," which has remained the same length for more than 100 years, will increase in length by 35 yards to 490 yards for the 2009 British Open. A new Championship tee will be constructed on the practice range of St Andrews Links Trust for the par-4 hole. The 17th was played at the same yardage in 1900 as it was in 2005.

Stewart Cink became the second American winner of the British Open at Turnberry, following Tom Watson in 1977.

Before finishing second in 2009, Tom Watson's last top-10 on the PGA TOUR was a seventh at the 2002 MasterCard Colonial.

British Open

NOTES

Tom Watson's bogey-free 5-under 65 in 2009 tied his lowest first round in 128 majors.

Tom Watson's first-round 65 in 2009 marked the eighth time in 443 major championship rounds he had posted this score – four of them coming at Turnberry (1977/Rounds 3 and 4, 1994/Round 2, 2009/Round 1).

This was the 13th missed cut (fifth as a professional) in 246 official PGA TOUR events for Tiger Woods.

The previous time Woods missed a cut was the 2006 U. S. Open, marking the second time he has failed to make the cut as a professional in a major championship. Woods also missed the cut at the 1996 Masters as an amateur and withdrew from the 1995 U. S. Open after two rounds.

Englishman Chris Wood (T3), playing as a professional in 2009, finished in the top-5 for the second consecutive year. His fifth-place finish at the 2008 British Open was just the third top-10 finish by an amateur in a major championship since 1970. The others were Justin Rose (T4/Royal Birkdale/1998) and Jim Simons (T5/U.S. Open/1971).

Ernie Els (68—281) finished T8 and has an exceptional British Open record. After missing the cut by two strokes in his 1989 debut, Els has finished outside the top-30 just once (T34-2005) in 18 consecutive appearances (1992-2009), including 12 top-10s, eight top-5s, and a victory in 2002.

British Open

NOTES

Tiger Woods, who missed the 36-hole cut in 2009, has now finished outside the top-25 three times, all in Scotland (1995/T68/St. Andrews, 2002/T28/Muirfield, 2009/MC/Turnberry). However, two of his three victories have come in Scotland, both at St. Andrews (2000, 2005).

Paul Lawrie (68—288), the 1999 British Open champion at Carnoustie, holed a 4-iron from 213 yards for a double eagle-2 at the 538-yard, par-5 7th hole in 2009. Lawrie's was the sixth double eagle in the British Open since 1982 (1983/Bill Rogers, 2000/Manny Zerman, 2001/Greg Owen, 2004/Jeff Maggert, Gary Evans).

Padraig Harrington is one of six players to post consecutive British Open victories since 1951 (and the 16th overall), joining Tiger Woods (2005-06), Tom Watson (1982-83), Lee Trevino (1971-72), Arnold Palmer (1961-62) and Peter Thomson (1954-56). With the exception of Woods (who posted his wins at St. Andrews and Hoylake), all posted at least one of their consecutive victories at Royal Birkdale.

JOHN MALLINGER

NOTES

Bo Van Pelt picked up his first PGA TOUR victory in his 229th start, beating John Mallinger in a two-hole playoff at the 2009 U.S. Bank Championship. Van Pelt and Mallinger each birdied the par-5 18th hole, the first playoff hole, before Van Pelt won with a birdie on the second playoff hole, again the 18th hole.

Bo Van Pelt's 64 was his second-best career score in the final round. He recorded a 63 in the final round of the 2002 U.S. Bank Championship to finish T27. He also had a final-round 64 at the 2007 Travelers Championship to finish T6.

Prior to the 2009 U.S. Bank Championship, John Mallinger's career-best finish in 80 TOUR events was third, which he accomplished six times. His last third-place finish was earlier in 2009 at THE PLAYERS Championship.

John Mallinger and Bo Van Pelt appeared in their first respective playoffs on the PGA TOUR at the 2009 U.S. Bank Championship. Van Pelt lost his only playoff on the Nationwide Tour to Ben Crane in 2001.

In the second round of the 2009 tournament, Omar Uresti recorded a hole-in-one with a 3-iron on No. 7 from 200 yards. It was the 15th hole-in-one at the U.S. Bank Championship since moving to Brown Deer Park and the first since Richard S. Johnson aced the 14th hole in the first round in 2008. Matt Jones recorded a hole-in-one from 171 yards on No. 3 with a 9-iron in the third round. Jonathan Kaye followed with a hole-in-one on No. 7 from 215 yards with a 5-iron. With the three hole-in-ones on the week, it marked the first time since 1996 that there have been three or more aces in one year at this event. In 1996, there were four hole-in-ones recorded, including Tiger Woods' in the final round on No. 14.

NOTES

Nathan Green fired a final-round, 4-under 68 to claim his first PGA TOUR title in 2009 following a two-hole sudden death playoff with Retief Goosen. The last time the RBC Canadian Open went to extra holes was in 2004 when Vijay Singh defeated Mike Weir.

Nathan Green's victory came in his 111th attempt since joining the TOUR in 2006.

With the win, Nathan Green became the sixth first-time winner of this event since 1950 and second consecutive first-time winner. Chez Reavie, who missed the cut in 2009, made Glen Abbey the site of his first PGA TOUR win in 2008.

Nathan Green emerged victorious in the 20th playoff at the RBC Canadian Open.

Retief Goosen began the final round tied for the lead with Anthony Kim and Jason Dufner at 15-under. Of six previous events in which he has held at least a share of the 54-lead, he had converted four into victory.

NOTES

Tiger Woods posted a final-round 3-under 69 to win the 2009 Buick Classic, joining Vijay Singh as the only three-time winners of the Buick Open. With wins in 2002, 2006 and 2009, Woods is one of five multiple winners of the tournament (3 wins-Singh, Woods; 2 wins-Tony Lema, Julius Boros, Kenny Perry).

VIJAY SINGH

With rounds of 71-63-65-69 during the 2009 Buick Open, Tiger Woods has recorded all 36 rounds at Warwick Hills with par-or-better scores. He opened his career at the Buick Open with an even-par 72 and has since reeled off 35 under-par rounds.

