FedExCup

The FedExCup is a season-long points competition offering unprecedented bonus money and culminating with the FedExCup Playoffs in August. TOUR members earn FedExCup points based on their finish at each tournament, with an emphasis placed on wins and high finishes. The FedExCup champion is crowned at the conclusion of the FedExCup Playoffs finale, the TOUR Championship. Visit FedExCup 101 to learn more about the FedExCup.

FedExCup Playoffs

The FedExCup Playoffs features a progressive cut over three events. Aside from the coveted FedExCup trophy, players compete for their share of $60 million total in bonus money. The first two Playoffs events award 2,000 points to the winner (quadruple points of Regular Season events), while the Playoffs Finale, the TOUR Championship, features a strokes-based system (FedExCup Starting Strokes). The player with the lowest total score will win the FedExCup and be credited with an official victory in the TOUR Championship competition.

The Wyndham Rewards Top 10 is a prize bonus pool designed to reward the top-10 performers of the FedExCup Regular Season. Concluding at the Wyndham Championship, the FedExCup points standings will identify the Wyndham Rewards Program winners. The top 10 in the standings at the conclusion of the FedExCup Regular Season will share a $10 million prize pool; $2 million for first place, $1.5 million for second, $1.2 million for third, $1.1 million for fourth, $1 million for fifth.

Awards

The PGA TOUR recognizes the following awards: FedExCup, Wyndham Rewards Top 10 Regular Season Champion, Jack Nicklaus Award (Player of the Year), Arnold Palmer Award (Rookie of the Year), Byron Nelson Award (scoring average), Payne Stewart Award, Courage Award, Lifetime Achievement Award, Tournament of the Year, Volunteer of the Year and Charity of the Year.

FedExCup Overview

Established in 2007, the FedExCup is a season-long points competition offering unprecedented bonus money and culminating with the FedExCup Playoffs in August. Players vie to become the FedExCup champion, which distinguishes the one player who not only performs well during the PGA TOUR Regular Season, but also excels through the pressure of the FedExCup Playoffs. Players to hoist the FedExCup trophy since the inception of the FedExCup include Tiger Woods (2007 and 2009), Vijay Singh (2008), Jim Furyk (2010), Bill Haas (2011), Brandt Snedeker (2012), Henrik Stenson (2013), Billy Horschel (2014), Jordan Spieth (2015), Rory McIlroy (2016 and 2019), Justin Thomas (2017) and Justin Rose (2018). Using FedExCup Starting Strokes for the first time in 2019, McIlroy joined Woods as the only multiple winners of the FedExCup.

PGA TOUR Regular Season

The PGA TOUR Regular Season includes 46 events beginning in September 2019, with A Military Tribute at The Greenbrier, and ending in August 2020 at the Wyndham Championship. TOUR members earn FedExCup points based on their finish at each tournament, with an emphasis placed on wins and high finishes. Points are awarded at four levels:

- Official PGA TOUR events played during the PGA TOUR Season each award 500 FedExCup points to the winner
- THE PLAYERS Championship, Masters Tournament, PGA Championship, U.S. Open and The Open Championship award 600 FedExCup points to the winner
- World Golf Championships events award 550 FedExCup points to the winner
- Additional events (played the same week as other tournaments) award 300 FedExCup points to the winner

Limited-field events during the FedExCup competition will not redistribute the points for places that do not play. Those points are not awarded to the field and the total points distributed will be slightly less than the total points as defined above. For example, if the Sentry Tournament of Champions has a field of 30 players, the points awarded will be based on the points that would be awarded to each individual position in a full-field event from positions 1 to 30. This will result in the points that would have otherwise been awarded from positions 31-70 in a regular event not being awarded in the tournament.

Another example is the World Golf Championships-Dell Technologies Match Play, a 64-player field. In this limited-field event, points for positions 65 and beyond would not be awarded.

At the completion of the Wyndham Championship, $10 million in bonus money for Regular Season performance is awarded through the Wyndham Rewards Top 10, a PGA TOUR program that recognizes the 10 players who earn the most FedExCup points through the Wyndham Championship, with the Regular Season champion earning $2 million. In 2019, Brooks Koepka won the inaugural Wyndham Rewards Top 10 as the Regular Season leader in FedExCup points.

What you need to know

- The FedExCup is a season-long points competition which culminates with the FedExCup Playoffs, a series of three events to determine the FedExCup champion.
- The total bonus pool for the FedExCup Playoffs is $60 million, with the FedExCup champion earning $15 million.
- A $10 million Regular Season bonus pool, the Wyndham Rewards Top 10, recognizes the 10 players who earn the most FedExCup points through the Wyndham Championship, with the Regular Season champion earning $2 million.
- The FedExCup Playoffs finale, the TOUR Championship, features FedExCup Starting Strokes, a staggered, strokes-based system which represents the final FedExCup standings, recognizing players for their Regular Season performance, as well as their play in the first two FedExCup Playoffs events.

FedExCup Playoffs

At the conclusion of the season, the top 125 players in the FedExCup standings will be eligible to play in the FedExCup Playoffs, a series of three events over the month of August (from 2007 to 2018, the FedExCup Playoffs included four events). Points earned during the PGA TOUR Regular Season carry over to the Playoffs.

Players will compete in the FedExCup Playoffs for their share of the $60 million total in bonus money, with the FedExCup champion taking home $15 million.

The FedExCup Playoffs events feature a progressive cut, with fields of 125 for THE NORTHERN TRUST (TPC Boston, Norton, Massachusetts), 70 for the BMW Championship (Olympia Fields Country Club, Olympia Fields, Illinois) and 30 for the TOUR Championship (East Lake Golf Club, Atlanta, Georgia), where the FedExCup Champion will be determined. In the event an eligible player is unable or chooses not to play, the field will be shortened and no alternates will be added. Points from the missing positions will not be awarded.

THE NORTHERN TRUST will cut the field to low 70 and ties after 36 holes, while the BMW Championship and TOUR Championship are no-cut events.

The first two Playoffs events award 2,000 points to the winner (quadruple points of Regular Season events), while the Playoffs Finale, the TOUR Championship, features a strokes-based system (FedExCup Starting Strokes) instituted for the first time in 2019. The player with the lowest total score will win the FedExCup and be credited with an official victory in the TOUR Championship competition.

The FedExCup points leader after the first two Playoffs events will begin the TOUR Championship at 10-under par. The No. 2 player will start at 8 under. The No. 3 player starts at 7 under; the No. 4 player starts at 6 under; the No. 5 player starts at 5 under. Players 6-10 start at 4 under; players 11-15 start at 3 under; players 16-20 start at 2 under; players 21-25 start at 1 under; and players 26-30 start at even par.

At the TOUR Championship, the player with the lowest aggregate score over 72 holes when combined with his FedExCup Starting Strokes will win the TOUR Championship and also be crowned FedExCup champion. The TOUR Championship win will be considered an official victory and the FedExCup champion will also earn a bonus of $15 million and a five-year PGA TOUR exemption.

PGA TOUR History

It is not easy to pinpoint the exact beginning of the PGA TOUR. Certainly, professionals have competed against each other from the earliest days of the game in the United States.

In 1895, 10 professional golfers and one amateur played in the first U.S. Open in Newport, Rhode Island. Shortly thereafter, tournaments began to pop up across the country, including the Western Open in 1899. But this was not “tour” golf. The events lacked continuity.

Interest in the game, however, continued to grow. American professionals were rapidly improving. When John McDermott became the first American-born player to win the U.S. Open in 1911, interest in the game blossomed. That interest became enthusiasm in 1913 when Englishmen Harry Vardon and Ted Ray, the world’s best players, came to the United States to play an exhibition tour and compete in the U.S. Open. When 20-year-old amateur Francis Ouimet defeated the pair in a playoff at Brookline, Massachusetts, golf became front-page news and a game for everyone.

In the early 1920s, a series of tournaments was held on the West Coast, in Texas and Florida. These events were held in the winter, and the golfers played their way east and up to Pinehurst, North Carolina, in the spring. By the middle of the decade, the tour was doing relatively well—offering $77,000 in total prize money.

The first “playing professionals” organization was formed in 1932. Two years earlier, Bob Harlow had been named manager of the PGA Tournament Bureau. The tour became more structured following World War II and grew rapidly in the late 1950s and early 1960s. When the combination of Arnold Palmer, televised golf and President Dwight D. Eisenhower arrived on the scene in the late 1950s, the eyes of the world were on golf. This exposure inspired millions to try the game and made superstars of golf’s greats like Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player.

Most golf historians trace the “formal” beginning of the PGA TOUR to late 1968, when the “Tournament Players Division” split from the PGA of America and hired Joe Dey as its first commissioner. That organization became the modern-day PGA TOUR, which celebrated 50 years in 2018. Dey served from early 1969 through February 28, 1974, and was succeeded by four-time PGA TOUR winner Deane R. Beman on March 1, 1974.

During Beman’s administration, the value of tournament purses escalated at an unprecedented rate. PGA TOUR assets grew from $730,000 in 1974 to more than $200 million, and total revenues increased from $3.9 million to $229 million in 1993. The TOUR also made a bold move in 1979, moving its headquarters to Ponte Vedra Beach, Florida, from Washington, D.C.

Tim Finchem became the TOUR’s third commissioner, on June 1, 1994 and served through December 31, 2016. During his 22 years in office, Finchem was instrumental in expanding the TOUR’s international footprint, growing earnings opportunities for PGA TOUR members and introducing events such as the Presidents Cup (1994), the World Golf Championships (1999) and the season-long FedExCup competition (2007). Charity was also a significant focus of Finchem’s tenure as commissioner. In January 2014, the TOUR and its tournaments reached the $2-billion milestone in charitable contributions, with $1 billion of that total raised since 2006.