Tiger Woods posted a 1-under 71 and was T95 following the first round in 2009, representing his worst position after the opening round of any tournament he eventually won. Previously it was a T83 start en route to victory at the 1996 Las Vegas Invitational.

Tiger Woods became the 50th winner of the Buick Open, a total which includes unofficial winners from 1972-76. Woods also recorded his 50th career win at the 2006 Buick Open.

Since 1984, the only international player to break into the winner's circle at Warwick Hills was Vijay Singh (1997, 2004, 2005).

World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational

NOTES

Highlighted by an 8-iron over the water from 178 yards that stopped a foot from the hole on the par-5 16th hole, Tiger Woods posted a 5-under 65 for the second consecutive day to capture the 2009 World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational by two strokes over Robert Allenby (66) and Padraig Harrington (72). The win was the 70th of Woods' career on the PGA TOUR in 248 career starts (234 as a professional). He moved within three victories of tying Jack Nicklaus (73 wins) for second place on the all-time PGA TOUR wins list. Sam Snead, with 82 wins, leads the list.

Tiger Woods became the first player to win the same stroke-play event seven times on the same golf course on either the PGA TOUR or European Tour. Only Sam Snead has more victories in a single tournament (eight wins in Greensboro, NC), but he performed the feat on different courses. Here's a list of players who have won six (or more) times on the same golf course on the PGA TOUR:
 Woods won the Bridgestone Invitational seven times at Firestone (1999-2001, 2005-07, 2009)
 Woods won the Buick Invitational six times at Torrey Pines* (1999, 2003, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008)
 Woods won the Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard six times at Bay Hill (2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2008 and 2009).

Alex Ross won the North & South Open six times at Pinehurst (1902, 1904, 1907, 1908, 1910, 1915)
Jack Nicklaus won the Masters six times at Augusta National (1963, 1965, 1966, 1972, 1975, 1986)

Sam Snead won the Miami Open six times at Miami Springs G&CC (1937, 1939, 1946, 1950, 1951 and 1955)

*Two-course rotation (South and North courses) used for the Buick Invitational; also won the 2008 U.S. Open on the Torrey Pines South Course.

NOTES

There were only three eagles during the first round of the 2009 PGA Championship including two (Bob Estes and Rod Pampling) at the 405-yard, par-4 sixth hole and one (John Daly) at the 572-yard, par 5 seventh-hole.

Ryo Ishikawa made his first major cut at the PGA Championship after missing earlier this year in the Masters and British Open. At 17 years and 10 months old, Ishikawa just missed the record for the youngest player to make the cut in major. Tommy Jacobs made the cut at the 1952 Masters at 17 years and 1 month old. Ishikawa is the youngest player to ever compete in the PGA Championship.

For the first time since the Official World Golf Ranking began in 1986, players outside the top 30 won four straight majors in 2009 – Stewart Cink (33), Lucas Glover (71), Angel Cabrera (69) and Y.E. Yang (110). Prior to this year, players outside the top 30 had never won three straight majors.

NOTES

Ridgewood Country Club in Paramus, NJ, and Plainfield Country Club in Edison, NJ, will host The Barclays, the first event of the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup, in 2010 and 2011, respectively.

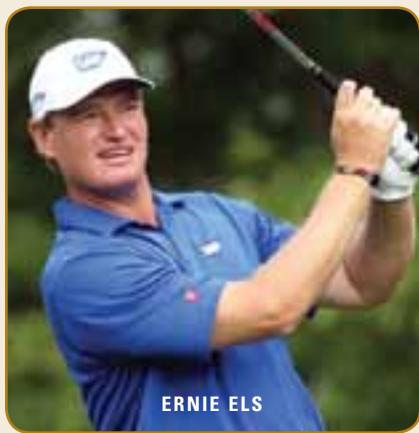

The Barclays

NOTES

Heath Slocum holed a 21-foot putt for par at the final hole to shoot 4-under 67 and win the 2009 Barclays by one stroke over Ernie Els, Padraig Harrington, Steve Stricker and Tiger Woods. Stricker, in the same pairing with Slocum and tied for the lead at 9-under, missed a 10-foot par putt to fall from the lead. Woods, in the pairing ahead, missed a 7-foot birdie putt that would have tied him for the lead. Slocum finished at 9-under 275. The win for Heath Slocum moved him from 124th on the FedExCup standings to third. He was the next-to-last player to reach the PGA TOUR Playoffs.

ERNIE ELS

Ernie Els' 5-under 66 in the final round boosted him to a T2 finish at The Barclays, an event he has won twice before (1996, 1997). It was Els' seventh top-5 finish at The Barclays, the most in tournament history.

A total of four players used The Barclays to move out of No. 101-125 to advance to the second round of the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup and into the field at the Deutsche Bank Championship:

NOTES

Tiger Woods shot a final-round 68 in 2009 to win by eight strokes over Jim Furyk and Marc Leishman. It was the 71st win of his PGA TOUR career, which is third all-time behind Sam Snead (82) and Jack Nicklaus (73). With the win, Woods regained the No. 1 spot in the FedExCup standings heading into the final event of the PGA TOUR Playoffs.

Tiger Woods (eight strokes) recorded his largest margin of victory since he defeated Ryuji Imada by eight strokes at the 2008 Buick Invitational.

Tiger Woods tied Walter Hagen with a tournament-record five wins at the BMW Championship (1997, 1999, 2003, 2007, 2009). It is the fifth tournament he has won at least five times. Woods has won the BMW Championship five times in 11 professional starts to go with nine top-10 finishes.

Tiger Woods recorded a Cog Hill Golf and Country Club record 9-under 62 in the third round in 2009 to move into solo possession of the lead. The 62 tied the BMW Championship record set by Jim Furyk at Bellerive CC in 2008. It broke the Cog Hill record of 63, carded on eight occasions (including Woods in the first round in 2003 and final round in 2007). Woods' career low is 61, shot on three occasions.