Jay Monahan took office as the fourth commissioner of the PGA TOUR on January 1, 2017. Monahan joined the PGA TOUR in 2008 as Executive Director of THE PLAYERS Championship, and prior to being appointed commissioner, ascended to the position of Deputy Commissioner on April 1, 2014, with Chief Operating Officer added to his title on April 1, 2016.

The competitive scope of the PGA TOUR also is much broader today, thanks to the PGA TOUR Champions, Korn Ferry Tour and the international tours: PGA TOUR Latinoamérica, Mackenzie Tour-PGA TOUR Canada and PGA TOUR Series-China. PGA TOUR Champions, in its 40th season, has been labeled the most successful senior sports venture in history. The Korn Ferry Tour is the path to the PGA TOUR, whereby all 50 TOUR exemptions come via the Korn Ferry Tour. Former Korn Ferry Tour players who have gone on to star on the PGA TOUR include Jason Day, Justin Thomas and Bubba Watson.

When the PGA TOUR opened TPC Sawgrass in 1980, it introduced the era of stadium golf and record-breaking attendance. Owned and/or operated by the TOUR, the TPC Network courses are the only major-league sports venues owned by the players themselves. The 2007 PLAYERS Championship debuted the reworked PLAYERS Stadium Course at TPC Sawgrass, with refurbished fairways and rebuilt greens and a new, enlarged clubhouse. Further competitive enhancements and improvements were made following the 2016 event that furthered its stature as the truest test in golf.

For the first time since 1904, golf took part in the Summer Olympics in Rio in 2016, with PGA TOUR members Justin Rose (Gold) of England, Henrik Stenson (Silver) of Sweden and Matt Kuchar (Bronze) of the United States taking home medals on the men’s side.

The debut of the FedExCup in 2007 was concluded by the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup, with Tiger Woods taking the inaugural FedExCup title. The PGA TOUR celebrated 12 years of the FedExCup in 2018, with Justin Rose taking home the FedExCup, while Woods capped his comeback with his 80th career PGA TOUR title at the season-ending TOUR Championship.

For the 2018-19 season, the TOUR introduced a 46-tournament schedule with significant changes, including THE PLAYERS move to March, the PGA Championship to May and the FedExCup Playoffs being reduced from four events to three and ending in August. For the final FedExCup Playoffs event, a new strokes-based scoring system was implemented, ensuring the winner of the TOUR Championship will also win the FedExCup.

When the eyes of the world turned to golf, superstars were made of golf’s greats like Gary Player (left), Arnold Palmer (center) and Jack Nicklaus (right).

Chronology

2011	Bill Haas begins the final event of the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup, the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, in the 25th position, needing to win the Atlanta tournament and then gets some help. Both things happened as Haas edges Hunter Mahan in a three-hole, sudden-death playoff that gives him the tournament title, the FedExCup and its $10-million prize. Luke Donald wins the money title on both the PGA TOUR and European Tour and is named the TOUR's Player of the year. First-time major champions is the rule, with South African Charl Schwartzel winning the Masters Tournament. Northern Ireland's Rory McIlroy and Darren Clarke win the U.S. Open and The Open Championship, respectively. Playing in his first major championship, Keegan Bradley wins the PGA Championship, one of two titles for the TOUR rookie. K.J. Choi outlasts David Toms in a playoff at THE PLAYERS Championship. The United States team, led by captain Fred Couples, defeats the International team in The Presidents Cup in Melbourne, Australia
2012	World No. 1 Rory McIlroy takes home two victories during the FedExCup Playoffs (Deutsche Bank Championship and BMW Championship) but Brandt Snedeker claims the FedExCup, thanks to a victory at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola. McIlroy ends the streak of 10 consecutive first-time major winners with his eight-shot victory at the PGA Championship. Tiger Woods wins for the first time since 2009, and with three wins on the season, he ties (the Memorial Tournament) and surpasses (AT&T National) Jack Nicklaus for second all-time with 74 victories
2013	Henrik Stenson matches Bill Haas' performance from two years earlier, winning the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola and, in turn, taking home the FedExCup. His victory in Atlanta was his second of the FedExCup Playoffs, to go with his title at the Deutsche Bank Championship. Tiger Woods wins his 11th PGA TOUR Jack Nicklaus Award as Player of the Year. His five wins leads the TOUR, and he finishes the season three wins short of tying Sam Snead on the all-time victory list
2014	For the first time, the PGA TOUR embarks on a wraparound schedule bridging two years with 45 events over 43 weeks and includes official events in Malaysia and China for the first time, awarding FedExCup points to participants. In January 2014, the PGA TOUR crosses the $2 billion-threshold in charitable giving. In one of the best closing stretches in PGA TOUR history, Billy Horschel wins the FedExCup with a furious rally that includes a T2 at the Deutsche Bank Championship and victories at the BMW Championship and TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola. Rory McIlroy is named Player of the Year for the second time in three seasons on the strength of three victories and two runner-up finishes.
2015	Jordan Spieth caps a historic five-win season by winning the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola and the FedExCup. With major wins at the Masters and U.S. Open, 21-year-old Spieth becomes the youngest player to win two majors since Gene Sarazen in 1922. He also breaks the PGA TOUR record for most money won in a season with $12,030,465. Spieth beats out PGA Champion Jason Day, Rickie Fowler and Rory McIlroy for Player of the Year honors. Between August 23 and September 27, Spieth, McIlroy and Day trade off the distinction of No. 1 player in the world, marking the first time the top spot in the Official World Golf Ranking changes in six consecutive weeks. The Presidents Cup is held in Asia for the first time, with a tight battle between the United States and International teams until the final hole when Bill Haas, son of U.S. Captain Jay Haas, secures the winning point against South Korea's Sangmoon Bae on the 18th hole.
2016	The 10th season of the FedExCup concludes with the four winners of the FedExCup Playoffs events all inside the top 15 in the Official World Golf Ranking, including Patrick Reed (The Barclays), Dustin Johnson (BMW Championship) and FedExCup champion Rory McIlroy, who wins the Deutsche Bank Championship and TOUR Championship. Highlights from the 2016-17 season include Player of the Year Dustin Johnson extending his TOUR-best streak of winning at least once in nine consecutive years, four first-time major winners - Danny Willett (Masters), Dustin Johnson (U.S. Open), Henrik Stenson (The Open Championship) and Jimmy Walker (PGA Championship) - and the first-ever, sub-59 round in an official PGA TOUR event with Jim Furyk's final-round 58 at the Travelers Championship. Golf takes place at the Olympics for the first time since 1904, with PGA TOUR members taking home medals on the men's side. Great Britain's Justin Rose defeats Stenson of Sweden on the 72nd hole for the gold medal, while Matt Kuchar records earns bronze for the United States.
2017	19 different players in their 20s win a total of 28 times, establishing a new PGA TOUR record. Leading the way is 24-year-old Justin Thomas, who wins five times on his way to capturing the FedExCup and being named Player of the Year. Thomas wins the PGA Championship for his first-career major title, while Jordan Spieth secures his third at The Open Championship. Spieth becomes the second player ever and first since Jack Nicklaus to win three majors before turning 24. The young players' success is capped off by Xander Schauffele, who wins the TOUR Championship and is named Rookie of the Year. At the Presidents Cup, the United States defeats the International side, 19-11. Daniel Berger closes out Si Woo Kim 2-and-1 to become the first-ever Presidents Cup "rookie" to clinch the Cup, and at 24, the youngest player to clinch the Cup for either team.
2018	Tiger Woods and Justin Rose cap off the season by winning the TOUR Championship and FedExCup, respectively. Woods' 80th TOUR title comes 1,876 days and 42 PGA TOUR starts after his 79th win, while Rose, whose season includes wins at the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions and Fort Worth Invitational, becomes the first Englishman to win the FedExCup. Brooks Koepka becomes the first player to successfully defend a U.S. Open title since 1989 and first to win the U.S. Open and PGA Championship in the same season since 2000. 12 different players in their 20s account for 17 wins, including three from defending FedExCup champion Justin Thomas and three from Bryson DeChambeau. In all, five players claim three wins: Thomas, DeChambeau, Dustin Johnson, Bubba Watson and Brooks Koepka.
2019	The TOUR introduces a schedule with significant changes, including THE PLAYERS Championship's return to March, the PGA Championship's move to May and the FedExCup Playoffs being reduced from four events to three and ending in August. A new strokes-based scoring system is implemented at the TOUR Championship, making it easier for players and fans alike to follow along. Rory McIlroy wins THE PLAYERS and his second FedExCup title, becoming the first player to win both in the same season and the second to win the FedExCup multiple times, joining Tiger Woods. Tiger Woods wins his 15th major championship and first since 2008, winning the Masters Tournament to move within one of Sam Snead's record of 82 PGA TOUR victories. Brooks Koepka wins his fourth major at the PGA Championship and becomes the fifth player to finish in the top five at all four majors in a single year. Only four players win multiple events (McIlroy, Koepka, Matt Kuchar, Xander Schauffele) and only three events are decided by a playoff (Safeway Open, World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions, The RSM Classic).

- MVP of high school soccer team.
- Father, Butch, won twice while playing the PGA TOUR and was a two-time PGA TOUR Champions winner.
- Has an unusual putting style he adopted from his teacher in 1999. Keeps most of his weight on his left foot, which is placed decidedly forward, to encourage remaining still over putts.

2018-19 Season Highlights

Earned first career PGA TOUR title at the Sanderson Farms Championship and advanced to the FedExCup Playoffs for the first time in his career, ending the season at No. 62 in the FedExCup standings. Was one of eight rookies to qualify for the Playoffs and one of five to advance to the BMW Championship. Recorded three top-10s and made 14 cuts in 26 starts during his rookie season. Led the PGA TOUR in Driving Distance (317.9 yards).