NOTES

Marc Leishman (T2) recorded the best finish of his young TOUR career last year. Leishman's T5 at the Valero Texas Open earlier in 2009 was his previous best.

Dating to 1970, the third-round leader/co-leader at the BMW Championship has won 21 times in 40 tournaments, including the last two (Camilo Villegas in 2008 and Tiger Woods in 2009).

John Senden finished No. 30 in the FedExCup standings in 2009 to earn the final spot in THE TOUR Championship with 1,532.41 points. He edged out Ian Poulter (1,531.95) by .46 points. Senden made it despite a double bogey on the 17th hole. He benefited when Poulter hit his approach shot into the water on the final hole and when Brandt Snedeker made a triple bogey on the final hole, including a four-putt.

Tiger Woods (68-67-62-68) and Marc Leishman (67-69-68-69) were the only players to record all four rounds in the 60s.

NOTES

Phil Mickelson shot a front-nine 31 en route to a final-round 5-under 65 for a three-stroke victory over Tiger Woods (70) at THE TOUR Championship presented by Coca-Cola in 2009. The win was Mickelson's 37th career victory (ranked 12th all-time) and his second at THE TOUR Championship (2000, 2009). The win made him just the second multiple winner at the event (Tiger Woods – 1999, 2007), but the first to win twice at East Lake Golf Club.

Phil Mickelson began the 2009 tournament with a 3-over 73, the highest start for an eventual winner in THE TOUR Championship history. During that opening round, he posted a quadruple-bogey 8 on the par-4 14th hole.

With his second-place finish, Tiger Woods clinched his second FedExCup (2007 & 2009).

NOTES

Martin Laird finished T2 earlier in 2009 at the Legends Reno-Tahoe Open in the state of Nevada. In 2008, he finished T4 at the Legends Reno-Tahoe Open and finished T47 at the Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children Open.

Tom Pernice, Jr. shot a 62 in the first round of the 2009 event to take the first-round co-lead. No official record exists of the lowest round on TOUR by a player over 50, but Fred Funk shot a 62 in the first round when he won the 2007 Mayakoba Golf Classic and Craig Stadler had a 63 in the final round when he won the 2003 B.C. Open, both at age 50.

TOM PERNICE, JR.

After his wife Sara gave birth to their third son (Jett) after Thursday's first round in 2009 (9:44 p.m. at San Martin Hospital in Las Vegas), Scott Piercy went out and shot a 4-under 68 to move to 11-under for the tournament (T7). He eventually finished T14.

Martin Laird was the fifth consecutive player to pick up his first career PGA TOUR win at the Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children Open. Laird won his first PGA TOUR event in his first TOUR playoff by defeating 2007 Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children Open champion George McNeill on the third playoff hole (No. 18) with a birdie-3.

Aaron Baddeley (T38) became only the 11th golfer in 2009 to record 100 or fewer putts in a tournament (100).

Annandale Golf Club

Purse: $3,600,000
Par/Yards: 36-36—72/7,199

NOTEWORTHY: The 2009 Viking Classic was canceled due to unplayable course conditions at 11:15 a.m. on Saturday, Oct. 31. There had been no play to that point. On Friday night, Oct. 30, 1.75 inches of rain fell on Annandale Golf Club. The Madison, MS, area had received nearly 20 inches of rain over the previous six weeks.

The Viking Classic has been shortened due to weather nine times since its inception in 1968, including three times since moving to Annandale Golf Club. It was shortened in 1974, 1980, 1983, 1984, 1985 and 1989 when held in Hattiesburg, MS, and 1994, 2002 and 2009 at Annandale Golf Club. In 2005, the Viking Classic (then named the Southern Farm Bureau Classic) was postponed and moved from October to November due to Hurricane Katrina.

Ted Purdy's team won Wednesday's BankPlus Pro-Am.

WEATHER: Thursday: The start of play was delayed 30 minutes, then two hours, and then three hours. The first round was eventually postponed for the day at 10:55 a.m. due to overnight rain making the course unplayable. The first round was rescheduled to begin at 7:20 a.m. Friday. Friday: The start of play was delayed eventually for three hours. The first round was postponed for the day at 9:55 a.m. due to an unplayable course and an unfavorable weather forecast. The first round was rescheduled to begin at 7:20 a.m. Saturday. At 5:00 p.m. it was announced there would be no play on Saturday due to an unplayable course and a decision on any further play would be announced at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday. Saturday: It was announced at 11:00 a.m. that the tournament was cancelled.

NOTES

The Viking Classic was the 15th event on TOUR in 2009 to experience a suspension or delay of play.

When the 2009 Viking Classic was canceled, Rickie Fowler and Jamie Lovemark, who lost in a playoff to Troy Matteson at the previous week's Frys.com Open, both became eligible for the Children's Miracle Network Classic due to their top-10 finishes at Frys.com Open.

The last time two consecutive rounds were postponed on the PGA TOUR was the first two rounds of the 2005 BellSouth Classic. That event was reduced to 54 holes and completed on Monday with Phil Mickelson winning on the fourth hole of a five-way playoff, defeating Arjun Atwal, Rich Beem, Brandt Jobe and Jose Maria Olazabal. Beem and Atwal were in the 2009 Viking Classic field.

The last time a tournament was rained out was the 1991 Independent Insurance Agent Open. It was originally scheduled in April, then rescheduled to October, and was eventually won by Fulton Allem.

The last time a final round was postponed and played later in the season was the 1998 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am.

Viking Classic

NOTES

2008 champion Will MacKenzie birdied four of the last six holes to record a 4-under 68 on Sunday and then birdied the first two playoff holes to outlast Marc Turnesa (70) and Brian Gay (68) in a two-hole playoff to capture the Viking Classic. Gay dropped out after the first extra hole, and then third-round leader Turnesa was eliminated when MacKenzie birdied the par-5 18th hole for the third consecutive time (to finish in regulation and twice in the playoff).

With Will MacKenzie's win in 2008, the winner of the Viking Classic has come out of the last group in 10 out of the last 11 tournaments, with Chad Campbell (2007) the only player to win from outside of the final group during that time span.