PGA TOUR

Sanderson Farms Championship - In his ninth start on the PGA TOUR and second as an official member of the TOUR, won his first PGA TOUR title at the Sanderson Farms Championship, winning by four strokes over Corey Conners. Held at least a share of the lead after every round, highlighted by a 64 in the second round. The 21-under 267 marked the lowest winning score in the event since moving to the Country Club of Jackson in 2014. Birdied five of his last six holes in the final round to seal the victory. While warming up prior to the final round, cracked his driver head. A replacement was found before his tee time. Known for his length off the tee, led the field in Driving Distance, averaging 308 yards off the tee. Eight drives were over 340 yards, three more than the next best player. Mayakoba Golf Classic - Second-round 62 left him two strokes off the lead through 36 holes at the Mayakoba Golf Classic. Just two weeks removed from his first career PGA TOUR win at the Sanderson Farms Championship, was seeking his second victory in his 11th start as a professional after making his professional debut at Mayakoba a year earlier. Closed with a double bogey in the third round and posted two double bogeys in his last five holes of the final round for a T10 result. Led driving distance category for the week (325.1 yards). The RSM Classic - Played in the final group in the final round of The RSM Classic before finishing alone in sixth after a final-round 69. Entered the final round one-shot off the lead held by Charles Howell III. Marked his third top-10 in five starts since joining the PGA TOUR as an official member. Recorded 116 total birdies over the first eight events of the 2018-19 season (the most of any player), including 23 at The RSM Classic, to win RSM's Birdies For Love competition, earning a $300,000 donation to The Cameron Champ Foundation. Rocket Mortgage Classic - Shot a front-nine 28 in the second round of the Rocket Mortgage Classic (T46), tying the lowest nine-hole score of the season on TOUR (Chez Reavie, Carlos Ortiz, Adam Svensson). Played the first seven holes in 7-under, becoming the first player to shoot 7-under or better on the first seven holes of a round since Ted Potter, Jr. at the 2018 AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am. Birdie/eagle streak of 7-under (Nos. 2-7) topped previous career-best (5-under/R1/2018 The RSM Classic) and tied the lowest of the season on the PGA TOUR. Previous career-best front-nine score was 31 (R2/2018 Mayakoba Golf Classic).

Personal

- Interest in golf grew after one of his high school teachers recommended he try the sport. Began studying Jack Nicklaus lesson books and videos and spent long hours hitting practice balls on his island home's only practice range. First Korean to earn a PGA TOUR card.
- Grew up the son of a farmer/fisherman and as a teenage powerlifter earned the nickname "Tank" because he could squat 350 pounds although he weighed a mere 95 pounds. He didn't have the upper-body strength to pursue that sport, so he turned to golf, at age 16.
- After his 2005 victory at the Wyndham Championship, donated $90,000 to the Korean Presbyterian Church in Greensboro, N.C., that he has attended each year he played the tournament.
- Following his win at the 2011 PLAYERS Championship, donated $200,000 to help victims of the tornadoes that ravaged the southeastern United States in April of that year.
- Through the K.J. Choi Foundation (kjchoifoundation.org), donated his $100,000 winnings from the 2013 ISPS Handa World Cup to help with the Typhoon Haiyan relief efforts in the Philippines. The funds, sent to the American Red Cross in conjunction with the Philippines' chapter of the Red Cross, were used to provide relief supplies to the areas worst hit by the typhoon.

Personal

- Began playing golf at age 10.
- Lists his father and mother among his heroes. Father is a chiropractor.
- Huge Drake University and University of Iowa sports fan.
- The gallery at BellSouth Classic at first TOUR victory included a group of about 10 men from Iowa who gave him financial support early in his career, buying a stake in Zach for $500 a share. Some were seeing him play as a pro for the first time. "It started out as a business, but it ended up as a business family," Johnson said of his relationship with them. "It's unbelievable having them here. They would buy a couple stock shares in me and just allow me to go out and not have to worry about the necessities of traveling week to week."
- In July of 2010, announced formation of the Zach Johnson Foundation that benefits children in need in the Greater Cedar Rapids area. The Foundation's premier event is the Zach Johnson Foundation Classic, a tournament that features PGA TOUR players as well as some of the game's future superstars. Inaugural event took place at Elmcrest CC in Cedar Rapids on Aug. 1, 2011. The tournament supports Kids on Course, a pilot program at Van Buren Elementary and Harrison Elementary Schools.
- In June 2016, was inducted into the Iowa Golf Hall of Fame.

PGA TOUR

Genesis Open - With a final-round 81 at the Genesis Open, failed to break 80 for the third time on the PGA TOUR (82/R3/2013 the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide, 80/R3/2014 TOUR Championship, 81/R4/2019 Genesis Open), eventually finishing T51 at 1-over. Final round included a double bogey, triple bogey and quadruple bogey, recording each of the three in the same round for the first time in his PGA TOUR career. PGA Championship - Finished T3 at the PGA Championship, snapping a streak of 18 PGA TOUR starts without a top-10 (first since 2018 The Open Championship/T9). Led the field in Strokes Gained: Putting, doing so in an event for the first time since the 2016 World Golf Championships-FedEx St. Jude Invitational, and mark of 2.659 strokes per round in that category was the first in his career over 2.5. the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide - Opened the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide with a 66 en route to a T7. Earned third consecutive top-10 on the PGA TOUR, a feat he had not accomplished since the start of the 2017-18 season. THE NORTHERN TRUST - Shot a final-round 67 to finish T6 at THE NORTHERN TRUST. Marked his lowest final-round score since the 2018 PGA Championship (66). With 21 putts in the final round, hit fewer than 22 in a round for the second time in his career (21/R1/2019 Genesis Open).

Personal

- Grew up in a poor countryside where he had to climb a mountain in order to go to school. Later found a security guard job on a golf course in the city of Xi'an, where he then worked as a caddie. In order to improve, he decided to learn golf and fell in love with it.

Cameron Champ hit 39 of 56 tee shots more than 300 yards for the week with a long of 360 (No. 1/R2).

Playing in Sunday's final group, Corey Conners finished alone in second for his best result to date on TOUR. Conners began the day four back and tied the lead with a 3-under outward nine and kept pace until Cameron Champ pulled ahead at No. 14. Conners' week was highlighted by a third-round 64, tied for the low round of the tournament.

In his first start at the event, Carlos Ortiz birdied his first three holes in the final round en route to an 8-under 64, tying the low round of the week. He moved from T19 at the start of the day to a T3 at 15-under 273, his career-best result in 64 PGA TOUR starts.

By tying Carlos Ortiz for third, rookie Sam Burns finished in the top five for the first time on the PGA TOUR. Burns was making his second start at the event after finishing T43 in 2017.

Roberto Castro's 7-under 29 on the front nine in the final round of the Sanderson Farms Championship led to a final-round 65 and T5 result, his first top-10 since 2016 BMW Championship (3rd).

WEATHER: Thursday: Mostly cloudy. High of 61. Wind NW 10-15, with gusts to 20 mph. Due to darkness, round one was suspended for the day at 6:13 p.m. and resumed at

Notes

Kevin Tway defeated 54-hole leader Brandt Snedeker and Ryan Moore in a playoff to win his first career PGA TOUR victory at the season-opening Safeway Open. Tway won in his 91st TOUR start at the age of 30 years, 2 months, 15 days.

After entering the final round trailing Brandt Snedeker by three strokes, Kevin Tway recorded a 1-under 71 to land in a playoff with Snedeker and Ryan Moore, who posted a 67, the low final round. While Snedeker was eliminated on the first extra hole, Tway sealed the victory with a birdie-3 on the third playoff hole, marking his fifth consecutive birdie (Nos. 17-18 in regulation and all three playoff holes, 18-18-10).

By earning his maiden PGA TOUR title, Kevin Tway and his father, eight-time PGA TOUR winner Bob Tway, became the 10th father-son duo to win on TOUR and the first since Kevin Stadler (son of Craig Stadler) in 2014.

Brandt Snedeker, who held the solo-lead after 36 and 54 holes, posted a 2-over 74 and was later eliminated on the first playoff hole. The runner-up was the eighth of Snedeker's career.

Playing on a sponsor exemption, 59-year-old Fred Couples finished T41 as he recorded his 500th made cut on the PGA TOUR(492 official, combined with eight at The Open Championship prior to 1995 when the TOUR started counting The Open as an official event).

2016 and 2017 Safeway Open winner Brendan Steele finished T53 in his attempt to become the first player to win an event in three consecutive seasons since Steve Stricker at the John Deere Classic (2009-11).

Three of the 21 PGA TOUR rookies finished in the top 10 (Sungjae Im/T4, Chase Wright/T10, Jim Knous/T10).

Notes

Bryson DeChambeau collected his fifth PGA TOUR title, and third in a five-start stretch, winning the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open by one stroke over defending champion Patrick Cantlay. DeChambeau's victory came in his 73rd start at the age of 25 years, 1 month, 19 days.

Dating back to the beginning of the 2018 FedExCup Playoffs, Bryson DeChambeau was making his fifth start and earned his third victory in that period (THE NORTHERN TRUST, Dell Technologies Championship, Shriners Hospitals for Children Open). The last player to accomplish the feat was Dustin Johnson, who won the Genesis Open, World Golf Championships-Mexico Championship and WGC-Dell Technologies Match Play in 2017 in consecutive starts.

At the par-5 16th in the final round, Bryson DeChambeau made a 57-foot, 7-inch eagle putt from off the green to take a one-shot lead. The putt will not count officially in the record book as it was off the green, but for reference, the only longer made putt DeChambeau previously made in his career also came at TPC Summerlin (2016/62' 6"/No. 17/R3).

Peter Uihlein led after each of the first two rounds and entered the final round tied for the lead with Bryson DeChambeau, but shot a 4-over 75 to finish T23.

Defending champion Patrick Cantlay finished runner-up in his bid to become the second player to win the event in back-to-back seasons (Jim Furyk, 1998-99). Cantlay's 72-hole score of 264 topped his previous career-best (269/2011 Travelers Championship).

Sam Ryder shot a sub-63 score(62)for the first time in his career in the final round to finish third. Ryder made 15 birdies and no bogeys over his last 28 holes.

In his fourth start at the event, Rickie Fowler collected his second top-10 with a T4 (T4/2018, T7/2009). The top-five was the 38th of Fowler's career in his 217th start.

WEATHER: Thursday: Sunny. High of 77. Wind NNE 10-15 mph. Due to darkness, play was suspended at 5:43 p.m. with 20 players left on the course. Friday: Round one resumed at 7:13 a.m. and was concluded at 8:20 a.m. The second round began as scheduled at 7 a.m. Sunny. High of 80. Wind ESE 6-12 mph. Due to darkness, play was suspended at 5:52 p.m. with five players left on the course. Saturday: The second round resumed at 7:55 a.m. and was concluded at 8:33 a.m. Sunny. High of 77. Wind N 10-15 mph, with gusts to 20 mph.

Notes

After making a 19-foot, 6-inch birdie putt at the 72nd hole to force a playoff, England's Ian Poulter defeated Beau Hossler with a par on the first extra hole to win the Houston Open. Poulter's third career victory came at the age of 42 years, 2 months, 22 days.

The playoff at the Houston Open marked the ninth of the 2017-18 PGA TOUR Season and first since Phil Mickelson won the World Golf Championships-Mexico Championship.

Ian Poulter became the fifth different winner of the season in his 40s, joining Pat Perez (CIMB Classic), Ryan Armour (Sanderson Farms Championship), Phil Mickelson (WGC-Mexico Championship) and Paul Casey (Valspar Championship). By comparison, there was a total of five during the 2016-17 season.

Making his third start in the Houston Open (2006/T21, 2014/MC, 2018/Won), Ian Poulter played 49 holes without a bogey from the 14th hole in round one through No. 8 in the final round.

One year after finishing T39 as a sponsor exemption, Beau Hossler made four consecutive birdies during the final round on Nos. 12-15 to seize the lead. On the first extra hole, No. 18, Hossler hit his third shot from a bunker into a water hazard, eventually making triple bogey. The runner-up was Hossler's best finish in 26 career PGA TOUR starts.

In his sixth Houston Open start, Jordan Spieth sank a 29-foot par putt on the 72nd hole for a final-round 66 and a share of third place. Spieth previously missed two cuts at the event (2014

In his first start of the season and first since being named 2017-18 PGA TOUR Player of the Year, Brooks Koepka won THE CJ CUP @ NINE BRIDGES in Jeju Island, South Korea by four shots over Gary Woodland. The win marked Koepka's fifth career PGA TOUR title in his 105th TOUR start at the age of 28 years, 5 months, 18 days.

Brooks Koepka reached 21-under par through 72 holes for the first time in his career and became the first player to do so in tournament history. Koepka's final-round 64 included a 7-under 29 back nine highlighted by a birdie-birdie-par-eagle finish.

With the victory, Brooks Koepka moved to No. 1 in the Official World Golf Ranking for the first time in his career, supplanting Dustin Johnson.

Gary Woodland finished inside the top five for the second consecutive week with a runner-up. Woodland entered the final round five shots back of the lead but went out in 6-under 30 to tie the lead and added five birdies and two bogeys on the back nine for a 3-under 33.

The two players who finished tied for third, Ryan Palmer and Rafa Cabrera Bello, each finished the tournament with a birdie streak of at least four holes. Palmer, with a streak of seven, became the first player since Tony Finau at the 2015 Desert Classic to record seven consecutive birdies to close a round. Cabrera Bello birdied each of the last four.

Jason Day closed with weekend scores of 65-67 for a T5 and first top-10 of the season. Day played the par-3s in 3-under for the week, tied for best in the field.

A year after winning the inaugural event, defending champion Justin Thomas shot a final-round 68 to finish T36.

Notes

In his first playoff on the PGA TOUR, Xander Schauffele defeated Tony Finau on the first extra hole at the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions to win his third career PGA TOUR title in his 60th TOUR start at the age of 25 years, 3 days. Schauffele began the final round trailing Finau by three shots and posted the low round of the day, a 4-under 68, to enter the playoff.

Tony Finau held the solo 36- and 54-hole leads, entering the final round with a three-shot cushion. After posting a final round 1-under 71 and falling to Xander Schauffele in the playoff, Finau notched his fourth runner-up in 120 TOUR starts.

In his first start since winning the FedExCup, Justin Rose missed a 10-foot birdie chance on the 17th hole during the final round and entered the 72nd hole two shots behind. With a bogey at the last, Rose finished alone in third.

In his first career start in a World Golf Championships event, Andrew Putnam finished T4 with rounds of 70-71-67-72—280(-8).

Patrick Reed, who opened with an 8-under 64 to take the 18-hole lead, fell to T7 following rounds of 72-70-77.

Among the seven Chinese players in the field, Haotong Li led the contingent with a T11 finish at 4-under 284.

The United States claimed all four World Golf Championships in 2018: WGC-Mexico Championship (Phil Mickelson), WGC-Dell Technologies Match Play (Bubba Watson), WGC-Bridgestone Invitational (Justin Thomas) and WGC-HSBC Champions (Xander Schauffele).

Notes

Following rounds of 64-64-65, Matt Kuchar posted a 2-under 69 in the final round of the Mayakoba Golf Classic to claim a one-stroke win at 22-under 262. The victory marked his eighth career PGA TOUR win at the age of 40 years, 4 months, 21 days.

Matt Kuchar, who supplanted the previous tournament records for 36-, 54- and 72-hole score, earned his first victory since winning the 2014 RBC Heritage. The win came in his fourth start at the event and was his second top-10 (T3/2008).

Danny Lee finished one stroke back in second for his best result on TOUR since winning A Military Tribute at The Greenbrier in 2015. The runner-up result marked his second on the PGA TOUR (T2/2015 TOUR Championship). Lee played the par-3 holes 6-under for the week.

Ricky Werenski (T3) carded four under-par rounds for the third time in as many starts at the event. The top-three was the third of Werenski's career in his 63rd start on TOUR.

Cameron Champ's second-round 9-under 62 fell one stroke shy of the tournament's 18-hole record entering the week. Scott Piercy matched Champ's 62 in round four for the low score of the week.

For posting the best finish among the Mexican players, Armando Favela (T16) claimed the "Premio Mexico" trophy. Four Mexican players made the cut, matching the most of any previous year in tournament history (2017): Favela (-14/T16), Abraham Ancer (-13/T21), Oscar Frausto (-9/T41), Jose de Jesus Rodriguez (-6/T55).

Defending champion Patton Kizzire finished T55 in his first title defense on the PGA TOUR. Kizzire's back-to-back eagles on Nos. 5 and 6 in the first round were the first on TOUR since the 2018 FedEX St. Jude Classic (J.B. Holmes / R2) and matched Marc Leishman (Nos. 7 and 8/R2/2016) and Aaron Wise (Nos. 4 and 5/R1/2016) as players with consecutive eagles at the Mayakoba Golf Classic.

In his second appearance, 2017 runner-up Rickie Fowler posted four scores in the 60s for the second year in a row (66-68-69-67) en route to a T16.

Following rounds of 71-69-140(-2), Jordan Spieth missed the cut in his first appearance at Mayakoba.

Damon Green, caddie for Zach Johnson, suffered dehydration after 14 holes in the opening round and could not continue. Sybi Kuchar, wife of Johnson's playing partner (and eventual tournament winner) Matt, stepped in and took the bag for the last four holes, during which Johnson made an eagle (No. 7).

Notes

Charles Howell III defeated Patrick Rodgers on the second playoff hole to win his third career PGA TOUR title in his 529th career start at the age of 39 years, 4 months, 30 days. It marked a span of 11 years, 9 months and 333 starts since his last TOUR win in 2007.

Charles Howell's victory came in his 529th start, the third-most starts before his third PGA TOUR victory: Leonard Thompson (553), Howard Twitty (532), Charles Howell III (529).

En route to earning a spot in the playoff, runner-up Patrick Rodgers closed with rounds of 61-62 for a 123 total, a PGA TOUR record for best closing 36-hole score.

With rounds of 64-64-68, Charles Howell III held the solo 18-, 36- and 54-hole lead, but did not earn an official wire-to-wire victory since a playoff was necessary. Howell improved his playoff record to 2-4.

Patrick Rodgers, who led the field with 26 birdies, made the longest putt of the first eight events of the 2018-19 season, an 85-foot, 5-inch birdie putt on No. 12 during the final round. It was the longest of the tournament by 26 feet.

One year after withdrawing after two rounds in the 2017 RSM Classic to be with his father (who later passed away), Webb Simpson finished third for his third top-10 in seven starts at The RSM Classic.

Notes

Entering the final round trailing Gary Woodland by five strokes, Xander Schauffele recorded an 11-under 62 to win the Sentry Tournament of Champions by one shot over Woodland. The victory was Schauffele's fourth on the PGA TOUR and came at the age of 25 years, 2 months, 12 days.

Having won the 2018 World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions in his most recent start, Xander Schauffele became the first player to win in back-to-back starts since Bryson DeChambeau in the 2017-18 FedExCup Playoffs (2018 THE NORTHERN TRUST, 2018 Dell Technologies Championship).

Xander Schauffele's five-stroke deficit represented the largest 54-hole margin overcome to win on TOUR since Bubba Watson at the 2018 Travelers Championship (6) and largest in tournament history to date (previous: 4/three times; most recent: Stuart Appleby, 2005). Schauffele's final-round 62 was the low finish by a winner on TOUR since Francesco Molinari at the 2018 Quicken Loans National (62).