There has never been a wire-to-wire winner (outright lead after each round) at the Viking Classic since the event became an official PGA TOUR tournament in 1994.

In 2006, D.J. Trahan became the sixth player to win his first PGA TOUR event at the Viking Classic since it became an official PGA TOUR event in 1994. The others: Brian Henninger (1994), Ed Dougherty (1995), Willie Wood (1996), Cameron Beckman (2001) and Luke Donald (2002).

Chad Campbell's four-round total of 275 in 2007 tied D.J. Trahan (2006) for the highest winning score in Viking Classic history.

Four players (a total of five wins) over the age of 40 have won the Viking Classic:

Southern Farm Bureau Classic over-40 Champions (since 1994)

NOTEWORTHY: The World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions was an unofficial event on the PGA TOUR (it is official for other Tours, namely the European Tour, as this event counts toward the Race to Dubai standings). Money earned by players was "unofficial money" on the PGA TOUR and a win was unofficial as well. However, the tournament champion earned a spot in the 2010 SBS Championship.

WEATHER: Thursday: Sunny and warm, with a high of 73 degrees. S winds 6-12 mph. Friday: Mostly sunny and unseasonably warm. High of 81 with SW winds 10-15 mph. Saturday: Hazy sunshine and muggy. High of 79. Winds S 10-15 mph. Sunday: Mostly sunny and warm with a high of 83. Winds SW 6-12 mph.

NOTE

Phil Mickelson won the unofficial event with a dramatic finish. He made an 18-footer to save par on the 16th after whiffing on a flop shot, then holed a 10-foot birdie putt on the 17th to close with a 3-under 69 and overcome a late charge by Ernie Els, who was in the lead until hitting into the water and making bogey on the final hole.

Children's Miracle Network Classic

NOTES

Kevin Streelman birdied the 485-yard, par-4 17th hole at Walt Disney World Resort's Magnolia Course in Friday's second round to clinch the inaugural Kodak Challenge. Players had to play at least 18 of the 30 Kodak Challenge holes throughout the season to compete for $1 million and the Kodak Challenge title. A player's lowest score relative to par on his best 18 Kodak Challenge holes were counted.

Stephen Ames won his fourth PGA TOUR event by defeating George McNeill on the second playoff hole (No. 15) with a par 3. McNeill made bogey on the final playoff hole. Justin Leonard was eliminated on the first playoff hole (No. 18) with a bogey 5.

GEORGE McNEILL

This marked the 13th playoff on the PGA TOUR in 2009. The most ever on TOUR is 16, which came in 1988 and 1991. It was also the fourth consecutive playoff on TOUR dating to the Turning Stone Resort Championship. The record is five consecutive playoffs, which came in 1946.

The previous playoff at the Children's Miracle Network Classic was in 1997 when David Duval beat Dan Forsman.

Children's Miracle Network Classic

NOTES

In eight of the last 10 years, the winner of the Children's Miracle Network Classic has posted all four rounds in the 60s. Stephen Ames has recorded a round of 70 in both years he won.

When Ames won in 2007, he posted a 70 in the third round and had a 70 in 2009 in the second round. Tiger Woods is the last player to win this event with a round above par. In 1999, Woods carded a final-round 73 but still nipped Ernie Els by a stroke at Walt Disney World. Of the three players in the playoff in 2009, George McNeill is the only golfer to post all four rounds in the 60s.

The last four winners of the Disney event have been in their 40s.

The 2009 playoff was George McNeill's second career TOUR playoff. The other playoff came in October 2009 at the Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children Open when he lost on the third playoff hole to Martin Laird.

George McNeill came into the 2009 Children's Miracle Network Classic with four eagles all year. He made two within the first five holes on the back nine during the third round and another eagle on No. 4 in the final round.

No rookie won on TOUR in 2009 – something that hasn't happened since 1998, when Steve Flesch won Rookie of the Year honors.

Stephen Ames won his second Children's Miracle Network Classic in the last three years, the fifth multiple winner in event history, joining Jack Nicklaus (1971, 1972, 1973), Larry Nelson (1984, 1987), Tim Simpson (1989, 1990), John Huston (1992, 1998) and Tiger Woods (1996, 1999).

NOTES

Italian brothers Edoardo and Francesco Molinari shot a final-round, 4-under-par 68 to win the country's first OMEGA Mission Hills World Cup in its 49th appearance at the team event. Heading into the final round at Mission Hills Golf Club, the Italians were not the odds-on favorites as they were tied for second with defending champion Sweden (Henrik Stenson and Robert Karlsson) and one shot behind the lead set by Ireland's Rory McIlroy and four-time European Tour winner Graeme McDowell.

McDowell. But consecutive birdies on holes 11-13 put the Italians in the lead and the Swedes and the Irish couldn't catch them, as the Molinaris made an up-and-down par from a greenside bunker on the 72nd hole to secure the one-stroke victory.

OMEGA Mission Hills World Cup

NOTES

With Edoardo and Francesco Molinari winning the 2009 OMEGA Mission Hills World Cup for Italy, they became the first brother duo to win this tournament. Prior to the Molinaris' victory, the previous-best finish by a brother tandem came in 1974 when Puerto Rico's Chi Chi and Jesus Rodriguez finished 11th in Caracas, Venezuela. Here is the complete list of top brother finishers:

Year	Team (Players)	Finish	Site
2009	Italy (Edoardo/Francesco Molinari)	Won	Shenzhen, China
1974	Puerto Rico (Chi Chi/Jesus Rodriguez)	11	Caracas, Venezuela
1976	Puerto Rico (Chi Chi/Jesus Rodriguez)	T12	Palm Springs, CA
2003	Trinidad & Tobago (Robert/Stephen Ames)	T15	Kiawah Island, SC
2002	Trinidad & Tobago (Robert/Stephen Ames)	T17	Puerto Vallarta, Mexico
2007	Italy (Edoardo/Francesco Molinari)	T17	Shenzhen, China
2008	Italy (Edoardo/Francesco Molinari)	T19	Shenzhen, China
2000	Trinidad & Tobago (Robert/Stephen Ames)	T19	Buenos Aires, Argentina

Italy's final-round 68 in alternate-shot play Sunday was the highest final-round score by a winning team since the tournament moved to Mission Hills' Olazabal Course in 2007. Sweden shot a 9-under 63 in 2008 and Scotland fired a 66 on the final day in 2007.