In the final round, Xander Schauffele holed out for eagle at the par-5 ninth (18 yards) and par-4 12th (107 yards), accomplishing the feat on multiple holes for the second time in his career (R4/2016 Sanderson Farms Championship).

Gary Woodland collected his second runner-up result of the season, finishing one shot behind Xander Schauffele at 22-under 270. Woodland began the final round with a three-shot lead and closed with a 68 against Schauffele's 62.

Gary Woodland fell to 0-for-7 with the 54-hole lead/co-lead at stroke-play events in his career (converted 54-hole lead to victory at the 2013 Reno-Tahoe Tournament, which used Modified Stableford scoring format). Prior to four rounds in the 60s for the week (67-67-68-68), Woodland had just one sub-70 score in eight rounds at the event (67/R3/2014). Woodland received word Friday night that his grandmother had passed away in Kansas.

In his fourth start at the event, 2017 champion Justin Thomas shot a final-round 65 to finish third. Thomas tied Gary Woodland for most birdies in the field with 25.

Defending champion Dustin Johnson tied Marc Leishman and Rory McIlroy for fourth place, earning his seventh consecutive top-10 at the event.

With rounds of 63-63-66-66, Matt Kuchar won the Sony Open in Hawaii for his ninth PGA TOUR victory and second of the season. The victory came in his 430th TOUR start at the age of 40 years, 6 months, 23 days, and marked the 100th top-10 of his career. Matt Kuchar's winning score (258) topped his previous career-best (262/2018 Mayakoba Golf Classic) and represented the 17th 72-hole score of 258 or better in PGA TOUR history.

Following wins at the Mayakoba Golf Classic and the Sony Open in Hawaii, Matt Kuchar became the second player to win twice during the 2018-19 season, joining Xander Schauffele. Kuchar's only previous multiple-win season came in 2013 (World Golf Championships-Dell Technologies Match Play, the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide).

Matt Kuchar became the third defending champion of the Mayakoba Golf Classic to win the Sony Open in Hawaii since 2011 and second consecutive (Johnson Wagner, 2011 Mayakoba Golf Classic/2012 Sony Open; Patton Kizzire, 2017 Mayakoba Golf Classic/2018 Sony Open).

At 18-under 262, Andrew Putnam finished runner-up by four strokes to Matt Kuchar. Putnam made more than 420 feet of putts for the first time in his career (447' 7") and led the field in Strokes Gained: Putting with an average per round of 2.724 (previous career-best: 1.956/2015 The Honda Classic).

Notes
Despite a double bogey and triple bogey in final round, Rickie Fowler recorded his fifth PGA TOUR victory in his 220th PGA TOUR start at the age of 30 years, 1 month, 21 days by two strokes over Branden Grace at 17-under 267. Fowler became the first player since 1983 to win on the PGA TOUR while recording a double bogey and triple bogey or worse in the final round.

Leading by four shots to begin the final round, Rickie Fowler lost his lead at one point following the triple bogey at No. 11. After he chipped his ball into the water, Fowler received an additional penalty when the ball rolled back into the water after he had placed it back into play. Fowler went on to birdie two of the final four holes (Nos. 15 and 17) to win by two.

Rickie Fowler led or co-led after each of the first three rounds. Prior to the event, Fowler had never converted an 18-hole nor 36-hole lead/co-lead to victory and had done so just once with the 54-hole lead/co-lead (2017 The Honda Classic). Fowler's final-round 3-over-27 was his seventh over-par score when leading after 54 holes in his seventh attempt.

With the win, Rickie Fowler became the first player to convert a 54-hole lead for the win at the Waste Management Phoenix Open since Phil Mickelson in 2013.

Branden Grace, who began the final round trailing Rickie Fowler by seven shots, took the lead following Fowler's triple bogey at No. 11, but ended up finishing runner-up at 15-under 269. For the week, Grace played the par-3s in 6-under and the par-5s 12-under, both best in the field.

Justin Thomas finished third at 14-under 270, his second third-place result of the season (first: Sentry Tournament of Champions).

Matt Kuchar posted his first over-par score of the season (20 rounds) with a 4-over 75 in the final round en route to a tie for fourth. The result marked his third top-10 in the event in as many seasons (T4/2019, T5/2018, T9/2017).

In his bid to become the first player to win the Waste Management Phoenix Open in consecutive years since Hideki Matsuyama in 2016-17, Gary Woodland finished T7.

Three-time winner Phil Mickelson missed the cut after rounds of 68-75. Mickelson entered the week with 499 official made cuts on the PGA TOUR.

Notes

Closing with a bogey-free 7-under 65, Phil Mickelson overcame a three-stroke deficit to Paul Casey to win by three strokes at the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am by three shots over Casey. With a winning score of 19-under 268, Mickelson earned his 44th PGA TOUR title in his 598th TOUR start at the age of 48 years, 7 months, 26 days.

Phil Mickelson's win was his fifth at the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am (1998, 2005, 2007, 2012, 2019), tying Mark O'Meara for most wins at the event.

The event marked the first Monday finish of the season and first since the 2018 BMW Championship (unscheduled). The final round was suspended due to rain and hail, marking the first tournament round suspended by hail since round one of the 2013 World Golf Championships-Dell Technologies Match Play at The Golf Club at Dove Mountain in Marana, Arizona.

With his 500th official made cut on TOUR, Phil Mickelson became the 19th player to make 500 or more cuts on TOUR.

Phil Mickelson earned his 14th title in the state of California, becoming the second player to accomplish the feat since 1983 (Tiger Woods/14).

Phil Mickelson became the oldest winner of the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am, surpassing Steve Lowery who was 47 years, 3 months, 29 days when he won in 2008.

Ted Potter, Jr. became the first defending champion of the season to miss the cut.

Preferred lies were used all four rounds, the first tournament to do so since the 2018 Barbasol Championship.

WEATHER: Thursday: Mostly sunny. High of 54. Wind SW 8-12 mph. Friday: Mostly cloudy with afternoon showers. High of 54. Wind SSE 10-15 mph, with gusts to 20 mph. Play was suspended for the day at 2:11 p.m. PT due to heavy rain. Saturday:

Second round resumed at 7:10 a.m. PT, with the third round beginning as scheduled at 8 a.m. PT. Mostly sunny in the morning with heavy afternoon showers. High of 48. Wind SSW 15-20 mph, with gusts to 25 mph. Sunday: Due to wet conditions, the start of the final round was delayed for one hour. Rain and hail forced a suspension of play from 10:53 a.m.-1 p.m. (a total of two hours and seven minutes). Play was suspended due to darkness at 5:55 p.m., with two players left on the course. Mostly cloudy. High of 54. Wind NW 15-20 mph, with gusts to 27 mph. Monday: Partly cloudy. High of 54. Wind W 5-10 mph.

Notes

J.B. Holmes earned his fifth PGA TOUR title at Genesis Open and first since his playoff victory at the 2015 Houston Open. The win came in his 301st TOUR start at the age of 36 years, 9 months, 22 days.

With a first-round 8-under 63, J.B. Holmes held a one-shot 18-hole lead but entered the final round trailing Justin Thomas by four shots. Holmes became the second player of the 2018-19 season to come back from a deficit of four shots or more with 18 holes to play (first: Xander Schauffele/Sentry Tournament of Champions).

J.B. Holmes became the first player to record a hole-in-one (No. 6/R1) and go on to win since Dustin Johnson at the 2015 WGC-Mexico Championship.

Entering the final round with a four-shot lead, Justin Thomas became the first player since Paul Casey at the 2018 Travelers Championship to fail to convert a 54-hole lead of four strokes or more. It was the first time in Thomas' career that he failed to convert a 54-hole lead/co-lead to victory.

With a final-round 81, Jordan Spieth failed to break 80 for the third time on the PGA TOUR (82/R3, 2013 the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide; 80/R3, 2014 TOUR Championship; 81/R4, 2019 Genesis Open). Spieth recorded a double bogey, triple bogey and quadruple bogey in the same round for the first time in his PGA TOUR career.

Tiger Woods made a 43-foot, 10-inch eagle putt at No. 1 in the second round, marking the longest putt he had made on TOUR since the 2014 WGC-Mexico Championship. Woods (T15) made three eagles, the most in the field.

Defending champion Bubba Watson finished T15 at 6-under.

Due to weather, the first round was suspended and the decision was made to reset scores before resuming play. There were 10 groups on the course at the time of the reset and it was the first time a PGA TOUR event restarted a round since the 2013 Dell Technologies Championship (R3).

WEATHER: Thursday: Mostly cloudy with showers. High of 62. Wind SW 15-25 mph, with gusts to 30 mph. The first round began on schedule at 6:40 a.m. PT before weather caused a suspension of play at 7:30 a.m. Following the suspension of play, officials announced that play would remain suspended until at least 1 p.m. and all first-round scores would be reset. After a seven-hour delay, the first round restarted at 1:40 p.m. and was suspended due to darkness at 5:34 p

With a 16-foot birdie on the 72nd hole, Keith Mitchell won The Honda Classic by one stroke over Rickie Fowler and Brooks Koepka, for his first career PGA TOUR win in his 40th start at the age of 27 years, 1 month, 27 days.

Keith Mitchell's single-digit under-par winning score (9-under 271) became the first on the PGA TOUR in a non-major championship since Justin Thomas won The Honda Classic in 2018 at 8-under 272.

Rookie Wyndham Clark held the 54-hole lead for the first time in his career and finished T7 after a 2-over 72 in the final round.

Keith Mitchell joined Michael Thompson (2013), Y.E. Yang (2009), Mark Wilson (2007), Padraig Harrington (2005), Todd Hamilton (2004) and Matt Kuchar (2002) as players to earn their first TOUR win at The Honda Classic since 2000.

Vijay Singh posted a third-round 65 to earn a spot in Sunday's final pairing for the first time since 2012. At the age of 56, he finished sixth in his attempt to become the oldest winner in PGA TOUR history.

Former Honda Classic champion Rickie Fowler posted a 3-under 67 in the final round to finish one shot behind Keith Mitchell at 8-under 272.

Beginning the final round T39 and seven shots off the lead, Ryan Palmer opened with a 6-under 29 en route to a 7-under 63 (his lowest score by two strokes in 46 rounds at The Honda Classic) to finish T4 at 7-under 273.

Lucas Glover posted bookend 4-under 66s to finish T4 at 7-under 273, his third top-10 in 11 starts at The Honda Classic.

Notes

Francesco Molinari turned in the low score of the week in the final round with a bogey-free 8-under 64, highlighted by a 43-foot, 9-inch birdie putt on the 72nd hole, to win the Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by Mastercard by two strokes over 54-hole leader Matthew Fitzpatrick.

Francesco Molinari finished his final round at 4:23 p.m., more than 100 minutes before play concluded for the day. His closing 64 matched Rory McIlroy's winning final round from the previous year and was one stroke shy of low final-round by a winner at the event entering the week (63 / Gary Koch / 1984).

Francesco Molinari claimed his third PGA TOUR victory at the age of 36 years, 4 months, 2 days in his 132nd start. It marked his third win (2018 Quicken Loans National, 2018 Open Championship, 2019 Arnold Palmer Invitational) in a 12-start span on TOUR.

Francesco Molinari began the final round five strokes behind Matthew Fitzpatrick, marking the fifth come-from-behind victory in the last six years at the Arnold Palmer Invitational. By comparison, Molinari fell one stroke shy of tournament-best six-stroke comeback win entering the week by Tom Kite (1982) and Gary Koch (1984).

After a hole-in-one at the par-3 seventh in round one, Francesco Molinari became the second player of the season to make an ace and go on to win (J.B. Holmes / Genesis Open).

54-hole leader Matthew Fitzpatrick's runner-up in his 46th TOUR start earned him Special Temporary Membership on the PGA TOUR for the remainder of the 2018-19 season. The second-place finish topped his previous-best PGA TOUR finish (T7 at 2015 WGC-HSBC Champions and 2016 Masters Tournament).

For the first time, the Arnold Palmer Invitational offered three spots into The Open Championship at Royal Portrush (July 15-21). Three players who finished in the top 10 and ties who were not already exempt qualified: Sungjae Im (T3), Keith Mitchell (T6) and Sung Kang (T6).

Defending champion Rory McIlroy entered the final round one off Matthew Fitzpatrick's 54-hole lead before carding an even-par 72 to finish T6, four strokes behind champion Francesco Molinari.

Notes

Rory McIlroy won his 15th career PGA TOUR title at THE PLAYERS Championship, his first TOUR win in nearly a year. After starting the final round one shot off the lead, won by one shot over 48-year-old Jim Furyk, marking his eighth come-from-behind victory in a stroke-play event, in his 156th career start at the age of 29 years, 10 months, 14 days.

Rory McIlroy joined Tiger Woods and Henrik Stenson as players to win at least one FedExCup, THE PLAYERS, a major and a World Golf Championships event.

As the 15th international winner of THE PLAYERS, Rory McIlroy became the first player from Northern Ireland to win the event.

TPC Sawgrass marked the third Pete Dye-designed course Rory McIlroy won a PGA TOUR event on, including The Ocean Course at Kiawah Island (2012 PGA Championship) and 2012 BMW Championship (Crooked Stick Golf Club).

In the final round, Jim Furyk birdied Nos. 10-11 and 16 and 18 to close with a 67, good for a solo-second. With a win, he would have surpassed Funk as the oldest champion in tournament history.

After beginning the final round seven strokes back, England's Eddie Pepperell recorded five birdies on his closing nine to finish T3, the best performance among 22 first-time participants in the 2019 field.

Jhonattan Vegas (T3) made tournament history, recording the longest putt made on No. 17 with a 69-foot, 7-inch birdie putt.

THE PLAYERS Championship 2019 marked the first time since 2006 the tournament was played in March. There were 24 players in the 2019 field who competed in March, including winners Tiger Woods (2001, 2013) and Adam Scott (2004).

WEATHER: Thursday: Partly cloudy. High of 76. Wind SE 12-22 mph. Due to darkness, play was suspended at 7:52 p.m. ET with one player (Anirban Lahiri) remaining on the course. The first round was completed at 8:56 a.m. ET. Friday, Friday: Partly cloudy. High of 80. Wind S 10-18 mph. Saturday: Mostly cloudy. High of 66. Wind N 10-20 mph. Sunday: Cloudy with intermittent showers. High of 59. Wind N 8-22 mph.

Notes

Paul Casey became the first player to win the Valspar Championship in back-to-back seasons, recording a score of 8-under 276 to defeat Jason Kokrak and Louis Oosthuizen by one stroke. The victory was the third of Casey's PGA TOUR career in his 250th start at the age of 41 years, 8 months, 3 days.

Prior to Paul Casey's successful title defense at the Valspar Championship, the most recent player to go back-to-back at a PGA TOUR event was Brooks Koepka at the U.S. Open in 2017 and 2018.

Paul Casey was the third consecutive European winner on TOUR (Francesco Molinari/Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by Mastercard, Rory McIlroy/THE PLAYERS Championship, Casey/Valspar Championship). Europeans had not won on TOUR in three consecutive weeks since 2012 (McIlroy/The Honda Classic, Justin Rose/World Golf Championships-Mexico Championship, Luke Donald/Valspar Championship).

With the T2, Jason Kokrak collected his second consecutive and third career top-10 at the event. Kokrak's third-round 66, which tied the low round of the week, included an ace at the par-3 15th, the second hole-in-one of his PGA TOUR career. The tie for second represented his third career runner-up result on TOUR (2012 Safeway Open, 2016 Genesis Open, 2019 Valspar Championship).

Louis Oosthuizen tied Jason Kokrak for second, finishing one shot back of champion Paul Casey. The T2 was Oosthuizen's second top-10 at the event in his seventh start and eighth runner-up on the PGA TOUR (most recent: 2017 THE PLAYERS Championship).

Playing in the final group in the final round with eventual champion Paul Casey, Dustin Johnson shot a 74 to finish T6. The closing 74 snapped a career-long streak of 14 consecutive scores in the 60s and was Johnson's first round without a birdie since the 2017 World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions (R4). Johnson was making his third start at the event and first since 2010. In his PGA TOUR debut, 17-year-old Akshay Bhatia missed the cut at 4-over.

After 36 holes, the co-leaders were at 6-under and the cut was made at 1-over. The seven-shot difference between the lead and the cut was the smallest on the PGA TOUR since the 2017 Wells Fargo Championship (7).

Notes

After losing the Championship Match a year earlier to Bubba Watson, Kevin Kisner defeated Matt Kuchar, 3 and 2, in the final match at the World Golf Championships-Dell Technologies Match Play for his first career World Golf Championships title and third PGA TOUR victory in his 196th start at the age of 35 years, 1 month, 16 days. As the fifth player to play in the Championship Match in back-to-back years, became the first runner-up to win the following season. In the opening match, Kevin Kisner lost to Ian Poulter, 2-up, becoming the first player in tournament history to lose his opening match and go on to win the title.

Playing in the Championship Match for the second time in his career, 2013 winner Matt Kuchar finished runner-up as he sought to become the first player in his 40s to win the WGC-Dell Technologies Match Play.

Italy's Francesco Molinari defeated Denmark's Lucas Bjerregaard in the Consolation Match, 4 and 2, to finish alone in third place. At No. 7, Molinari was the highest seed to advance to the Quarterfinals.

In his eighth career PGA TOUR start, Lucas Bjerregaard gained worldwide attention for eliminating Tiger Woods in the Quarterfinals, 1-up.

Tiger Woods made his first start in the event since 2013, competing in the state of Texas for the first time since 2005. The three-time winner of the Dell Technologies Match Play advanced to the Quarterfinals for the first time since 2008, his most recent victory in the event.

Going head-to-head for the first time in match play on the PGA TOUR, Tiger Woods eliminated Rory McIlroy with a 2-and-1 victory in the Quarterfinals.

Of the top 16 seeds, five players advanced to the Round of 16: Justin Rose (2), Rory McIlroy (4), Francesco Molinari (7), Paul Casey (10) and Tiger Woods (13).

Five players went undefeated in Group Play matches: Branden Grace, Marc Leishman, Rory McIlroy, Francesco Molinari and Henrik Stenson.

For the third consecutive year, and fourth time in the last five years, the defending champion failed to advance out of Group Play.

Notes
Graeme McDowell collected his fourth career PGA TOUR title in his 215th start at the age of 39 years, 8 months, 1 day with a one-stroke win over Mackenzie Hughes and Chris Stroud at the Corales Puntacana Resort & Club Championship. McDowell matched Brice Garnett's winning score from 2018 (the inaugural event) of 18-under 270 with rounds of 73-64-64-69 at the Corales Golf Course.

With the win, Graeme McDowell became the fourth European winner on TOUR in as many weeks (Francesco Molinari/Arnold Palmer Invitational, Rory McIlroy/THE PLAYERS Championship, Paul Casey/Valspar Championship, McDowell/Corales Puntacana Resort & Club Championship), the longest such streak since 1970.

For the first time in four tries, Graeme McDowell converted a 54-hole lead/co-lead to victory on the PGA TOUR (previous results: T33/2011 THE PLAYERS, T2/2012 U.S. Open, T3/2014 WGC-HSBC Champions).

After a first-round 73, Graeme McDowell stood T81, the worst 18-hole position by a winner on the PGA TOUR since Satoshi Kodaira at the RBC Heritage (T82).

Chris Stroud finished T2 in his first start at the event, earning the second runner-up result of his PGA TOUR career. Stroud entered the final round trailing by one after a third-round 64, his first sub-65 score on TOUR since the 2016 Charles Schwab Challenge (64/R3).