Italy's previous best finish at the World Cup came in 1998 when Massimo Florioli and Costantino Rocca finished runner-up.

Americans Nick Watney and John Merrick rocketed up the leaderboard, thanks to seven consecutive birdies on the back nine to shoot a final-round, 10-under-par 62 to finish at 20-under and tie for seventh. Team USA began the day at 10-under-par and tied for 22nd. The 62 is the lowest final-round score since the tournament switched formats in 2000. The streak of seven birdies in a row (holes 10-16) was the best birdie run of the event even though it came in Sunday's traditionally more difficult alternate-shot format.

SNEDEKER & WEEKLEY

Winners: BRANDT SNEDEKER & BOO WEEKLEY

Palm Beach, FL
The Breakers (Ocean Course)

October 26, 2009

Purse: $800,000

LEADERS: Brandt Snedeker-Boo Weekley won the bunker shot, chip shot and trouble shot competition ($75,000 total). J.B. Holmes-Kenny Perry won the long drive ($25,000) and Fred Funk-Nick Price the mid-iron and short-iron competition ($50,000 total). Teams were seeded for the semifinals according to their finish in the first six skills competitions.

SEMIFINALS: (Reverse scramble)
Brandt Snedeker-Boo Weekley def. Fred Couples-Hunter Mahan. Couples-Mahan won $140,000.
J.B. Holmes-Kenny Perry def. Fred Funk-Nick Price. Funk-Price won $155,000.

FINAL: (Reverse scramble)
Brandt Snedeker-Boo Weekley def. J.B. Holmes-Kenny Perry on first playoff hole with a par. The Reverse Scramble victory was worth $200,000. $314,000 to winning team; $191,000 to runners-up.

NOTES

Brandt Snedeker and Boo Weekley won the ADT Golf Skills Challenge in a playoff at The Breakers. In the final of the reverse scramble (worst-ball) portion of the contest, Snedeker and Weekley initially tied finalists J.B. Holmes and Kenny Perry at par, forcing a playoff on the 305-yard, par-4 14th hole. Snedeker and Weekley, who split $314,000 in total prize money, gained an edge when Holmes' drive landed on the 15th tee. Holmes put them into further trouble by hitting into a trap 46 feet from the hole. The champions sank a three-foot putt to win $200,000 for the reverse scramble portion of the event.

Snedeker and Weekley won three of the first six skills challenges – the bunker shot, chip shot and trouble shot. The other three were the long drive, mid-iron and short iron. In the "Reverse Scramble," the four teams were seeded according to prize money won in the first six skills. With one vs. four and two vs. three, the teams played the 14th hole at The Breakers' Ocean Course. The two surviving teams then competed in another one-hole "Reverse Scramble" for the weighted sum of $200,000 in prize money, enabling most pairs to remain in contention to the end.

Contrary to the traditional scramble format, the rules of the "Reverse Scramble" called for the opposing team to select which shot its rival twosome must play, adding a new dimension to the competition.

NOTEWORTHY: The second-year event featured four players below age 30 playing 36 holes of medal play over two days. The first round was suspended late in the day until the following day due to heavy winds.

ORDER OF FINISH

*Won with a bogey-6 on the first playoff hole (par-5 15th).

NOTES

Anthony Kim only needed a bogey on the first playoff hole, the 650-yard, par-5 15th hole, to defeat Sean O'Hair and win The Kiwi Challenge. Kim, the runner-up to Hunter Mahan in 2008, closed with a 5-under 66 at Cape Kidnappers Golf Course. O'Hair birdied the 18th hole to shoot 2-under 69 and join Kim at 5-under-par 137. O'Hair had difficulty with the trees on the left of the playoff hole and made double bogey. He led after the completion of the first round earlier in the day. The opening round was suspended the previous day due to high winds with O'Hair in the lead through 16 holes.

NOTES

Jim Furyk, playing in his seventh Chevron World Challenge, struck a 146-yard 9-iron at the 72nd hole to within 6 feet en route to a second consecutive 5-under 67 to get to 13-under, good enough for a one-stroke win over Graeme McDowell.

Making the most of a last-minute invite, replacing Tiger Woods, Graeme McDowell made a short birdie at the 72nd hole to post a 2-under 70 and claim second-place honors at 12-under.

The 2009 tournament was the first year the Chevron World Challenge awarded Official World Golf Ranking points. Headed into the week, Graeme McDowell was ranked 55th in the Official World Golf Ranking. With his second-place finish, McDowell jumped to number 38. The top 50 highest-ranked players in the world receive an invitation to the 2010 Masters Tournament.

NOTES

The Jerry Kelly/Steve Stricker team posted a 13-under 59 in the final round for a 26-under 190 to win The Shark Shootout. Kelly/Stricker held off challenges from several teams on the final day, making a final-hole par to secure the title after J.B. Holmes/Kenny Perry missed a 9-foot putt for birdie to force a playoff. Chad Campbell/Tim Clark and Justin Leonard/Scott Verplank finished in a tie for second with Holmes/Perry at 25-under 191.

The turning point came at the par-5 17th hole when Stricker/Kelly took a one-stroke lead, making eagle with an 8-foot putt, while Holmes/Perry could only manage a par.

Jerry Kelly captured his second victory in five appearances at The Shark Shootout. Kelly also won in 2006 with Rod Pampling, defeating Justin Leonard/Scott Verplank in a playoff.

The Byron Nelson Award is based on each player's adjusted scoring average. The adjusted score is computed from the average score of the field at each tournament. As a result, a player's score may be higher or lower than his actual score. Actual scoring average was used to determine the scoring leader prior to 1988.

In order to qualify for the Byron Nelson Award, a player must compete in a minimum of 50 official rounds on the PGA TOUR.