Mackenzie Hughes (T2) closed with back-to-back 66s, recording a combined score of 132 or better in the final two rounds for the first time in his PGA TOUR career. Hughes played the par 4s in 10-under, best in the field, and carded 25 birdies, tying his career-high entering the week (2018 RBC Canadian Open).

Monday qualifier Chip MacDaniel shot a final-round 63 to tie the low score in the first two years of the event (Brice Garnett /R1/2018). With the top-10, MacDaniel earned a spot in the field at the following week's Valero Texas Open. The University of Kentucky alumnus was making just his second start on TOUR (T60/2018 Barbasol Championship).

Defending champion Brice Garnett finished T39 at 7-under 281.

Former Dallas Cowboys quarterback Tony Romo missed the cut after rounds of 79-80 in his second start on the PGA TOUR.

Notes

Tiger Woods won the Masters Tournament by one stroke to claim his fifth tournament title, 15th major championship crown and 81st PGA TOUR victory at age 43 years, 3 months, 15 days. With the win, Woods moved within one of Sam Snead's record for PGA TOUR wins and within three of Jack Nicklaus' record 18 major championships.

Only Jack Nicklaus in 1986 (46 years, 2 months, 23 days) had previously won the Masters at an older age than Tiger Woods, the seventh player in his 40s to win the event.

Tiger Woods entered the final round trailing Francesco Molinari by two strokes and had never previously come from behind after 54 holes to win a major.

11 years removed from his win at the 2008 U.S. Open, his most recent major championship, Tiger Woods became the first player since Ben Crenshaw (1984 Masters, 1995 Masters) to go 11 years or more between wins at majors. In addition, Woods recorded the victory 14 years after winning most recently at Augusta National Golf Club, the longest such streak through 83 editions of the event (previous: Gary Player/13).

With his fifth win at the event, Tiger Woods made the Masters the seventh PGA TOUR event at which he has collected five or more victories.

Dustin Johnson recorded his fourth consecutive top-10 at the event, closing with birdies on four of his last six holes to tie Brooks Koepka and Xander Schauffele for second. The T2 represented Johnson's best result in a major championship since winning the 2016 U.S. Open. For the first time in nine starts at the event, Johnson posted four under-par scores.

First- and second-round co-leader Brooks Koepka posted four under-par scores, highlighted by a first-round 66, to earn the runner-up, his first top-10 at the event. He played the par 5s in 13-under, tied with Tony Finau for best in the field.

Xander Schauffele's T2 marked his fourth top-10 result in his eighth major championship start (T2/2019 Masters Tournament, T2/2018 The Open, T6/2018 U.S. Open, T5/2017 U.S. Open). Led the field with 25 birdies, becoming the third player since 1980 to have 25 or more birdies in a single Masters, joining Phil Mickelson (25/2001) and Jordan Spieth (28/2015).

Francesco Molinari shared the 36-hole lead and held a two-stroke 54-hole lead before closing with a 2-over 74 to finish T5. Molinari had never previously finished better than T19 in seven starts at the event. He 49 consecutive holes without a bogey (No. 12/R1 through No. 6/R4), one shy of the tournament record entering the week (50/ Stuart Appleby/2001).

Five players (Jason Day, Brooks Koepka, Francesco Molinari, Louis Oosthuizen and Adam Scott) were tied for the 36-hole lead, the first time in Masters history that more than four shared the second-round lead. All five co-leaders were major championship winners.

Four amateurs advanced to the weekend, the most since 1999 (4). U.S. Amateur champion Viktor Hovland, at 3-under and T32, won the Silver Cup as low amateur, one stroke ahead of Alvaro Ortiz, winner of the 2019 Latin America Amateur and brother of PGA TOUR professional Carlos Ortiz.

For the first time in Masters history, 65 or more players made the cut (61 professionals, four amateurs).

Three 64s were shot in round three (Patrick Cantlay, Tony Finau, Webb Simpson), marking the first time three players had shot 64 or better in a single round at the Masters.

Two players recorded holes-in-one at No. 16 in the final round (Bryson DeChambeau, Justin Thomas), the 30th and 31st aces in tournament history.

Notes

After entering the final round trailing Dustin Johnson by two strokes, C.T. Pan posted a 4-under 67 to win the RBC Heritage by one stroke over Matt Kuchar for his first career PGA TOUR victory. The win came in Pan's 79th PGA TOUR start at the age of 27 years, 5 months, 9 days.

With the win, C.T. Pan became the 14th player to record his first PGA TOUR victory at the RBC Heritage and fourth straight (Branden Grace/2016, Wesley Bryan/2017, Satoshi Kodaira/2018, Pan/2019).

C.T. Pan's win marked the seventh straight come-from-behind victory at the event and just the second win on TOUR by a player from Chinese Taipei (1987 Genesis Open/T.C. Chen). In total, Pan became the 13th international winner of the RBC Heritage and fifth in the last eight years (Carl Pettersson/2012, Graeme McDowell/2013, Branden Grace/2016, Satoshi Kodaira/2018, Pan/2019).

Matt Kuchar, the 2014 RBC Heritage champion, finished one stroke behind C.T. Pan for his 12th runner-up finish on the PGA TOUR.

In search of his second PGA TOUR win, Shane Lowry posted a 1-under 70 in the final round to finish T3. Lowry opened the week with scores of 65-68 to hold the outright lead after each of the first two rounds.

Dustin Johnson entered the final round of the RBC Heritage with a one-stroke lead, but closed with a 6-over 77 to finish T28, eight strokes behind champion C.T. Pan. The 77 was Johnson's highest score since the third round of the 2018 U.S. Open. He led the field in Driving Distance (310.9 yards) as he sought to become the second South Carolinian to win the event (Wesley Bryan/2017).

2018 champion Satoshi Kodaira posted a final-round B2 to finish in 70th place in his title defense. Kodaira was hoping to become the fourth player to successfully defend an RBC Heritage title (Payne Stewart/1990, Davis Love III/1992 and Boo Weekley/2008).

Emiliano Grillo had an albatross on the fifth hole during the second round of the RBC Heritage, holing a hybrid from 254 yards. It marked the second time the feat had occurred at the RBC Heritage since 1983 (Nathan Green/2007/R2/No. 2).

WEATHER: Thursday: Partly cloudy. High of 77. Wind SSE 10-15 mph. Friday: Partly cloudy and windy. High of 76. Wind S 15-35 mph, with gusts to 40 mph. Play was suspended at 12:48 p.m. due to thunderstorms and resumed at 4:31 p.m. Play was suspended due to darkness at 7:47 p.m., with 56 players yet to complete their second rounds. Notes

Jon Rahm and Ryan Palmer teamed to win the Zurich Classic of New Orleans by three shots over Sergio Garcia/Tommy Fleetwood with a score of 26-under 262. The win for Rahm was his third on TOUR, while Palmer collected his fourth. The duo was the first to win by three shots or more since the event went to the team format in 2017.

Jon Rahm/Ryan Palmer sat T17 after a first-round 64 in Four-ball format but captured the solo-lead through 36 holes at 15-under following a 7-under 65 in Foursomes, the first score of 65 or lower at the event in that format.

Jon Rahm's only previous appearance in the event came in 2018 when he missed the cut with Welsey Bryan. Ryan Palmer was making his 11th start, having previously posted a top-five in the team format with Jordan Spieth (4th/2017).

Zurich ambassadors Sergio Garcia and Tommy Fleetwood finished second at 23-under 265. For Fleetwood, it was the second consecutive top-five at the event, pairing with Chris Paisley in 2018 for a T4. Garcia was coming off a missed cut in 2018 with partner Rafa Cabrera Bello.

Two teams tied for third, with Matt Every/K.H. Lee and Rory Sabbatini/Brian Gay finishing five shots back of the lead.

Kevin Kisner/Scott Brown finished T5 at 20-under with rounds of 62-69-68-69 at TPC Louisiana. Kisner recorded a hole-in-one with a 5-iron at the 201-yard third hole in the opening round (unofficial due to team format). The duo finished in the top 15 for the third time in the first three years of the team format at the event.

Scott Stallings/Trey Mullinax (T13) shared the 54-hole lead with Jon Rahm/Ryan Palmer before posting a final-round 77.

Defending champions Billy Horschel/Scott Piercy finished T13 at 18-under.

For the sixth time in a seven-year stretch, the Zurich Classic of New Orleans experienced a suspension of play.

Notes

Sung Kang won his first PGA TOUR title at the AT&T Byron Nelson, defeating Matt Every and Scott Piercy by two strokes. The victory came in his 159th start at the age of 31 years, 11 months, 8 days.

Sung Kang's second-round 61 tied Marc Leishman's opening score from 2018 for low 18-hole score in the first two years at Trinity Forest Golf Club. His score of 126 through two rounds was the 35th opening 36-hole score of 126 or better in PGA TOUR history.

With the win, Sung Kang became the 10th Korean-born player to win on TOUR and the second at the AT&T Byron Nelson (Sangmoon Bae/2013).

Matt Every tied Scott Piercy for second, finishing two shots back of Sung Kang. The runner-up marked Every's third on TOUR and his best finish at the event in four starts, having missed the cut in each of his previous three.

Notes

Patrick Cantlay earned his second PGA TOUR victory in his 78th career PGA TOUR start at the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide, firing a bogey-free 8-under 64 at Muirfield Village Golf Club to win by two strokes over Adam Scott.

The 64 by Patrick Cantlay, who entered the final round four shots back of the lead, marked the first sub-65 final-round score by a winner in tournament history.

Patrick Cantlay became the second former Jack Nicklaus Award winner (as 2011 top collegiate player) to also win the Memorial Tournament, joining Tiger Woods.