PGA Player of the Year

The PGA Player of the Year Award is given by the PGA of America to the top PGA TOUR player based on a mathematical formula that weighs tournament wins, official money standing and scoring average.

The point system for selecting the Player of the Year was amended in 1982, as follows: 30 points for winning the PGA Championship, U.S. Open, British Open or Masters Tournament; 20 points for winning THE PLAYERS Championship; 10 points for winning all other designated PGA TOUR events. In addition, there is a 50-point bonus for winning two majors, 75-point bonus for winning three, 100-point bonus for winning four.

For top-10 finishes on the PGA TOUR's official money list and scoring average list, the point value is: first, 20 points, then 18, 16, 14, 12, 10, 8, 6, 4, 2. Any incomplete rounds in the scoring average list will result in a .10 penalty per incomplete round.

Vardon Trophy

The Vardon Trophy, named in honor of famed British golfer Harry Vardon, is awarded annually by the PGA of America.

From 1947 to 1987, the Vardon Trophy was awarded to the professional golfer with the lowest-scoring average. In 1988, the criteria were adjusted to award the Vardon Trophy to the touring professional with the lowest adjusted scoring average based on a minimum of 60 official rounds in events cosponsored or approved by the PGA TOUR.

Any player with an incomplete round is ineligible to win the Vardon Trophy.

Payne Stewart Award

The award is named for Payne Stewart, an 11-time winner on the PGA TOUR, including three major championships. Stewart died the week of THE TOUR Championship presented by Coca-Cola in 1999. The award was created by the PGA TOUR Policy Board to perpetuate Stewart's memory. It is presented annually at THE TOUR Championship presented by Coca-Cola to a player sharing Stewart's respect for the traditions of the game, his commitment to uphold the game's heritage of charitable support and the professional and meticulous presentation of himself and the sport through his dress and conduct.

In addition to a sculpture presented to the recipient, the Payne Stewart Award is accompanied by an annual Payne Stewart Award Grant presented by Southern Company. The $300,000 grant will support several initiatives in Stewart's name to be distributed as follows: $100,000 to Payne and Tracey Stewart's primary charity, The Stewart Family Foundation; $100,000 in Stewart's honor to The First Tee facility in Missouri, located at Camp Kanakuk, which is affiliated with the "Kids Across America" program; and $100,000 to a charity designated by the recipient.

David Chu Award

The David Chu award was created in 2009 to recognize Dr. David Chu's outstanding contributions to the growth of golf in China. Dr. Chu is considered by many the father of golf in China. Dr. Chu founded Mission Hills in 1992, confident in his belief that China's thriving economy would give rise to a domestic golf and leisure industry. Little more than 15 years after breaking ground, Mission Hills has grown into the world's largest golf club and is leading the golf boom in China. The award is a 8 mm bronze medal bearing Dr. Chu's likeness and featuring text in English and Chinese. It is anticipated that in future years the award will be given in Dr. Chu's name to other worthy recipients who have been instrumental in developing golf in China.

Together, anything's possible.

Making a positive impact on the communities where PGA TOUR tournaments are held and players live has become an even larger focus in the golf organization's charitable mission with the "Together, anything's possible" campaign.

The charitable effort was celebrated in late 2005 when the PGA TOUR and its tournaments reached the "Drive to a Billion" milestone. That cumulative effect, since the first donation in 1938, has reached approximately $1.5 billion entering 2010 – including $1 billion in the last 15 years – and is the cornerstone of the "Together, anything's possible" campaign. The forecast is for the second billion-dollar mark to be reached within approximately the next five years.

During THE PLAYERS Championship in May 2009, the TOUR unveiled its renewed commitment to charitable efforts aimed at further energizing and engaging all players, tournaments, sponsors, charities, volunteers and fans.

"The PGA TOUR has done a lot for charity over the years but only because of the passion for giving back shared by our players, tournaments, sponsors, charities, volunteers and fans," PGA TOUR Commissioner Tim Fincannon said. "When we say, 'Together, anything's possible,' we mean that by rallying behind the common cause of charitable giving, we can create greater awareness and elevate our overall impact, which is so important in these difficult economic times."

A full-scale launch of "Together, anything's possible" is scheduled for 2010.

PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour events annually benefit more than 3,000 charities and countless individuals worldwide. Research shows that the majority of the funds raised each year are directly funneled back into the local market, so while there is not an "official charity of the PGA TOUR," there are many who benefit from the TOUR's one goal of "Giving Back."

Structure

Unlike any other professional sports organization, the PGA TOUR relies on more than 100,000 volunteers a year to run its events, and most of the 100-plus tournaments are structured as non-profit organizations designed to donate 100 percent of net proceeds to local charities. Beneficiaries include hospitals, youth-development organizations, growth-of-the-game programs and food banks. In addition, military support and fundraising for natural disaster relief are apparent.

"Together, anything's possible" aims to organize the beneficiaries into a national network. The TOUR and its sanctioned tournaments will connect with each of these charities to begin communicating details of this platform.

"Our relationship with the Valero Texas Open and the PGA TOUR goes way beyond that of a charitable recipient...more so, it is a friendship," said Bert Pfeister, President and CEO of Respite Care of San Antonio, a beneficiary of the Valero Texas Open. "The Valero Texas Open provides children in need of our specialized care an opportunity to participate in activities during the tournament, offering them an inclusive environment where they enjoy the fun atmosphere alongside typical children. A strong partnership has developed because the tournament understands how vital the funds are to children in our care, and we – in turn – put our support and resources behind ensuring everyone understands how vital the Valero Texas Open is to our community. The phrase, 'Together, anything's possible' certainly illustrates our relationship with the Valero Texas Open, and we're so delighted to be a part of the TOUR's charitable mission."

Beneficiaries include the Charities of the Year on all three Tours. The Arnold Palmer Medical Center, the primary charity of the Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard, on the PGA TOUR and Returning Heroes Home, Inc., of Houston, a beneficiary of the AT&T Championship in San Antonio, TX, on the Champions Tour were the 2009 recipients. The Epilepsy Foundation of Southeast Tennessee and Via Christi Children's Miracle Network were honored as Co-Charities of the year by the Nationwide Tour in 2008.

A significant impact is also made by the Volunteers of the Year. Virginia Lane of the THE TOUR Championship presented by Coca-Cola in Atlanta on the PGA TOUR and Ron Keener of The Principal Charity Classic in West Des Moines, IA, on the Champions Tour are the 2009 Volunteers of the year. The Nationwide Tour recognized Gary Eastburn of the Albertsons Boise Open as its 2008 Volunteer of the Year. The 2009 Nationwide Tour honoree will be announced in early 2010.

In order to further support the impact of volunteerism, the TOUR has aligned with HandsOn Network, the largest volunteer and civic-action network in the nation. The goal of this partnership is to inspire others to serve and connect to volunteer opportunities through HandsOn Network's 250 affiliates and its network of 70,000 nonprofit organizations. For example, the TOUR will commit assets, such as public-service announcements and Web site coverage, inspiring and directing volunteers to HandsOn in times of crisis or disaster relief. HandsOn can mobilize and equip interested volunteers to assist with relief efforts.

As part of this partnership, HandsOn will assist select Championship Management events and the TPC Network of Clubs in the development of charitable initiatives and will provide volunteers for community projects and fundraising that fall outside a tournament week. In addition, HandsOn will be able to serve as a volunteer resource in other PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour event markets on an as-requested basis.

Tournaments

Tournaments provide the leadership. The Valero Texas Open on the PGA TOUR, the 3M Championship, Toshiba Classic and Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach on the Champions Tour and the Albertsons Boise Open, Nationwide Children's Hospital Invitational, the Price Cutter Charity Classic and the BMW Charity Pro-Am on the Nationwide Tour provided the largest donations to charity in 2009 on each Tour.

In the "Together, anything's possible" campaign, the TOUR will assist tournaments in maximizing their charitable impact. The TOUR will work with tournaments to benchmark specific charity initiatives where feasible and expand proven activities across all Tours.

"Every tournament has touched the lives of countless individuals in need through their dedication to charitable giving," said Ollie Nutt, chairman of the Tournament Advisory Council Board of Directors. "This is an opportunity to share successes and learn how we can grow everyone's impact. This is a one-plus-one-equals-10 type of situation, where we can do more good works if we band together than we have been doing separately."

In The Presidents Cup, there is no purse, yet revenues are divided into equal shares that the participating players and Captains designate for charities of their choice, totaling nearly $22 million in the eight playings of the event through the 2009 event in San Francisco.

Players

Players reach out to help considerably through charitable efforts in their home communities and elsewhere.

Under the new "Together, anything's possible" platform, the TOUR will commit resources to further promote each player's charitable activities, whether through television, advertising, PGATOUR.COM and video or new media support that will enable fans to get involved in their favorite players' charities. The TOUR will offer assistance to both players, who are currently engaged in charitable activities, as well as those who are interested in getting started.

"I am very excited that the TOUR will be helping us all make a bigger impact on our communities," said David Toms. "Two days after Hurricane Katrina hit, I sent an email to about 200 people and asked if they would be interested in supporting the cause. I thought we would be able to raise a little money and help a few more families. The response to that simple email was overwhelming. We had to get volunteers to help answer the phones, and within hours of an interview I did during a PGA TOUR broadcast, over 1,000 online donations crashed our system. It wasn't long before we had raised over $1.5 million. That is an example of how we, as players, can help our communities and charities in times of need. This new, elevated charity platform will be an asset to all players who want to pitch in and make a difference."

Support of the United States military has been quite evident. The AT&T National in Bethesda, MD, over the Fourth of July weekend honors the United States Armed Forces by offering free admission to all military personnel and holding various events around the tournament. Host Tiger Woods pays tribute to his late father, Earl, a Green Beret veteran, by focusing on those who serve our country through various activities.

Phil Mickelson began a "Birdies for the Brave" program in 2004 that continues to donate $100 for each birdie and $500 for each eagle he makes in competition and benefits "Homes for Our Troops" and "Special Operations Warrior Foundation." Numerous other players are affiliated with organizations that assist wounded veterans and their families.

Players support amateur golf in various capacities also. For nine years, Australia's Aaron Baddeley has sponsored the Aaron Baddeley International Junior Championship in China each December, with the winning boys and girls earning spots in the Australian men's and women's opens. Bubba Watson sponsors the Bubba Watson Invitational, a women's NCAA Division II golf tournament at his home course in Pace, FL. Fred Funk, who plays on both the PGA TOUR and Champions Tour, has assisted J.T. Townsend, a young man who was paralyzed in a 2004 Jacksonville, FL, high school football game. Funk, with assistance from the PGA TOUR and THE PLAYERS Championship, has spearheaded fund-raisers, including an annual golf tournament, and given a percentage of his earnings to help Townsend's family pay for a wheelchair-accessible home that includes other special amenities. The Townsend family moved into the home in late 2006.

The players' wives are also fully involved in giving back. The PGA TOUR Wives Association was a 2008 recipient of one of Golf Magazine's 10 Innovator Awards for its charitable nature and positive impact on tournament host cities. Since its incorporation in 1988, the PGA TOUR Wives Association has supported children's charities across the country by raising money and giving back much to the game of golf through personal time and monetary contributions.

Fans

The TOUR is in the process of developing a call-to-action plan that allows fans to rally behind charities supported by its players and tournaments, allowing them to enhance lives by giving of their time or making contributions.

While many tournaments already have an effective outreach to their fans, the TOUR will develop an overarching communications plan that will add support on a national level. The TOUR will build a charity-landing page at PGATOUR.COM that fans can use as a way to learn more about the charitable involvement of their favorite players, tournaments or charities. This site will enable fans to donate money and identify volunteer opportunities that directly benefit local charities. The TOUR will invest substantial internal resources, including an ad campaign, to promote the call to action.