With rounds of 68-69-68-64, Patrick Cantlay was the only player to record four rounds in the 60s, becoming the 10th player to do so in the event's history. Cantlay ranked inside the top 10 in all six Strokes Gained categories.

Adam Scott shot 17-under to finish solo-second. The runner-up marked his fourth top-five in 12 starts at Muirfield Village. Scott played the par 5s in 12-under, tied for best in the field.

Leading by two entering the final round, Martin Kaymer posted an even-par 72 to finish solo-third, his best result on TOUR since winning the 2014 U.S. Open. Kaymer had not played the event since 2009 (T53).

Jordan Spieth opened with a 66 en route to a T7. Spieth earned his third consecutive top-10 on the PGA TOUR (T3/PGA Championship, T8/Charles Schwab Challenge, T7/The Memorial Tournament), a feat he had not accomplished since the start of the 2017-18 season.

Three past Memorial Tournament champions finished inside the top 10 (Hideki Matsuyama/6th, Jason Dufner/T7, Tiger Woods/T9).

Defending champion Bryson DeChambeau fired a final-round 6-under 66 to finish T22.

Notes

With a score of 16-under 264, Brooks Koepka earned his first World Golf Championships victory and seventh career PGA TOUR title at the World Golf Championships-FedEx St. Jude Invitational. Koepka entered the final round trailing Rory McIlroy by one stroke before firing a bogey-free 65 to win by three.

With the victory, Brooks Koepka clinched top honors in the Wyndham Rewards Top 10 and became the first three-time winner of the season. He had never won three times in a season before 2018-19.

Having won the 2019 PGA Championship, Brooks Koepka became the fifth player to win a World Golf Championships title and a major in the same season, joining Tiger Woods (eight times), Geoff Ogilvy (2006), Rory McIlroy (2014) and Dustin Johnson (2016).

Brooks Koepka became the first player to win on the PGA TOUR entering the week at No. 1 in the FedExCup standings since Bryson DeChambeau at the 2018 Dell Technologies Championship.

Highlighted by a final-round 6-under 64, Webb Simpson finished solo-second to claim his best result on TOUR since winning THE PLAYERS Championship in 2018. It represented his second career top-five in a WGC and first since the 2013 WGC-Dell Technologies Match Play (T5).

Marc Leishman followed a third-round 7-under 63 with a 67 in the final round to claim third place, his second career solo-third at the event.

Entering the final round with a one-shot lead, Rory McIlroy shot a 1-over 71 to finish T4. McIlroy's third-round 62 tied the low score of the week. McIlroy and Brooks Koepka had never played together in the final round on the PGA TOUR prior to Sunday's final round.

Defending champion Justin Thomas finished T12 at 6-under 274. Dustin Johnson, who won the 2018 FedEx St. Jude Classic at TPC Southwind, tied three others for 20th.

Collin Morikawa birdied four of his last five holes to earn his maiden PGA TOUR victory in sixth professional start at the Barracuda Championship. He became the first Special Temporary Member to win on TOUR since Shane Lowry at 2015 World Golf Championships-FedEx St. Jude Invitational.
 The victory marked Collin Morikawa's third consecutive top-five finish on TOUR. He became the fourth player on the season to win in his ninth career start or earlier, joining Cameron Champ, Adam Long and Matthew Wolff.
 Collin Morikawa became the fourth consecutive winner of the Barracuda Championship to earn his first career victory at the event.
 54-hole leader Troy Merritt's runner-up finish marked his best result in three appearances at the event after missed cuts in 2011 and 2017. It also marked his fourth top-10 finish of the season, his first time reaching that mark in his career.
 John Chin's T3 result was his first career top-10 on the PGA TOUR.
 36-hole leader Robert Streb's T3 marked his best finish of the season. He entered the week with three missed cuts in his last four starts.
 Playing on a sponsor exemption in his 10th TOUR start, Charlie Danielson (T7) added his second consecutive top-20 finish following a T15 at the 3M Open. The top-10 earned him a spot in the following week's Wyndham Championship.
 Tommy Gainey (T61) holed a pitching wedge from 154 yards at No. 7 in the opening round for his first hole-in-one on the PGA TOUR.
 With a five-point lead after a +18 score in round one, David Lingmerth became the first player to hold an 18-hole lead of five points or more since the tournament moved to the Modified Stableford scoring format in 2012. Lingmerth finished T48.
 John Daly (T65) made his first cut on TOUR since the 2018 Corales Puntacana Resort & Club Championship.
 Mark Wilson was disqualified before start of his final round for a breach of Rule 4.3 (use of equipment).
 Weather delays during the first two rounds marked the first suspensions of play at the Barracuda Championship since 2017 (R4).
 The Barracuda Bonus, a $50,000 charitable donation given in the name of the player(s) who collects the most Modified Stableford points on the par-5 18th hole over the course of the four competitive rounds, was shared by three players, each with nine points—Sebastian Munoz, Jim Herman and Will Gordon. One-half of the $50,000 goes to a charity or charities in the Reno-Tahoe area while the other $25,000 goes to charities of the players' choice.

The only player from the Republic of Ireland to win a major prior to Shane Lowry was Padraig Harrington. Brooks Koepka (T4) became the fifth player ever to finish in the top five at all four majors in a single year, joining Jack Nicklaus, Tiger Woods, Rickie Fowler and Jordan Spieth. Koepka over the top spot in the FedExCup standings for the first time in his career following the event.

Tommy Fleetwood earned a runner-up, his second career solo-second at a major championship (first: 2018 U.S. Open). At 12-under 201, Fleetwood became the first player in the history of The Open to be trailing after 54 holes with a score of 201 or better.

Playing on a sponsor exemption, Matthew Wolff claimed his first career PGA TOUR victory in his fourth start at the age of 20 years, 2 months, 23 days. Wolff holed a 26-foot, 1-inch eagle putt from off the green on the 72nd hole to win by one over Bryson DeChambeau and Collin Morikawa.

At age 20, Matthew Wolff became the first player since Jordan Spieth at the 2013 John Deere Classic to win on TOUR before his 21st birthday. Only eight previous wins in TOUR history came at a younger age.

With the victory, Matthew Wolff became eligible for PGA TOUR membership through the 2020-21 season and for the 2018-19 FedExCup Playoffs.

Matthew Wolff became the first player since Dustin Johnson at the 2018 FedExEx St. Jude Classic to win by holing a shot from off the green at the 72nd hole and the first player to win playing on a sponsor exemption since Billy Hurley III at the 2016 Quicken Loans National.

Only Bubba Watson and Tiger Woods had previously won the individual title at the NCAA Championships and a PGA TOUR event in the same year.

Bryson DeChambeau finished T2, holing an eagle putt at the 72nd hole to take the clubhouse lead before Entering the final round with a one-shot lead over Abraham Ancer, Patrick Reed carded a 2-under 69 to edge Ancer by one stroke and win THE NORTHERN TRUST for the second time in his career. The win, his seventh on the PGA TOUR, came in his 202nd start at the age of 29 years, 6 days.

The win moved Patrick Reed to No. 2 in the FedExCup standings and guaranteed him a spot in the season-ending TOUR Championship.

Patrick Reed converted the 54-hole lead/co-lead into a win for the fifth time in his seventh attempt on TOUR.

Patrick Reed became the seventh player to win multiple titles at the event and second to do so in the FedExCup era, joining Dustin Johnson.

Playing in the final pairing with Patrick Reed, Abraham Ancer shot a final-round 69 to finish runner-up by one stroke. The second-place result marked the first top-two finish of his PGA TOUR career.

Abraham Ancer entered the week at No. 67 in the FedExCup standings and moved to No. 8, clinching a spot in the TOUR Championship and on the International Team at the Presidents Cup.

After entering the week No. 102 in the FedExCup standings, Harold Varner III finished T3 to move to No. 29, a jump of 73 spots, the biggest improvement by any player in the field.

Jon Rahm tied Harold Varner III for third, his fourth top-five in his ninth career start in the FedExCup Playoffs.

Jordan Spieth shot a final-round 67 to finish T6, marking his lowest final-round score since the 2018 PGA Championship (66). With 21 putts in the final round, Spieth hit fewer than 22 in a round for the second time in his career (21/RI/2019 Genesis Open).

Dustin Johnson held the 36-hole lead before finishing T24. It was the 18th 36-hole lead/co-lead of Johnson's career and just the second time he failed to finish inside the top 10.

With the victory, 2017 FedExCup champion Justin Thomas claimed the No. 1 spot in the FedExCup, entering the TOUR Championship in the top spot in the standings for the first time in his career.

Three players who started the week outside the top 30 in the FedExCup standings moved into the top 30 to secure berths in the TOUR Championship: Hideki Matsuyama, Lucas Glover and Jason Kokrak. Shane Lowry, Andrew Putnam and Harold Varner III moved out and did not advance.

Patrick Cantlay birdied the final two holes to finish runner-up and move to No. 2 in the FedExCup entering the TOUR Championship. Cantlay's solo-second was his second of the season and first since the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open.

Hideki Matsuyama recorded two rounds of 63 (second and final) en route to a third-place finish. Matsuyama began the final round 10 shots off the lead.

Jason Kokrak birdied the 72nd hole to secure the 30th spot in the FedExCup standings and his first appearance at the TOUR Championship.

Needing a top-10 to qualify for the TOUR Championship, Tiger Woods finished T37 to end his season at No. 42 in the FedExCup. The week was highlighted by a bogey-free 5-under 67 in the third round, his first round on TOUR without a bogey since the third round of the 2018 BMW Championship at Aronimink.

Tony Finau (4th) failed to secure one of the eight automatic spots on the United States Team at the Presidents Cup. Finau entered the week needing a solo-third or better to qualify, as the top-eight players for each team were determined following the BMW Championship.

PGA TOUR rookie Sungjae Im finished T11 to move to No. 24 in the FedExCup standings, the lone rookie to qualify for the 2019 TOUR Championship.