Regulations – Terms and Conditions of Media Regulations

1. THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS ARE INCORPORATED INTO PGA TOUR'S MEDIA REGULATIONS. COMPLIANCE WITH THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS IS A CONDITION OF EACH CREDENTIAL.
2. PGA TOUR MAY REVOKE CREDENTIALS AT ANY TIME FOR ANY REASON INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, VIOLATION OF ANY OF THE FOREGOING REGULATIONS OR ANY OF THE FOLLOWING TERMS AND CONDITIONS.
3. Authorized Outlet. Every person applying for and receiving credentials to access a PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and/or Nationwide Tour Tournament must identify every Authorized Outlet which that person will represent during the applicable Tournament. PGA TOUR, in its sole discretion, will determine whether an entity or person will be approved as an Authorized Outlet or Bearer, as applicable.
4. Working Press Regulations.
 - a. A daily decal is necessary to walk inside the gallery ropes. All members of the media with such decal must remain not more than an arm's length from the ropes, so as to blend into the gallery and appear to be part of the gallery at all times.
 - b. Players are not to be distracted during play. Interviews may only be conducted after the conclusion of the player's round (i.e., after the player has signed his scorecard). Media are not allowed in the scoring area. Every effort will be made to make the leading players available in the Media Center interview area each day.
 - c. Do not interview or ask players to pose for photographs during practice sessions before a round, except by prior arrangement with the player.
 - d. If an interview is to be conducted in the practice areas, either the range or the putting green, it must be done by prior arrangement with the player, up against the ropes and not in the middle of the areas where it could be distracting to other players.
 - e. All media must follow the directions of marshals and other Tournament officials at all times.
 - f. The use of carts is prohibited at all times.
5. Locker Room/Media Center Access. Only media with the appropriate credential shall be allowed in locker room(s) and Media Center.
6. Recorder Guidelines.
 - a. All audio recording device and/or video recorder work should be done in the proximity of the Media Center and/or designated interview area.
 - b. Video recorders are not permitted in the locker room. Audio recording devices are permitted in the locker room, subject to the following regulations:
 - i. Audio recorded interviews are intended to be one on one and not group interviews.
 - ii. Audio recorded interviews are for reference only and the audio may not be used for any other purpose.
 - iii. The reporter must clearly ask a player, and a player must clearly grant permission, for an audio recording device to be used.
 - iv. The reporter is responsible for making other players in the vicinity aware that an interview is being recorded.
 - v. PGA TOUR staff may designate, depending upon need and availability, an area within the locker room for the purpose of conducting interviews that are recorded.
 - vi. Use of audio recorded interviews must be limited to the person being interviewed.
 - c. Audio recording devices and/or video recorders are not permitted within the playing area of the Tournament course unless express written permission has been granted by PGA TOUR.
7. Weather Delay Guidelines. During weather delay situations, media are not permitted in the locker room. If possible, PGA TOUR will make players available for interviews during weather delays in the designated interview area or other area(s) designated by PGA TOUR.
8. Photographer Conduct Guidelines. Having a media credential does not guarantee photo access.
 - a. At PGA TOUR's discretion, credentialed photographers may receive one of two types of photo credentials:
 - i. A limited number of "inside-the-ropes" photo credentials will be issued daily as determined by the PGA TOUR Media Official on site for practice and competition rounds and will permit the wearer access inside the ropes. Note that being issued an "inside the ropes" photo credential during practice rounds provides no guarantee of being issued a photo credential (inside or outside the ropes) during competition days.
 - ii. Photographers who do not have an inside the ropes photo credential must stay outside the gallery ropes but are still required to check in with the PGA TOUR Media Official and may receive an outside the ropes photo credential for competition rounds. Photographic assistants will not be issued photo credentials of any type.
 - b. Professional grade cameras and lenses and noise free equipment must be used at all times.

Olympic Golf Approved For 2016

After an absence of more than a century, golf will return as an Olympic sport in 2016 along with rugby sevens following their approval by the International Olympic Committee (IOC) membership during the IOC's 121st Session on October 9, 2009 in Copenhagen, Denmark.

Both sports will be part of the Olympic Programme in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, which was selected as the host city for 2016 Games by the IOC on October 2, 2009. Golf was last an Olympic sport at the 1904 Games in St. Louis, MO, when the United States and Canada were the only two competing countries.

"We are elated that the IOC membership has approved golf as an Olympic sport and look forward to seeing the world's best golfers compete for gold at the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro," said Ty Votaw, Executive Director of the International Golf Federation Olympic Golf Committee, which has coordinated golf's Olympic bid. "We thank the IOC for its support and also congratulate rugby sevens for its inclusion in the 2016 Games."

Votaw and Peter Dawson, Chief Executive of The R&A and joint secretary of the International Golf Federation, were accompanied by professionals Padraig Harrington of Ireland, Michelle Wie of the United States and Suzann Pettersen of Norway, as well as 2009 British Amateur champion Matteo Manassero, age 16, of Italy, for a final presentation to the IOC prior to the vote.

"We are extremely grateful that Padraig, Michelle, Suzann and Matteo were able to join us to help communicate the genuine interest world-class players of all ages share in golf becoming an Olympic sport," Dawson said.

Golf and rugby sevens were recommended for the Olympic Programme by the IOC Executive Board in August 2009 in Berlin, Germany, following an extensive review process involving seven sports that were vying to be added to the 2016 Olympic Games. Although they emerged as the finalists, both sports were still required to secure final approval by a majority of votes cast by the members of the IOC.

Based on player feedback, the IGF has proposed a format of 72-hole individual stroke play for both men and women. In case of a tie for either first, second or third place, a three-hole playoff is recommended to determine the medal winner(s).

The IGF also has recommended an Olympic field of 60 players for each of the men's and women's competitions, using the Official World Golf Ranking as a method of determining eligibility. The top-15 world-ranked players will be eligible for the Olympics, regardless of the number of players from a given country. Beyond the top 15, players will be eligible based on the world ranking, with a maximum of two eligible players from each country that does not already have two or more players among the top 15.
